LOCAL CHURCH ANNUAL SESSION

Seventh Day Baptists Present Retiring Pastor With a Purse

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Much Interest Manifested in Meeting Held Yesterday—Supper Served at Six O'clock

The congregation of the Seventh Day Baptist church most graciously remembered the retiring pastor, the Rev. Edwin Shaw and Mrs. Shaw, at the annual meeting yesterday, presenting them with a purse of gold. Dr. Henry M. Maxson made the presentation speech which was happily responded to by Rev. Mr. Shaw. Mrs. Shaw was further surprised by the members of the Woman's Society for Christian Work who also gave her a similar gift. This was presented to Mrs. Shaw by the president of the society, Mrs. W. C. Hubbard.

Yesterday's meeting, which opened at 3:45 p. m., with a song service under the leadership of F. A. Langworthy, was very well attended. In the absence of George M. Clarke, the office of moderator was filled by W. C. Hubbard. The Rev. Theodore Gardner conducted the devotional exercises.

The business session included reports of the program committee submitted by Alexander Vars, chairman; trustees, Henry M. Maxson, secretary, and treasurer's report by William M. Stillman.

In the election of officers, Henry M. Maxson was elected to succeed himself as trustee; church clerk, Asa F. Randolph; treasurer, William M. Stillman; assistant treasurer, A. W. Vars; auditors, C. H. Dunham, and A. L. Titsworth; organist-choirmaster, Howard M. Case. Clarence W. Spicer was elected chairman of the ushers committee. Other matters transacted included reports of the music committee of which Chas. F. Titsworth is chairman.

At the every-member canvass held the soliciting committee, O. S. Rogers chairman, reported liberal contributions received through the pledge cards. An adjournment was taken for the supper hour.

The supper was served by a joint committee consisting of the Woman's Society and the C. E. Society of the church. Mrs. E. F. Champlin was the chairman. Nearly 200 attended this social affair.

The devotional services conducted by the Rev. Edwin Shaw opened the evening session. This included congregational singing. Rev. Edwin Shaw gave a summary of the year's work both of the church society and its auxiliaries. The presentations to the Rev. and Mrs. Shaw followed.

Letters from absent members many who reside in the Far West, were read by Mrs. Nathan Lewis. Dr. Maxson led the conference of "Recommendations for the Good of the Church," and the singing of "The Church's One Foundation" closed the session.

The occasion yesterday was the seventy-ninth annual meeting of the society. The committee in charge of the arrangements was: Chairman, A. W. Vars; Mrs. Vars, Miss Ethel Titsworth, Frank Langworthy and George M. Clarke.

The Rev. Mr. Shaw, who had been pastor of the local church, resigned his charge on January 1st to take up denominational duties in the Seventh Day Baptist Society. The local church has appointed a committee to select a pastor.

THE MEMBERS OF THE EDITH RUBEL TRIO

That the members of the Edith Rubel Trio, who will support the great Welsh tenor, Evan Williams, who will sing next Monday evening in the High school under the auspices of the Plainfield Dental Society for the benefit of the dental patients in Muhlenberg Hospital, are not personal at all but personalities, Edith Rubel is a radiant, and most enthusiastic young pianist.

Marie Romar, the 'cellist, is of Franco-Belgian ancestry, although she was born in America. She has often been invited to assist the famous Kneisel Quartette.

Branda Putnam is a sculptress with Academy and exhibition honors, besides being a pianist of no little distinction. Mr. Godowsky, the well-known pianist-pedagogue, said of her playing: "She is one of the finest women pianists in this country today."

LEAVES PULPIT FOR WAR WORK

Rev. Mebane Ramsay Resigns Charge of Watchung Memorial Church

GOES TO EUROPE

Appointed as Member of Princeton University Contingent for Christian Work Among Soldiers in War Zone

At yesterday evening's service at the Mary E. Wilson Memorial Union Church at Watchung, the pastor, Rev. Mebane Ramsay announced his resignation as pastor, to take effect at the end of this present month. Mr. Ramsay has been appointed a member of the contingent of Princeton University students and graduates who are to go to Europe for Christian work among the soldiers, under the auspices of the International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations. This delegation will take charge of some of the Y. M. C. A. huts in England, and perhaps also at the front in France.

The twenty men are to be supported in Europe by a fund of $15,000 raised by the University students for this work, and so each member will be assured of living expenses, and passage. The term of enlistment is for one year, but will cease if declared. In the case of an American army being sent over to Europe these men will be immediately transferred to the American forces, to serve in whatever capacity they are most needed, and meanwhile they will be having the best possible training for work either as chaplain, Y. M. C. A. worker, or actual soldier.

Though the actual date of sailing will of course not be disclosed to the public, it is expected some time in the forepart of May.

Mr. Ramsay is a graduate of the University of Omaha, receiving his A. B. from the Nebraska Institution in 1913. Two years later he received his M. A. degree from Princeton University, and in 1916 he was graduated from the Princeton Theological Seminary, receiving the B. D. degree, and being awarded the Gelston-Winthrop Fellowship in Apologetics, which will give him one year's advanced study in Europe, whenever conditions there will again permit. He was ordained in the spring of 1915 a minister of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and is a member of the Presbytery of Elizabeth. He is now twenty-four years of age, and Watchung is his first pastorate.

Mr. Ramsay has been pastor of the Watchung Church for two years, and was the first regular pastor the church had. The church was organized about three years ago, under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Read, of this city, who called its pulpit for a year. The church has shown marked increase within the last year, forty-four members having been added to the church since Mr. Ramsay's coming, thirty-five on profession of faith, and nine on letters from other churches. The church now has a membership of one hundred and seventeen. This increase is largely due to the substantial work of Dr. Biederwolf, for the influence of its wonderful revival has extended to all the surrounding communities of this city.

Mr. Ramsay said that it was with great reluctance that he had decided to sever his connections with Watchung, and recalled that it was his first pastorate, and that it was in Watchung that he performed his first wedding ceremony, his first baptism, and conducted his first communion. He paid high tribute to the people and to the officers of the church, and said that he did not expect to find in his after life a field that would afford him so much real joy in Christian work as had Watchung.

APOPLEXY FATAL TO HARRY C. NASH

Secretary and Treasurer of The State Trust Co. Stricken on Way to Business

Harry C. Nash, age 45 years, for the past four years secretary and treasurer of The State Trust Company, died suddenly yesterday at 132 East Ninth street. He had been in for the past three weeks, but had recovered and was on his way to the Trust Company Saturday to make arrangements for a trip to Atlantic City, when he was stricken with apoplexy. He was removed to his home and never regained consciousness.

Mr. Nash was born in Bloomfield, where he spent his early life. After being graduated from the Peekskill Academy he was employed for several years by Kountze Brothers, New York bankers, at which time E. F. Feickert, vice president of The State Trust Company, was connected with that concern. Later Mr. Nash engaged in the bond business for himself and four years ago became associated with The State Trust Company.

During his residence here he made many friends for himself as well as the banking concern with which he was connected. He was a member of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church and a regular attendant at the services.

He leaves his father, Charles P. Nash, of New Orleans; a sister, Miss Florence Nash, of New York, and a brother, Malcolm P. Nash, an officer in the U. S. Navy, whose present whereabouts is not definitely known.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, at the Westminster Presbyterian church, Bloomfield, and the burial will be in the Bloomfield cemetery.

HARTRIDGE SCHOOL FAIR IS A SUCCESS

Students Raise $570 With Which to Support Two Beds at Hospital

The annual fair held at the Hartridge school Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the students for the benefit of the fund raised to support two beds in Muhlenberg Hospital, was a great success. It is believed that at least $590 will be realized as profit from the affair. Of this amount $400 will be given for the support of the two beds and the balance will be held in reserve to supply from time to time such things as children patients may need. Since Christmas $100 has been expended in this way.

The school auditorium, where the fair was held, was attractively decorated, as was also the various booths and tables. Liberal patronage was accorded each one of the booths by the large number of people present, many New York commuters coming home early for that purpose. In addition to selling flowers, candy, fancy articles, dolls, toys and Easter gifts, a new feature was added in the sale of garden tools, baskets and bird houses which was popular with both old and young. Miss Emelyn B. Hartridge, head of the school, had general supervision of the fair, and was ably assisted by the faculty and all the students.

MILITIA MAY BE SENT AWAY SOON

Capt. Peterson of Company K Receives Orders to Stop Further Recruiting Here

SECRECY IS MAINTAINED

Rumors Reach Here That Entire Second Regiment May Go to Danish West Indies

Captain Charles A. Peterson, of Company K, Second Regiment, while in Plainfield yesterday attending to some personal affairs, received word from the Adjutant-General's office, Trenton, to stop further recruiting. There was no explanation given, but there was a rumor that the entire Second Regiment is to be sent away soon. The greatest secrecy is being maintained as to the movements of the soldiers, and if Captain Peterson has any knowledge as to where he and his men are likely to go, he is not at liberty to disclose the fact.

Many relatives and friends of the Plainfield soldiers went to Elizabeth yesterday, spending several hours at the armory, which was a lively place throughout the day. Naturally, the soldiers are all anxious to know where they are to be sent, but they will not learn this information until well on their way to the selected point.

The veterans of Company K will hold a meeting at the local armory tonight to devise ways and means for assisting the organization and affording any relief that may be necessary for the families of the men who have been called away. Quartermaster-Sergeant Alfred R. Tranchand and Corporal Stephen Mulwater are the only members of the company in this city. They are in charge of the armory. However, they are likely to be called to the colors at a moment's notice.

The movement started in behalf of securing a motor truck for the company is arousing considerable interest. A Plainfield man who does not wish his name used, today offered to be one of a number of men to give $100 toward a fund for that purpose.

A majority of the soldiers attended a religious service held yesterday under the auspices of the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A.

An interesting feature developed yesterday when it was learned that thirteen of the guardsmen had entered a mustache raising contest and according to the agreement they report each morning to Corporal Miller. Some of the boys who are slightly under weight have adopted a banana and milk diet, this combination being guaranteed as a flesh-producer. Those who are now on this diet comprise "Bob" Dent, Col. Tunison, Privates Smalley, Miltenger and Milliken.

Company K now has a real mascot in the form of a white dog, presented to the organization by an Elizabeth lady. The dog was promptly named "K."

ALL READY FOR WAR RELIEF MEETING

Rabbi Wise, Mayor Calkins, Dr. Strong and Dr. Zelie Will Speak

The final meeting of the committee in charge of the Jewish War Relief campaign in this city, held its meeting yesterday afternoon, when the soliciting committee reported that a goodly number of subscriptions had been secured from Hebrews of this city and North Plainfield.

It was announced that Moses Levy, of Omaha, Nebraska, has notified the national committee that he will give $100 for over $1,000 that is contributed for the relief of the war sufferers.

Judge Newcorn, chairman of the relief committee, stated that he would appoint a reception committee to look after the comfort of those who attend the mass meeting which Rabbi Wise will address in Columbus auditorium tomorrow night. Mayor Calkins, Rev. Philip H. Strong and Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, will also address the meeting. Judge Newcorn will preside.

Persons to the meeting a luncheon will be served to Rabbi Wise at the Waldorf Hotel, East Front street.

"The campaign we are conducting and the whole hearted response which we have received from the citizens of Plainfield and North Plainfield," said Judge Newcorn, "is convincing proof that the American people are in sympathy with those who are suffering privations in Europe because of the war.

"There has been so much suffering on the other side of the Atlantic that it is difficult to show that one class is in more dire straits than another but they are all entitled to our assistance.

"What the citizens of the United States have done in a benevolent way for the peoples of the warring nations must endear us to them in the years to come. An appreciation of our role as the good Samaritan must also bring blessings upon us."

By United Press:

PROFITS FROM SURROGATE'S OFFICE

Somerset County Received $17,876.18 in Four Years

Some interesting statistics have been prepared by Surrogate Calvin D. McMurtry of Somerset county regarding the number of wills probated and administrations granted for the past three decades. In the year 1886 there were 55 wills admitted to probate and administrations granted on 36 estates. In 1896 there were 59 wills probated and 49 administrations granted. Ten years later, 1906, the wills number 74 and the administrations 58, and in 1916 the wills probated jumped to 99 and the administrations to 62.

Surrogate McMurtry also reports that in the year 1916 he handled 72 inventories, 54 accountings, 24 guardianships and 10 land sales for the payments of debts.

Until the year 1908 the office was conducted on the fee system, so that it is impossible to compare the receipts of the office for that earlier period. Notwithstanding the fact through the operation of the law of 1914 reducing the fees on small estates, and doing away of all fees on estates of less than $160, the receipts are continually increasing.

During the year 1916, they amounted to $12,055.39, which amount includes the five per cent. allowance in inheritance tax of $2,656.23, paid by estate.

The salaries amounted to $3,700, with an additional expense which amounts to approximately $250 for printing, books and stationery. The office shows a net gain to the county of about $8,195.39 for the year.

Notwithstanding the steady increase in the volume of business the work of the office is still handled by the same force as was employed when the office was on the fee system.

Surrogate McMurtry personally supervises every detail of the work, and he is ably assisted by his deputy, John Zundt. The daily work of the office is never allowed to lag. Mr. McMurtry makes it a rule that when a will is probated or an administration granted before 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon to have copies prepared and ready to mail before the office closes for the day. This practice is kept up even if it necessitates working after hours, for then the surrogate and his deputy have the satisfaction of knowing that the work is kept right up to the minute, and this has proven to be a great accommodation to those having business with the office.

The receipts of the office for four years ending Jan. 31, 1917, were...	$25,891.55
Five per cent. transfer inheritance tax paid....	7,185.23
Total	$33,076.78
Salaries and expenses...	15,200.00
Net profit to the county	$17,876.78

BOROUGH FIREMEN EXTINGUISH TWO FIRES

Two alarms on Saturday afternoon kept the Borough Fire Department busy. The first run was to the J. W. Buttfield property, Rockview Heights where a grass fire was raging. The flames had reached the barn and the roof was afire when the department arrived. They extinguished this blaze and were back to the house when the second still alarm was received from C. W. Roan's home on Farragut road. This was another grass fire that destroyed a fence on the property before it was extinguished.

Chief McCullough and his men were in readiness last night to fight the fire on the Watchung mountains as for a time it looked very threatening.

POLITICAL CREED OF WILLIAM DELAROCHE

Statesman From the Watchung Hills Tells What He Stands For

William Delaroche Anderson, of Watchung, has announced himself a candidate for the Republican Senatorial nomination in Somerset county, provided the people of that subdivision of the State desire a man who stands for the political creed, which Mr. Anderson offers as his guide in public matters.

What does he stand for? Let us introduce Mr. Anderson, and let him tell his own story. He says:

I am absolutely opposed to public extravagance and the ever increasing public debt, which is the cause of constantly higher taxes.

With the world war-mortgage to the hilt, with reconstruction burdens inevitable, to continue as at present will ensure financial disaster, if not to ourselves, to our children.

I feel that serious days are ahead of us.

I believe that this is the time for foresight not hindsight, and that it is the time to conserve our public means as we do our private means.

To remedy present conditions and provide for the future will be required necessary legislation, framed with the necessary special knowledge of what these conditions are and what can be done to remedy them in a way that will assure the future.

If the people of Somerset county agree with me in these matters and consider that my study, practice and profession of public economy and efficiency, my legislative experience, my municipal experience, gained by service in all departments, my record for successful practice of public economy both in the State and in municipality, my pledge of remedial effort is of sufficient value to warrant them in supporting me as their candidate for the office of State Senator, then I shall be glad to become a candidate for that office in order that I may have the position of influence necessary to accomplish real results.

LILLIAN HARVEY IN SOMERVILLE JAIL

Lillian Harvey, colored, of North Plainfield, is a prisoner in the Somerset county jail at Somerville, having been taken there from Flemington where she was arrested on Saturday afternoon.

The authorities want to learn from her how the body of a child happened to be in a room which she occupied in a North Plainfield residence, and which was discovered on Friday last when offensive odors permeated the house and a thorough search of the premises was made.

The body of the child was disposed of by the authorities. The woman had left town, and it was thought that she had gone to Somerville, but County Detective Totten, of that place, learned that she came to North Plainfield from Flemington and he went there and caused her arrest.

FIRST FIELD HOSPITAL PREPARED FOR SERVICE

In anticipation of being called into the Federal service the First Field Hospital Company, with headquarters in the Second Regiment Armory, Elizabeth, is recruiting up to full war strength, which is 87 officers and enlisted men. The field hospital is a mobile unit and has a capacity for taking care of 216 patients in the field. The company is now under the temporary command of Captain Anthony Leamy, a local physician.

The work of preparing the field hospital's equipment has been under way for several weeks. The organization recently received new tentage and other necessary field supplies. The company had nearly four months' service on the Mexican border, where the officers and men received much beneficial training that will now stand them in good stead. The command returned from the border the middle of last October.

PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION

At the hour of the Congressional assembly in Washington—at noon today—the six hundred and fifty pupils of St. Mary's preparatory, grammar and commercial school, gathered about the flag-staff on the Fifth street school grounds and sang the "Salutation to the Flag." In a few words of patriotic fervor, Father Bogan addressed the assembled pupils and with an impressiveness befitting the occasion translated the language of the flag, and explained the deep significance of the coming Congressional action.

"Never forget, my trusted young Americans, the lessons of patriotism you have learned daily in your classrooms. There, ever above your eyes the flag of your country is uplifted, and always remember that other symbol of the Friend of Humanity, whose bruised arms are outstretched above it in approving benediction, telling in language whose thrilling eloquence you well can understand that no boy or girl who obeys the law of right conduct need ever fear the blood-test of patriotism."

As the flag flew to the peak, six hundred and fifty voices sang "The Star Spangled Banner." With impassioned reverence, Father Bogan recited "Banner of America" and "America First," two inspiring patriotic poems.

VESPER SERVICE HELD TO MARK ANNIVERSARY

An interesting vesper service in preparation for the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Y. W. C. A. was held at the association building yesterday afternoon. Mrs. F. G. Mead, who was president of the association during its first nine years, gave a short talk reviewing what had been accomplished and comparing the activities of the earlier days with the present.

Mrs. C. G. Swineburne, of the national board, then spoke on the subject of "Anniversaries," in which she told of her trip throughout the country last year when she visited the various associations. The meeting was followed by a tea and social hour. The members of the basketball team of the Easton, Pa., association, which played the local team Saturday night, remained over for yesterday's service.

Miss Irene Dessewffy, aged 17 years, of Roselle, died in the Elizabeth General Hospital last night, as the result of injuries sustained earlier in the evening, when she was hit by an automobile owned and driven by Edmund Sinclair Williamson, of Newark.

Miss Dessewffy, with two companions, were walking on St. George's avenue, Roselle, when Mr. Williamson came along in his machine. According to his statement he quickly applied the brake to his car to avoid running into the trio and his machine upset. Williamson was held in $1,500 bail pending a further investigation. The dead girl's companions were both slightly injured.

One of the attendants at the wedding was Miss Mary Warren of this city, a cousin of the bride. Robert H. Cox, also of Plainfield, was an usher.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Warren, of this city, were among the guests who attended the ceremony and reception at the bride's home.

The wedding was advanced two months because of the danger of war. Upon the couple's return from a short wedding trip the bridegroom will take his final examination as an officer of the reserve army.

SACRED CANTATA AT GRACE CHURCH

Grace church was filled to its capacity last evening by a congregation that greatly enjoyed the sacred cantata, "The Message from the Cross."

The sweet strain of the opening number was sung by W. J. Tallamy, tenor, who also sustained the numbers following the recitatives. Mr. Tallamy was never in better voice and his sympathetic singing was peculiarly suited to the character of the cantata.

The baritone numbers were sung by John B. Richards in splendid voice. He sang the recitatives, "And they that passed by reviled Him;" "Father, forgive them," "One of the thieves," and "When Jesus therefore saw his Mother," with fine appreciation of the tragic scene and his rendering of the "Last Four Words, was in touching contrast to the earlier parts.

Both Mr. Tallamy and Mr. Richards were well sustained by the chorus.

The Rev. Dr. W. S. Chase, of Christ church, Brooklyn, preached an eloquent sermon at the morning service.

WEDDED IN ELIZABETH; WILL RESIDE HERE

Miss Anna Schwartzbach, of Elizabeth, and Charles Kurtzman, of this city, were married last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Schwartzbach, Third avenue, that city. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of friends including many from this city. The couple were the recipients of beautiful gifts. After a wedding collation Mr. and Mrs. Kurtzman left on a honeymoon to be enjoyed at Atlantic City. Upon their return they will reside in the new home which Mr. Kurtzman has purchased on West Fifth street.

NECESSARY AID FOR DEPENDABLES

Volunteer Auxiliary Reorganized to Look After Welfare of Families of Company K

With the departure of Company K, Second Regiment, from the city, steps have been taken to reorganize the Volunteer Auxiliary, which was in existence during the stay of Troop D at Douglas, Arizona, for the purpose of giving such aid as may be necessary to the dependable families of the soldiers. George P. Mellick who was the head of the auxiliary, has already been in touch with other members, and everything possible will be done for the families of Company K boys, as was the case with Troop D.

The fact that the local guardsmen have been called into active service has served to arouse great interest here. It is regretted on the part of many that it was not known sooner that Company K was to leave town, and thus afford the people an opportunity to give the soldiers a proper "send off."

It is also being urged that the people of Plainfield respond in greater numbers to the appeal for funds for the Home Defense League. The members are unselfishly giving their time to training for the protection of Plainfield and its citizens and more interest is needed. Montclair contributed $8,000 for a similar purpose and East Orange raised $40,000 to support its defense league, and it is hoped that Plainfielders will do their share.

CHOIR RENDERS STAINER'S "CRUCIFIXION"

The quartet choir of the First Methodist church, augmented by other singers, splendidly rendered the Stainer-Tenten cantata "Crucifixion" last evening.

The oratorio was given under the direction of the organist and director, C. A. Brader, and was given in fifteen parts.

Those taking part in the rendition of this sacred cantata were: Laura Gustafson, soprano; Leila Watson, soprano; Grace Horaby, contralto; Esther Hofer, contralto; Alexander MacGowan, tenor; Elmer Cutting, tenor; Edgar Cole, baritone, and William Smith, baritone.

PENFIELD BRINGING A PEACE MESSAGE?

Special to the Courier-News:

Amsterdam, April 2.—Regarding the report that F. C. Penfield, the American ambassador to Austria-Hungary, is on his way to Washington at the call of President Wilson, semi-official despatches published in the Vorwaerts, state that the belief in Vienna is that the visit is for the purpose of laying before the American people the proposals of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, for peace.

The newspaper expresses what it insists is the general hope of the Central Powers that through the utterances of Count Czernin, there will be a general conference of the belligerents at which terms for peace, honorable for all, can still be brought about, and; it is, thought, that Ambassador Penfield is provided with arguments that will induce President Wilson and the American Congress to use their influence with the Entente Allies to make such a conference possible.

TROLLEYS IN COLLISION; PASSENGERS GET SHAKEUP

Two eastbound trolleys, one a Union car and the other a "trailer" were in collision on West Front street, near the Sauret plant, last night. The Union car had stopped to take on passengers when the "trailer" bumped into the rear of it. No one was injured.

The motorman of the "trailer," it is said, was watching an automobile which was running close to his car and failed to notice that the trolley ahead had stopped. The front end of the "trailer" was considerably damaged.

URGES AMERICANS TO BE PATRIOTIC

Rev. Franklin Clark Preaches Stirring Sermon at Holy Cross Church

Rev. Franklin J. Clark, of New York, preached a sermon appropriate to Palm Sunday at Holy Cross Episcopal church, yesterday morning, in which there was a strong note of patriotism. After reviewing the important incidents in connection with Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, Mr. Clark emphasized the point that a person should not only make every effort to save his own soul, but the souls of others.

By way of illustration, Mr. Clark said that so it should be with all true Americans; they should not only do all in their power to save themselves, but defend their country from the attack of a foreign foe. This declaration found a responsive chord in the hearts of all present.

During the service Russell Bliss sang "The Palms" as a solo, and there was appropriate music by the choir. The American flag, which was presented to the church by Mrs. Helen Wood, and which was consecrated on Saturday by Rev. H. St. G. Burrill, the rector, occupied a prominent place just inside the Washington avenue entrance to the edifice.

LOCAL DEBATERS AGAIN SUCCESSFUL

Despite the fact that they upheld the negative side of the question, "Resolved, That the United States should maintain a large army and navy," James Smith, of St. Peter's College, and "Joe" Gallagher, of this city, representing the Union County Federation of Help Name Association, defeated the Bergen county debaters at Ridgefield Park yesterday afternoon. James Burns and Leo Bicher, both of Hackensack, represented Bergen county.

The victory earned by the local young men was entirely unexpected and the decision seemed to be a popular one with the large audience. In view of the fact that the United States faces a serious crisis, the local debaters waived all of their arguments and stated that if the "Stars and Stripes were to be dishonored" they wanted war. The applause which followed this remark lasted for two minutes. By virtue of this victory, the Union County Federation has been awarded the championship of the Inter-County League and will be presented with a pennant in Newark on April 15. It is very likely that this pennant will come to Plainfield inasmuch as the young men of St. Mary's Literary Society of this city captured three of the victories credited to this county.

Stating that they were absolutely unpacific and urging adequate "preparedness," the local debaters departed from the usual course of the negative argument on this subject and intimated that they were willing to sacrifice victory on the altar of "Patriotism." "Loyalty to the flag, without resorting to European militaristic extremities was the keynote of the negative argument. A musical program, including an address by Very Rev. Dean Conselee, of Hackensack, concluded the afternoon's exercises. Former Assemblyman John J. Johnson, of Bergen county, was chairman of the debate.

BIBLE CLASS TO MEET

The Matlack Bible Class of the First Baptist church will combine its meeting tomorrow night with the class supper, which will be held between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock.

Commercial Problems Growing Out of War Conditions

A Non-Technical Explanation of the Big Questions Confronting Business Men at This Time.

By SAMUEL WANT

The Relation Of The League To Enfore Peace To American Business.

As pointed out in the preceding article there has grown out of the European conflict a purely American conception of international force for the purpose of reducing to a minimum the danger of future wars. The plan, credited to Theodore Marburg, of Baltimore, Maryland, and Hamilton Holt, of New York, is embodied in the purposes of an organization known as the League to Enforce Peace, of which Ex-President Taft is the active head.

The purposes of the League, as thus far outlined, are to create an international police force which will be charged with the duty of preventing a resort to arms after the close of the present war until the matters in controversy have been first submitted to a Court of Arbitration or Conciliation for adjustment. It is not proposed to attempt to prevent future wars altogether. The plan simply attempts to accomplish that result, as nearly as possible, by prohibiting a resort to arms in the heat of a controversy without a prior appeal to an impartial tribunal created for the settlement of international disputes.

The League's plan contemplates the establishment of a Court of Arbitration for the settlement of such disputes between nations as are susceptible of adjudication in that manner. Another tribunal, to be known as the Court of Conciliation, is provided to hear controversies on questions which the nations do not regard as justiciable in the ordinary way, such as matters of honor, and peculiar national problems such as the Monroe Doctrine, naturalization problems, etc.

The international police force intended to be created will prevent a resort to arms before one of the above methods has been resorted to. It will not prevent a resort to arms if the work of the tribunal employed proves unacceptable to the contesting parties.

A slight extension of the purposes of the League along lines to be indicated in succeeding articles would render it an extremely useful instrument in securing a recognition of the rights of neutral commerce, whether or not the primary purposes of the League as above outlined are brought to fruition.

GERMANY'S EXTREMITY

It has taken a good many centuries for Germany to realize that the day would come when the absolute monarchy would be shown to be obsolete and that the enslaving of humanity of the same flesh and blood as the enslavers is a relic of the dim distant past—of the Dark Ages—and has no place among the people of an enlightened world. Russia has waked up, and her people, far less enlightened than those of Germany, have spoken. Result: The banishment of the Czar and organization of a democracy. Now Germany is waking and her people want to know why, besides having been enslaved by autocratic authority for many centuries, they are asked not only to suspend the right to human liberty and give life in a war in which they had no say, willy nilly, the cause of which they do not even know, and only because they are told they are fighting for "My Emperor." They are beginning to ask, as the mutilated bodies of their fathers, sons and brothers are brought home from the terrible carnage wrought by engines of torture, which are the refinement of devilish ingenuity, or are left unbared for in the trenches, who this Emperor is who has grown so great and who claims authority over the bodies and souls of his subjects. This query has occasioned a great unrest in Germany, as the people are beginning to find out that they have been kept very much in the dark about what has been going on about the world, and that they have been grossly deceived as to vital matters about which they should know. This feeling is now threatening the stability of the house of Hohenzollern, and the powers that be are hastening to pacify the people with "sops to Cerberus" in the way of offers of political privileges to them. These people are intelligent enough, however, if ever they are aroused to a true understanding of the situation, to reject pacificatory sops which are further intended to close their eyes to the privileges of human beings and further to entrench the autocratic rulers in their haughty domination over a people who by right of humanity are their equals.

SHALL WE ALL FLY?

A news dispatch from St. Petersburg, Fla., reports that a Portland, Me., woman, age 67, has just gone up 1,500 feet in an aeroplane. From some of the winter resorts the news comes that many of the women guests are going up with aviators almost daily. Is the time drawing near when we shall look on an air trip as no more of an event than a ride in an automobile? For some of us cautious people that day is some distance off. If you are rolling along in your automobile at 20 miles an hour and the motor breaks down you merely have a disagreeable hour while some one runs to the nearest telephone and gets the nearest garage. If the same thing happens in your aeroplane you are quite fortunate if you merely get to the hospital instead of the cemetery. No motor that man can ever invent will be perfectly secure against stopping in mid-air. Then it comes down to the question whether a machine can be so equipped and handled that it can descend safely on a still engine. One admires the courage of our friend of 67 who enjoyed that quarter of a mile trip, but many of us would rather saw wood.

STILL THE "PIFFLE"

Mr. Bryan, erstwhile member of President Wilson's cabinet, but now happily not, still believes in his grape juice policy toward war and his famous flagship, "The Piffle," for the navy. From his retreat in Florida, where he went to study peace in the solitudes of the glades and in the social whirl of Miami, where the idle rich live a season of one sweet song, he essays to wire advice to Congress, on which President Wilson is depending for authority to place our nation in a state of safety so that Mr. Bryan, as well as the rest of us, may still be allowed to pursue our ways with honor, dignity and ultimate peace. His advice, however, is of little value to Congress, and is, as usual, with what he has said in many moons past, anything but a stimulus to patriotic sentiment among the American people. If he knew how little the red-blooded American citizen cares for his sentiment about the present crisis, he would have the grace to keep quiet. But his own voice has often deafened his ears to a good deal that as an American citizen he might have heard with an American's appreciation.

NO SENTIMENT IN WAR

The soldier who dies fighting in defense of his home, his country and the principles of freedom dies no more surely than the innocent child, the defenseless mother and the unarmed father who may beg for mercy when there is no mercy from the death-dealing torpedo or the insidious mine, but he has the satisfaction of having made some show of resistance against a foe which would annihilate his family as well as himself, and he leaves behind him a name of which those who come after him may be proud. The lack of defense is no assurance of immunity from war, but, on the other hand, an incentive to attack by nations which have no sympathy with "boobs" that are not prepared for defense.

"What's the mercy despots feel?
Hear it in that battle peal.
Read it on yon glistening steel.
Ask it, ye who will."

PEOPLE'S FORUM

Emergency Peace Federation

To the Editor of the Courier-News:

Doubtless all your readers in the past week have seen the full-page advertisements in the New York newspapers over the name of the Emergency Peace Federation. The gist of the advertisements is that "we have not yet exhausted all the reasonable alternatives to ruinous war." The unexhausted alternatives they detail as follows:

"A joint high commission in accordance with agreements adopted at the Hague convention.

"A conference of neutrals.

"The declaration of London regarding the laws of naval warfare.

"An appeal to the belligerents for a congress to discuss a basis for permanent peace." This the United States congress has actually authorized our President to do.

The only objection that can be made to the above statement is that it is not true.

The advertisement would have one believe that there is an international court called the Joint High Commission, to which injured America could appeal and find protection as a citizen of New Jersey can in our State courts when a felonious attack has been made upon him.

But there is no such court. The Hague conferences of 1899 and 1907 provided for several institutions for settlement of disputes when both parties consented to submit them, but having no power to enforce an award. There is today no "Joint High Commission" or other court that can compel a sovereign State to appear before it or to keep the peace. This war was begun by a court refusal to the request of Serbia to arbitrate the demands made upon it by Austria and the urgent requests of the then principal neutrals of Europe for a few days' delay to arrange for a conference were blocked by Germany, and their requests treated with contempt. Why talk now about "Joint High Commission" or a conference of neutrals? What more futile.

As to the declaration of London, in 1909 the representatives of the principal nations met in London and drafted a proposed code to regulate the conduct of naval affairs. That declaration has not been ratified by all the powers and therefore is not international law any more than is an unsigned bill on the Governor's desk.

Furthermore, this declaration does not contain a single provision to which we could appeal to compel Germany to observe peace. Mostly it is a set of rules for naval fighting, just as the Marquis of Queensberry rules are for the prize ring. And one of the first acts of Germany after the war began was to do precisely what this declaration would forbid. Since then Germany's conduct has been a complete ignoring of what the Declaration of London would establish in naval warfare. In fact, we are being brought into the war because Germany has trampled under foot every provision of the law of nations that has stood in her way. Are the law-breaker to obey the law? We have been doing that for two years. Do the courts of New Jersey obtain obedience to the law in that way?

The last statement is still more futile and misleading than the others. If Congress has authorized the President to do something that might bring the war to an end, and he has not done it, the peace federation does wrong in not giving the facts to the rest of us. But the wonder is how such information could lodge only with the federation and the rest of the people know nothing about it. It should also be remembered that December 22 last the President addressed a note to the belligerents, asking them to define terms of peace and that Germany failed to give any.

Germany is making war upon the United States. Its Chancellor last week publicly announced there would be no change in its policy. In such case efforts to embarrass the President and Congress deserve the condemnation of every citizen, for they are no less than moral treason.

Wants Peace

Vernal J. Williams has sent the following letter to Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen:

412 East Third Street,
March 31, 1917.

Honorable Jos. H. Frelinghuysen,
The Senate House,
Washington, D. C.

My Dear Mr. Senator:—As an American by adoption, faithful to American ideals, loyal to those principles and institutions of true American democracy, I beg leave to take herein the opportunity afforded in the rights of a citizen to appeal to you in this hour of a grave crisis.

Concerned you will be called upon to join your voice in deciding whether or not this nation should participate in the terrible conflict which is now despoiling Europe.

As an American citizen, I, too, protest against any infringement upon American rights on sea and on land. I, too, raise a voice in solemn condemnation against any nation who even attempts to unlawfully trample upon these principles of justice, liberty and humanity for which we stand. Yet, Mr. Senator, I realize that our Government has not yet exhausted every possible means and alternative short of declaring war upon Germany. I realize that we have not yet employed those principles in the Declaration of London which we sanctioned. We have not yet resorted to mediation, nor have we sought that Joint High Commission of inquiry proposed at the Hague and ratified by us.

In view of these facts, I feel it my highest right to ask that you use every influence and power you possibly can in keeping this country out of the threatening war. Remember, Mr. Senator, that you face your task not unsupported by that section of the American community which you represent. Remember, too, that the great majority of the American people do not want war. The slight few who clamor for war are willful men, upon whose shoulders will rest no condemnation should war come. Those who are opposed to war are your unlettered fellows upon whom will be left the great burden of conflict and who must go forth to suffer even though entirely ignorant of the real issues. We will fight if we must, but there must be real cause.

May I not ask you also, for the sake of our mothers and our babes, that if the Congress of the United States does decide that we have a just cause for war, to use your greatest influence in having an advisory referendum submitted to the American people in order that the scourge of war and the guilt of bloodshed may not rest upon your head nor upon the head of your colleagues.

Hoping that this humble petition, as a part of the nation's plea for peace, may in all its humility play a useful role in averting war and preserving international comity from further destruction. I remain,

Very humbly yours,
VERNAL J. WILLIAMS.

SCHOOLS FOR WAR USES

The action of the Board of Education in tendering to the Mayor the widest use of the public schools of the city to further the work of preparedness for impending war meets with universal approval. Apart from the work of education, there is no better service to which the school buildings may be devoted at this time. And they will be convenient as well as appropriate places of assembly, whether to expedite organization for home defense, to encourage recruiting for military or naval service, or to prepare for Red Cross activities.

This act of the board comes at a time when it may be accepted as an added refutation to that already given to an attack made upon the loyalty of the school children of the city, through the medium of a circulated story representing a class in revolt when called upon to sing the national anthem. The tale was a libel of the absurd sort, and it was promptly and thoroughly scotched before it wrought damage that could not be repaired.—Newark Evening News.

ARGENTINA SUPPORTS CARRANZA EMBARGO PLAN

(By Charles P. Stewart, United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Buenos Aires, April 2.—General Carranza's proposal that the neutral countries cut off supplies from the belligerent nations unless the latter make peace terms has many supporters in official circles here.

The officials who favor the Mexican first chief's plan say they do not believe it was dictated to him by the Germans. Even so, however, they declare they want to see peace restored and do not particularly care whether this is accomplished by pro-German, by pro-ally or by entirely neutral influence.

A large South American element objects to an out-and-out victory by either of the European groups. They view is that South America will suffer if either side should gain a complete monopoly of South American trade.

The suggestion that the United States would furnish competition in either case is held to be a distant prospect on the ground that it will take the United States some time to build up an adequate mercantile marine, if she ever does.

HOPE CHAPEL NOTES

Visitors of the Home Department will hold an annual session at the chapel this evening.

Evangelistic services will be held each evening this week, with the single exception of Saturday evening.

Passion Play stereopticon pictures are to be featured at the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evening services.

The annual congregational meeting will follow the Thursday evening session. Special matters of importance will come before the meeting at that time, including a report on the possibility of securing a new site for the institution. Two members for the board of trustees and a church treasurer are also to be elected at this meeting.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY

WHY SPRING COLDS ARE DANGEROUS

If Neglected They Lead to Serious, Perhaps Fatal Results

If you get cold at this time of year and try to "let it wear off," it frequently develops into a stubborn throat trouble, which may in turn become chronic asthma, bronchitis or worse. It is important to remember that Father John's Medicine relieves colds because of its nourishing, body-building elements, which give strength to the system and enable each organ to resume its normal functions. Father John's Medicine is not a patent medicine, contains no injurious drugs, but is a pure food medicine, for those who are weak and run-down.

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up a corn so it lifts out

Tens of corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once and soon the corn loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A quarter of an ounce of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue or skin.—Adv.

Rippling Rhymes

The Spring Stunt

The winter's left me feeling faint, but when I've got my wind, I'll buy a quantity of paint, all ready mixed and tinned. And while you talk of war's alarms, and grind your saber true, my house will have some added charms; I'll paint it pink and blue. I won't neglect the springtime stunt, to talk of siege and wreck; if I am needed at the front, you'll find me there, by heck; but till I hear the tocsin sound, and see the helmets shine, I'll spread the ochre all around, with oil and turpentine. When martial stories stir our pride, and rumor wildly roams, we're all too prone to let things slide around our happy homes. We stand around in warlike groups, and make our frenzied brag, of how we'll slay the knave who whoops base insults at the flag. And while we frame our lurid vows to guard our native stores, we all forget to milk the cows and do the other chores. But I shall paint the cistern pump until my country calls, and then I'll answer, on the jump, in my tin overalls.

IMPROPERLY SHAPED SHOES A DETRIMENT

If a good many men whose patriotism impels them to volunteer for the war are rejected blame it on the shoemakers. This is the opinion of Dr. Harold D. Corbusier, of Park avenue, this city, who as major of the Medical Corps, N. G. N. J., was in charge of a field hospital while the New Jersey troops were on the Mexican border.

Part of Major Corbusier's report to the War Department is illustrated with photographs showing foot deformities due to wearing improperly shaped shoes, that seriously impair the possessor's usefulness as a soldier.

Major Corbusier says that while it is true that an army travels on its stomach it is equally true that it travels on its feet, and it is of little use to fill the soldier's stomach if he is unable to march. The problem of providing well fitting and comfortable footwear for its soldiers is not one of the least that the War Department has to solve.

SOMERVILLE NOTES

NOLAN SWORN IN AS COMMISSIONER

William D. Nolan Saturday took the oath of office as a member of the New Jersey Civil Service Commission. Mr. Nolan, who is a Republican, was named by Governor Edge Friday, together with two other Republicans and two Democrats. The Somerville man's appointment is for five years and the salary is $2,000 a year.

Mr. Nolan's appointment is meeting with popular approval in Somerville, where he is well known. He is engaged in the insurance business and has just attained the exalted rider of the Loyal Lodge of Elks, of which he has long been an active member. He is also a member of the Somerville Athletic Association and was influential in its organization thirteen years ago.

Nolan has long been identified with the interests of the Republican party in Somerset county. He was prominent in the last campaign, particularly in the Frelinghuysen and Edge primary fights and made a favorable impression on the Governor by his aggressiveness. It was largely through his efforts that Mr. Edge received so heavy a vote in Somerset during the primary campaign.

Public Safety Work Progresses

The work of further organizing the Committee of Public Safety has progressed rapidly since the meeting Friday evening, which almost filled the spacious auditorium of the court-house.

There are nine committees — Finance, Police, Manufacturers, Merchants, Alien-born Citizens, Support of Dependents, Fire, Enrollment and Secret Service. The last named committee consists of five members; the others of three.

Nearly all of the committees were in session Saturday afternoon and evening.

Five special marshals have been sworn in for each of the five borough districts. They have been thoroughly equipped by the police department and will serve without pay.

At least two movements are under way for the organization of military units in Somerville. One is the organization of a rifle club, the work being in charge of Duke Nelson V. Dungan, a former Colonel of the Second Regiment. The other is for an organization to be composed entirely of former members of Company M, the local unit in the Second Regiment, which left for Trenton Friday. Other similar movements are said to be under way also.

Part of Co. M Leaves Trenton

Word was received in Somerville yesterday that two squads, 16 men, of Company M, in charge of Sergt. Lieutenant Andrew G. Koehler, had left the Second Regiment Armory in Trenton for duty at a point near Wilmington, Del. Just where the destination of the detachment was could not be learned. A number of the company members were in Somerville yesterday on a short leave of absence. Many Somerville people, on the other hand, went to Trenton by automobile to visit friends and relatives among the guardsmen.

RARITAN

Opening exercises in connection with the re-dedication of the Third Reformed church were held yesterday. The services will be continued throughout the week, ending next Sunday evening. The dedicatory sermon was preached yesterday morning by the Rev. W. H. Demarest, president of Rutgers College, New Brunswick, in the evening Dr. Hutton, of Columbia University, New York City, made the address.

The occasion of the re-dedication is the completion of the work of renovating, re-seating, re-lighting, re-decorating and completely refurnishing the interior of the old church. This is the congregation of which United States Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen was recently installed as an elder.

The congregation is an old one, having been organized in the spring of 1848. The first pastor was the Rev. Peter Stryker, who was succeeded in 1852 by the Rev. James A. H. Cornell. Subsequent pastors were the Rev. Dr. James LeFevre, the Rev. Dr. W. H. DeHart and the Rev. Dr. J. J. Hoffman. The present pastor is the Rev. J. A. Lumley.

The church building was erected in 1851.

MAY AFFECT ELECTION BOARDS

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, April 2.—The personnel and calibre of the members of the election boards throughout the State, which annually register the will of the electorate, will tomorrow be vitally affected as the result of whatever action the new Civil Service Commission takes with respect to future examinations for all election officers.

The appropriations committee of the Legislature, just ended, followed its predecessor of a year ago and failed to provide money for the carrying on of the examination for members of election boards, and unless the Civil Service Commission decides to pay the expenses of the two assistants of the department in charge of this work, from out of the department's general fund, it is likely that the work will have to be left to the old political system of picking election board members through the county committees of the respective parties.

PLANS FOR COLORED Y. M. C. A. DISCUSSED

William D. Murray, president of the Y. M. C. A., addressed a large gathering of colored men at the Washington school yesterday afternoon in the interest of the movement for the organization of a similar association among the colored men of the city. Mr. Murray outlined the plans necessary to start and maintain successfully a Y. M. C. A. All the men present were deeply interested in Mr. Murray's remarks and were enthusiastic over the proposition.

Rev. J. W. P. Collier, pastor of the Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, and Rev. A. D. Jones, pastor of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, also addressed the gathering, giving their views on the subject. They believed that such an organization would be a benefit to the colored men, provided it was started right and given full support.

It was finally decided to conduct a campaign to see how much money the colored men can raise toward a fund to establish a Y. M. C. A. This work will be under the direction of a committee and a report will be made later. The fact that the Plainfield Recreation Committee is now doing a good community work among the colored people was emphasized yesterday and some people thought it would be better to continue this work instead of trying to form a separate organization. During the afternoon there were selections by Venable's orchestra and a vocal solo by Ralph Greene.

GOMPERS URGES MILITARY TRAINING

Labor Federation Head Says It Prevents War.

New York, April 2.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, came out strongly for compulsory military training.

"The trade unionist is practical," he announced in a prepared statement, "and he knows that if a country or a nation is to have peace it must be based on readiness for war. He has learned by experience that a strong union is the best safeguard against strikes. To apply the same line of reasoning to a nation the best safeguard against war is to be adequately prepared."

Mr. Gompers' statement came as a result to a letter from Amos Pinchot presenting pacifist arguments against preparedness and urging the latter chief to declare himself against military training. Instead of doing so, Mr. Gompers frankly confessed he has completely changed his mind on the subject. He unqualifiedly lent support of the Chamberlain bill, now before the senate committee on military affairs, which prescribes six months of intensive training for every American in his nineteenth year.

"Aside from the military phase of the question," says Mr. Gompers, "such a system of training would improve the national health, give us a more virile manhood better equipped to fight the everyday battles in civil life and with a higher concept of the duties of citizenship."

Tuesday and Wednesday at Proctor's Theatre

Dorothy Dalton, Triangle.

Today's program at Proctor's Theatre is headlined by Virginia Pearson, who interprets a dual role of two sisters of widely varying temperament in "Sister Against Sister." The two sisters were separated when children, one to enjoy the luxuries of life and the other sinks to the depths of despair among the slums. In addition today Mrs. Vernon Castle appears in "Patria," and a popular Lonesome Luke Comedy is also offered for fun-provoking purposes.

Tomorrow and Wednesday Norma Talmadge makes her debut as a Selznick star in "Panthea," in the making days.

FOODSTUFFS ARE REACHING BELGIUM

During Past Week Four Relief Steamers Arrived at Their Destination

During the past week four steamers of the Commission for Relief in Belgium have arrived safely in Rotterdam, their destination. These four are the first of a flotilla of twenty-four ships from North Atlantic ports since the break in diplomatic relations with Germany, and as fourteen additional ships carrying the new German safe-conduct passes are reported west-bound and well out of the danger zone, the commission has every reason to feel reassured on the question of the transportation of foodstuffs to starving Belgium and northern France.

In this connection it is pitifully interesting to read the testimony of one old man in a recently re-conquered French village. He exclaimed to his liberators: "They would have let us starve but for the American Relief Commission. If it hadn't been for the commission the babies never would have survived."

There strikes the keynote of the Plainfield Belgian sub-committee on "supplementary meals." The saving of one and a quarter millions of babies of Belgium and Northern France, the future generations of these desolated countries. Of the 1,000,000 Belgian children the commission has been taking care of 400,000 are babies less than three years old, who are brought to the commission's canteen twice a day for milk.

When the question of the withdrawal of the American commissioners from Belgium first arose Herbert Hoover, chairman of the commission, exclaimed: "The world cannot stand by and witness the starvation of the Belgian people and the Belgian children. God still reigns and other people must carry on the work." And other people will carry on the work. An official statement from The Hague tells us that the offices of the commission in London and Rotterdam will remain American, but that the offices and control at Brussels will be taken over by a mixed commission appointed by the Netherlands and Spanish Governments. The Plainfield sub-committee on "supplementary meals" appeals to every man, woman and child to contribute to the fund, with the knowledge that $1 a month, $12 a year, will save a little child. Contributions may be sent to C. B. Tyler, treasurer, 525 West Seventh street, or to Miss Hartridge, treasurer of the Plainfield Belgian Relief Committee.

DEFENSE LEAGUE COMMISSIONERS' MEETING

The Defense League commissioners of North Plainfield will meet this evening at the headquarters on Somerset street. The meeting is called for 8 o'clock. Many who have offered their services to the league are men who have had previous military experience, and this is very gratifying to the commissioners. It is desirous of having a large enrollment, and those who desire to join can obtain blanks at the office of the borough tax collector. These blanks should be filled out and presented to the commissioners this evening.

WILSON TO PARDON THOUSANDS OF MEN

Executive Clemency For Many Hit by New Ruling.

Washington, April 2.—Attorney General Gregory has announced that President Wilson will exercise executive clemency in a large number of federal prosecutions where suspension of sentences has been nullified by the supreme court's recent opinion holding such suspensions illegal.

Clemency will be exercised, the attorney general says, without applications being made in those cases where pleas of guilty were entered or verdicts of guilty returned prior to June 15, 1916, but no sentences pronounced, and in those cases where the sentence imposed was less than the period between the date of imposition and June 15, 1917.

The number who will receive pardons or commutations under the ruling probably will run into the thousands. Many of them have been at liberty for long periods, and the president is understood to feel that the new business and personal relations they have been permitted to build up because of clemency by the courts should not be broken down. Under the supreme court opinion all of them would have been compelled, but for the president's intervention, to return to custody.

GUNNERS OPPOSE U. S. LAW.

Want Repeal of Enactment Shortening Shooting Season.

Toms River, April 2.—The New Jersey Gunning and Fishing association at its meeting here voted to seek the repeal of the federal enactment governing the length of the gunning season.

The department of agriculture has set the term from Oct. 1 to Feb. 15, which differs with the laws of the various states. In New Jersey the season extends from Oct. 1 to March 15. The national law has been declared unconstitutional, but many gunners are fined as the result of frequent misunderstandings and embarrassing arrests resulted.

The association named Dr. Herbert Willis of Beach Haven, Harry T. Willis of Beach Haven, Harold Chaffey of Point Pleasant, who was recently appointed on the state game commission, and F. W. Weeks of Beach Haven on the committee. Members will wait upon Senator Frelinghuysen and later go to Washington.

OLD BUILDING LINES STAND.

Court Sustains Founder Landis' Restrictions For Vineland.

Trenton, April 2.—The restrictions as to building lines in Vineland imposed in the early sixties by the late Charles K. Landis, when he laid out the borough with its wide streets, are upheld in an opinion just filed in the court of chancery by Vice Chancellor Backes in the suit of John H. Winslow against Leverett Newcomb.

The action was brought by Winslow for a mandatory injunction to restrain Newcomb from erecting a two story structure adjoining his store at Landis avenue and Seventh street and also an unsightly shed on the rear of his lot, both of which violated the restrictions as to the building line and cut off the view of Winslow, whose home is on Seventh street adjoining the Newcomb lot.

13 LOST WITH MOTORBOAT.

Wreckage Outside Boston Harbor Indicates Whole Party Perished.

Lynn, Mass., April 2.—Fear that thirteen young men lost their lives in the wreck of the motorboat Moxie, which has been missing since Thursday night, apparently is confirmed.

The hatch from the boat was found on one of the Brewster Islands, outside Boston harbor, by Captain R. H. Robertson, father of one of the boys and owner of the boat. Captain Robertson identified the wreckage as belonging to the Moxie and said he was convinced that his son and the twelve young men who accompanied him on a pleasure trip had lost their lives.

GYPSIES RIDE IN AUTOS.

Caravan de Luxe Attracts Attention at Briarcliff Manor.

Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., April 2.—A band of about twenty gypsies traveling de luxe from Boston to San Francisco camped here. Three new high powered automobiles are used to carry the gypsies, and three smaller cars carry their goods. The men are plentifully supplied with money.

The caravan attracted much attention as they passed through the village and pitched their camp in a small clump of woods at the foot of the hills.

KEEP A JAR OF MUSTEROLE HANDY

It Quickly Loosens Up Coughs and Colds in Throat or Chest

Just a little Musterole rubbed on your sore, tight chest before you go to bed will loosen the congestion and break up most severe colds and coughs.

Musterole is a clean white ointment made with oil of mustard. Simply rub it on. No plaster necessary. Better than mustard plaster and does not blister.

Thousands who use Musterole will tell what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet and colds (it often prevents pneumonia).

If you find yourself "left out" because of a poor skin, and want a clear, fresh complexion, use at least once a day. Wash thoroughly with a warm, creamy lather of it, then rinse the face with plenty of cold water.

It does not often take many days of such regular care with Resinol Soap to show an improvement, because the Resinol medication soothes and refreshes the skin, while the perfectly pure soap is cleansing it.

HELL GATE ROUTE FINALLY OPENED

Federal Express 'Christens' New Railroad Link.

New York, April 2.—With the opening of the new four track Hell Gate bridge, which forms a part of the New York-Connecticut railroad, direct rail connection between the Pennsylvania and New Haven systems at last is completed. The long cherished dream of railroad men to link New England by an all rail route via New York city with states lying west and south of the Hudson and East rivers is realized.

Although the Federal express, running between Washington and Boston, is the only train scheduled to operate on the new route at present, additional trains are to be transferred to it as soon as schedules can be adjusted. The Adams Express company will operate two trains each way over the route. The Colonial express will be resumed within a short time, and a through summer train, probably known as the Washington-Bar Harbor express, will be run to provide facilities for patrons of the Pennsylvania and New Haven in the south and west who spend their summers in New England resorts.

This will make a total of five trains each way daily to begin with. A conference will be held soon in Boston to consider operating and traffic problems in connection with the running of additional trains over the Hell Gate bridge route.

Beginning today the new train over the connecting railway at Hell Gate had a mail car attached.

Potato Growing Not Curtailed.

Woodbury, April 2.—The report that the potato acreage in Gloucester county will be curtailed this season on account of the high price of seed and the scarcity of help is not confirmed around Mullica Hill, where work is going on for a much larger planting than ever before. This is a big center for potatoes and as the crop was one of the most profitable last season farmers are "going to it" once much larger scale.

Passaic Firm Raises Wages.

Passaic, April 2.—The Pantasote Leather company has announced an increase in wages throughout the entire plant, which will average 10 per cent of the total payroll, effective today. In addition, the hours were reduced to fifty-five a week as against sixty heretofore.

TIPS NOW LEGALLY RECOGNIZED BY STATE.

Albany, N. Y., April 2.—The appellate division of the supreme court holds that tips are a matter of right and not always gratuities. The family of a taxicab driver who was killed asked the court to grant an award under the workmen's compensation act covering both the money paid as salary by the company and the tips paid by customers. Presiding Judge Kellogg, in the Third department, wrote the decision upholding the contention.

ALLIES HAMMER HINDENBURG LINE

British Within Four Miles of St. Quentin Key.

FRENCH IN FLANKING MOVE.

Germans Claim Repulse of Fierce Attacks at Several Points on New Front, and Their Resistance Is Becoming Stiffe All Along the Line — French Say Foes Were Beaten Off in Verdun Assaults.

London, April 2.—Both the French and British have made further progress toward the Hindenburg line.

Sir Douglas Haig's troops by capturing hill 110, east of Peronne, advanced their lines to within four miles of the Cambrai-St. Quentin road and to the south are now the same distance from the center protecting St. Quentin. The decisive battle for this Teuton stronghold is believed to be near at hand.

British troops captured the village of Savy during a severe battle west of St. Quentin, one of the keys to the Hindenburg line. The British troops pressed on, taking Savy wood, which lies within three miles of St. Quentin. The British official report also states that British troops have occupied Ephy and Peiziere, south of Heudicourt, and the village of Verdelles.

Berlin officially admitted that the British engagements in which they suffered heavy losses, advanced their lines for a distance of from two to three kilometers (one to two miles).

The French official communique records appreciable progress by General Nivelle's forces on both sides of the Aillette river, particularly to the north and east of Margival. This means further headway in a movement which may be aimed at outflanking the southern end of the new Teuton battle line.

Germans Fighting Hard.

All indications are that the German high command means to defend the present line to the last. The Teuton heavy guns are violently bombarding the entente lines, and the counter thrusts of the German infantry are becoming more and more determined. Correspondents at the British front report that every inch of ground is stubbornly defended by the Teutons. The Germans made a number of attacks on the Verdun front in Mont Homme, but were repulsed, Paris asserts. Berlin, on the other hand, reports that French and British attacks at many points were beaten off.

The German admiralty has issued the following statement:

During the night from March 29 to March 30 parts of the German sea force raided the barred zone off the English southeast coast.

The armed English steamer Massilia, of 1,856 tons, was encountered eight miles off Lowestoft and sunk by artillery fire. Except for this vessel, neither hostile naval forces nor merchant traffic were seen.

Seven men from the steamer Massilia were taken prisoners.

The British admiralty March 30 reported that on the night in question firing was observed off Lowestoft, that British patrol craft were speedily dispatched to the scene, but that the enemy forces had disappeared. The statement added it was presumed the ship in question was the patrol boat Mask.

CIVILIAN RESERVE ALSO.

Connecticut Plans Exemption From Army of Needed Workers.

Hartford, Conn., April 2.—Besides taking the census of Connecticut's 480,000 men of military age, the committee which had the work in charge has just announced its suggestions as to the proper manner of calling for men to serve.

The suggestion is that all the men be divided into classes and that men of one class be exhausted before the next is called. In case it is proved by putting the plan into operation the committee recommends that the state be treated as a civilian reserve and the plan still be put into effect. Under this method the first exemption would be the industrial army, and the men in it would receive a distinct badge and stand on the same plane as the military forces.

The first class of the unorganized militia, after the industrial army is formed, would be those from eighteen to twenty-four years old who have no dependents; second class, all from twenty-five to thirty-four who have no dependents; third class, all from thirty-five to forty-four who have no dependents, and the next three classes of the same ages who have dependents.

Spain Raises Big Loan.

Madrid, April 2.—Dispatches received in the capital from all parts of Spain say the situation generally is quiet. The government 5 per cent loan of 1,000,000,000 pesetas ($200,000,000) to consolidate the public debt has been oversubscribed twenty-four times.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

BOYS AND GIRLS TO AID CONSERVATION

Trenton, April 2.—Wide-awake boys and girls who are willing to help in developing and conserving the State's forests and wild life may find opportunity at this time to qualify for one of the merit badges of the forest fire service, according to State Firewarden C. P. Wilber. The badges are offered to any boy or girl who voluntarily renders useful service either in personally putting out a forest fire or in promptly notifying the local firewarden of a fire too large to be handled without help, or in serving the warden in any other way in connection with a forest fire.

In making the announcement Mr. Wilber remarked that the opening of the spring season ushers in one of New Jersey's principal forest fire danger periods. Firewardens have been appointed for the various districts and municipalities in which there are woodlands. The effectiveness of the service depends largely upon the co-operation received by these men.

NORTH SUSSEX TALKS SECESSION

Threat to Agitate For Formation of New County.

FRANKLIN THE SHIRE TOWN.

Advocates of Move Say Ogdensburg and Franklin, Which Pay More Than Half the Taxes of County, Are Discriminated Against by Newton and Southern Section—Macadamizing of Sussex-Ross' Corner Road Starts the Agitation.

Newton, April 2.—Incensed by an unofficial report that the board of freeholders planned at their meeting today to abandon the project of placing a concrete surface on the Sussex-Ross' Corner road and substitute macadam, residents of Sussex borough are hinting they will start a movement to withdraw the upper section of Sussex county and establish a new shire, with Franklin, the zinc mining town, as county seat.

The backers of the project have even gone so far as to suggest the name of Franklin county for this new district. The claim is made that at present Sussex county is dominated by the will of Newtonians and residents of the lower part and that the other sections are discriminated against.

Prominent Newtonians scoff at the idea and brand it as nothing more than talk. While those who are making the plea of mistreatment toward the northern section of the county argue that they are fighting the battle of Franklin and Ogdensburg, which pay one-half of the taxes in the county and have been given little or nothing in the way of improvements, it is felt that these towns have been included merely to add weight to the project, and it is believed, that those persons living in Franklin and Ogdensburg who have ever given a thought to the establishment of another county, especially one which would include Sussex, which is in no way comparable with them in assessables, are very few.

The report of the decision of the board of freeholders to use macadam instead of concrete in surfacing the Sussex-Ross' Corner road leaked out after the return of the member from Sussex, where a conference was held with the state highway department. It had been intended to concrete the road, when the bids were received, however, it was found that the lowest, presented by the Franklin Concreting company of New York, was little less than $30,000 for six and one-half miles.

HONOR MISS RANKIN.

Suffragists Give Breakfast For First Congresswoman.

Washington, April 2.—Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage association, will be a guest of honor at the opening of congress, when Miss Jeanette Rankin, first woman congressman, will take her seat. Miss Rankin will introduce the federal suffrage amendment (bill for the National American Woman Suffrage association.

Mrs. Catt and Mrs. Maud Wood Park, chairman of the association's congressional committee, will act as a special escort to Miss Rankin on the historic journey from the newspaper office building to the capitol. An invitation to occupy a seat on the speaker's bench has been issued to Mrs. Catt by Speaker Clark.

The honor breakfast to Miss Rankin this morning was held at the headquarters of the National American Woman Suffrage association at 10 o'clock.

BIG FOREST FIRE IN JERSEY.

Blaze Devastates Twenty-five Square Miles in Ocean County.

Lakehurst, N. J., April 2.—A raging forest fire, with a start of fifteen hours and fanned by a brisk northwest wind, threatened the big testing plant of the Eddystone Munitions corporation northwest of here and was only kept from with a dozen similar towns by the tireless efforts of seven fire wardens and an army of approximately 1,000 regular fire fighters and volunteers.

It was not until late at night that Division Fire Warden Frederick Torrey was satisfied that the men had succeeded in keeping the flames from communicating to the structures and testing grounds of the Eddystone plant, where vast quantities of ammunition for Russia are stored, or spreading to the farming communities of Ridgway, Whitesville and Whitesville and the resort of New Egypt.

PUSH BETHLEHEM WORK.

Objections to Proving Grounds Removed, and Work Will Go On.

Staten Landing, N. Y., April 2.—Operations on the Bethlehem Steel company's proving grounds, near here, will be started within a few days. Word reached here that the controversy with Atlantic City interests had been amicably adjusted at the conference at which Charles M. Schwab, it is understood, gave assurances that the proving grounds will not disturb the resort.

Fully 95 per cent of the ordnance to be proved on the grounds will be for the use of the United States government, and there will be a national supervision of the work. Meanwhile Sheriff Joseph R. Bartlett is arranging to protect the grounds. County authorities have ordered Colt automatics and Winchester rifles enough to arm a large posse.

"I Can Sell Almost Any Make of Tire Once"

—but this town is not big enough in which to do business on the ONE SALE ONLY basis.

I must sell tires again and again to the same people.

On this principle my business has grown because I sell a tire that cuts down upkeep to a fair and reasonable figure.

People ask how far will this tire run? I tell them we rarely see a Diamond that won't go five thousand miles. Yet Diamonds are PRICED on a basis of only three thousand five hundred miles.

There is no "velvet" in the price, but plenty of "velvet" in Diamond mileage.

We carry a complete line of sizes in stock and can fill your tire wants immediately. If you can't come, telephone.

Every Diamond Tire must deliver full value in service. If ever a Diamond Tire fails, a cheerful, willing adjustment will be promptly made.

SOCKS

The sock is another of life's mysteries. Whether it has been a sock from the first or started out to be a stocking and lost its nerve no one knows. The only thing we're sure of is that it got half way up man's leg and stopped. And for no apparent reason. The sock's way to man's knee was clear. Woman's stocking proves that. But let us not censure the sock too severely for its shortcomings. It's like a lot of other human affairs—begun enthusiastically and ended half way.

For that tired feeling take a street car.

And many a man who pays cash sleeps on tick.

Grown people tire of their toys just as children do.

SCOUT FIRSTBROOK LOCATES NEW STAR

Digs Up Another Backstop Candidate for West End Baseball Nine

Here is news for Manager Brit Martin of Hope Chapel's nine. Scout Firstbrook, who has been digging around for some new material for the West End aggregation, has uncovered a star catcher who is to be out to practice within the course of a few days. Scout Firstbrook, while enjoying a 35-cent meal in one of North avenue's eating establishments during the course of the past week, came across one Coopue, a backstop artist, hailing from the far end of Long Island. Coopue is a star, and for the present is one of the many employes of the Spicer Manufacturing Company at South Plainfield.

Coopue is a catcher of some reputation, having participated in the circuit races of the Long Island South Shore League for a number of seasons. This circuit had some twenty-eight teams going at one time. This player will undoubtedly add considerable strength to the chapel nine in the catching department and at the same time introduces to Plainfield one of its future stars of the diamond. Coopue today promised Scout Firstbrook that he would be out for practice at West End Oval one week from Saturday with the regular Hope Chapel gathering, ready to earn his place on the regular team.

Target Tips and Hunting Helps by Alfred P. Lane

Send questions to Mr. Lane care of this paper.

W. M.

1. Which is the most important thing in shooting—good eyes or steady hands?

Ans. I believe that steady hands are probably more important than good eyes so far as target shooting goes, although there are so many different kinds of defects in the eyesight that this is hard to answer. If the poor eyesight consists in the inability to correct for any given range and this defect can be eliminated by wearing glasses, then such eye trouble amounts to nothing. Steady hands are important, but the most important thing of all is the ability to pull the trigger at the proper moment—a thing that does not seem to have much connection with steady hands.

2. Is a rifle butt plate better than a plain one for big game shooting?

Ans. The tendency at present seems to be toward the shotgun style of butt plate for all kinds of shooting. Personally, I prefer it to the rifle style, as it makes it much easier to throw the rifle to the shoulder quickly.

R. O. N.

We have had quite an argument as to whether rifle shooting helps a man with the shotgun or revolver. How about it?

Ans. In some ways the basic principles of shooting with any kind of a firearm are the same. You must line up the barrel properly and pull the trigger without flinching. Ordinary rifle shooting at a target is so much slower than shotgun shooting that it is not very much of a help, although it is usually found that a man who is an expert rifle shot will develop into a trapshooter quicker than the man who has had no previous experience. Rifle shooting helps revolver shooting only to a very limited extent. If you consider the matter of skill required to make a fairly good score with either a rifle or revolver, you will find revolver shooting involves the same principles as does rifle shooting under very much harder conditions. This means that while rifle shooting may not help revolver shooting to any great extent a good revolver shot is necessarily a good rifle shot.

L. T.

1. Is there any advantage in having a very light trigger pull on a shotgun? Will it make me shoot quicker?

Ans. The best weight to have the trigger on a shotgun for field use is about four pounds. A very light trigger pull is liable to make your shooting erratic, and it is also dangerous.

2. Do the shot from a shotgun all travel along together? What I mean, do they all hit a flat target at the same time?

Ans. Experiments have shown that the charge from a shotgun strikes out considerably, the last pellets being sometimes as much as ten or fifteen feet behind the first ones to reach a point forty yards away from the muzzle. This has been shown in a very conclusive manner by shooting at a rapidly moving piece of paper. The shot charge puts a series of holes in it strung out in the direction in which the paper is moving.

3. Are there any shells made which I can use in my gun, which is a full-choke barrel, that will give a big spread for shooting at short ranges?

Ans. Yes, you can use scatter-loaded or brush shells. These shells are so loaded that the usual jamming effect of the choke on the shot charge is almost eliminated, consequently the shot spread just as though the barrel of the gun were cylinder bored.

BALTUSROL LINKS ARE UNDERGOING CHANGES

No important golf tournament will be played at Baltusrol this year, probably for the reason that the club is changing its course and wants to have the alterations completed before inviting the best players of the country to come there again. Criticism has been made that there are too many short holes between the seventh and the fifteenth. New long holes will now take the places of the tenth and twelfth. Work on them was begun last year, but they will not go into commission until next autumn. A new eleventh, short, is also being made.

Much regret has been felt because the island green, the tenth, is to be abandoned, but the new eleventh will be a good substitute for it. It will be on a plateau with deep sand traps in front and on the left, a ravine on the right and a sunken field at the rear. Accurate players may drop a ball on the green from the tee, a distance possibly of 160 yards, but the vast majority will prefer to make a two-shot hole of it. It is certainly going to be the most formidable feature of the course.

The tee of the tenth will be near the woods on the left of the ninth fair green, and the green will lie on the side of the mountain about 250 yards south of the pond in front of the present tenth tee. This pond is being filled up. Directly east and near the college, the eleventh green has been placed on a much lower level than the tenth. Next, some good pinning is expected.

The play will be northeast to the present twelfth green, a distance of perhaps 425 yards, crossing the fair green of the present tenth and present eleventh holes.

BOROUGH BOYS IN A HARD WORK OUT

And Manage to Lose Opening Practice Tilt of the Season

Rounding out the second week of hard practice, the North Plainfield H. S. baseball team stacked up against the St. Joseph's Club on Hyde Oval Saturday afternoon, only to taste the short end of a 4 to 2 score after the full stretch of nine innings had been played. The work out was just the opportunity Capt. McDonough had been looking forward to, and with such men as Tommy Sallis, who worked in short for the Saints, Eddie Stallings, Eddie Hasbrouck and Earl Moran, all well known in this vicinity for their diamond ability, the borough lads were forced to display extraordinary baseball.

All the new recruits handled themselves creditably, Yates and Force pulling off a fast double play in the fifth and cut off two possible runs for the Saints. Earl Moran, on the mound for the Saints, had a world of stuff for us early in the season, and while he was hit rather freely, managed to shake the school lads fan on the stop for the former high school stars, with Dawey, Seidel and Kirch also in their regular positions.

PILGRIMS ADD TO THEIR LONG LIST

Defeated Simplex at New Brunswick Yesterday by a 4 to 1 Score

Yesterday afternoon the Plainfield Pilgrims took a trip to New Brunswick, where they played what will probably be their last game this season with the Simplex Automobile Company in the presence of about 200 spectators.

At 3 o'clock the ball was set in motion by Johnston, the Simplex team winning the toss and playing with the sun and wind in their favor.

The Pilgrims took up the aggressive method right from the start and forced the game into the home club's goal, but the home defense was steady and gave nothing away. The first 25 minutes of play was evenly balanced, both sides making repeated rushes on goal, but the two opposing defenses were playing a fine game.

Half an hour from the kick-off W. Johnston got going, and after tricking four players scored the first goal with a well-placed shot. This success of the Pilgrims was the means of some hot work being witnessed, the Simplex team doing its best to even up matters, but half time came without any further scoring.

On resuming, the Plainfielders had the benefit of the wind and made good use of this advantage. Five minutes of the second half had barely gone when W. Johnston added goal No. 2 for the Pilgrims. The Simplex backs got a bit rattled at this second goal and were penalized twice for using foul methods, but the free kick on each occasion did not benefit the visitors, as they failed to score. Keeping up the pressure the Pilgrims gave the home defense no rest, forcing two corners in quick succession without netting anything for their efforts. Simplex now had a spell of attacking and forced the game into their opponents' goal, but Sims was on the job and kept his goal intact. At this period of the game the Plainfield defense was playing a great game, and only on a few occasions did the home club get over the mid-field, through a combination the Pilgrims got away again and W. Johnston finished the run by adding the third goal. Five minutes later the fourth goal was scored, this time by W. Marsh from a fine header. This success made the Pilgrims cast up a bit and the Simplex took advantage of the temporary weakening and rushed the ball up the field, their outside right finishing the run by scoring their only goal. No further goals were scored and the game ended with the score standing Pilgrims 4, Simplex, 1.

Added importance is attached to this victory when this was the first time this season the Simplex club has been beaten on its own field. It is also the team's third defeat this season out of twenty-four games played. Simplex is the only club that has beaten the Pilgrims this year.

MORE HORSES THAN STALLS FOR MEET OPENING TODAY

By United Press:

Baltimore, Md., April 2.—More than 100 thoroughbreds are on hand to take part in the two weeks' spring racing program which begins today at the Bowie track here, and although 200 new stalls have been built to replace the ones destroyed last fall by fire there still is an insufficient number. The Southern Maryland Agricultural Association, which operates the Bowie track, is placing horses everywhere possible.

The meet opening today will continue through two weeks, ending on April 14. The Jockey Club's season at Prince George's track, which is about mid-way between Washington and Baltimore, is opened and closed by the Maryland Association.

The track at Bowie is an ideal one for early and late racing, although it is not favored as a fast stretch. The track is so built and is constructed of such earth that it quickly absorbs the heaviest rainfall. Very few disappointing races are staged.

Some of the most prominent horsemen of the country have sent steeds here for the opening events. Thoroughbreds of all ages are quartered.

Some of those who will be represented on the track are August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club; Richard T. Wilson, president of the Saratoga Association; Wilfred Viau, of Montreal; Willie Sharpe Kilmer, of New York; Capt. C. K. Rockwell and Capt. E. B. Cassatt, United States Army; Richard F. Carman, Jr., Harry Payne Whitney, of New York; Edward B. McLean, of Washington; Herbert L. Pratt, William L. Oliver, William Woodward and Oscar Lewisohn, of New York.

The winter track performers who have been at Tia Juana, Juarez, New Orleans and Havana have sent many additions to horses which spent the winter in the North. About half those who worked through the cold months will be starters at some time during the meet.

LOCAL Y. W. C. A. IN ANOTHER VICTORY

Defeat Easton, Pa., Association Aggregation by Small Margin of One Basket

The local Y. W. C. A. girls won the game from the Easton, Pa., association girls by a close score on the Y. M. C. A. court Saturday night. At the end of the first half the Easton girls were ahead with a score of 8 to 5.

In the second half, the score was tied many times and it remained for the last minute of play to decide the winners.

The visitors display good team work, which was difficult to break up. The final score was 17 to 15.

The Easton girls were guests of the Plainfielders over night and yesterday attended the vesper services at the local association, returning to Easton last night.

Y. M. C. A. TRIANGLE TILTS ARRANGED

Local Teams Will Stage Basketball Series to Decide Junior Championship

Saturday night Manager Carman completed arrangements for the Inner-Triangle-Y. M. C. A. Junior championship series. It was decided to stage the first game Tuesday night on the Netherwood court.

Both the Inner-Triangles and Y. M. C. A. seconds have had very successful seasons, but it seems that something should be done in the way of regulating and supervising schedules of the junior teams of the city, so that it will not be necessary to hold the season open so long. It has been suggested that next year a league be formed, comprised of all organized basketball teams of the city, who wish to participate for the city championship.

Thursday night the I.-T. C. team will be badly handicapped by the absence of two regulars, one of them having answered the call of his country. The following will be the line-up: Patterson and Guilbert, forwards; Western, centre; Cartwright and Cartwright, guards.

BAPTISTS HAVE BIG FIND FOR THEIR TEAM

Manager Dan' Randolph of the First Baptist aggregation of the City League circuit has managed to dig up a real find for his 1917 team, according to the latest reports from the spring training quarters at West End Oval. From amongst the twenty odd candidates who appeared for practice Saturday afternoon there appeared one Ison, a third base man, who appears to be head and shoulder above the rest in many respects. The lad is a Southerner by birth, and is some fast infielder.

Howard Freeman, well known in interscholastic circles a few years back, will also be with the Baptist team this season, as will also Dilts and Dawe, of last year's N. P. H. S. aggregation. Among other leading lights in the squad Saturday were Morley, Dilts, Clark, Mills, Lash and Bailey. Manager Randolph is of the opinion that he will be able to secure a winning team to lead the City League race this year.

WEEKLY NOTES OF W. C. T. U.

Burning Up Power

The world war has brought us face to face with reality in many forms. The men of our colleges, as true scholars and honest men, should face every issue squarely, dissect the corpus of it, extract the irrelevant, eliminate the "unmoral" from the discussion, laud the moral and benificent and utterly destroy the immoral. There are certain evils in our colleges today which the saner, wiser, more loyal students should root out at the cost of popularity, fraternal association, grandstand applause and selfish indulgence; for if they do not these evils will continue at the cost of honest scholarship and university honor. To get at evil number one: I meant cigarette smoking.

Coaches urge, men in training to quit smoking. Cigarette smoking does not produce the clear head and the nerve needed to push a ball over the line. These trained coaches, scientists, professors, efficiency experts—are all these witnesses to the destructibility of cigarettes. Liars and impostors? A growing number of sane teachers and students, who look at the real aim of learning, are inclined to think they are not.

Then there is that argument about the point of contact smoking gives a man. Every one knows men in college, in business and in the ministry who are the very best sort of mixers and who do not defile their breath and injure their influence with smoking.

If our college graduates go out setting an example of selfish, harmful indulgence, if our seminary graduates cannot see a "moral issue" in a vice which is cursing the growing boyhood of our country, who, pray, is to see the issue and further the crusade? It will be unpopular, but God has rewards for the John Browns.

The difficulty of the task consists in the fact that it is one of those social, pet, habit-forming indulgences, commonly accepted, tremendously hard to break, which has gotten hold of our country until now more money is spent for tobacco than for bread. To say it has no moral significance is to deny our Lord's whole principle of stewardship. Men claim they can break the habit, quit when they want to. As a matter of fact, they cannot. One of the curious psychological phenomena of habit-forming drugs is that men cleave to the fallacy that they can quit any time. The cigarette smoker is nervous, irritable and grouchy if without tobacco. He is not united in his faculties; he tries to concentrate while his system cries out for the drug to dope him. Will power is at a low ebb or conquered, and anyone who has worked with young men who are cigarette smokers can tell to mind men defeated, consciously wrong and helpless to break the habit.—George Stewart, Jr., of Yale University, in the "North American Student."

HELPS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

VIRGINIA CARTER LEE

In connection with this department Miss Lee will gladly answer any inquiry relative to domestic science. A stamped envelope being necessary for a personal reply. Address care of Courier-News.

Almost every good housewife admires a perfect loaf of bread, especially if it is home-made. Perhaps this is because her own breadmaking is not always an unqualified success. Often the question of breadmaking is an ordeal that the housekeeper passes through twice weekly and all the time she is mixing the sponge she feels little imps are whispering in her ear: "Eeny, meeny, meiny-mo; this time she does it, this time, No."

This will continue until a few hard and fast rules are mastered, when the element of "luck" will be eliminated and the bread will always be a success.

So far as ingredients are concerned, bread is one of the simplest of foods, but the changes through which the raw materials must go to produce the finished loaf, make it one of the most complicated.

The yeast we use develops best in a temperature of from 75 to 85 degrees F, so that the materials should be lukewarm when the sponge is "set." It must also be kept in an even temperature and free from drafts while rising. Just as soon as the cake of compressed yeast comes in contact with the tepid liquid, it becames as busy as the proverbial bee, so it must be scattered quickly and thoroughly to every portion of the sponge, in order to secure a bread of delicate lightness.

For this, nothing is better than a good bread mixer. This is operated by a crank, which causes a curiously bent rod to mix the dough evenly, with only a very slight effort on the housewife's part. Follow the directions that come with the individual mixer you purchase exactly as they are set forth and be sure that you buy only one of a reliable make.

In making bread (that is raised with yeast), the quantity of liquid used determines the size of the finished loaf. One cupful of liquid with one-quarter of a cupful of liquid yeast, or compressed or dried yeast, diluted with one-quarter of a cupful of water, will make one loaf of bread of a size to bake in what is known as a "brick loaf pan," or it will make about one and three-quarter pounds of bread dough.

The quantity of flour used, together with the manipulation of the ingredients, has much to do with the texture of the bread. For a firm, fine-grained loaf, from three to four measures of flour to one of liquid are needed. For bread of more open texture, from two and one-half to three measures of flour to one of liquid will suffice. Take half a teaspoonful of salt for each loaf of bread. A tablespoonful of butter, or other preferred shortening, to each cupful of liquid will make the bread more tender. If butter is used, it will give it a better flavor.

The quantity of yeast to be used will depend upon the time given to the process and the temperature at which the dough is kept. For bread mixed at night to be baked in the morning, one-third of a cake of compressed yeast will be required for each pint of liquid. A larger proportion accordingly of yeast is required when only one loaf is made.

Bread flour of the best quality must be selected for bread-making. Bread flour is granular and goes through the sieve easily. Pastry flour is more solid, is oily and keeps its shape when pressed with the hand.

Bread is generally set to raise twice. First over night, or for a number of hours, and then again after it is shaped in the pan, when it should be allowed to double in size. Neither of the rising processes should be hurried and after the first rising the dough must be thoroughly kneaded, either by hand or the mixer, until it is very smooth and elastic.

Baking is almost as important as the mixing. If one has an oven thermometer, it should register about 450 degrees F, or a little less, and the bread should begin to brown over after the first fifteen minutes. Turn the bread frequently after this space of time has elapsed, so that it will brown evenly on all sides. If the gas range is used, so regulate the heat that it will not be too strong on the bottom, or the result will be a scorched loaf. To many persons, the sweet, nutty crust is the best part of the bread and in a hot oven this must be protected.

THE POOR LITTLE PRINCESS

Once upon a time there lived a King who was very poor, and one day a lady who lived in his kingdom came to him and said if he would make her his Queen she would make him rich, as she had boxes and chests of gold.

The King's Queen had been dead a long time and he had one daughter —the poor little Princess, everyone called her, because she had to do all the work, her father was so poor.

So the King when he heard what the rich lady had to say decided that was the very thing to do. Then he and his poor little Princess would have comfort and plenty.

Now, the rich lady did not tell the King she had a daughter, but such was the case, and when he married her and brought her to the castle the daughter came with her.

This daughter's name was Olga and she was very plain-looking, while the King's daughter, the poor little Princess, was very beautiful, even in her ragged clothes.

When Olga saw the poor little Princess she turned up her haughty nose and said: "What a poor-looking Princess you are indeed! You look more like a kitchen maid than a Princess."

Now the King had thought the rich lady he had made his Queen would be kind to his daughter, but she was not.

She gave the King money to rebuild the castle and get fine clothes for himself that he might look well beside her, for she was very proud of being Queen and liked to hear the people say, "Here come the King and Queen."

But the poor little Princess remained poor even in her father's beautiful castle, and after a while Olga was called Princess and the King's own daughter was made to live in the servants' part of the castle and help with the work. The poor old King was completely in the power of his rich wife and after a while he seemed to forget the poor little Princess and spoke of Olga as the Princess just as the Queen did.

Now it happened one day that a Prince rode by the castle and saw the poor little Princess working in the garden and he fell in love with her. He asked the servants who she was, and they replied that she was the Princess.

So the Prince went to the King and Queen and asked to marry the Princess, and they gave their consent.

The Prince was so much in love that he asked that the wedding should take place at once—that very night.

This pleased the Queen very much, for she knew he had seen the poor little Princess, and she told the Prince he should marry the Princess that night if he would not ask to see her until he lifted her bridal veil from her face after the ceremony, and then she locked the poor little Princess in her room in the servants' quarters so there would be no chance that the Princess would see her.

The Prince promised to do as the Queen asked, and the preparations went on, and the bride was dressed and stood beside the Prince waiting to be made his wife when something happened.

One of the servants who loved the poor little Princess very dearly knew that the Prince was being deceived, and so when all the guests were assembled she stole the key that unlocked the room where the little Princess was kept a prisoner and told her to come out.

Then she dressed her in her mother's wedding dress which she had kept for the poor little Princess many years and took her to the room where the guests and the bridal party were awaiting.

"Here is the real Princess, Your Highness," she said to the Prince. "Lift the veil and look at her face. This Princess can be seen before you marry her. See if I am not right."

The Prince lifted the veil from the face of the poor little Princess, and then he asked: "Who is this woman so near making my wife?"

Then the old servant told him how the Queen had forced her daughter into the place of the real Princess and the old King had been powerless to stop her.

The Queen was so angry that she became mad and had to be carried away, and Olga, when she found she had lost her chance of becoming a real Princess, ran out of the castle and was never heard of again.

The Prince and the poor little Princess were married and she was no longer the poor little Princess but the rich and happy Princess.

The old King became himself again and they all lived happily ever after.

"FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN

Will Find a Helpful Suggestion in This Letter.

Overworked, run down, "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Mrs. Carter's experience. She says:—"I am the mother of six children and I got so weak and run-down that I couldn't eat anything and it seemed almost impossible for me to get around and do my work. I tried different doctors' remedies without benefit. I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it, and resolved so much benefit from the first bottle that I continued to take it, and it has built up my strength and made me strong and well. I consider Vinol the best medicine I have ever taken, and advise all weak, run-down women to try it." Mrs. Jessie Carter, Stanfield, N. C.

If all the tired, overworked, run-down women in Plainfield could only realize how our delicious Vinol, which contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates, supplies the vital elements necessary to build up blood and strength, we wouldn't be able to supply the demand.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

To prevent picture frames from making ugly marks on your wall, glue on the back of the frame at each corner a thin piece of cork.

Add a cup of salt to one quart of gasoline, shake well. Lay soiled garment on blotting paper, wet cloth with mixture and rub garment.

To remove a rusty screw, apply a hot iron to its head for a few minutes and then remove it in the usual way with a screwdriver. The screw will then come out easily.

Most housewives use the broom dish cloth, made of cord attached to a handle, which is vastly more convenient than the old method of immersing the arms to the elbows.

Linen stored in a closet warm and poorly ventilated will soon become yellow and will crack earlier than if stored otherwise. The properly constructed linen closet should be in a cool, dry place.

Every woman has experienced the annoyance of scissors in her work bag. Take a cork of medium size and crochet a covering of some dainty colored silk—leaving the flat upper surface uncovered. Slip the points of the scissors into the cork and thus protect your work bag.

When celery is scarce, cabbage chopped fine with plenty of celery seed will be found a fine substitute in salads.

Put a tablespoonful of ammonia into a quart of water; wash your brushes and combs in this and all grease and dirt will disappear. Rinse, shake and dry in the sun or by the fire.

To remove ink spots from the carpet after they have become dry rub them with milk, taking fresh as it becomes inky. Afterward wash the spot with ammonia water to remove the grease.

To keep cranberries several weeks, wash, put into a jar, cover with cold water, and use as needed. To keep celery, wash and dry thoroughly, and put into clean glass jars, and cover closely. Lettuce will keep in the same way for several days; also parsley. If wanted for a week or more, rinse off with cold water once or twice in that time and put it back, covering closely from the air.

ATTENDING STATE MEETING

PLAINFIELD WOMEN AT PEACE MEETING

Local League Sends Delegates to Washington to Oppose Declaration of War

Miss Katherine Ball, Mrs. Champlain L. Riley and Mrs. Laurence M. McNeill left for Washington, at midnight, last night, as the representative of the Plainfield Peace League, and they will join with hundreds of other delegates from all parts of the country in an effort to maintain peace conditions between this country and Germany.

The above women were selected as delegates to go to Washington at a meeting of the league held at the Plainfield Public Library Saturday night, which was attended by about thirty members. Mrs. Riley presided over the meeting in the absence of Mrs. H. G. Wells, of North Plainfield, the president, who left on Saturday for Washington.

During the meeting there was a discussion of the findings of the unofficial commission which met in New York last month, when a Joint High Commission was recommended and steps were taken to secure the co-operation of all neutral nations looking toward peace. Miss Mabelle A. Phillips urged support of the plans to push the work of Americanizing foreigners, and this received the endorsement of all present. There was also a discussion of Charles Ferguson's new book, "The Great News," which is a condensed story of the result of his investigations abroad and in this country of industrial conditions during his investigation was made at the suggestion of President Wilson.

FLOWER GUILD ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM

Tomorrow evening, the Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild, of this city, will celebrate its third anniversary in the Friends Meeting House, Watchung avenue, at 7:45.

The Guild was organized on April 2, 1914, by Joseph Harner, who has held the office of president since that time and has proved untiring and very successful in his efforts to interest many of our people in the splendid work which this organization is accomplishing in supplying food and clothing to those who are in need; flowers and medical supplies to those who are shut in by infirmities and sickness, and spreading sunshine among the unfortunates in this city and elsewhere.

A very interesting program has been arranged by the committee for the above date, a special feature of which will be a talk by Dr. E. P. V. Pierce, who is too well known in this city and throughout the country to need an introduction.

The Guild orchestra, under the efficient direction of Mrs. John C. Evans, will render several selections.

At the close of the program a birthday offering will be taken and as the guild is supported almost entirely by donations it is hoped that a goodly sum will be realized.

THE CARE OF THE BABY'S EYES

(By Mrs. Max West, of the Federal Children's Bureau.)

A large part of the blindness among children is needless, because the cause is well known and the remedy at hand. Many States now require that the simple treatment described below shall be used in every case and it would do much to save children from this incalculable calamity if mothers throughout the world understood the means of prevention.

At the moment of birth the baby's eyes are to be wiped with bits of sterile cotton, using a separate piece for each eye and wiping from the nose outward. Following this the eyes are to be treated with an antiseptic which is to be dropped into each eye, first lifting the lid in order to get the medicine properly into the eye.

This very simple and inexpensive treatment is sufficient in many cases to prevent the development of the disease of the eyes of new born children which leads to blindness. But if the treatment has been neglected and symptoms of the disease appear, such as reddened and swollen lids the mother should insist upon having the doctor begin the treatment at once, for if neglected, even for twenty-four hours it may be too late to save the sight.

It is best to send the baby to a hospital for treatment, if the eyes are badly inflamed and discharging pus, as only the most constant and careful treatment will save them, and even then it may not be successful.

MOTHER READY TO GIVE FIVE SONS TO COUNTRY.

Passaic, N. J., April 2.—Mrs. Daniel J. Stour of 200 Main avenue announced that she was ready to give all her five sons for her country. Daniel, Jr., who has just reached the age to enlist, he is eligible for the national guard, was one of the first recruits of the new company M, Fifth regiment, organized here.

"Yes," said Mrs. Stour, "it is hard for a mother to think she might lose her son, and I don't bear to think what might happen to Dan, but I'm mighty happy in the thought that he is man enough to want to answer his country's call. I have four others, not quite old enough, but all ready to join the colors. If the country calls for them, and they still want to go I would be willing to make the sacrifice."

WILSON'S CALL TO WAR READY

President Awaits Organization of Congress.

NO DELAY IN EITHER HOUSE.

Quick Work In Preparation For Joint Session—Sentiment For Direct Declaration of War Against Germany Is Growing—War and Navy Departments Speeding to Limit In Getting Prepared For Conflict—Pacifists Busy at Capital.

Washington, April 2.—President Wilson's war message is ready for congress. He has put the final touches on the most important document of his official career and only awaits the organization of the house and word that the hour for the joint session has been set.

Within a few hours the chief executive of 100,000,000 people will tell their direct representatives the history of German violations of American rights and German killings of American citizens that have brought the two nations to war. He will relate the series of incidents upon which administration officials base their belief that Germany has already demonstrated the existence of a state of war and will make it clear that the responsibility for the present situation rests upon Germany.

The president will ask and congress will pass almost unanimously a resolution declaring the existence of a state of war with Germany. This will be followed by preparedness measures and financial legislation to make a huge war credit available.

Fighting Departments Ready.

The war department and the navy department have made complete arrangements for the organization of any additional forces that congress may wish to put in the field, and vigorous recruiting campaigns for both the army and navy are under way.

The president has been given to understand by congressional leaders that there will be no delay in organizing the new congress. He was told the congress will be prepared to assemble in joint session to hear his address within a few hours after it assembles.

There is an element in congress which favors a direct declaration of war on Germany. One of the spokesmen for this group, who announced that he will introduce a resolution for a direct war declaration, was Representative Augustus P. Gardner of Massachusetts. This element prefer an unalterable declaration of war against the kaiser's empire, with consequent declarations against the three powers allied with Germany and the entrance of the United States into the field of European warfare unequivocally and completely in alliance with Germany's enemies. In a statement Mr. Gardner said:

"This business of declaring that Germany has been making war on us seems to me like announcing that Germany has been making water on the lot. The time has come for us to kick Germany in return."

Billion Gift to France.

One of the first war measures to be introduced will be a bill by Representative Montague of Virginia providing for a gift of $100,000,000 to the republic of France in repayment of the debt incurred in 1778, when "France, our first and only ally," aided the United States in winning its independence.

Representative Montague will also introduce an alternative bill making a gift of $500,000,000 and a loan of equal amount to France.

A complete absence of frills and furbelows marked the arrival of the nation's first congresswoman, Miss Jeanette Rankin, who represents Montana. Representative Rankin arrived clad from top to toe in somber businesslike black, relieved only by a tiny bunch of violets. Apparently there will be no feminine color scheme about the new congresswoman.

Pacifists Are Busy.

Washington suffragists entertained Miss Rankin in style, beginning with a breakfast soon after the organization of the house.

The eve of the sealing of the international crisis found all quiet in Washington. Here and there on the avenues men and women were to be seen wearing armlets of white paper bearing the legend "We want no war." The anti-pacifists are unmarked unless the American flags in lapels and plumed conspicuously on blouses may be accepted as the mark of the would be war makers.

The anti-pacifists' excursion out of New York was organized by former secretary of the Treasury Charles R. Fairchild. The "pilgrimage of patriotism," as the movement has been designated, numbered thousands.

The Emergency Peace Federation and the Union Against Militarism worked in unison to make the presentation of the pacifist argument convincing. Every congressman received in his mail a protest against a declaration of war which had been approved by the Union Against Militarism through its executive committee, which includes Amos Pinchot, Jane Addams, Owen B. Lovejoy, Rabbi Wise, Dr. Henry R. Mussey, Crystal Eastman and others.

The individual presentation of the arguments to legislators was a continuous performance, beginning early today and continuing unrelentingly up to the time of the vote on the war declaration in congress.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

If Peevish, Feverish and Sick, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

LONGING FOR A CHILD

Young Wife Almost in Despair. Now has Beautiful Baby Girl.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought joy to many childless women by restoring them to normal health. Here is a notable case.

Omaha, Neb.—"I suffered from female troubles when I was seventeen years old. At eighteen I was married and my trouble was no better, so I consulted a physician who said that there was not much I could do and I could not have a child. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it and it has proved worth its weight in gold to me for I am not only well but have a baby girl, so I bear it for any woman suffering as I was I tell her of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. W. Hoines, 29 Majestic Apts., Omaha, Neb.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given women normal, healthy and strong.

PRICE TWO CENTS

PRESIDENT WANTS 500,000 MEN AND CO-OPERATION WITH ALLIES

Washington, April 3.—In his long anticipated message, which was delivered to Congress last night, President Wilson calls the United States to arms against the German Government, and asked Congress to vote a formal declaration of war. He asked for an army of 500,000 men, raised by universal training; asked co-operation with the Entente Allies, and for immediate action by the United States Navy against submarines.

President Wilson emphasized that the declaration of war is not against the German people either in Europe or in this country. He also made it clear that no action is being taken against Austro-Hungary, Turkey or Bulgaria.

While the congress was hearing the message news came of the sinking of the first American armed ship to defy the submarines. This was the Oriental liner Aztec. The news accented the war spirit already sweeping the capital.

The War Resolution.

The resolution declaring war is drafted. It will be voted in joint session.

Listening to an epochal message in the nation's history, congress heard the president in grim silence.

The president said in part:

I have called the congress into extraordinary session because there are serious, very serious choices of policy to be made, and made immediately, which I was not myself clear constitutionally permissible that I should assume the responsibility of making.

On the 3d of February last I officially said before you the extraordinary announcement of the imperial German government that on and after the 1st day of February it was its purpose to put aside all restraints of law or of humanity and use its submarines to sink every vessel that sought to approach either the ports of Great Britain and Ireland or the western coasts of Europe or any of the ports controlled by the enemies of Germany within the war zone.

The present German warfare against commerce is a warfare against mankind. It is a war against all nations. American ships have been sunk, American lives taken, in ways which it has stirred us very deeply to learn of, but the toll of other lives of other neutral and friendly nations have been sunk and overwhelmed in the same way.

There has been no discrimination. The challenge is against all mankind. Each nation must decide for itself how it will meet it. The choice we make for ourselves must be made with a moderation of counsel and a temperateness of judgement befitting our character and our motives as a nation. We desire neither conquest nor advantage. Our motive will not be revenge or the vindicative assertion of the physical might of the nation, but only the vindication of right—of human right—of which we are only a single champion.

When I addressed the congress on the 26th of February last I thought that it would suffice to assert our neutral rights with arms, our right to use the seas against unlawful interference, our right to keep our people safe against unnecessary violence.

Armed Neutrality Impracticable.

But armed neutrality, it now appears, is impracticable. Because submarines are in fact employed in the way they have been employed against merchant shipping it is impossible to defend ships against their attacks as the law of nations has assumed that merchantmen would defend themselves against privateers or warships, visible craft, giving chase upon the open seas.

It is common prudence in such circumstances, grim necessity indeed, to endeavor to destroy them before they have shown their own intention. They must be dealt with upon sight, if dealt with at all.

The German government denies the right of neutrals to use arms at all within the seven of the area which it has proclaimed, even in the defense of rights which no modern publicist has ever before questioned their right to defend.

The intimation is conveyed that the armed guards which we have placed on our merchant ships will be treated as but a trifle removed from the pale of law and subject to be dealt with as pirates would be. Armed neutrality is ineffective enough at best. In such circumstances and in the face of such pretensions it is worse than ineffectual. It is likely only to produce what it was meant to prevent. It is practically certain to draw us into the war without either the rights or the effectiveness of belligerents.

There is one choice we cannot make we are incapable of making: We will not choose the path of submission and suffer the most sacred rights of our nation and our people to be ignored or violated. The wrongs against which we now gray ourselves are not common wrongs; they cut to the very roots of human life.

With a profound sense of the solemn and even tragical character of the step I am taking and of the grave responsibilities which it involves, but in unhesitating obedience to what I deem my constitutional duty, I advise that the congress declare the recent course of the imperial German government to be in fact nothing less than war against the government and people of the United States; that it formally accept the status of belligerent which has thus been thrust upon it and that it take immediate steps not only to put the country in a more thorough state of defense, but also to exert all its power and employ all its resources to bring

LIEUT. DAVID S. BARRY PROMOTED TO CAPTAIN

Mrs. Barry, who is visiting her father, William Palmer Smith, of Belvidere avenue, has just received word that her husband, Lieut. David Sheldon Barry, N. S. N., has just been promoted to a captaincy. Mrs. Barry recently returned from Santo Domingo, where her husband was stationed.

It was expected that Captain Barry would soon follow his family to Plainfield, but recent developments in the international situation has evidently changed his plans.

CAST FOR OPERA PERFECTING PARTS

Finishing Performance of "The Land of Mystery" Under Elks' Auspices

The principals of the cast and the large chorus which will present "The Land of Mystery" at the Plainfield Theatre April 10, 11 and 12, under the auspices of Plainfield Lodge of Elks are rapidly perfecting the details of the production, and a fine performance is assured.

A brief outline of the story of the opera follows:

Cornelius Vanderock, an American multi-millionaire, wishes to marry, but has failed to find a girl to suit him. He thinks modern women quite devoid of natural graces and primitive charm. While traveling in India, the cradle of scientific investigation, he meets a ne'er-do-well American named Willie Steele, and through him learns of an old Hindu fakir, who claims to be able to manufacture a living human being out of chemicals, according to any specified pattern.

Vanderocks offers Steele a million dollars if he will get the fakir to produce a girl to his order. Steele induces the fakir to undertake it, and the latter steals from the altar of Vishnu a vase of magic powder, which, he says, is the one chemical lacking in all compounds of human experiment. He gives the empty vase to Noah Ham, Vanderock's negro valet, who is waiting on him, and tells him to return it to the temple, but Noah turns it over to Karamusa, chief Natuch girl, attached to the temple, and she takes it in.

The fakir prepares a burning crucible and succeeds in bringing forth several horrible nondescript creatures, much to his dismay, but finally a beautiful girl rises up from the crucible, and they call her Aphrodite. However, she is slang and up-to-date, and Vanderock is not specially pleased with her. Besides just at this time he meets Karamusa and becomes interested in her.

Steele, too, meets Mary Swift, a newly-made heiress, and becomes smitten to her. Madhasihbadhad, priest of Madura, enters, saying the magic vase is empty, and as Karamusa was seen taking it in, she is suspected of stealing the powder.

Noah Ham, in a blundering experiment, pours a bottle of shoe polish into the fakir's crucible and a black girl rises up, which causes a scene of wild excitement. She receives the name of Topsy.

Three days later, in the jungle, where many of the Hindes and Americans have gathered, the fakir is met by a Gnome, who says that Aphrodite, the beautiful girl who came from the crucible, was the Queen of the Fairies, who appeared just to play a joke on the fakir and that Topsy, the black girl, was the Gnome himself, and, anyway, that Vanderocks has fallen in love with a human girl, Karamusa.

The Gnome laughs at the fakir and suddenly waves his hand, and the whole hillside is covered with fairies and other beautiful beings.

Karamusa, Steele, Otto and the fakir are arrested by the temple guards at the priest's order for the temple robbery, but just then a message is brought to the priest, saying that the vase was had never been disturbed, but that the vessel stolen was the ash can.

The prisoners are released and suddenly Aphrodite appears in a bower as queen of the fairies, and the Gnome says she will be seen no more, he begun she disappears.

The fakir is terribly down-hearted, but the human lovers are united and all is well.

SOLOISTS FOR MUSICAL AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

They will also accompany the choir in the performance of Dubois' cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ." The full choir will be in attendance.

The public is cordially invited to participate in this service.

EXPERIENCES IN THE WAR

Edward P. Gaston Addresses Monday Afternoon Club in Congregational Church

A lecture was delivered yesterday afternoon in the Congregational church by Edward Page Gaston, F. R. G. S., on "My War Adventures in Germany and Belgium," under the auspices of the Monday Afternoon Club. There was a large attendance and Mr. Gaston's address was much appreciated.

Mr. Gaston explained that he was in Germany in the fall of 1914, endeavoring to find the lost baggage of American travelers who had left their baggage behind them in their flight from that country at the outbreak of the war. He said that there were thousands upon thousands of trunks over there and that the Belgiums put many of those left in their country to good use, for they made barricades of them to protect themselves from the German fire. Mr. Gaston was arrested five times on suspicion of being an English spy, but managed to clear himself each time.

The lecturer became attached to the relief expeditions and personally carried out four of these, visiting over sixty thousand Allied prisoners. He told his audience that there were about one and three-quarter million prisoners in Germany, two millions in Russia, and altogether a total of five millions in Europe, or more than twice as many as in any other war in history.

He aroused much applause when he declared that the end of Prussian militarism was well in sight and that the victimized Germans would rise up and overthrow for ever the abominable junker autocracy. He believed that the result of the war would be the passing of all kings and emperors, a world-wide democracy and a lasting peace.

At a business meeting held before the address the club voted to instruct their delegates to the annual meeting of the federated clubs, to be held in Atlantic City in May, to vote for equal suffrage.

CHARMING BRIDGE PARTY AT ORMOND

Mrs. H. C. Irons Entertains at Social Function for Benefit of War Relief Fund

Many Plainfielders who have worked so hard for the Mercy Committee will be interested in the announcement of a war relief bridge given by Mrs. Henry Clay Irons, of 452 West Eighth street, at her Japanese bungalow, Ormond Beach, Florida, March 10 last, especially as the receipts will be sent abroad in the name of that society.

The day was like a perfect one in June. Twenty-seven tables were placed in the patio for bridge, which was played until 4.30 o'clock. At that hour tea was served by the Americans have gathered, the fakir and ten waitresses from the Ormond Hotel, who gave their services for the good cause.

Including those who played bridge and those who came for tea, there were 250 people, the full complement from the hotel kindly gave its services, and during the tea hour the guests roamed about the Japanese tea garden, over the little bridges, to the tea house and on the little islands, where on some were planted orange trees and on others grape fruit trees. As the moon was full and came up over the garden with its waterfalls and pools glimmering in the soft light and guests all in *their bright summer clothes, it in*deed made a picture long to be remembered.

MANY ENJOY "LITERARY HOUR" AT ST. MARY'S

The second of a series of "literary hours" was enjoyed by a large number of people at St. Mary's Social Hall on Liberty street, last night, at which time Father Bernard M. Bogan gave readings from the works of Tennyson, which featured the evening's entertainment. There was a strong patriotic sentiment in evidence and the affair proved to be both profitable and interesting.

COMPANY H TO DRILL THIS EVENING

Company H, of the Uniformed Rank, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet tonight at the club house, East Front street, for drill. Captain Hartpence desires a full quota of members of the organization to report for this important duty.

NEGRO GIRL CHARGED WITH HOMICIDE

George Saunders, Colored, of This City, Implicated by Girl, is Arrested

George Saunders, colored, of 531 West Fourth street, was arrested yesterday and taken to Somerville by County Detective Totten of Somerset county.

He is wanted in connection with the case of Lillian Harvey, colored, who was arrested in Flemington on Saturday night, and is now a prisoner in the Somerset county jail, charged with killing a child which was born to her while she was working as a servant in a North Plainfield residence.

The girl is eighteen years old, according to the police the child was born about six weeks ago, and was kept in a closet for two days. It cried at night and in order to keep it still, it is alleged that the girl placed her hand over its mouth and thus strangling it.

The body of the dead child was then put in a pasteboard box and placed in the closet again.

Foul odors were detected in the house last week, and when the mistress of the house proposed to search the girl's room, the latter carried the box down into the cellar and threw it into the furnace.

The fire was not hot enough to destroy the body, and it was later found in the furnace. Chief Marshal Weiss, of North Plainfield, was notified, but when he arrived the girl had fled.

She was arrested in Flemington where she formerly lived, and was brought to Somerville. It is said that she told the authorities Saunders was responsible for her trouble, and a warrant was immediately sworn out for his arrest. The birth of the child was unknown to the family employing the girl. She was about the house every day and seemed to be well able to do her work. She was not attended by a doctor when the child was born.

HEAR BEIDERWOLF TOMORROW NIGHT

He Will Speak in High School Auditorium and Scotch Mac Will Sing

Dr. Wm. E. Beiderwolf is coming to Plainfield tomorrow night under the auspices of the Plainfield Union of Christian Endeavor. Mr. McEwan will come with him.

The meeting will be held in the high school starting at seven-thirty o'clock, the doors opening at seven. For the benefit of those who may be unable to get into the building, Dr. Biederwolf will be asked to speak a few minutes from the steps.

On Sunday, April 1st, Dr. Biederwolf closed one of the most successful campaigns of his career at Lawrence, Mass., and on Easter Sunday, begins a campaign at Madison, Wis. The people of Plainfield are therefore fortunate in getting this opportunity of hearing him again.

An offering will be taken and donated to the Family Alter League, for which Dr. Biederwolf is endeavoring so hard to raise $100,000. In the course of his address, he will speak of the splendid work. Many readers of the family Altar Magazine will welcome this opportunity to show their interest.

It is planned to have the meeting over by nine-thirty so that there will be time for greetings and renewing of old friendships before Dr. Biederwolf leaves for Syracuse, where he speaks at noon on Thursday.

While here, Dr. Biederwolf and Mr. McEwan will be the guests of Senator E. R. Ackerman.

The former Biederwolf choir will be re-assembled under the leadership of Clifford Braider.

CO-OPERATION IN BUSINESS URGED

J. D. Loizeaux Addresses Business Men's Association on Practical Subject

The question of adopting a summer closing plan, one on which all of the members can agree, was discussed at the meeting of the Plainfield Business Men's Association last night, and C. L. Applegate was named as chairman of a committee to present a schedule for the month of August at the next meeting of the association.

The question of having cleaner streets in the business section of the city was also discussed, and a committee was appointed to take that matter up with the councilmanic street committee. It was the opinion of the members of the association that a determined effort should be made to clean the streets in the business section and keep them so, and it is hoped that a satisfactory arrangement with the street committee will result, one in which all of the merchants will co-operate.

"The Advantages of Local Co-operation in Business" was the subject of a practical talk given before the association by J. D. Loizeaux. He said:

"First of all, co-operation in anything, whether it be among presidents of railroads, or among the fishermen of the sea, is really the only way business progresses. I do not wish to overlook the long established and well known proverb, 'Competition is the life of trade,' and it has its right place at the right time, but just as true as this maybe, just so true also it is that merchants in the same line of business must consider their competitors as enemy. It is rank foolishness and can only work to the detriment of both parties, mind you, not one of them, but both of them. As one instance, my writer has seen two high-class families of abundant wealth become paupers in a few years time on account of this foolish thought, that their competitor was their enemy and nothing was too bad to believe

WANT SUBWAY IN SOUTH SECOND ST.

Niles-Bement-Pond Company Requires It for Conveying Motive Power

The Niles-Bement-Pond Company sent a communication to the Common Council last night asking permission to construct a subway on South Second street to convey power to their present plant from a new power house to be erected at the corner of South Second street and Prescott place.

The petitioners agree to put the street back in betier condition than it is at the present time. The matter was referred to the Street Committee with power.

A public hearing was granted on an ordinance to vacate a portion of Thornton avenue. There were no objections filed and the ordinance was adopted on third reading.

The directors of the public library advised the council that $11,500 will be required this year.

The Lange & Haslam Company advised the council that George W. Bond, has been appointed engineer in charge of the sewers they are constructing in the west end, and that hereafter he will be their legal representative.

Building Inspector Doane reported fourteen building permits for March. Street Commissioner Gavett reported ten sewer permits. The report of the Overseers of the Poor showed expenditures of $868.76 for last month.

The City Hall committee recommended the payment of $472.26 to Rider & Graves; $512.97 to D. J. Galbraith; $11,610 to the P. F. Kenney Company.

MRS. I. V. ADAMS DIES IN MT. BETHEL

Mrs. Catherine Adams, the wife of former Freeholder Israel V. Adams, of Warren township, died this morning at her residence in Mt. Bethel. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Mt. Bethel Baptist church.

Mrs. Adams was, for many years, an active member of the Mt. Bethel Baptist church and its Ladies' Aid Society. She was greatly beloved by the members of the church and the entire community for her noble Christian character, which she exemplified in many deeds of kindness and charity, and in times of sickness among the families of her neighbors.

She leaves, besides her husband, three sons, Nicholas Van Winkle, of North Plainfield; John W. Van Winkle, of Basking Ridge, and Geo. S. Adams, of North Plainfield.

"HANDS OFF OR YOU'LL BE IN IT" SAYS PRESIDENT TO AUSTRIA

By United Press:

Washington, April 3.—A break with Austria is by no means avoided, according to the general view here today. Instead in postponing this question of the situation, President Wilson merely served notice that unless Austria keeps hands off in the war she, too, must come under the ban.

STONE ALONE VOTED AGAINST WAR

By United Press:

Washington, April 3.—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today reported out the administration "state of war" resolution, amended so as to strengthen its entire text, with but one dissenting vote—that of Chairman Stone.

The President is directed by the resolution to "employ the whole naval and military forces of the United States against Germany, and to bring the conflict to a successful termination."

"All of the resources of the country," the resolution says, "are hereby pledged by the Congress of the United States."

Chairman Stone of the Foreign Relations Committee, said he would not pilot the "state of war" measure offered by Senator Martin. "I *will pass it on to Senator Hitch*cock," said Stone. "If he is not in sympathy with the measure we will leave it to Senator Swanson."

SOME FEATURES OF THE PLAN FOR PREPAREDNESS

By United Press:

Washington, April 3.—The Navy Department will at once spend the $16,000,000 emergency appropria*tion for increased navy yard facili*ties.

By United Press:

Washington, April 3.—Between 3,000,000 and 5,000,000 men will probably be raised for the American army. At least one cabinet member wants 3,000,000 as the minimum, but military men want 5,000,000 for the maximum. The navy may be raised to 150,000 men, as against a present authorized war strength of 87,000.

By United Press:

Washington, April 3.—The Government will take over control of all wireless and radio stations in the United States and interiorize at once, without further legislation, said Representative Alexander, chairman of the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee, today. (Other war news on another page.)

MANY MISSING FROM TORPEDOED LINER

By United Press:

Washington, April 3.—Twenty-eight persons are still missing from the torpedoed steamer Aztec, according to Ambassador Sharp in a message to the State Department. One boat has been picked up with 19 survivors, who landed yesterday afternoon at Brest, France. (Other particulars on another page.)

BRITISH ARE MARCHING ON TO ST. QUENTIN

By United Press:

London, April 3.—The Germans apparently realized today that St. Quentin was doomed to fall.

Battle front dispatches detailing Field Marshal Haig's tremendous thrust on the town, told of the smoke of fires seen over the village, and of other preparations, indicating that the Teutons were following its same tactics of destruction observed in their western front retreat.

Military experts today figured the British forces within two miles of the city, and on ground extremely favorable for further progress.

(Other details on another page.)

WAR PLANS ON BASIS OF THREE YEARS' CONFLICT

By United Press:

Washington, April 3.—War Secretary Baker and the advisory com*mission of the Council of National* Defense are today discussing war plans, on a basis of three years of conflict; suggestions for food control for the nation; and universal service—not merely universal military service. These three vital projects were carried into the Defense Council session by Samuel Gompers, head of the Committee of Labor.

SPECIAL AID TO HELP COMPANY K

Motor Squad Will Supply Soldiers With Chocolate, Tobacco and Fruit

The National Special Aid Society has organized a "comfort committee" for the soldiers of Company K, of this city, now stationed at Falmouth. This committee has affiliated with the Reading and Writing to Soldiers' Committee. Mrs. A. C. Penn is chairman.

On Thursday morning, April 5, the motor squad of the National Special Aid Society will take cigarettes, chocolates, fruit and magazines from the comfort committee to the members of Company K. Any friends or relatives desiring to send letters, packages, clothes or messages to these men will please leave such packages at headquarters of the National Special Aid Society, 175 East Front street, on or before Thursday morning, at ten o'clock, and the motor squad will see that everything is delivered personally.

This is one of many ways in which the society is co-operating with the people of Plainfield to do their bit for their country. The society has three classes organized and trained for the care of the wounded. These are not trained nurses, but trained helpers. They will be able to change the dressings, meet wounded soldiers, and make them comfortable until surgeons can attend to them and take charge of convalescent soldiers.

Probably a base hospital will be established in Plainfield in case of war. These helpers will be a great necessity. The women of Plainfield are coming to headquarters in great numbers every day, asking what they can do, and plenty of all kinds from professional to plain housekeeping is pledged.

MOTOR TRUCK FOR COMPANY K NEEDED

Veterans of Organization Undertake Work of Raising Funds for That Purpose

Company K, of this city, needs a motor truck and needs it now, and steps were taken at a meeting of the veteran members last night to raise a fund for that purpose. The work of collecting money for the purchase of a ton and a half truck was started today, and when the motor is secured it will be sent to Captain Charles A. Peterson as a gift from the city of Plainfield. At last night's meeting Norman D. Laughlin, a veteran member, was authorized to solicit and receive money for the fund. Checks can be made payable to him and addressed postoffice box 703, Plainfield, or can be left at the M. & L. Auto Company, 322 West Front street.

As stated yesterday, the work of looking after the families of Company K boys has been started. Alfred R. Tranchand at last night's meeting of the veterans, was appointed to act in behalf of the guardsmen and he at once arranged to meet George P. Mellick, head of the Volunteer Auxiliary, for the purpose of co-operating with that body and affording prompt relief where needed.

The Plainfield branch of the National Special Aid Society has also interested itself in Company K, and everything possible will be done for the comfort and convenience of the Plainfield militia.

of the other party and this, brought to the keen edge of competition, became the utter ruin of both parties. How very foolish! Just as if there were not room enough on this wide earth for everyone to make an honest living!

"Do you have any doubt that the other man in your line of business is not in every way worthy of his living, as you are? Therefore, why count him an enemy? If by chance you should meet that man in 'Frisco, or Paris or some other place, absolutely away from each other's business interests, you would no doubt find him a fine fellow and this is always the result when two men in the same line of business and in direct competition are brought together.

"Now don't imagine that I mean that business men should get together and plot to fleck the public. This is just as odious to a right-thinking man, as it is for competitors to destroy each other by unfair competition. I believe that every business is entitled to a fair, legitimate profit on its investments and risks, and it is a wholesome ground buyer and seller meet on when these conditions prevail, and it is a foolish consumer who finds fault with this condition. Extremes always follow each other. This is an invariable rule and if for instance there is in a locality undue competition, causing goods to be sold for cost, and even sometimes lower than cost, the consumer may be absolutely sure that these conditions will not long prevail and that the sequel will be an abnormally high price to take the place of the obnormally low one which has been. I have never seen more dissatisfied buyers than those who were getting goods for less than their actual worth. Indeed, the consumer would make you believe that you should pay him for being kind enough to come and get the goods you're offering for sale. Did not this condition prevail in real estate in the past few years when unhealthy competition existed and where owners were willing to give a part of the cost of their property to realize on the remaining value in it.

"But to return to the subject before me. 'Local co-operation in business' means everything. It brings about good understanding between competitors and brings about facilities to cut out the irresponsible purchaser. First and above everything else, this is the greatest advantage. Now may be we hear the consumer say, 'Yes, these merchants have combined against us, keeping us from getting goods when we are not in a position to pay for them on the moment.' I say not so by any means. Records show for themselves and if anyone has earned the reputation of making a record for himself of being unwilling to pay his honest debts, why should the merchant continue to trust an untrustworthy customer? Then honest people always get what credit they want from the standpoint of the customer who does pay. It amounts to this that instead of the merchant being forced to charge more than a legitimate profit to cover bad debt, he can sell his goods on a closer margin and these debts do not have to come against the profit made on the reliable customer.

"Now, another thing: Is it a pleasure to meet your competitor? Are you really glad to see him as you would be another man of your acquaintance in like manner? I hold that this is the criterion of co-operation in business, when you can meet your competitor and be really glad to see him, exchange views with him, occasionally buy together, so as to be able to buy a large quantity at a lower rate, and in many other ways make life pleasant instead of unpleasant with your competitor in business. I venture to say that if this evening we had here every merchant of the city it would be very likely that under different heads, groups would form—the dry goods men, the boot and shoe men, the clothiers and hardware men, the grocers, the lumbermen and blacksmiths, and would talk over the general conditions, the advantages and disadvantages of following certain lines, etc.

"Gentlemen, let me say to you that if these conditions were not prevailing we would not be co-operating in business. I am very glad, indeed, to say to you that it is many years ago that the intelligent merchant of every line has seen the fallacy of holding his competitor as an enemy and may this continue to be very much on the increase so that each line of business may not be endeavoring to pull itself down by unreasonable competition, but by good understanding to promote good ethics among each other, and I am positive it will rebound, not only to the well-being of competitors, but also to the satisfaction of the consumer with whom they deal."

ACTIVITIES OF THE Y. W. C. A. REVIEWED

Miss Titus, General Secretary, Presents Report at Meeting of Board of Directors

Miss Alice Titus, acting general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., presented her report at a meeting of the board of directors held yesterday afternoon at the association building, giving a review of recent activities. A summary of the report follows:

"There have been six lectures and informal talks under the auspices of the religious work committee and six under the extension course. The Camp and Conference Club presented a successful vaudeville performance. The attractive 'Fashion Show' conducted by Mrs. A. C. Wadley brought our dressmaking and millinery classes to the attention of many who did not know of them before. We now hope to make this an annual feature. Four parties were held in the building. On March 30 the orchestra held its birthday party.

"On two successive days delegates from Summit and New Brunswick visited the association to study our ways with a view to starting an association in their respective towns. Miss Isabelle Scarborough has been teaching dressmaking at the Women's Institute, Summit, this past winter and it is largely through her efforts that the women now want an association.

"The Women's Institute will hold its annual meeting on April 9, at which Miss Pedderman has been asked to exhibit some of the work of our Crafts classes, and the acting general secretary is to tell of the work in this city.

"The Extension Committee being without a chairman, its work for the past month will be incorporated in this one. The classes in English for foreign girls now register 23, and increase of 17 over the preceding month. Beside Miss Hatch we have added Miss Jackson and Miss Goodwin to our corps of teachers. The night school conducted under the direction of the Board of Education was discontinued in February and as Miss Jackson had taught in that school, she decided to continue the work with us and it was due to her personal efforts that these 23 foreign girls were brought here. The Extension Committee seeks the co-operation of all in the work of helping to Americanize the foreign girls of the city.

"The Manville Club is progressing under the direction of Miss Hedges. The library is well patronized and the phonograph loaned by Miss McGee is enjoyed and the English class is too large for comfort and is steadily growing. Regular visits are made to local factories, parties of girls have been taken for short motor rides and last Thursday a picnic was held on the back piazza of the association building. After lunch there was music and under the leadership of Mrs. Archibald Cox and Miss Pitts the rest of the hour was spent "Going to Jerusalem." Miss Mabelle Phillips and Miss Helen Lovell, of the Charity Organization Society, are now co-operating with us in the foreign community work.

"We are now on the eve of our tenth anniversary, and may the plans which we have arranged for giving thanks for association life in our city be greatly blessed."

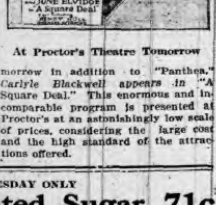
"PANTHEA" WITH NORMA TALMADGE AT PROCTOR'S

Norma Talmadge appears as a star at Proctor's Theatre today in a two-day engagement of "Panthea."

The story is that of a young Russian pianist, who, suspected of Nihilism, escapes to England, where she falls in love with a struggling composer. They are married and settle in Paris. Many disappointments in his work impairs the husband's health, and for the sake of her husband Panthea makes a compact with an elderly admirer who has great influence in musical circles. Her sacrifice brings about the triumphant production of her husband's opera, but at the moment of his great success he discovers the manner in which Panthea induced her friend, the Baron, to exert his influence. This situation leads to one of the strongest dramatic climaxes. In the end Panthea and her husband are reconciled just as the long arm of the Russian secret police stretches out from Petrograd to seize its prey in Paris.



At Proctor's Theatre Tomorrow

Added features are, today, Dorothy Dalton in "Back of the Man" and Mrs. Vernon Castle in "Patria." Tomorrow in addition to "Panthea," Carlyle Blackwell appears in "A Square Deal." This enormous and incomparable program is presented at Proctor's at an astonishingly low scale of prices, considering the large cost and the high standard of the attractions offered.

SIGHT-SEERS MONDAY AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

"The Sightseers," a two-act "folly," which will be the offering at the Plainfield Theatre next Monday, April 9, was presented with but one idea in view, that is to drive dull care away and to give the ailments of all types. The attraction as a whole was designed under the supervision of the especial eye to their beauty and accomplishments and will be voted by all who see them that they are beauties of all types.

The company is a large and efficient one numbering fifty people, among which are Will J. Kennedy and Jack Miller, two comedians who are well known to burlesque audiences; the female members of the company were chosen with an noted burlesque producer, "Blutch" Cooper, who is offering the production for your amusement.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Fern-Richleau & Fern, comedy and dancing jugglers, comprise the headline attraction at the Plainfield Theatre today and tomorrow. They have an assortment of tricks and juggling feats seldom tried on a vaudeville circuit, and some of them should prove a revelation to Plainfielders.

A variety of other attractions are included in the bill at the theatre. They are the Tousend Trio, comedy singers and dancers; Narine & Rich, dancers; Haywood & Clayton, musicians, and Eddie Vine, a comedian.

Try-outs will be a part of the bill Thursday night, and each night an excellent moving picture bill augments the regular attractions.

JERSEYITES TO ATTEND CONGRESS IN MAY

Delegates and other members of local chapters will comprise New Jersey's representation at the twenty-eighth annual congress of the Sons of American Revolution to be held May 20 to 22 at Nashville, Tenn. The headquarters during the congress will be at the Hotel Hermitage.

Forty-five new members obtained during the year from Jersey City, East Orange, Elizabeth, Plainfield, Maplewood, Montclair, East Orange, Summit, Ridgewood, Bound Brook, Rutley, this city and other New Jersey cities, give the State society hope of capturing the increase banner to be awarded at the convention.

Beginning Sunday afternoon with religious services at the First Presbyterian Church in charge of Rev. Dr. James I. Vance, chaplain of the Tennessee society, formerly of Newark, the exercises will end Tuesday night with a banquet. Wednesday a trip to Chattanooga may be arranged. Monday night the ladies of the Centennial Club will give a reception and luncheon.

PREPAREDNESS RALLY APRIL 10

Ellis L. Howland and Michael J. Hickey, of New York, Will Speak

An Industrial Preparedness Rally will be held in Columbus Hall on Tuesday evening, April 10th, as part of a nation-wide campaign to enlist the aid of wage earners, wage payers and all public spirited citizens in concerted effort to protect industrial prosperity against the trade perils of the future. The meeting will be held under the joint auspices of the Business Men's Association and the Board of Trade. All other prominent business interests in Plainfield have been invited to aid in the preparation for the rally.

The plan for holding the rally was first conceived by M. C. Van Arsdale, President of the Business Men's Association, and Judge William Newcorn, President of the Board of Trade, expressed his approval of the Industrial Preparedness Movement by pledging the support of his organization. The speakers will be furnished by the National Industrial Conservation Movement, of New York, which is conducting the industrial preparedness movement.

Ellis L. Howland, one of the editors of the leading business newspapers of the country and secretary of the Motor Truck Club of America, will talk on "Promoting Permanent Prosperity." Mr. Howland is a well known writer on trade and economic matters and can be depended upon to make a keen analysis of the conditions that exist in the industrial world today. He will tell of the need for conserving industrial resources, both human and material.

In order to conserve the human resources, Mr. Howland will show it is necessary to restore friendly relations between working men and their employers and get them to realize that their mutual welfare depends upon the prosperity of industry. Mr. Howland will also emphasize the necessity for the general enlightenment of the public as to the actual situation obtaining in the industrial and business world. Too many people, Mr. Howland will assert, still cling to the old fallacy that all business is predatory and must be curbed. These people, the speaker will contend, should be made to understand that they have been duped by clever sophistries and that when they lend their support to the passage of laws which harrass industry they merely hurt themselves.

Following Mr. Howland's talk, Michael J. Hickey, head of the Industrial Conservation Movement, will tell of the importance of considering the human element in any attempt to increase the efficiency of industry. He will paint an unflattering word portrait of the agitator who, for personal ends, seeks to stir discord between employers and employes. He will likewise discuss the legislator who seeks to win the favor of his constituents by proposing laws which do not correct industrial evils but merely hamper industry.

GRAVES FOR AN ANTI-SHINGLE LAW

Differs With Architects as to Use of Shingles Instead of Slate

Councilman Charles C. Graves, of the Fourth Ward, who for the past two years has been advocating the adoption of an ordinance prohibiting the use of shingles for the construction of roofs of buildings, took a crack at architects, builders and real estate operators in the council last night, when he presented a statement of his views respecting the use of shingle, which he asked the clerk to read.

Mr. Graves took issue with the statement that aesthetic lines cannot be carried out in the construction of buildings except shingles be used. He called attention to the cost of shingles as compared with slate and expatiated upon the subject of roof construction, with either slate or shingles.

He felt, so his statement read, that if Plainfield ever has a disastrous fire caused by the flames spreading from roof to roof, it will be an indictment against the members of the Common Council who lacked the foresight to prevent the burning of that evil day.

Mr. Graves is in the slate roofing business, but he declares that he is not actuated by mercenary motives or a desire to increase the use of slate for his own benefit.

"I am in the slate business, but that is a private enterprise. As a member of the council I am a representative of the people, and what I may say about an anti-shingle ordinance is intended for the public benefit, and not for the attainment of personal ends," he declared.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

President Wilson in his message to Congress last night advocated universal training in order to have half a million men efficiently drilled and equipped for an army subject to call and which would be ready in case of emergency, dependable in every way and a visible sign of preparedness which every nation would have to respect if ever the occasion came to make the test. This is the method adopted by all nations of the Old World, and the reason that peace has so long been maintained abroad between nations that were ready to jump at each other's throats if they had dared. Not often in the memory of people now living has the peace of Europe been disturbed, and then only when the cupidity of one nation or another prompted the clash of arms. We as a nation have been most fortunate in a most unprepared condition for defense, with thousands of miles of sea coast at the mercy of war vessels and accessible for the debarkation of land forces, but our good fortune has existed only in the fact that we have been too far away from other nations that otherwise might, in a sudden desire for conquest, have taken the notion to try conclusions with us. Now, however, we are only a minute or two away from Europe by wireless and a few days by fast-sailing ships, and are an easy prey to depredations from the air above and from the slimy monsters that sneak up from the deep with a serpent's cunning and a worse sting. It is little wonder that the executive of our nation, speaking for the whole people to their respective representatives, urges an adequate preparedness, which can be accomplished only by arms on land and sea and an efficient force of men to handle the arms. He assails the Prussian Government for its unwarranted assumption of control of the seas and the assumption of authority to dictate to neutral nations in the use of the seas and for interference in the peaceful pursuits of business on the part of those who have only a remote interest in the quarrels of far-away nations. He scores the Prussian declaration that a neutral vessel shall have no right to carry arms for its own defense against what must be considered piracy. He thus advocates the right of peaceful citizens to defend themselves against unwarranted attack—a right that has always been recognized as inherent in human beings. The theme of his message is that the present is no time for indifference in our love of ease and a natural abhorrence of war and a desire to be left to ourselves in the peaceful pursuits of life because a real menace is at our doors and we cannot, must not, be indifferent to our own safety. As we lock our doors against the midnight marauder, lock our valuables in a safe to protect them from the robber and hire a police force to protect life and property from the insidious foe, so should every American citizen consider himself one among his fellows, whose duty calls him at this time to array himself in the great number of patriotic citizens to take his full part in the defense of his sacred rights to life, liberty and property.

COMFORTS COMMITTEE

The Comforts Committee of the Navy League is receiving reports from different sections of the country where local branches are being organized for the purpose of knitting garments for the sailors of the United States ships. The people of Binghamton, N. Y., will furnish articles for the sailors of the new destroyer Sampson, while those in Orange, N. J., are to make the articles of clothing for the men of the Ericsson. As the branches are organized various ships are assigned to them and the product is sent to the men of those ships after inspection in Washington. The goods are forwarded by Admiral McGowan, paymaster-general of the navy. Many societies in various parts of the country which have hitherto been working for the Belgians and the French have indicated their intention to join in the work for the American seamen.

Pretty as a Picture—Every sign of Wrinkles and Complexion Blemishes gone

How a muddy, sallow, aging skin can be made wonderfully youthful and beautiful through remarkable discovery of osmosis of the skin.

When you see a woman past thirty with no horrid crowsfeet or pouches around her eyes, no enlarged nose pores, no deep lines or furrows about the mouth, and possessed of a clear, velvety complexion, you can be practically certain that she knows beauty secrets not possessed by the average woman. She may have as much cause for looking old and careworn as anybody, yet she is able to go on year after year with never a sign of wrinkles or complexion blemishes, all the while preserving a fresh, youthful appearance. And there is really no reason why any woman between thirty and sixty should not look from five to fifteen years younger than she really is, by simply knowing the secret of just what to do. It is a matter of pride with you to keep your complexion clear and your face youthful as much as it is to keep your hands and nails clean. But you cannot hope to be beautiful and attractive unless you give your skin the opportunity to act freely and renew its youth. No matter what your age or how coarse, harsh and unsightly your complexion, nor what you have tried unsuccessfully, this moment you produce osmosis of the skin, you will look younger and far more beautiful.

Grace Valentine Beautiful Metro Picture Star

Many a wrinkled, hollow cheeked, faded-looking skin has regained her charm and awakened to find herself pretty as a picture with every sign of wrinkles and complexion blemishes gone through this wonderful, simple method. Watch what it does for you! Merely wash your face in warm water at night and rub in a teaspoonful or two of pure pores and hand pressed deep wrinkle cream which you can obtain from the druggist. In the morning wash the face with cold water, and rub in cream. In three weeks or less you will be amazed at the change that has taken place. See how the old, hardened, coarse, rough skin turns into new fresh, soft, youthful-looking skin almost before your very eyes, all due to the simple osmosis of the skin, produced solely by warm water and repeated creams. But be sure to use only pure rosseated cream, as it is an entirely different thing from ordinary face creams, and must not be confounded with them. Most women prefer Cream Tokalon Rosseated. If you have wrinkles, get a box of Tokalon Pearls and use them in connection with the cream and you can get quick action on the deepest wrinkles, no matter of how long standing. For giving an indescribably beautiful effect to the neck and arms as well as suppressing almost immediately the appearance of the smaller wrinkles and marks of age, many women use a little Santonex in connection with this method of producing skin osmosis.

No need for ugly nose pores and deep wrinkles.

The above is one of a series of articles on beauty specially written by Mlle. Simone Marcelle, of Paris, the world's most famous beauty expert, one in Paris, the other in England. Mlle. Marcelle personally guarantees success in every case with the products recommended in her newspaper articles or will refund the amount paid for them, provided a receipt at the time you make your purchase. Her American address is Simone Marcelle, 20 West 22nd St., New York. Tokalon and other products mentioned can be obtained absolutely fresh and guaranteed pure from Weiss' Boro Drug Store, or most any good druggist or department store in this city.

"BELIEVE IN GOD" THEME OF SERMON

Rev. F. B. Edwards Delivers First Discourse in Series at Crescent Ave. Church

"Believe in God," was the subject of a talk given by Rev. F. Boyd Edwards, of the Hillside Presbyterian Church, East Orange, at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon. This was the first of a series of afternoon services to be held this week at which well-known divines will speak, and there was a large attendance. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, pastor of the church, assisted at the service.

There was a touch of patriotism in the discourse, as the preacher emphasized the duties of a Christian. He declared that it was equally important for a man to do his full duty as an American citizen as well as his duty to God and His church. Mr. Edwards referred impressively to the handiwork of God, and urged an unshaken belief in Him. "We are not actually see God," said the preacher, "and yet we feel His presence in the world and have every evidence of His existence, in which we believe."

Rev. Dr. William Pierson Merrill, pastor of the Brick church, New York, well-known to many Plainfielders, will be the preacher at this afternoon's service, to which the public is invited.

WILL SWEAR IN 2ND UNIT TONIGHT

Members Should Report at Evergreen Avenue School at 8 P. M.

Mayor Calkins has issued a call to the fifty men comprising the second unit of the Plainfield Home Defense League whom he appointed special police officers last night to present themselves at the Evergreen Avenue School tomorrow night at 8 o'clock to be sworn in. They will be measured for uniforms at that time. All men should appear without fail.

The first unit will have a drill at the Evergreen Avenue school at the same hour while the new men are being mustered in. At 9 o'clock the one hundred men will march to the high school gymnasium for their first line-up.

The league is to be divided into companies, according to geographical districts, so that the two units of fifty each will not be maintained as such for organization purposes. They are referred to as units merely for convenience in describing their appointment to membership in the league.

Mayor Calkins has asked the commission to recommend fifty more men for a third unit for appointment within the next few days. The commission will meet tonight and tomorrow night for the purpose of selecting men. Application blanks may be had from the commissioners or from Chief Kiely at police headquarters. Applicants whose business is in Plainfield are requested to see Chief Kiely personally before they sign their applications unless they are known to one of the four commissioners, Messrs. M. S. Ackerman, R. F. R. Huntsman, Dr. Lufburrow and Henry S. Fullerton.

A plan of mobilization has been determined upon by which the Defense League can be brought to any part of the city on five minutes' notice. Each section of the city will have a certain number of men assigned to it, but the plans will be known only to the city authorities, the league commander and his immediate assistants. Other very practical measures of protection are being taken.

Lemons Beautify!

Strain lemon juice well before mixing and massage face, neck, arms, hands

Here is told how to prepare an inexpensive lemon lotion which can be used to bring back to any skin the sweet freshness of which it has been robbed by trying atmospheric conditions. Windchafe, roughness, tan and redness are warded off and those telltale lines of care or of age are softened away.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quarter pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the fruit store. To make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands, and see for yourself. Adv.

METHODISTS UNITE IN LOYALTY PLEDGE

The newly-formed committee on state of the country named several days ago at the session of the Methodist Conference of the Methodist church, which closes today, reported this morning, making a strong declaration of patriotic principles. It set forth the atrocities and numerous violations of international law, adding that it was hoped that the press had outgrown such a condition and hoped that when the time arrived the United States would be in a position to serve as a ministering angel.

The report deplored the fact that while some people have been enjoying the tranquility of this country they have been plotting to undermine its sacred institutions, but expresses the opinion that prayers have been in vain, the days of parley are over and the time to strike has arrived. The report concludes by calling on the people and the army and navy to unite in a great and, holy movement to protect the country from the invasion of a foreign foe. The reading of the report was followed by cheers and hearty applause.

At yesterday's session of the conference resolutions were adopted criticising Mayor Raymond, of Newark, in scathing terms, and expressing regret in the defeat of the Local Option bill.

What To Do When Backache Comes On

Many People Find Quick Relief in Foley Kidney Pills

When backache comes on, and it seems as if you can't stand the pain and pressure in your back and sides, do not feel that you must keep on suffering till it wears itself out. It is more apt to wear you out and seriously affect your general health.

Get a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills and start taking them at once. They usually help from the very first dose. Foley Kidney Pills have a direct and beneficial action on the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs. Their effect is quickly felt in improved kidney and bladder action, often in the passing away of those painful and alarming symptoms. No more backache, weariness and dragging pains. No more painful, sleepless nights, having to get up time after time. Why pay you to try Foley Kidney Pills promptly, as did Mrs. J. Hurst, of Cleveland, Ga., who writes us: "I suffered with a terrible backache. Every time I bent over or stoop over to one side, I'd have a painful catch in my back just like a knife. ALLIES CLOSE IN ON ST. QUENTIN

French and British Menace Hindenburg Line Key.

London, April 3.—St. Quentin, central keypoint of the "Hindenburg line," is in the grip of an Anglo-French nutcracker, which is steadily contracting, threatening a cut-in of the whole Teuton front.

The British, closing in on the city from the northwest and west, pushed their lines to within two and a half miles of it, capturing three strongly defended villages, Cerisolles, Attilly and Villecholles. Sir Douglas Haig is bringing up his heaviest guns for the final onslaught.

The French, advancing from the south, also made further progress and are now only three miles from St. Quentin.

All dispatches from the front agree the Teutons are battling with desperate fury to prevent the fall of the city. Correspondents at British headquarters assert, however, that the German losses are considerably heavier than those of the entente. The Paris war office states that the Teuton line before St. Quentin are "held strongly."

Berlin admitted officially a further giving way to the British and French, though adding that the attackers were forced to "flow back several times" under the terrific barrage fire before the German defenders, "as had been covered with unknown after inflicting considerable losses upon the entente troops.

In the east the Germans, according to Berlin, stopped a Russian offensive on a four mile front on the Roumanian heights. Petrograd reported the repulse of Teuton attacks at various points of the front.

The Turks lost 8,000 men in the British victory at Gaza, Palestine, it was announced. Russian troops continue to advance in Persia.

PIERCE ALLEGED TO HAVE SUGGESTED DEAL

As the result of the defeat of the Newark charter bill in the Legislature last week, a controversy has arisen between Senator Carlton R. Pierce, of Union county, and Mayor Raymond, of Newark, over a statement of the Mayor's that Senator Pierce wanted to enter into a "deal" whereby his rural guard bill might be revived in the Assembly.

Following a conference with Senator Pierce, at which City Counsel Spaulding Frazer was present, Mayor Raymond declared that in answer to his request for action on the charter bill, Mr. Pierce agreed to support the charter bill if the Mayor would get action in the House on the constabulary bill. Mr. Frazer confirmed the Mayor's version, saying, "There is no doubt about the Senator proposing the deal."

Senator Pierce has denied the Mayor's statement as being a part truth that is entirely misleading. He says that he did not offer to trade his vote but told the Mayor if he wanted to be fair, to put through the rural guard bill and then come to me about the charter."

Mayor Raymond issued a formal statement Saturday, charging Senator Edmund Burke Osborne, of Essex county, with responsibility for the defeat off the charter bill.—Elizabeth Journal.

CONGRESS WILL SPEED ACTION

May Vote Declaration of War by Nightfall.

READY TO BACK PRESIDENT.

Only Emergency Legislation to Finance and Otherwise Rush War Preparations Will Be Considered — Navy Is Ready and Eager For Action—Universal Training Bills Introduced.

DECLARATION OF WAR AS PREPARED FOR HOUSE.

Washington, April 3—The resolution declaring war between the United States and Germany, as prepared for the house by Representative Flood, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, is as follows:

"Whereas, the recent conduct of the imperial German government is in fact nothing less than war against the government and people of the United States;

"Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, that the state of belligerency between the United States and the imperial German government which has thus been thrust upon the United States is hereby formally declared; and

"That the president be and he is hereby authorized to take immediate steps not only to put the country in a thorough state of defense, but also to exert all of its power and employ all of its resources to carry on war against the imperial German government; and to bring the conflict to a successful termination."

Washington, April 3.—Adoption of a resolution declaring that a state of war exists and setting forth in direct terms the purpose of the United States to use all the resources at its command to push the conflict to a successful termination will be the first step to be taken by congress in response to the president's recommendation.

Immediately the president left the capitol after delivering his address the senate and house reconvened and an identic joint resolution was introduced in both houses declaring the existence of a state of war and directing the president to employ all the resources of the country to carry on war against the imperial German government and bring the conflict to a successful conclusion.

Because of the opposition to the measure by Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee, the resolution was introduced in the senate by Senator Martin of Virginia, Democratic floor leader. Representative Flood, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, introduced it in the house.

The resolution was referred to the foreign affairs committee by both houses, and adjournment until today followed. Both committees met this morning.

Action by Nightfall.

Representative Gardner, Massachusetts, offered a resolution providing for a flat declaration of war, in the preamble of which he asserts that the triumph of Germany would destroy the liberty of the world.

It is possible that by nightfall today congress will have made its declaration.

Leaders of both houses devoted their energies to clearing the parliamentary stake for the appearance of the president and to making preparations for the consideration of the war resolution. Other features of the emergency legislative program will not be decided upon until this is out of the way.

It is the purpose of the administration leaders, after the initial resolution is passed, to take up the appropriation bills which failed of enactment during the last congress. Following these a bond issue of $500,000,000 to enable the government to meet the extraordinary emergency expenses will probably be authorized.

Emergency Legislation Only.

What other financial measures are to be proposed is yet to be decided. A revenue measure increasing the income tax and profits tax and possibly providing for the imposition of a stamp tax has been discussed. A revision of the tariff upward is said to be under consideration.

Other measures which have a place in the legislative program of an emergency character are the espionage bill, a censorship bill and the bill to authorize the shipping board to take over vessels under construction in American yards.

Navy Awaits Orders.

The navy is ready for the mobilization order. Admiral Mayo, in command of the battleship fleet, has reported to Secretary Daniels that he is ready and eager for the opportunity to serve the nation. The fleet's present whereabouts or its probable location during the early stages of the war will be strictly guarded secrets from now on. It can only be stated that the battleships are practically ready for action.

In response to the president's recommendation for 500,000 men two universal training bills are before congress.

Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the senate committee on military affairs, introduced the bill framed during the last congress with slight modifications. Representative Kahn, ranking Republican member of the military affairs committee, introduced a bill providing for the system proposed by the army general staff.

SUBMARINE SINKS U. S. ARMED SHIP

Freighter Aztec Torpedoed. Many in Crew Missing.

New York, April 3.—The American steamship Aztec, owned by the Oriental Navigation company, the first armed ship to sail from an American port, was sunk Sunday by a German submarine, according to advices received here by the company from the United States consul at Brest, France.

The cable gave no information as to the fate of the crew. There were thirty-nine men aboard the vessel, all of them Americans.

The Aztec sailed from New York March 18 for Havre. She was commanded by Captain Walter O'Brien. Sixteen members of the crew were native born Americans.

The Oriental Navigation company, owner of the Aztec, also owns the Orteans, one of the first American vessels to run successfully Germany's submarine blockade. The Aztec carried a full cargo of foodstuffs and general supplies valued at more than $500,000.

The Aztec was armed with two five-inch guns, one forward and one aft. The crew of naval gunners on board was in command of a warrant officer.

The Aztec, formerly owned by the Pacific Mail Steamship company, was a ship of 3,727 tons gross and 2,347 tons net. She was built in Newcastle, England, in 1904. She was 350 feet long with a beam of forty-three feet.

PEACE CIRCULARS NOT PERMITTED IN RAHWAY

Distribution of peace circulars by out-of-town socialists on Sunday was quickly foiled by members of the Home Defense Guard, of Rahway.

The men having the circulars were warned to leave Rahway at once on threat of being arrested for handing out circulars without the necessary police permit. They left without trouble. The members of the guard completed their labor by gathering up what pamphlets they could find and destroying them.

The circulars contained socialistic propaganda and asked that this country be kept out of war. They were signed by the Socialist League. The distributors were divided into five crews of one man and two boys each. Word of the activities reached the chief of police before 7 o'clock and he notified the guard.

SENATE RUSHES WAR MEASURES

Votes to Back President to Limit of Resources.

FOR UNIVERSAL TRAINING PLAN

Bill to Remove Teachers or Other Public Employees Making Treasonable Utterances Pushed to Third Reading. Reserve Militia Age Limit Extended. Cheers Greet Announcement of President's War Message.

Albany, April 3.—Republican and Democratic leaders of the senate joined forces as soon as the declaration of a state of war reached the senate chamber. Three measures were rushed through by unanimous action.

Resolutions urging congress to provide for universal military service at once and pledging all of the state's resources, including men and money, to the service of the federal government.

A bill giving the authorities of all counties, municipalities and villages the right to furnish financial aid to any private military organization in its district. The bill authorizes these divisions of the state to tax inhabitants for the necessary funds.

Age Limit Extended.

Another bill extending the age limit of the reserve militia beyond the age of forty-five went to third reading. Heretofore the reserve militia has been constituted only of men between the ages of eighteen and forty-five.

A bill amending the public officers' law, the civil service law and the education law to provide that any employees coming under these laws can be removed for treasonable or seditious utterances also went to third reading. All of these bills are now on third reading and scheduled to be passed, without objection when they come up for final passage.

The resolutions adopted unanimously were as follows:

Resolved, That the state of New York, through its legislature, pledges all its resources in men and money to the national movement in the present crisis for the most effective action to protect the nation, its honor and its rights and the rights of its citizens and for the common defense.

The second resolution reads:

Resolved, That the state of New York, through the legislature, declare in favor of universal military training and service.

Removal For Treason.

Senator Slater of Westchester, in introducing the bill providing for financial aid to independent military companies, said he had received requests for legislation to care for the subject.

Senator Theodore Douglas Robinson said the bill extending the limit of the federal reserve was intended to provide for the home defense when war is declared. He said that men over the forty-five year limit were eligible for that work.

The other bill providing for the removal of school teachers and others making treasonable statements, Senator Slater said, was desired because of recent utterances made in New York city.

The passage of the resolutions and the immediate advancement of the bills were vigorously cheered from the galleries.

GIRL ACCUSES HOMER MAN.

New York, April 3.—George Vreedenburgh of Homer, N. Y., is held in $7,000 bail at Stapleton, N. Y., on charges brought against him by Miss Vidia Brown, also of Homer.

Miss Brown was taken off Vreedenburgh's yacht, the Queenie, in Staten Island sound when she roused those on shore by cries for help. She said she had been a prisoner on board for several days during a trip from Philadelphia with the man. Vreedenburgh admits he brought Miss Brown from Philadelphia, but says it was at her request. He says they were engaged to be married. Miss Brown is held as a witness for the hearing Friday.

WILSON CALLS U. S. TO WAR

this Government of the German empire to terms and end the war.

What this will involve is clear. It will involve the utmost practicable co-operation in counsel and action with the governments now at war with Germany and, incident to that, the extension to those governments of the most liberal financial credits, in order that our resources may, so far as possible, be added to theirs. It will involve the organization and mobilization of all the material resources of the country to supply the materials of war and serve the incidental needs of the nation in the most abundant and yet the most economical and efficient way possible.

Calls For 500,000 Men.

It will involve the immediate full equipment of the navy in all respects, but particularly in supplying it with the best means of dealing with the enemy's submarines. It will involve the immediate addition to the armed forces of the United States already provided for by law in case of war at least 500,000 men, who should, in my opinion, be chosen upon the principle of universal liability to service, and also the authorization of subsequent additional increments of equal force as soon as they may be needed and can be handled in training.

It will involve also, of course, the granting of adequate credits to the government, sustained, I hope, so far as they can equitably be sustained by the present generation, by well conceived taxation, but sustained so far as may be equitable by taxation because it seems to me that it would be both unwise to base the credits which will not be necessary entirely on money borrowed. It is our duty, I most respectfully urge, to protect our people so far as we may against the very serious hardships and evils which would be likely to arise out of the inflation which would be produced by vast loans.

In carrying out the measures by which these things are to be accomplished we should keep constantly in mind the wisdom of interfering as little as possible in our own system and in the systems of any of our own military forces with the duty—for it will be a very practical duty—of supplying the nations already at war with Germany with the materials which they can obtain only from us or by our assistance. They are in the field, and we should help them in every way to be effective there.

While we do these things—these deeply momentous things—let us be very clear and make very clear to all the world what our motives and our objects are. My own thought has not been driven from its habitual and normal course by the unhappy events of the last two months, and I do not believe that the thought of the nation has been altered or clouded by them.

Neutrality is no longer feasible or desirable where the peace of the world is involved and the freedom of its peoples, and the menace to that peace and freedom lies in the existence of autocratic governments backed by organized force which is controlled wholly by their will, not by the will of their people. We have seen the last of neutrality in such circumstances.

We are glad, now that we see it clearly, that we have no feeling toward them but one of sympathy and friendship. In my message of January last I pointed out the principles of peace as we saw them, and the world has accepted them. We have no quarrel now except with the power that has thrown aside all considerations of humanity and of right and is running amuck.

We are accepting this challenge of hostile purpose because we know that in such a challenge all the fortunes of mankind are involved. We see it now clearly that unless the principles we have avowed shall now be triumphantly vindicated there is little hope that we can live our own lives as we have planned to live them and as the best thought of our nation has come to insist we must live them, unmolested and unthreatened, but the actual preparation for the life we have planned and thought to make our own will be impossible unless we secure the peace and safety of the seas and the assured existence of a community of nations which can be trusted to make and keep the peace among themselves.

Must Make World Safe.

We are glad, therefore, that we are to have the opportunity to assert the principles of humanity for which we have always stood and for which we entered the war. We are to be the champions of the principles of right and of fair play we profess to be fighting for.

And then, after the war, must come the great task of reconstruction, the great task of relief, the great task of feeding a stricken and disheartened world, so much of it as has been the victim of the present terrible war or of the equally terrible circumstances which have attended it.

Plans For Reconstruction.

Our own preparation for that task of relief and reconstruction we can and should begin now. Our object will be to relieve the nations now at war, all of them, without thought of profit or material advantage to ourselves. Our sympathy for those on board the vessels of friendly neutrals along with those of belligerents. Even hospital ships and ships carrying relief to the sorely stricken people of Belgium, though the latter were provided with safe conduct through the prescribed areas by the German Government itself, were distinctly warned by unmistakable marks of identity, have been sunk with the same reckless lack of compassion or of principle.

I was for a little while unable to believe that such things would in fact be done by any Government that had hitherto subscribed to humane practices of civilized nations. International law had its origin in the attempt to set up some law which would be respected and observed upon the seas, where no nation had right of dominion and where lay the free highways of the world. By painful stage after stage has that law been built up, with meagre enough results, indeed, after all was accomplished that could be accomplished, but always with a clear view, at least, of what the heart and conscience of mankind demanded.

This minimum of right the German Government has swept aside, under the plea of retaliation and necessity and because it had no weapons which it could use at sea except these, which it is impossible to employ as it is employed there, without throwing to the wind all scruples of humanity or of respect for the understandings that were supposed to underlie the intercourse of the world.

I am not now thinking of the loss of property involved, immense and serious as that is, but only of the wanton and wholesale destruction of the lives of non-combatants, men, women and children, engaged in pursuits which have always, even in the darkest periods of modern history, been deemed innocent and legitimate. Property can be paid for, the lives of peaceful and innocent people cannot be. The present German submarine warfare against commerce is a warfare against mankind.

It is a war against all nations. American ships have been sunk, American lives taken, in ways which it has stirred us very deeply to learn of, but the ships and people of other neutral and friendly nations have been sunk and overwhelmed in the same way.

There has been no discrimination.

The challenge is plain.

Each nation must decide for itself how it will meet it. The choice we make for ourselves must be made with a full realization of its [illegible] temper and purpose of the German government, and with a full realization that the step we take is not merely a step of defense but is one of those great moral adventures that call for all the sacrifices we can make. We are accepting the challenge with the solemn pride of those who know that a day has come when they must put everything they have to the test in the vindication of those principles of right and of fair play which they have always carried near the center of their hearts—principles with which their happiness and the existence of their institutions are bound up. We shall fight for the things which we have always carried nearest our hearts—for democracy, for the right of those who submit to authority to have a voice in their own governments, for the rights and liberties of small nations, for a universal dominion of right by such a concert of free peoples as shall bring peace and safety to all nations and make the world itself at last free.

To such a task we can dedicate our lives and our fortunes, everything that we are and everything that we have, with the pride of those who know that the day has come when America is privileged to spend her blood and her might for the principles that gave her birth and happiness and the peace which she has treasured. God helping her, she can do no other.

RUBBERS

Something dreadful has happened to rubbers. They used to climb all over man's feet and humiliate him terribly. They spread themselves around at an awful rate, unashamed. But here lately they've grown reticent. They seem to have suffered qualms. They hide on the bottom of men's feet and cling delicately to the soles of his shoes, as nearly out of sight as possible What is the matter, do you suppose? Can it be that after riding man's instep since time immemorial rubbers decided they had no business there and go off? It looks like it.

Many a man suffers painful exposure though all wrapped up in himself.

About the only blow that strikes a man favorably is his own boast.

To avenge our wrongs costs more than to protect our rights.

No man is tall enough to be above neighborly criticism.

COUNTRY CLUB IS IMPROVING HOUSE

Extension to Locker Rooms and Other Work Is Now Being Accomplished

Work has been started on the extensive improvements to the clubhouse of the Plainfield Country Club and is now progressing rapidly. The feature of the work now being accomplished is the enlargement and general improvements about the locker room, which, it is expected, will be completed about the first of May or sufficiently far enough along at that time so that the rooms may be used by members of the organization.

The extension when completed will practically double the locker room capacity and give the members the much-needed room for this purpose. This work was authorized by the annual meeting of the club held some time ago, at which time provision was made for extending the club links.

John Wyman has the general contract for the work of extension, Arthur Newman the plumbing work, Tallamy Bros. the mason contract and A. V. Searing, Jr., the electrical contract.

The golf and tennis schedules of the club are to be announced in the near future.

EAGLE COLTS WIN OVER TAB COLTS

The Mahoney's Lead Rival Teams; One to Defeat, One to Victory

Jim Mahoney's Colts, a combination of Eagle maple smashers, last evening made a clean sweep against the Tabs under the management of Bill Mahoney. And from the appearance of the scores there is no need for any recount of pins, for the majority of each game was quite substantial.

Rambler Worrall, who "filled in" for the Jim Mahoney's team, put up the best average of the evening, marking 192 for three tilts. Morris of the same team was next with 167.

COAST LEAGUE OPENS WITH MANY NEW PLAYERS

By United Press:

San Francisco, April 3.—What President Al Paum declares will be the most successful season in the history of the Pacific Coast League was opened today with games in Salt Lake City, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Portland played at Salt Lake City, Oakland at Los Angeles and Vernon in this city.

Thirty weeks of baseball will be staged in Los Angeles and San Francisco and fifteen weeks each in Salt Lake City and Portland. Two games a week will be played in Oakland and Vernon.

It is declared that more new faces will be seen in the coast league line-up this year than for several seasons past. Twenty-five players went up to the major leagues at the close of the 1916 season. Portland contributed the largest number, six, Vernon, 5; Los Angeles, San Francisco and Oakland, three each, and Salt Lake City, one.

Los Angeles, piloted by Frank Chance, the Peerless leader, won the pennant last year, and San Francisco the year before. It's an open race today.

ELKS KEEPING UP WINNING STREAK

Copped Odd Game Last Evening from K. of C. in City League Tilts

The Elks maintained their speedy ways last evening against the Knights of Columbus, taking the odd tilt of the evening in a City League series which had been laid over from March 22. Each team had a man averaging above 190—Duffy of the Knights at 198.1 and Vail of the Elks at 196.2.

There was a splitting of fifty-fifty on the double century scores of the evening, each aggregation securing two. Duffy went the highest for individual score, hitting 227 in the sandwich game.

CHEWING OF GOLF BALL FATAL TO CHILD OF SIX

Spring Lake, April 3.—Stanley Newman, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Newman, is dead here today after chewing the inside of a golf ball.

The boy's father is employed by the Spring Lake Golf and Country Club. Sunday, while walking around the grounds with his father, he found the golf ball. The youngster played with the ball until the outside cover peeled off. By chewing the cork he finally caused the release of the acid. The child almost drained the golf ball's contents before his sudden pains caused him to cry and attract attention. He was rushed to the Ann May Hospital by Dr. Robert L. Leighton and there placed upon the operating table. He died almost immediately.

FORMER LOCAL MEN WITH JERSEY CITY

Driscoll and Harter, Together With Clinton of Somerville Will Play in Hudson Co.

Jimmy Clinton, baseball twirler de luxe, who made a goodly portion of his reputation hurling the horsehide for the Somerville aggregation of the old Central New Jersey League, and last year twirler for the Jersey City Independents, has again signed a contract to play with the latter team for the 1917 season. The Skeeters will follow the policy of last year of entertaining major league teams over the week-end.

It is expected that Joe Harter, fielder of the old Plainfield Pets, will also be with the Skeeters again this year, with Dave Driscoll, manager of the local team a few years back, in harness as manager of the destinies of the aggregation. If Driscoll does manage the team again it is more than possible that a number of other former Pets will be seen in the line-up of the Hudson County team.

Throughout the entire season of last year a number of the Queen City fans followed this team because of the players affiliated who at one time or another pastimed at Crescent Oval when semi-pro ball flourished here for a season or two.

BOWLING MATCH OFF

The bowling match between the Plainfield Eagles and the Bound Brook teams, champions of the State Eagles and Central New Jersey Bowling leagues, respectively, booked for tomorrow, has been cancelled for the time being owing to the fact that the Bees could not get their team together at that time. However, it is expected that a new date will be fixed for some evening next week.

FORDHAM MANAGER DEAD

Paul J. Shea, 22 years old, manager of the Fordham University baseball team, died in St. Vincent's Hospital, New York, yesterday following an operation for appendicitis. Shea was a member of the senior class and entered college from Fordham Prep. As a mark of respect the varsity nine will wear mourning bands on their uniforms.

CORRECTION

Last night's Courier-News stated that the game for the Junior championship of the city between the Inner-Triangles and Y. M. C. A. Seconds would be played Tuesday night. This is an error. The game is to be played Thursday night, April 5, on the Inner-Triangles' court.

FEDS' SUIT POSTPONED

Philadelphia, April 3.—By mutual agreement of counsel the trial of the $100,000 anti-trust suit of the Baltimore Federal League club against organized baseball, which was to be started next week in the United States court here, was yesterday postponed to June 11.

Under the auspices of the Boys' Athletic Association of the Plainfield high school the Colgate University Glee and Mandolin Clubs, now on their Easter tour, will give a concert at the high school at 8:15 o'clock tonight. The program will be a pleasing and entertaining one, affording ample opportunity for the members of the clubs to display their talents.

After the concert there will be a dance, music for which will be furnished by Van Eps' Trio. This is the first time the Colgate musical clubs have visited Plainfield and it is predicted that the concert will attract a large audience.

REHEARSALS FOR THE "LAND OF MYSTERY"

There will be a rehearsal tonight at 8 o'clock for all the adults taking parts in "The Land of Mystery," the comic opera to be given at the Plainfield Theatre, April 10, 11 and 12, under the auspices of Plainfield Lodge of Elks. This rehearsal will be at the Elks' clubhouse.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock all the children in the "Ballet of the Fairies," will rehearse at Doyle & McCormack's dancing studio, 119 West Front street, Schloss building, and the rehearsal for adults will be held Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the same place.

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "run-downs," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds, and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do. —Adv.

EVAN WILLIAMS IS ALWAYS IN DEMAND

Evans Williams, the well-known soloist who is to sing at the concert to be given at the Plainfield high school Monday night, April 9, under the auspices of the Plainfield Dental Association, is always in demand. A critic in speaking of the artist says:

"When an artist is engaged season after season in the same cities, there is but on reason for it; box office receipts. Clubs and local managers have paid dearly to learn the "drawing powers" of various artists, and Evan Williams' recitals have many times made up losses incurred by other attractions. It is easily seen then, why the distinguished tenor is always in demand; throughout the whole year he tours the country, everywhere singing to capacity houses."

ASK YOUR FRIEND

There is hardly a neighborhood in any city, town or hamlet in the United States where women cannot be found who have derived benefit from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than forty years this botanic remedy has been overcoming some of the worst cases of female ills. As one woman has found help she has told another, who has used it with the same result; so the use of this great medicine has spread from shore to shore by the recommendation of those who have found it good. Therefore, ask your neighbor, let her tell you from experience the benefit which ailing women derive from the use of this famous medicine.—Adv.

BAD COLD? TAKE "CASCARETS" FOR BOWELS TONIGHT

They're fine! Liven your liver and bowels and clear your head.

No headache, sour stomach, bad cold or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Colds—whether in the head or any part of the body—are quickly overcome by urging the liver to action and keeping the bowels free of poison. Take Cascarets tonight and your will wake up with a clear head and your cold will be gone. Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember the quickest way to get rid of colds is one or two Cascarets at night to cleanse the system. Get a 10-cent box at any drug store. Don't forget the children. They relish this candy cathartic and it is often all that is needed to drive a cold from their little systems.—Adv.

DR. EATON SPEAKS ON 'NEW BIRTH OF FREEDOM'

In the Madison Avenue Baptist church, New York, Sunday, Rev. Dr. Charles A. Eaton, of Watchung, on the topic, "The World's New Birth of Freedom," said in part:

"Today we are praying. Tomorrow we must unsheathe the sword." He stirred his congregation by reading the appeal of the Emergency Peace Federation to the Women of the United States, and then reciting "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," written by Julia Ward Howe.

"Who is the woman of America?" he asked. "Is it she who wrote 'Let us die to make men free,' or is it the spineless pacifist?"

A rustle which in any other circumstance would have swelled into applause spread through the church. "God bless Mrs. Howe!" called out a woman's voice.

"I bow to the womanhood of the country," Dr. Eaton continued, "but I hope I'll never live to see the day when I'll hide behind a woman's petticoat. If I do, I'll give her my trousers and don her petticoat.

"If we go to war we ought to go in nobly. There should be no trifling, no masquerading or bluffing. We ought to mobilize every man, woman and engine of effectiveness."

FIFTY-SIX YEARS IN SUNDAY SCHOOL

Keyport, N. J., April 3.—Samuel Winterdon has just completed fifty-six years of consecutive sessions of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church there, not having missed a single session. Mr. Winterdon has attended 2,912 sessions and thinks his is the record of this country for unbroken Sunday school attendance.

At the close of his first year in the Sunday school he received a Bible and still has the Bible.

In 1897 Mr. Winterdon received a Bible from the Christian Herald for attending Sunday school 1,732 consecutive Sundays. In 1912 the Monmouth County Sunday School Association gave a gold medal to him for fifty years' perfect attendance.

SERVICES AT HOLY CROSS

The service at Holy Cross Episcopal church at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow evening will be in the nature of preparation for the Easter communion. The choir will sing and there will be an address. On Maundy Thursday there will be the celebration of Holy Communion at 9:30 o'clock in the morning.

YOU HAVE CATARRH!

What Are You Doing to Stop It?

If your nose is clogged with air passages swollen and inflamed or if crusts are constantly forming in it, if you suffer from droppings in the throat, and are blowing, hawking, spitting all the time you have catarrh.

You may have had catarrh for years—and can go on having it for years to come. It's a curable act. But if you really wish to end it quickly and feel 100 per cent. better in every way go to L. W. Randolph or any live local druggist and buy a large package of Hyomei with inhaler." No stomach dosing, greasy ointments, sprays or fumigation. You breathe Hyomei and as you inhale its pure, wholesome air its healing tonic balsams quickly reach all the sore, inflamed membranes of the nose and throat and the catarrhal germs are destroyed. Clears out the head and throat like magic, opens up the nose, makes breathing easy and gives complete relief from every catarrhal symptom. It has done this for years for thousands of people. Your money back if it cannot do it for you.—Adv.

GIRLS! MOISTEN CLOTH AND DRAW IT THROUGH HAIR

It becomes beautifully soft, wavy abundant and glossy at once.

Save your hair! All dandruff goes and hair stops coming out.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Save your hair! Keep it looking charming and beautiful. You will say this was the best 25 cents you ever spent.—Adv.

VETERAN OFFERS HIS SERVICES TO COUNTRY

Zebulon Chadbourne, of South avenue, a veteran of the Civil War, addressed the commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, offering his services to the country, at this time, in any way in which he might be useful.

In response he has received the following:

Office of the Commandant Third Naval District,

Mr. Zebulon Chadbourne,
Plainfield, N. J.

Dear Sir:—Your letter of March 26, 1917, has been referred to us.

We thank you very much for your patriotic offer to assist your country at this time, and are very sorry that according to your age we will not be able to enroll you. However, accept our great appreciation.

By direction of Commander Upham, C. F. McNair, assistant paymaster.

[Although nearly eighty years old when the war broke out, Mr. Chadbourne thought seriously of going to France to enroll for the ambulance service.]

HELPS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

VIRGINIA CARTER LEE

Miss Lee will gladly answer any laundry problems in domestic science. A stamped envelope being necessary for a personal reply. Address care of Courier-News.

Cakes and buns are always associated with the Easter season and the "hot cross bun" stands first in point of "honorable descent" and popularity. Of course, every bakeshop in the country will have its quota of "hot cross buns" for Good Friday's breakfast, but they are rarely as good as those prepared in the home kitchen.

In the following tested recipes will be found excellent formulas for service during the latter part of Easter week.

Hot Cross Buns

The ingredients required are: One cake of compressed yeast, half a cupful of tepid water, two cupfuls of scalded milk and about three cupfuls of sifted flour. (This forms the sponge). Also, half a cupful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, two egg yolks, one-third of a cupful of melted butter, three-quarters of a cupful of mixed currants and chopped raisins and flour enough to make a soft dough. Prepare a sponge from the first four ingredients and when very light mix in the other ingredients (the dough should then be stiff enough to knead). Let it rise again, turn out on a floured board, knead thoroughly and roll out into a thin sheet. Cut in rounds and lay in a greased pan. When they have doubled in bulk, bake for half an hour. When nearly baked, brush over with a mixture of cooked milk, sugar and cinnamon. After they are slightly cooled, pipe with ornamental frosting with a cross on top of each.

Squash Biscuit

The necessary ingredients are: One-third of a cake of compressed yeast, half a cupful of luke-warm water, half a cupful of scalded milk, half a cupful of canned squash, one-quarter of a cupful of brown sugar, half a teaspoonful of salt, one-quarter of a cupful of melted butter and about three cupfuls of sifted flour. Soften the yeast in the water, add the other ingredients and mix to a soft dough. Knead nearly ten minutes, using no more flour than is necessary. Cover and let stand over night. In the morning the mixture should have doubled in bulk. Turn out on a floured board, then pat and roll into a sheet nearly half an inch thick. Dip a cutter into flour and cut into rounds. Set these close together in a greased baking pan and brush over the tops with melted butter. When very light (double in size again), bake about half an hour.

One Sheet of Coffee Cake

In making use two-thirds of a cake of compressed yeast, one-quarter cupful of tepid water, one cupful of scalded milk, one-quarter of a cupful of butter or other shortening, one-quarter of a cupful of sugar, half a teaspoonful of salt, one egg, about three cupfuls of flour, one dozen blanched almonds, three additional tablespoonfuls of sugar and one teaspoonful of ground cinnamon. Melt the shortening in the milk and add the sugar and salt. When luke-warm add the yeast mixed with the tepid water, the lightly beaten egg and the flour. Enough flour should be added to make a very stiff batter, or soft dough, and the mixture should be almost stiff enough to knead. Cut through and turn it over and over with a knife and then set aside, covered, to raise over night. In the morning the mixture should be doubled in bulk. Cut through and through again with a knife, turning it over and over, and spread smoothly in a buttered pan, about ten by five inches. When light, but not quite doubled in size, bake for half an hour. When cooked, make a cooked paste with a teaspoonful of cornstarch and half a cupful of water. Spread the top of the cake with this paste, putting it on generously. Then sprinkle with the almonds, cut in thin slices, and dredge with the sugar mixed with the cinnamon.

Return to the oven grate to melt the sugar and brown the almonds slightly. Use care that it does not scorch.

Bread Sticks

To prepare, use one cupful of scalded and cooled milk, half a cake of compressed yeast, one-quarter of a cupful of tepid water, about one and a half cupfuls of bread flour, half a tablespoonful of sugar, half a teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of melted butter, one lightly beaten white of egg and flour for a soft dough. Make a sponge with the first four ingredients and, when light, add the other materials. Knead until elastic. Then cover and let rise until the bulk has doubled. Pull off small pieces of dough and knead into balls. Lay on a floured board and cover. When light, roll into pencil shapes and lay in greased bread stick pans. Let rise again for half an hour and bake. Brush over with the beaten white of egg and return for a few minutes to glaze.

JAKEY DUCK

Jakey Duck was very angry, and so was his mother, Madam Duck, for Smudge, the puppy, had bothered them a great deal lately, and they were unable to defend themselves.

Every morning when they were eating out of a pan, right by their own house, too, Smudge would come bounding out of his house, and, without a word of warning, run at them, and not only upset their pan of mush, but tumble them over in the most undignified manner.

"If I had the bringing up of that puppy," said Madam Duck, "I would teach him good manners, but his mother seems to think he is very funny and cunning when he does such rude things."

"I would like to pick his eyes; then he could not see where to run," said Jakey.

"That would be a very cruel thing to do," said Madam Duck. "I do not approve of anything like that. No just to teach him to respect his elders. Why, I was here before he ever was born, and I would like to do what I would like to do would be came to live at the farm. I think a good ducking would take some of the mischief out of him."

Then Jakey Duck was struck with an idea. A ducking—that would be great fun, for Jakey knew that Smudge could not swim. He was only a puppy, and, while Jakey was only a duckling, he could swim like a duck.

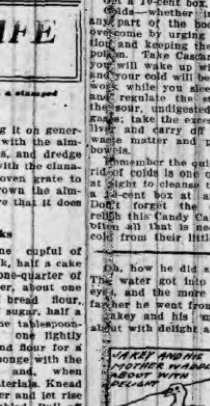
The next morning Jakey persuaded his mother not to eat the mush as soon as it was put in the pan, but to go down by the pond and eat bugs.

Madam Duck and Jakey were busily engaged eating when Smudge came out of his house and ran straight for the duck-house.

He stopped when he did not see Jakey and his mother, and looked about. Then he espied them, right by the pond.

He rushed down the bank and dashed at them, but something he did not expect happened to Smudge.

Jakey and his mother rolled over on the ground, but Smudge could not stop. He slid right down the bank, and splash! into the water he went.



Oh, how he did splash and ki-yi. The water got into his mouth and eyes, and the more he paddled the farther he went from the bank.

Jakey and his mother waddled about with delight at the discomfort of poor Puppy Smudge, and then they went in to the water, swimming around Smudge, and quacking at him.

Smudge made such a noise that all the ducks and hens and chickens came running down to the pond as fast as their two legs could carry them, and Smudge's mother heard him at last and came to his aid.

"You poor darling," she said. "How in the world did you happen to fall into the pond?"

Smudge's mother could swim, of course, and into the water she went and caught the frightened Smudge by the neck and brought him out.

She pulled him on the bank and rolled him over and over as she licked the water from his coat. "How did you get in the pond?" she asked him again.

"I can tell you, Mrs. Dog," said Jakey. "He ran at my mother and me to tumble us over, just as he does every morning, but this time he was too near the water and he slid in."

"Serves him right, too," said Madam Duck. "He should respect his elders and have better manners. You better keep him at home, Mrs. Dog, or something worse than a ducking may happen to Smudge."

Smudge looked very crestfallen, and his mother looked very severe. "Is that the way you behave in the barnyard?" she asked. "You said last you were playing with Jakey and the others. I am glad they gave you a ducking, you naughty boy. Come home, now, and stay in the house the rest of the day."

Jakey looked after Smudge as he slowly followed his mother up the bank.

"I think the ducking was enough. I am sorry Smudge has to stay in the house. I'll go up and talk to him."

"Bad boys have to be punished," said Madam Duck. "You stay right by my side. Smudge needs to have time to think over all the naughty things he has done. You see what happens to bad-mannered boys."

Belgian Relief Society Ships Many Cases to Appui Belge and Secours Duryea

HAS BALANCE IN HAND

Letter from Hoover Commission Says Dutch Are Carrying on Work Formerly Done by Americans

The Plainfield Belgian Relief Society held its seventh meeting this year at Mrs. Wallace's yesterday morning.

The chairman reported that 50 cases of milk sent the Queen on an English ship through the help of H. G. Phillips, had been shipped on the Minnesota, and that 75 other cases for the Queen and 75 for the Appui Belge, as well as a number of boxes of garments, had gone on the Arriuze, sailing under the French flag. The milk is all insured, although the rate on the Arriuze was high. The garments had been rather evenly distributed, 940 going to the Belgians in the unconquered district around La Panne, 980 to the Secours Duryea for Belgian refugees in France, and 955 makes the 1,000 handkerchiefs to the Appui Belge for Belgian refugees in both France and Belgium.

Warm thanks were expressed to the Musical Club for a generous gift of $230 from the proceeds of the Paderewski concert, and to Mr. Philips for his untiring help and interest.

The chairman of the society presented a request from the sub-committee for the supplementary meal fund that all members of the society take an active interest in the mass meeting planned by the committee for April 25, and attend the meeting with all the friends that they can bring.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $1,858.56, of which $723.59 is available for the milk fund and $835.00 has been given for the supplementary meal fund. As $518.00 had also been pledged for the supplementary meal and as $253.80 was either given or pledged on the day of the meeting, the society had over $1,600.00 in actual cash or in pledges for the supplementary meal fund and it is understood that the sub-committee has as much more. This makes a total of over $3,200.00 either collected or pledged for the extra meal for a year for a town with a child population of 400.

A letter from the Hoover Commission reads as follows:

March 30, 1917.

My dear Mrs. Wallace: Please pardon the delay in replying to your letter of March 26th, but owing to the pressure of work, it has been impossible to get around to it before.

Yesterday, we sent you, as you requested, three hundred copies of the pamphlet, as you undoubtedly already know from the press notices which have been sent you, the work is going on as in the past, the only difference being that Dutchmen are taking the place of our Americans in Belgium and Northern France.

We are in receipt of a cable today, from Mr. Hoover, to the effect that this change is being effected rapidly and that there will be positively no interference with the food supply.

I should be glad to hear from you as to what the sub-committee for the relief of the children in Belgium are doing and have accomplished so far.

Very truly yours,

G. W. GIDDINGS,
Secretary of Appeal Committee.

The society chose the town of Hirchies in the province of West Hainaut, in the region of Mons, and hopes that the town of Plainfield will continue to give in small and large sums for this little village whose children the Belgian Relief Society has pledged itself to save. Never was there a time when the children of Belgium needed more the help from America that alone can save them, and never was there a time when the United States, now about to fight "for the rights of nations great and small," could less afford not to save these children. Where Belgium is concerned, the honor of the world is at stake.

Among those who are making large subscriptions to the fund for the extra meal for from ten to twenty-five children a month are George A. Bonnann, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Stewart, Charles W. McCutchen, of Plainfield, and E. H. Van Ingen, of New York.

Miss Corey explained that she had perfected her plans for the second paper campaign which was announced in the Courier-News some time ago. Owing to the fact that the boy scouts could not give a day in April to help with the collection, May 12 has been chosen. Miss Anne Miller has divided

Eloquent Hebrew Speaks at Opening of Campaign to Raise Fund for Sufferers

$4,180 IS PLEDGED

Judge Newcorn Presided and Dr. Zelie and Dr. Strong Also Addressed Meeting

The opening gun in the campaign of the Jews in America to raise the sum of ten million dollars for the Jewish sufferers in the war zone of Europe was fired last evening at a meeting held in Columbus Hall. The hall was filled to its capacity, and the generosity was marked. The sum subscribed was $4,180.

Judge William Newcorn presided and the principal speaker was Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York. The Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church and the Rev. Philip B. Strong, of the First Baptist church, brought messages of sympathy with the cause, and their inspiring words aroused many outbursts of applause and had no slight influence on the results of the meeting.

Rabbi Wise, who is one of the foremost leaders among the Jewish people in this country, made a profound impression. He is an imposing figure and possesses a command of language and a power of utterance that reminded his hearers that the historic eloquence of the Hebrew race is not lost. He passed in rapid review the mountain tops of the past history of Israel and called upon his people to match the past by a great present and to strive after a still greater future. Only as he, himself, lived up to the demands of the splendid traditions of his race could he feel himself a true part of that race and he urged his brethren to live in the nobility of the days of Israel's glory.

Speaking especially of the conditions of today, Rabbi Wise said: "I want to register my own pride in an America that is greater today than she was yesterday. After two years of unprecedented self-control and marvelous restraint we are about to take our part in the great struggle, not to kill and to destroy, but to liberate the greatest peoples of the earth. I have today sent a telegram to President Wilson, saying, 'I thank God for your most noble leadership of the American people.' I am speaking now at what is probably the first important assembly of Jews since the message of President Wilson to Congress, and I wish to say that the message will be regarded as certainly the equal of the golden words of Washington and of Lincoln. It was a great message to a great people. We are, in this land, a hundred million Americans, fused together, not for reprisal, not for vengeance, but to see that despotism shall perish from the earth and all the world at last be set free."

Rabbi Wise presented the case of the Jews in Europe; he did not appeal for help for them; he took higher ground than that. "The sufferers in Europe," he said, "number one-fourth of the Jews of the world. I will not beg for them. I will not appeal as on behalf of beggars; they are no more beggars than you. I'd rather a million Jews should perish in the war zone than that I should beg for them as though these Jews, these representatives of the great race of ancient Palestine, were a horde of beggars. If we don't respond to their need out of the unurged impulses of our hearts we are a people not worthy of saving. I believe our God has brought us to this land of plenty and blessed us here that we might have this high privilege. No Jew in the war-swept zone should be permitted to suffer hunger."

QUICK RESPONSE BY PRINCE OF WALES FUND

An emergency unit has been formed by Muhlenberg Hospital and the United States of America and Prince of Wales Relief Committee has immediately aided in meeting its requirements by sending 7,000 surgical dressings and stands ready to send many more.

The committee is now working every Tuesday and Thursday, in the parish house of Grace church and is turning out the thousands of dressings weekly for the American reserve and the allies.

Membership tickets will be issued tomorrow morning.

MRS. FRANK WAGNER DIED THIS MORNING

Was Formerly Miss Agnes Elliott and Was Born in Philadelphia

After an illness of several months, Mrs. Frank M. Wagner, of West Second street and Park avenue, died this morning at her home, aged about thirty-eight years. She had been confined to the house for several weeks, since she was brought home from Philadelphia by her husband, after having been taken seriously ill while on a visit there with relatives.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed, but it may be held Friday. The interment will be made in Camden.

Mr. Wagner was formerly Miss Agnes Elliott, and was born in Philadelphia, of English parents. She leaves, besides her husband, three sisters, Mrs. P. Fisher, Mrs. Mary Tallant and Mrs. Elizabeth Harrison, and a brother, Edward Elliott, all of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner had lived in this city about ten years, coming here from Jersey City, when Mr. Wagner took charge of the Union News Company stand at the east bound station here. Three years later Mr. Wagner went into business for himself on North avenue, and selling that some time ago, is carrying on business on West Front street, opposite the post office.

In his bereavement Mr. Wagner has the sympathy of many friends, in being deprived of the happy relationship that has existed for the past eighteen years.

COLGATE STUDENTS GIVE FINE CONCERT

Many Patrons Enjoy Popular Program at High School and a Dance Followed

The concert given by Colgate University Glee and Instrumental Clubs at the Plainfield High School last night, under the auspices of the Boys' Athletic Association, attracted a large audience and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the popular program. Enthusiastic applause followed the rendition of every number, and the clubs were generous in responding to encores. Both the glee and instrumental clubs are evenly balanced and in the individual and collective work there was a finish that was appreciated by the audience.

The program opened with the singing of the Alma Mater and campus songs, which are popular with the students, and were well received by all present. Features included the singing of "The End of a Perfect Day" by a quartet comprising Messrs. Bushby, Watkins, Burchard and Mason; cello solo by H. E. Abel, character sketches by M. J. Hayes, which included "Casey at the Bat," and a parody on "The Merchant of Venice." In part second feature numbers were "Serenade to Juanita," by the clubs; "The Unstrung Quintet," Messrs. Adams, Bartholomew, Dunby, Buchanan and Bogatko. The program was concluded with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," in which the audience joined heartily.

After the concert the majority of the patrons remained to enjoy dancing until a late hour, music being furnished by Van Epa Trio. J. Leo Mason was the leader of the glee club with W. H. Hoerner, director, and Byron W. Shimp was leader of the instrumental club with R. G. Ingraham as director.

This morning at 9.45 o'clock fire was discovered in the Hersey hat factory in Park avenue. The firemen put out the blaze with chemicals. The damage was slight. This is the second fire in the same building within three days.

GRASS FIRES

The fire department was called out at 12.30 this afternoon to extinguish a grass fire at 29 Elm place, and a short time before the alarm for this fire came in, a grass fire at West Sixth street and Monroe avenue, assumed such proportions that No. 3 Hose Company was sent to extinguish the blaze.

MOTOR TRUCK FOR COMPANY K

It Cost $1,200 and $530 of This Was Raised by National Special Aid

Subscriptions have been completed for the purchase of a motor truck for Company K, of this city, and the purchase was made today. The truck was turned over to Norman D. Loughlin, of the National Special Aid Society, Plainfield Branch, to be sent at once to the company.

The truck cost $1,200, and is said to be even a better one than Plainfield subscribers sent to Troop D, at the Mexican border last summer. Many subscriptions were raised through the instrumentality of Senator Ernest R. Ackerman, who also was one of the principal contributors to the fund for Troop D's truck.

Of the $1,200 raised for the truck the National Special Aid Society raised $530 last night, in two hours. The campaign was conducted by Mrs. Gustep Andrews, chairman of the motor squad, ably assisted by the following members: Mrs. R. Story Rowland, Mrs. H. C. Pierce, Mrs. C. G. Munro, Mrs. W. B. Tyler, Miss Alice Corey, Mrs. William Power, Mrs. S. B. Joost, Mrs. Lewis Williams, Mrs. Frank C. Ard, Mrs. Archibald Orr.

The money was raised in a short time, through the active efforts of the originators, and expresses a thoughtfulness of the donors for the Plainfield young men who have volunteered in the service of their country. The truck, from the service which the truck will render the boys, it will be a reminder to them of the keen interest the folks back home feel in them, and in their organization, and will be a stimulus to their endeavor, in the voluntary patriotic service which they are ever ready to offer.

It was a great disappointment to the patriotic members of the National Special Aid that they were not notified of Company K's departure so that they could give them a rousing "send off." They are glad to have had this opportunity of helping the company and showing their appreciation of these brave men who so promptly responded to their country's call.

"BALLET OF FAIRIES" FEATURE OF OPERA

One of the most attractive features of the comic opera, "The Land of Mystery" to be given at The Plainfield Theatre, April 10, 11 and 12, under the auspices of Plainfield Lodge of Elks, will be the "Ballet of the Fairies," in which two hundred children appear as many-colored flowers. As the sun begins to rise the queens arise from sleep, rub their eyes and proceed to awaken their subjects, the flowers. Then, the countless flowers awake to greet the rising sun, a scene of dazzling beauty is presented.

The queens of the ballet are as follows:

Violets, Mary Raleigh; woodsymphs, Ruth Nellis; forget-me-nots, Mabel Warden; doves, Catherine Dacey; fire-flies, Estelle Burke; dandelions, Emma Nellis; butterflies, Estelle Homan; water sprites, Winifred Scribner and Ruth Scribner; olives, Victoria Hadley and Helen Dacey. Miss Edna Mantz will be the queen of fairies.

UNIFORMED RANK ON THE HIKE

Fifty men turned out to drill last night at the meeting of Company B, 1st Regt. U. S. A. M., Uniformed Rank. The members met at the club house in full uniform and after going through many maneuvers started on a hike through the borough streets. Captain Harispence marched his men for several hours in many parts of the borough and the appearance of uniformed men in the streets created some interest. Ten new members were added to the organization last night.

The local Jr. O. U. A. M. rank has offered its services to the city for any emergency cause.

REV. EDWIN SHAW ADDRESSES GUILD

Boys' Service League Attended Session—Annual Meeting to be Held April 13

Rev. Edwin Shaw, formerly of the Seventh Day Baptist Church, gave the chalk talk last night before the members of the Plainfield Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild. The speaker, the Rev. Dr. Pierce, who had been announced to make the address was unable to be present. The session was held at the Friend's Meeting House.

Dr. Shaw gave a very entertaining talk, first drawing a cluster of four carnations and they were appropriately lettered, Peace and Plenty, Prayer and Patriotism, Fellowship and Friendship, and Goodness and Godliness, using as his theme each one of these topics, and closed his address with other illustrations including the cross which he said meant service for God. Rev. Mr. Shaw also conducted the devotional exercises.

Harry Center of the Y. M. C. A. was present with a delegation of the Boys' Service League. Mr. Center spoke on the work of the newly organized boys' society. There were present by the president, Joseph Harper, and Mrs. L. M. Case of the distributing committee.

President Harper referred to a crippled boy that was being educated by the society. The Guild orchestra played selections.

The annual meeting of the society will be held on the evening of Friday, April 13.

COLUMBUS CLUB FOR HOSPITAL

Tendered to President for Emergency Purposes at Meeting Last Night

At a meeting of Columbus Club last night, it was decided to tender to the President of the United States the use of Columbus Club as an emergency hospital in case such an institution is needed in this vicinity, and a message covering the tender was sent to the President.

The Columbus Club has a large auditorium which could accommodate more than 100 beds. It has several small rooms, a large sun parlor, kitchen and recreation room, and is well adapted for hospital purposes if it becomes necessary to establish an emergency institution here.

FUNERAL OF H. C. NASH IS LARGELY ATTENDED

The funeral of Harry C. Nash, former secretary and treasurer of The State Trust Company, who died suddenly in this city on Sunday last, was held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Westminster Presbyterian church, Bloomfield. Rev. Dr. Wilcox, pastor of the church, used the impressive Episcopal form of service.

There was a large attendance of relatives and friends, including representatives from The State Trust Company, Kountze Brothers, New York bankers, with whom Mr. Nash was formerly associated; the Peckskill Academy, from which institution he was graduated, and many business associates in New York and this city.

There were many beautiful floral tributes, comprising a spray of pink roses and calla lilies from the directors of The State Trust Company, a wreath from Mr. Nash's associates in the local banking institution and many others from relatives and friends, the bier being completely covered with flowers. The burial took place in Bloomfield cemetery.

ENGLAND MAY SCATTER SPEECH OF PRESIDENT IN GERMANY

By United Press:

London, April 4.—In view of the extreme improbability that the German press will be permitted to publish the text of President Wilson's speech, it was said today that the Allies are *considering a plan of distributing it broadcast over Ger*many by aeroplanes.

ASSEMBLING FORCES TO STRIKE GERMANY

By United Press:

Washington, April 4.—By the time Congress acts on the war resolution, all plans for assemblage the nation's forces to strike at the Imperial German Government will be ready for presentation by the President.

All plans are on a three-year war basis. Army legislation based on selective conscription of the country's young men as rapidly as they can be equipped, officered and trained is considered probably the most important.

All men except those exempted, such as married men, mechanical experts, and scientists, will be expected to come under the colors. The maximum and minimum age limit of men for the first increment is expected to be 18 and 23 years.

Pending the raising of the American army the United States is planning to ship unlimited supplies to the Allies.

HITCHCOCK URGES RESOLUTION TO DECLARE WAR

By United Press:

Washington, April 4—Urging that there be no "faltering, no division or weakness in the nation," Senator Hitchcock began his argument today in the Senate for passage on the resolution that will make war with Germany an actuality. His appeal was more dramatic as he declared he had always been opposed to war, and even in the face of the former attitude asked Congress to "pledge the nation to a war "that may last three years, and cost much blood sacrifice, and war that shall have no Gethsemane."

Senator La Follette, one of the "wilful twelve," was not present when the Senate began its patriotic program. Senators Swanson and Lodge added their voices to the plea of Senator Hitchcock for immediate strong aggressive action against Germany.

While the Senate debated, the House Foreign Committee considered the war resolution of the administration. The uncertain length of speeches in the Senate made it uncertain whether that body would end its work today, although there was promise that the Senate's long winded speechmaking would be curbed, and the opponents of war measures would fall into line and give President Wilson what he wants.

GERMANS CHAGRINED OVER THE MESSAGE

By United Press:

The Hague, April 4.—Germany received the news of President Wilson's address "with the deepest chagrin," foreign office officials formally stated to correspondents *today, according to Berlin dis*patches.

By United Press:

Washington, April 4.—The House will be asked tomorrow to take action on the Martin war resolution.

Washington, April 4.—The House adjourned at 2.55 o'clock until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

SENT SUPPLIES TO SUFFERERS

the city into districts and the collection will be most thorough and systematic. There will be no attempt this time to collect scrap paper, as that work does not pay, but newspapers, magazines, books without board covers, pamphlets and advertising material of all kinds, and cardboard will be most welcome. If the donors will tie the papers in tight bundles and place them on the front plazzas speedy collection will be facilitated. The more tightly the bundles are tied the less waste there will be in the junk yard. The money from this campaign will go to the milk fund. When it is remembered that the milk goes to districts in Belgium and Northern France that are not covered by the Hoover Commission and that contain thousands of refugees who have no assurance of even the Hoover 50 per cent. rations, no one will feel that this work can be neglected or abandoned. Plainfield is only a little place, but many sufferers await longingly for the boxes and cases that bear its name. A dollar means nine cans of milk, a quarter will buy two cans or more.

MRS. GEORGE H. FERRY DIED IN MELROSE, MASS.

Mrs. Cornelia Booth Ferry, widow of George W. Ferry, formerly a resident of this city, died March 17, in Melrose, Mass., in her eighty-eighth year. The burial was made in Danbury, Conn.

Mrs. Ferry lived here a number of years, up to about fifteen years ago, much of that time in Truell Court. She was an attendant of Grace church at the time the Rev. Floyd Appleton, now of Harrisburg, Pa., was assistant rector during the rectorship of the late Dean Rodman.

LAWRENCE H. FRENCH APPOINTED SERGEANT

Lawrence H. French, of North Plainfield, a student at Rutgers College, has been appointed sergeant in the cadet band in the plans of preparedness adopted by the student body of the college. A straw vote of the students was taken yesterday and nearly 90 per cent. will enlist in some branch of the service in case of a declaration of war.

At the same time in which the straw vote was taken regarding enlistment, another vote was polled concerning universal military training. It was found that 371 students were for the military training and 53 against it.

PEACE PROPAGANDISTS

It is about time to consider the rampant peace propagandists as pro-Germans or Prussian sympathizers, and as such to put a check on their unpatriotic sentiments. It may be all right for people to hold their own views as to the methods of preserving peace, but an open, active, aggressive propaganda led by the cry of peace when there is no peace is an offense against the country which recognizes the fact that a state of war exists. Peace talk at this time is unwarranted, unpatriotic, dangerous and a decided hindrance to the protection that this country now must have in order to avoid actual warfare and to further the endeavors that humane nations are hoping to make in order to stop the satanic devastation of humanity.

WHY BE A PACIFIST?

The pacifists are very human in their efforts to gain what they want, even if they have to fight for it, as witness the attack on Senator Lodge, in which he was knocked down and injured by some Massachusetts people, who came to his office in the Senate building in Washington to convert him. They apparently were determined to have peace, even if they had to fight for it. That is all that the real patriotic American citizens want—peace, even if they have to fight for it. Why shouldn't the pacifists join forces with the real Americans and avoid the implication of being pro-Prussians?

PEOPLE'S FORUM

Answers Mr. Watson

Plainfield, N. J., April 2, 1917.
To the Editor of the Courier-News:

I think I can answer the question of Mr. J. Watson whose letter appeared in your columns on Saturday last.

On the same day, March 31, there was mailed to each of Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Senator William Hughes, and Congressman John H. Capstick, of the Fifth Congressional district of New Jersey, a communication bearing the signatures of about 268 representative citizens of this community, of which the following is a copy:

"We, the undersigned, citizens of Plainfield, Newark, Jersey, and vicinity, regardless of our past political affiliations, unite in urging you at the approaching session of Congress to give your unqualified support to a resolution declaring war against Germany. We believe that this action is demanded by both the honor and the interests of this country, as well as by our duty to the cause of humanity, civilization and international justice.

"We further believe that such war should be prosecuted with all the vigor this country can muster, not as an independent enterprise, but in cordial co-operation with the Entente Allies for the defeat of the common enemy.

"To accomplish this end, we urge your unremitting support for the prompt passage, among other things, of legislation establishing a system of universal military service under Federal control, in addition to such other legislation as may appear necessary to authorize the formation of a volunteer army for use during the present war.

"Finally, we pledge you our loyal support in all measures which may be taken to uphold the Government and provide for a vigorous prosecution of the war.

"In thus expressing ourselves, we believe that we voice the views of an overwhelming majority of the citizens of this community."

It was reported by all who participated in procuring signatures to this communication that the readiness of our citizens to sign it was almost unanimous, the number of those approached who were unwilling to sign having been very small, and I have not the slightest doubt but that, had time permitted, hundreds of additional signatures might have been obtained. The signers included local professional and business men as well as commuters, and a number of representative citizens of Westfield, and many of them expressed gratification at having the opportunity to sign given them.

It should be a further cause of satisfaction to all good citizens that most of those who preferred not to sign the communication in the form given above expressed their readiness to heartily support the Government in any course which the President may recommend.

On the whole, I do not think Mr. Watson need fear the quality of support which the Federal Government will receive from the citizens of New Jersey in the present crisis.

HOWARD C. TRACY.

WHAT IS "CERTIFIED MILK?"

It is milk whose purity and cleanly production is certified to by a Medical Milk Commission, regulated by State law under the rules of the American Association at Washington. Copy of these regulations mailed on request.

It is like a certified check. When a bank certifies a check, it first looks at the account to know that the check is good.

The five physicians of the Plainfield-Westfield Milk Commission employ experts to watch the daily production of Wood Brook Milk. Then they certify it.

It costs more to make milk so good it can be certified. Yet the price of Wood Brook Certified Milk is only 14 cents a quart.

TIE VOTE HALTS THE SELECTION OF OFFICER

Trenton, April 4.—Twelve lieutenants in the artillery service met at the State House yesterday morning to elect a battalion commander for the First Artillery. Three candidates for the position were Captain Claude E. Lasterman of Battery A, East Orange; Captain Edmund J. James, Battery C, East Orange, and Captain S. G. Barnard, Battery B, Camden.

After taking seven ballots a deadlock still existed at noon, each of the candidates having received four votes on each ballot.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE AT WATCHUNG AVE. CHURCH

On Friday evening special services will be held at the Watchung Avenue Presbyterian church in observance of Good Friday.

The C. E. Society of this church will hold its annual meeting on April 10.

SEWING MEETING POSTPONED

There will be no sewing meeting of the Plainfield Red Cross Sewing Society at German Reformed church Thursday on account of it being Holy Week.

RELIEF COMMITTEE TO MEET SOON

Mayor Calkins has formally called the "Volunteers' Auxiliary of Plainfield and North Plainfield," for a meeting of its Finance Committee at an early date. George P. Mellick is chairman of the Finance Committee and will have charge of plans for assuring assistance to families of men who are called to the front, to prevent any embarrassment or suffering in cases of need.

The "Volunteers' Auxiliary" was organized by the Mayor last summer in such a way that its Finance Committee could act as a continuing body, with power to represent the large general executive committee without calling upon the latter for detail work. Therefore the meeting is in order to take immediate steps to care for the families of men who enlist or are called to service.

PLAN TO ELECT A BISHOP-COADJUTOR

When the Newark Episcopal Diocese meets in annual convention May 22, it is likely that steps will be taken to elect a Bishop-coadjutor as assistant to Bishop Edwin S. Lines. The proposition is to vacate the office of bishop-suffragen upon the creation and filling of the higher office.

The movement, initiated by a number of the leading clergy and laymen with the approval of Bishop Lines, has already been launched with the expectation that the preliminaries will have been completed before the date of the convention. Requests for the consents of the bishops and standing committees of the other sixty-seven dioceses of the church in America have been sent out.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night, when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.

GARDENS FOR THE CHILDREN'S HOME

At the monthly meeting of the Children's Home this morning, the question of the children's garden was taken up. Louis K. Hyde has donated the use of a plot of ground opposite the Home, and the children are enthusiastic over the prospect of raising vegetables for use of the Home.

The officials of the Home request that someone donate the service for plowing the ground, and someone donate fertilizer for it.

The children hope to raise enough vegetables to help out in the needs of the institution, if they have this much help.

To the Parents and Friends of the Plainfield Boy Scouts of America.

This official statement of the policies governing the Boy Scouts of America in Plainfield is issued that we may place clearly before the people of Plainfield the aim and scope of the Boy Scout Movement during time of war or other emergency.

ORGANIZATION

Parents of Scouts may depend upon the National and Local Councils, who direct the policies of the Scout Movement, to safeguard the interests of their boys. The National Council from whom the Plainfield Council receives its charter, is composed of representatives from every State in the country, carefully chosen because of their ability and integrity.

The Plainfield Council is composed of the fifty of our leading citizens and workers for boys who give unstintingly of their time and means to further the moral, educational and physical development of the Boy Scouts, and to extend the ideals of the Scout Movement.

The Executive Committee of the Plainfield Council, under the direction of the Scout Executive, has its office at 175 East Front street, where parents and all who have boy problems to discuss are welcome. From this headquarters emanate all official orders or communications.

Deputy Commissioners are in charge of districts, Scoutmasters are in charge of individual troops.

These men are in every instance chosen and retained because of their ability, character and loyalty to the Scout Oath and Laws, with which you are familiar. They are safe men to be with boys, and through their splendid efforts sturdy character is being developed.

A troop committee of at least three responsible men stands back of each troop to assist the Scoutmaster in an advisory capacity.

POLICY

Under date of February 15, 1917, the President of the National Council, Mr. Colin H. Livingstone, of Washington, issued the following statement:

OUR DUTY

Our duty is clear. Our pledge has been given.

For this have we each and all of us taken the Scout Oath, to do our duty to God and our country, to help other people at all times, to keep ourselves physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

For this have we promised on our honor to be trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent.

For this have we trained heart, head and body—each and all of us—252,000 active members, and 350,000 who have been members of the Boy Scouts of America.

(Signed) COLIN H. LIVINGSTONE,
President.

Under date of February 28, 1917, the Executive Committee of the Plainfield Council unanimously adopted a Policy and Program adequate to meet present emergencies.

The committee is composed of the following:

Theo. G. Davis, President of the Plainfield Council, Boy Scouts of America.
L. M. Leek, First Vice-President.
Frederick M. Genung, Second Vice-President.
Allen E. Beals, Secretary.
De Witt D. Barlow, Treasurer.
Edward Harding, Chairman of the Finance Committee.
Louis Hosmer.

GENERAL POLICY

In outlining the policy and program of the Boy Scout movement in Plainfield, the Plainfield Council, through the Scout Executive, will adhere to the National policy of abstinence from participation, or detective part is to be taken by Scout Troops in any military operations. (See report of Executive Board, New York, as in "Scouting," June, 1916.) Such a policy is not to be considered as anti-military, but, rather as non-military, and does not assume to dictate the policy of the Scoutmaster in his individual capacity as a citizen.

The Boy Scout program is a boy's program, is adequate in any emergency, and our troops are prepared and anxious to render service of incalculable value to our city and country.

Until further notice the following general policy and principles must be rigidly adhered to, and constitute an order not to be violated:

First. No participation or promise of participation by the Troop or by any commissioned Scout Officer as to a representative of the Boy Scout movement in any public activity, service, or demonstration occurring as a result of war or in preparation for war, without the sanction of the Scout Executive or other duly authorized representative of the Executive Committee. The above order is not to apply to the regular Scout programs already provided for and unaffected by the present Military and Civic emergency. This order is necessary to protect the Scoutmaster and his boys from ill-advised action, which might endanger the movement.

Second. The careful adherence to and emphasis upon the Fourth Scout Law as applied to relations between Scouts and boys of German birth or German descent. The Fourth Scout Law is, A SCOUT IS FRIENDLY; he is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout.

WHAT BOY SCOUTS WILL DO IN CASE OF WAR

General

They will give unstintingly of their services where such service is compatible with the Boy Scout program—a program arranged for adolescent boys. When in accord with the Boy Scout policy and program, they will perform such services now being accomplished by adults as will permit the latter to assume duties more important to their country. THIS DOES NOT INCLUDE BEARING ARMS.

BOY SCOUTS IN COUNTRIES AT WAR HAVE mobilized for civilian service at the outbreak of war; carried out organized relief measures almost instantly; helped families of men who were sick, wounded or employed in defense duties; established first aid, dressing or nursing stations, refugees, dispensaries, soup kitchens, etc., in their club rooms; acted as guides, orderlies, etc.; assisted the police; assisted the farmers in harvesting crops; kept waiting crowds in order in front of government offices; collected material for wounded soldiers and families; distributed food; acted as temporary nurses, and carried out communications by means of dispatch riders, signallers, wireless, etc.

The best support of parents in encouraging their sons to live up to the pledges they have taken, will aid the Scoutmaster and his assistants in their efforts on behalf of the boy, and the boy will emerge from this crisis stronger and better because of his faithfulness.

JOHN D. DUFFY, Scout Executive.

Lift Corns Out With Fingers Don't Hurt a Bit—No Danger!

Few drops stop soreness, then the corn or callus shrivels and lifts off. Try it and see! No humbug!

This tiny bottle holds the wonder of wonders. It contains an almost magical drug called freezone. It is a compound made from ether.

Apply a few drops of this freezone upon a tender, aching corn or a hardened callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you just lift it off with the fingers. It doesn't hurt one particle.

You feel no pain or soreness when applying freezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the skin.

Just ask in any drug store for a small bottle of freezone. This will cost but a few cents but will positively rid your poor, suffering feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, or the tough calluses on bottom of feet. Genuine freezone is only sold in these tiny bottles and each packed in a round wood case. Don't accept it unless it is in a round, wood case—Adv.

SUGGESTS ANOTHER CHANCE FOR GERMANY

Special to Courier-News:

Washington, April 4.—With the intention of delaying action on the war resolution, Senator McCumber offered a resolution to give Germany one more chance. The purport of the resolution was to notify the German government that if U. S. ships in relentless destruction of American vessels the United States would not go to war.

KNEISEL QUARTET DISBANDS

After thirty-two years of successful seasons in its musical career, the Kneisel Quartet, which has played concerts here, disbanded yesterday in Aeolian Hall, New York. The responsibility of keeping the organization to its high standard proved a great tax upon Mr. Kneisel and rather than permit any deterioration, it was decided to disband it while it was at its height.

City Physicians Explain Why They Prescribe Nuxated Iron

To Make Beautiful, Healthy Women and Strong Vigorous Men

NOW BEING USED BY OVER THREE MILLION PEOPLE ANNUALLY

Quickly transforms the flabby flesh, tasteless tissues, and pallid cheeks of weak, anaemic men and women into a perfect glow of health and beauty—Often increases the strength of delicate, nervous, run-down folks 100 per cent. in two weeks' time.

Dr. Howard Jones formerly

New York, N. Y.—It is conservatively estimated that over three million people annually in this country alone are taking Nuxated Iron. Such astonishing results have been reported from its use both by doctors and laymen, that a number of physicians in various parts of the country have decided to explain why they prescribe it so extensively, and why it naturally produces so much better results than were obtained from the old forms of inorganic iron.

WILSON RUSHES VAST WAR PLANS

Army of 1,200,000 Men First Move Taken Up.

NAVY TO WORK WITH ALLIES

American Warships Will Patrol Atlantic Coast, Relieving Entente Vessels. Output of Munitions and Supplies For Britain and France Will Continue and Money Aid Will Be Given.

Washington, April 4.—War plans on a vaster scale than ever dreamed of by this nation today are under consideration by President Wilson and his advisers as they waited for congress to accede to the president's demand for a war declaration against the imperial German government.

Assured by congress leaders that despite the opposition which cropped out in the senate the war declaration will be voted within a few days, the president, his cabinet, the council of National Defense and the chiefs of the war making branches of the government worked on their projects for the special prosecution of the impending struggle.

Plans for participation in the war at once stated after the cabinet meeting and before these general lines:

Active and aggressive co-operation with the navies and armies of the allies, particularly in combating the submarine menace.

Continued supply of arms, munitions and supplies to the allies overseas.

The control and mobilization of supplies for maintaining the civil population during the war.

Army of 1,200,000 Men.

The extension of financial aid to the greatest possible extent to the allies actively engaged in land warfare in Europe.

The president and cabinet approved plans worked out by the war department for bringing the land forces of the nation up to the point recommended by President Wilson in his war address to congress. These plans contemplate an immediate army of 1,200,000. This number would bring the national guard and the regular army up to war strength and would provide the 500,000 additional men asked for by the president.

The plans, which will go to congress as a rider, contemplate the raising of the necessary additional men by a modified form of universal military service. They likewise contemplate aggressive steps to officer this force with trained men from the regular army, the militia and the officers reserve corps. As a start toward securing additional officers Secretary Baker announced that the first class at West Point, 125 men, will be graduated April 20 instead of waiting until June.

The cabinet likewise approved plans for co-operation between the naval forces of United States and those of the entente.

French Ambassador Jusserand conferred with Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt on these plans, and British Ambassador Spring-Rice talked with Counselor Polk of the state department.

At the navy department it was stated that a complete naval co-operation plan has been worked out and would be made immediately effective immediately upon the passage by congress of the war resolution.

Atlantic Coast Patrol.

It was stated that the United States will institute a complete patrol of the Atlantic coast, thus relieving the allied fleet, which has been on patrol duty just outside the three mile limit from Halifax to Bermuda since the beginning of the war.

A large part of the allied patrol is of light cruisers, especially valuable in fighting submarines. What American naval forces will be used in the war zone itself the navy department refused to state. It was made plain, however, that the American commercial fleet will be kept at sea and hard at work supplying the allies.

Assistant Secretary Roosevelt announced that fifteen privately owned motorboats have been taken over by the navy department and are already at work on the coast submarine patrol. This number will be rapidly increased. The United States in fighting submarines said in all other naval operations will have the benefit of the experiences of the allies. Four British naval officers, experts in submarine warfare, are already in Washington and will point out to the navy department mistakes made by the British fleet early in the war and how to avoid them.

The problem of continuing the shipment of supplies to the allies—or rather, of furnishing the supplies—will be taken over largely by the Council of National Defense, coincidentally with the problem of supplying the American army and navy. The navy and the commercial fleet will be responsible for actual transportation, however.

The maintenance of the civil population and the problem of keeping the industries of the nation at top speed will be the defense council and its advisory committee.

SON OF HANGED SLAYER INDICTED FOR MURDER.

Hackensack, N. J., April 4.—Henry Mackin, alias "Baby Face" Mackin, of 84 Morris street, Jersey City, whose father was hanged for murder twenty years ago, was arraigned before Supreme Court Justice Parker here on an indictment for murder.

The victim was Elton J. Wandell of Brooklyn, leader of a gang of burglars of which Mackin was a member. Wandell "held out" $500 on one job, and the gang lured him to Carlstadt on the night of June 12 and Mackin shot him to death. They laid the body on the trolley tracks, and one has confessed the crime was to make believe Wandell had been killed by an auto.

To Get All the Dirt From Your Floor Coverings

The dirt on and in your rugs and carpets is of three classes—surface dirt, adhering dirt (thread, hair, lint) and the fine grit and sand that sifts through the nap and lodges in the meshes.

With effort and by raising dust you can remove a portion of surface dirt with an ordinary broom or carpet sweeper.

But to take out the dirt that has become lodged in the body of the rug you must either give it a hard beating or use a Hoover suction sweeper.

Beating ruins a rug, because the blows strain and displace the binding cords of the warp.

The Hoover Suction Sweeper loosens every particle of deeply embedded dirt without injuring the rug.

The rug, drawn by suction a quarter of an inch from the floor and held against the fast revolving brush, moves up and down like a wave. The brush, with two rows of soft hair, gently pats or vibrates the rug. It is this combined bending and gentle vibration which loosens the deep-seated dirt.

As fast as the particles are released from the rug they are forced by suction to the dirt receiver.

Let the Hoover Itself Convince You

Three minutes spent in seeing the Hoover work will prove every claim we make for it. Visit our showroom or have a demonstrator call at your home.

The Baby Hoover costs $47.50—the Hoover Special, $57.50.

OFFICERS' CORPS FOR PRINCETON

Hibben Tells Students They Should Stay In It.

BETTER SERVICE TO NATION.

Warns Against Them Enlisting In the Ranks, as United States Will Need Educated and Trained Men Rather Than Privates—University Will Adjust Curriculum to War Conditions.

Princeton, April 4.—Princeton has been made a reserve officers' training unit by the war department, and President John Grier Hibben has issued a statement to parents of the students which defines the policy and plans of the university in the crisis and the purpose and extent of the new courses in military training for the students. There is no intention of closing the university, but adjustments will be made in the curriculum.

"As a national university," the statement reads, "Princeton, as in the past, considers that its duty is not merely to provide higher liberal education, but also to prepare its students to render the most effective service to their country. In the present crisis, therefore, the university aims to co-operate in every way with the national government. It has placed at the disposal of the latter its laboratories and the services of its men of science and is affording its members all possible opportunities to prepare themselves to be of the highest usefulness in that branch for which they may be best qualified."

Continuing, the statement sets forth:

"The university believes that in view of their training and equipment students can render the most effective service to the nation in time of war as officers or special experts in various lines rather than as privates. The plans of the university are therefore directed to this end."

Students are advised against hasty enlistment for this reason.

Every facility, it is pointed out, will be afforded students desiring to qualify for the unit of the officers' reserve corps. All military instruction is being given under the direction of Captain Stuart Heintzelman, U. S. A. This includes a course for juniors and seniors in military history, policy and minor tactics, the course counting as any other course toward a degree. An advanced course has been authorized and special courses along this line will be added.

FIGHT TWO LICENSES.

Outsiders Join Somers Point Folk In War on Liquor.

Ocean City, April 4.—Temperance advocates in Ocean City, Linwood and Pleasantville have joined forces with the Somers Point W. C. T. U. in its fight against liquor in that place.

Somers Point council last Saturday night granted a renewal of licenses to two of its hotels, the only applicants. The members, it is stated, took the ground they could not legally recognize a remonstrance coming from a town in another county when one from Ocean City was presented.

Mrs. Addie B. Parsells of Philadelphia in the First Methodist Episcopal church here told the congregation of the purpose of the Somers Point W. C. T. U. to fight in the courts the granting of two licenses and made an appeal for $80 to start the contest. Within a few moments this was raised, and she was told that she could easily have two or three times that amount.

DROP HIGH SCHOOL PLAN.

Summit Board of Education Finds Cost Too High.

Summit, April 4.—The board of education sounded the deathknell of the new high school project, at least for the present, when it adopted a resolution offered by Councilman Franklin D. Peale that it would be inadvisable at this time to ask the board of school estimate for the necessary money because of the high cost of building material and the probable increase in taxes on account of the war.

President James W. Cromwell said the resolution was a proper one and added, "I don't think we would get the money even if we asked for it."

Baltimore to Farm Park Lawns.

Baltimore, April 4.—To help remedy the danger of any shortage of food in this city after war is declared the city officials decided to utilize about 1,000 acres of lawns in city parks for truck farming. The park board appointed several of its experts to lay out the grounds, and it is likely that work will be started on the farms next week.

THE NAVY CALLS.

Young American Manhood Is Responding to Bugle.

All over the land navy recruiting stations are now being besieged by applicants for enlistment, and it begins to look as if the force would soon be recruited up to its war strength of 87,000 men. The call of the American navy is an alluring one for the youth of the land in war time.

RAILROAD APPEALS FOR BIG FARM CROPS

Lackawanna Asks Farmers to Aid Nation.

New York, April 4.—As a practical and patriotic move the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad is planning to induce the farmers in the territory it serves to grow every pound and every bushel of food their ground will yield. The railroad will make sacrifices itself in aiding the farmers to do this, and in preparation of a summer of intensive farming work with the railroad's aid a meeting of farmers has been called for Saturday noon at the Arlington hotel, Binghamton.

President W. H. Truesdale has sent to the managers of the railroad's fifteen farm bureaus in New York and Pennsylvania counties a letter directing them to urge the farmers of their districts to grow all the food products they can. Mr. Truesdale points out that in doing so the farmers will be performing a patriotic duty probably as great as that of those who go to the firing line; that all foodstuffs will be in demand at satisfactory prices for at least a year to come, and that the shortage of the plate will make it impossible for packers to can sufficient vegetables and fruit, so that consumers will have to buy heavily in the fall and put up food in glass for next winter.

The railroad stands ready to co-operate in every practical respect.

Vanderbilt Estate For Camp.

Raleigh, N. C., April 4.—Biltmore, the estate of the late George W. Vanderbilt near Asheville, N. C., has been offered by Mrs. Edith Vanderbilt to the war department as a mobilization camp site.

FRENCH STORM STRONG RIDGES

Capture Points Within Two Miles of St. Quentin.

BRITISH TROOPS ALSO ADVANCE

Germans Attack Russian Lines In the Dwinsk Section of Eastern Front and Break Through Trenches—British Movement Made at First In Howling Blizzard and Later In Mud as Sun Melts Snow.

London, April 4.—In a concerted attack over a front of eight miles on both banks of the Somme the French storming the heights south and southwest of St. Quentin, pushing to within two miles of the city. They captured the villages of Dallon, Griffecourt and Cerisy, as well as the heights south of the village of Urvillers. At the Ebone of Dallon, a ridge northeast of the village, the French are only a mile and three-quarters from St. Quentin.

London, April 4.—A blizzard and eight inches of snow failed to impede Sir Douglas Haig's troops to any serious degree in their encircling advance on St. Quentin.

All night long the British heavy guns had been battering the German lines preparatory to a resumption of the "big push" in the morning. When morning came a swirling blizzard greeted the infantry as it took formation for new assaults. Besides, there were eight inches of snow, the most cumbersome of all natural obstacles to "storming waves."

Take Two More Towns.

Nevertheless the British pushed forward steadily, taking two important towns, Maissemy and Henin.

Occupation of Maissemy brought the British to within three miles of the St. Quentin-Cambrai road. Here Sir Douglas Haig now threatens to smash a wedge into the "Hindenburg line." There were strong signs of intention on the part of the Teutons to abandon St. Quentin, not, however, before having leveled the city and all surrounding territory by fire and shell.

The British are now only two miles from St. Quentin at one point. The occupation of Henin, five miles southeast of Arras, also gave them an important strategical advantage.

Germans Gain In East.

On the Franco-German front there was a lull in infantry fighting, but the big guns of both sides roared ceaselessly, particularly in the Champagne. The French, Paris reports, took six machine guns in patrol encounters on both sides of the Aillette river. A German trench raid was repulsed.

The Germans undertook a number of violent infantry attacks on the eastern front. Petrograd officially admits that these assaults succeeded in temporarily disorganizing the Russian lines. Their positions were penetrated south of Illuxt (Dwinsk front), but the Teutons were ejected at the point of the bayonet. In the Volhynia the Germans also pierced the Russian line; but, the Petrograd statement says, "some of the Germans were bayoneted, and the remainder fled."

THREE YEAR WAR PLANNED.

Co-operation Between Capital, Labor and the Farmer Urged.

Philadelphia, April 4.—Co-operation between the controllers of finance, the farmers and the workmen was urged by speakers at the session of the National Employment Managers' conference as one of the greatest needs of the country in the present situation. The speakers were Alvin Dodd, secretary of the National Society For Industrial Education, and John Fitch of New York, both members of the advisory committee on labor and welfare of workers for the Council of National Defense.

"The government is planning a three years basis of war," declared Mr. Dodd. "Every war measure drawn up has that plan in view. We have been asked to organize committees of citizens and representatives to bring together everything that can be used for national defense. All our industrial and financial resources must be organized immediately. Above all there must be a complete understanding between capital and labor."

WOOL RESERVED FOR U. S.

Entire Supply at Boston to Be Offered to Government.

Boston, April 4.—The entire supply of raw wool owned or controlled in this city, the largest wool market in the world, was ordered reserved for government use by vote of the Boston Wool Trade association at a special meeting.

The stock will be offered to the government at the prices quoted yesterday, and each member of the association will furnish an inventory of stock on hand to a committee which will cooperate with the government.

CHINESE PLAN REGIMENT TO FIGHT FOR U. S.

New York, April 4.—American born Chinese in this country will recruit and equip a regiment to bear arms for the land of their adoption. This announcement was made by Philip G. Mee, secretary of the Chinese-American Citizens' alliance, incorporated, with headquarters in this city. The alliance has 900 members, most of whom live in New York. These men are nearly all graduates of American universities.

A resolution pledging the loyalty of the alliance to the president was adopted unanimously at a meeting of the Chinese. Plans for the recruiting of a Chinese regiment followed. The men already have requested an army drill instructor, and the words of training for war will be rushed.

NORMA TALMADGE CLOSES AT PROCTOR'S

At Proctor's Theatre Tomorrow

"Panthea," Monckton Hoffe's famous play, appeared at Proctor's and continues today. The story begins in Russia with Panthea fleeing from the net of the dreaded secret police who have falsely accused her of being a revolutionist. Escaping to England she marries a young composer and the greatest situation of the play comes when she sacrifices herself that he may achieve success.

In addition to "Panthea" today Carlyle Blackwell appears in a dramatic production entitled "A Square Deal," which was produced under William A. Brady's personal supervision. A slight increase in prices prevails today on account of the enormous expense involved in booking this wonderful program.

Tomorrow regular prices are again installed and a double feature show is offered. The statuesque English beauty, Kitty Gordon, is seen in a Selznick production, an adaptation of Richard Harding Davis' novel "Vera, the Medium," and Triangle presents Constance Talmadge, sister to Norma, in a five-part comedy drama entitled "Betsy's Burglar."

Tomorrow Robert Warwick also appears in "A Girl's Folly," and Paramount presents Lenore Ulrich in "The Intrigue."

JUGGLING FEATURE AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Seldom have Plainfielders been offered the opportunity to see an exhibit of juggling as that featuring the headline attraction of Fern, Richleau and Fern at the Plainfield Theatre the first part of the present week. They mingle comedy with their feats of balancing and as a result turn the act into an uproarious period of fun.

Eddie Vind, a comedian of the better sort, has been successfully holding up his end of the program at the theatre during his engagement, which ends tonight. Haywood & Clayton, comedy singers and dancers; Marino & Rich, the syncopated wops, and the Town-send Trio, three excellent singers and dancers, fill out the vaudeville portion of the bill. Hearst-Pathe Weekly and Mutual comedies are other attractions.

Tomorrow there will be an entire change of bill with five big-time acts. "Tryout night" will be an added feature with four amateur acts.

BLUTCH COOPER'S ALL STAR COMEDY MONDAY

"Blutch" Cooper's big all star company of brilliant burlesquers under the title of "The Sightseers" are announced as the attraction at the Plainfield Theatre, Monday, matinee and night, April 9.

"The Sightseers," whose fundamental features are fun, is a two-act musical, "Polly."

In addition to the musical comedy there will also be a vaudeville interlude comprising a number of allstar headline attractions; among the many may be mentioned Bobby Van Horn, who is possessed of a remarkable piano specialty. The Carnival Four, Morton and Allen, in a sensational comedy act and others.

The cast, in addition to Will J. Kennedy and Jack Miller includes Harry P. Kelly, Kitty Forsythe, Flo Davis, Lottie Blakford, Katherine Dickey, Bobby Van Horn, Carnival Four and others.

"ELEVEN P. M." APRIL 17 AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

"Eleven P. M." to be given at the Plainfield Theatre, Tuesday, matinee and night, April 17, is the new play by Paul M. Potter, to be graced by the wholesome acting and rollicking humor of the American favorite, Blanche Bates. It took Miss Bates just a year and a half to find a play, with enough merit to induce her to return to the footlights. Miss Bates' endorsement of "Eleven P. M." seems sufficient guarantee that it will be one of the most popular plays of the season.

Wilton Lackaye, who created the role of Svengali in "Trilby," by the same author, will support Miss Bates. Other well known actors in the cast are Charles Hammond, Thomas J. McCrane, Charles Butler, Louise Mackintosh, Janet Travers, Jeffreys Lewis, J. M. Barnes, Ford Fenimore, Maria Ascaraga, Sallie Bergman, George Shelton, Henri Vroy and Albert Frisco. Much time, effort and money has been spent to make the production one of the most elaborate and artistic presentations of the season.

LITTLE DELAY IN WAR DECLARATION

Senate to Apply Cloture Rule if Needed.

Washington, April 4.—Prompt action on the Flood-Martin resolution declaring a state of war to exist between the United States of America and the Imperial German government was assured when the Democratic steering committee decided to hold the senate in continuous session until definite action has been taken on the measure.

This means that any "little group of willful men" disposed to interpose dilatory legislative tactics, meaningless speeches of many hours' duration, parliamentary trickery or anything else will have the question of physical endurance and a growing public sentiment to deal with.

The senate is not expected to invoke its new cloture rule to limit free debate upon the war declaration. It is felt that there will be no filibuster worthy of the name against the war measure.

Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, who halted consideration of the Flood-Martin resolution in the senate by the parliamentary maneuver of demanding the "regular order," which set the consideration over until this morning, was within his parliamentary rights, but nevertheless black looks from all quarters of the senate and a growl from the galleries greeted his action.

It is not believed that a protracted debate in the house will follow the certainly favorable report of the war resolution from the Flood committee. The house with its drastic provisions for the application of a cloture rule can limit the debate of the measure to a virtual zero, but the impression prevails this will not be necessary.

FOE OF WAR MOBBED.

Called Americans "Skunks" In Speech at New York.

New York, April 4.—Two anti-war soap box orators were held in $1,500 bail each when arraigned in police courts charged with insulting President Wilson and the American flag.

Stephen Kerrsky of 141C Stebbins avenue, Bronx, was mobbed in Madison square by an indignant throng. The man was charged with calling Americans "skunks" and passing other abusive remarks.

Henry Jager, a Socialist, of Maywood, N. J., also was arrested in Madison square. He was charged with saying President Wilson was a murderer for declaring a state of war with Germany.

ANOTHER STEEL WAGE JUMP.

U. S. Corporation Announces Fourth Within a Year.

New York, April 4.—Wage increases of about 10 per cent for 225,000 employees, adding nearly $30,000,000 to its annual payroll and making a total increase of 43 per cent since February, 1916, are announced by the United States Steel corporation.

Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman, issued this brief statement:

It has been decided to increase about 10 per cent the wage rates and the salaries up to $2,500 of the employees of our subsidiary companies, to take effect May 1. Equitable adjustments will be made.

Dr. Waite Must Die In Chair.

Ossining, N. Y., April 4.—Word that Dr. Warren Waite, the poisoner, had lost his appeal and was doomed to death in the electric chair by the court of appeals was not conveyed to him in Sing Sing death house. The prisoner's attendants planned to break the news to him unofficially today.

WHITMAN SPURS MILITARY PLANS

Home Defense Corps and War Aid Started.

Albany, N. Y., April 4.—Defense measures to place New York state on a basis of complete safety are being rushed here. Governor Whitman conferred with the heads of the national guard and ordered that every power within the province of the state be used to get the state ready for the war to come. These things followed:

The governor announced that he had taken the final steps in creating a new branch of the state's military forces to be known as the Home Defense corps.

Adjutant General Stotesburg sent orders to the officers of all militia organizations to have complete inventories of all materials, ammunition, etc., available at a moment's notice.

Governor Whitman dispatched communications to all county judges, presidents of boards of supervisors and mayors of all cities urging them to assist in the work of organizing the home corps and to prepare at once to give relief to the families of men in the military service.

A conference was held in the executive offices on the subject of how the state can best aid recruiting in all branches of the service. Defense committees will be organized in all sections of the state to aid with this work.

Announcement was made that bills will be introduced in both houses of the legislature giving the Home Defense corps and their associate organizations the legal power to suppress disturbances of any kind and to guard railroads, tunnels, culverts, bridges, etc.

HOOVER THANKS WILSON.

Cables the President That His Course Is Fully Justified.

London, April 4.—Herbert C. Hoover, chairman of the American commission for relief in Belgium, sent the following cablegram to President Wilson:

"The members of the American commission for relief in Belgium ask me to transmit to you an expression of united devotion and of our admiration for the courage and wisdom of your leadership. We wish to tell you that there is no word in your historic statement to congress that does not find a response in all our hearts.

"For two and a half years we have been obliged to remain silent witnesses of the character of the forces dominating this war, but we are now at liberty to say that although we break with great regret our association with many German individuals who have given sympathetic support to our work, yet your message proclaims our conviction, born of our intimate experience and contact, that there is no hope for democracy or liberalism, and consequently for the real justice and safety of our country, unless the system which brought the world into this unfathomable misery can be stamped out once and for all.

Professor Henry B. Cornwall.

Princeton, April 4.—The funeral services of Henry B. Cornwall, professor emeritus of Princeton university, who died from pneumonia at his home here, was held today. Professor Cornwall, who was in his seventy-third year, had taught chemistry in the college for forty-seven years until he retired.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

LUCKY STRIKE

LUCKY STRIKE cigarette

WHEN your breakfast toast is just right—buttered piping hot; brown, crisp, delicious—you'll admit that it's a little bit of Heaven on a dark morning.

Keep this agreeable thought in mind as you read about the new Lucky Strike cigarette. Because it's "tied up" with this same good old kitchen stove idea. The tobacco—it's toasted: and what that toasting does to the delicious Burley flavor! My!

There's been a big demand for a cigarette ready-made from Burley tobacco. Last year you had to pour the Burley out of those green, red and blue tins—enough for 35 billion cigarettes.

But until we made this toasting discovery a ready-made Burley cigarette was't possible—we couldn't hold the flavor. But now! Well, just try it—Lucky Strike—the real Burley cigarette; the tobacco—it's toasted.

Our men will demonstrate to you how the tobacco is toasted—at many stores

BALANCED RATIONS

The cook at our lunch room has the balanced ration bug. You know what that means. It means that you have to swallow as much of one thing as you do of another so your stomach won't get lopsided. You realize as well as we do that if you get a pound of spinach on the left side of your Little Mary and only half a pound of mashed potato on the right side your portico's bound to sag on one corner. But there's nothing new about the balanced ration. It's old stuff. We can remember when we were a little boy seeing our Uncle Will indulging in his balanced ration down on the farm. The only difference was that while our wife balances ours on a sliding scale of vitamines, calories and proteids, he balanced his on his knife.

BLOOMER GIRLS WANT TO BOOK GAMES HERE

The New York Bloomer Girls would like to hear from all first-class baseball teams in regard to booking games.

This team is composed of the leading girl baseball players of the country, having gone as far as Seattle, Wash., in its efforts to secure players. The team features Estelle Friss as well as we do that if you get a first base and Toots Andres pitcher. The players are beautifully uniformed and they play a fast and snappy game.

Managers having no enclosed grounds can arrange with the manager of the Bloomer Girls to have their grounds enclosed, as the club carries a canvas fence large enough to enclose any ball field. The girls ask no guarantee, as they play on a percentage of the receipts.

COURIER-NEWS TEAM IN FIRST PRACTICE

The Courier-News baseball team is now in the course of construction. This announcement was made this morning by Manager George Servis when he reported that his first string men defeated a scrub nine late yesterday afternoon on the Friends' recreation field on Watchung avenue to the tune of 8 to 7. Features of the contest—hitting the horsehide by Dentz and Servis.

The box score, which is not printed because it could not pass the censor, however, does not show any hits by Servis, chiefly because he always hit over the fence, which automatically put the batter out. This was surely hard luck, for Servis should have been credited with at least five home runs.

The regular team, according to Manager Servis, will arrange a game with the Frog City boys in the course of the next few days providing the New York Giants ignore his challenge for a series.

BOWLING MATCH OF UNUSUAL INTEREST

The topic of the day, second only to that of the international situation, is the bowling match between the ladies' team of the St. Mary's Social Club and Ramblers to be contested on the T. A. B. S. alleys next Tuesday night, and for that reason a large gallery is expected to witness the series and root—for the ladies.

The Social Club bowlers will be given a handicap of 200 pins a game. Judging by the previous work of the respective teams on the drives, the odds are against the Rams.

GRAMMAR GRADE BOYS IN THE FIRST GAME

A ball team representing the seventh grades of the Grammar School yesterday afternoon defeated the Whittier School aggregation by a score of 13 to 8, a triple in the licky Seventh accomplishing the necessary runs with which to tie up the final score. The St. Joseph's Club bowlers, hailing from the borough of North Plainfield, and the Baracas, hailing from the borough of Dunellen, did considerable maple smashing on the Somerset alleys last evening, with the North Plainfielders taking the odd tilt. Although dropping two games the Dunellenites had the best total pins.

Gates, of North Plainfield, made the big splurge with a high score of 223, although Voorhees of the victorious aggregation outdid him in the averages with 197.

WHO DID DISCOVER THIS MAN FULTON?

The recent decision of a Wisconsin court, by which Mike Collins was declared to have an interest in the fortunes of Fred Fulton, Minnesota heavyweight, should carry a message to Tommy Dixon, the former bantamweight of Kansas City, Mo.

The claim of Collins that he discovered Fulton wasting his young life by daubing plaster around cellar walls and made him a fighter should supply Dixon with plenty of laughter. Force's claim, also, that he was the original Columbus so far as Fulton was concerned, should add a snicker to the former scrapper.

Some years ago Dixon got into a fuss with Ollie Kirk or some other bantam around Missouri, and he left out of the ring while the fight was hot, snapping his arm. He beat it into the wilds of Nebraska to recuperate. While resting there he ran across a ponderous, man of inches who imagined he could develop into a crusher of white hopes, and Dixon took him in hand to develop him into a fighter. Dixon was a clever boxer and a smart ring general. He showed the big man a lot of tricks and finally matched him for some bouts in Nebraska, which the heavy man promptly won. Then Dixon drifted back to civilization and began to predict what his discovery would do to the brigade of white hopes then extant.

And his name? Merely Fred Fulton. He spoke it right out loud and it was published broadcast: Hoo! it ever happened that everyone has forgotten that Fulton had his chance then at the hands of Dixon, only to get himself all tangled up through an alliance with Mike Collins is a matter requiring deep thought. Anyway, Dixon should be an interested spectator at the rival claims of Force and Collins.

ELIZABETH BOXER WINS TITLE AT BOSTON SHOW

J. Tomasello, of Elizabeth, this county, last night secured the honor of winning the first amateur title in the national championship boxing tournament in the Mechanics' building at Boston. Tomasello, who displayed a world of cleverness, took the honors in the 115 pound class. In the final bout he defeated Dan Looney, of Cambridge. Seven other titles were settled.

One of the best bouts of the night found A. Kaufman, of New York, present middleweight champion, dethroned by Eugene Brosseau, of Montreal. The verdict was in the nature of a surprise, but was a clear cut victory after three rounds of spirited milling. Sam Lagonia, also of New York, was the other semi-finalist in the 158 pound class.

POSSIBLE OPENING DATE

It is quite probable that North Plainfield will have its semi-official baseball opening for the 1917 season Saturday afternoon if the plans for the affair can be completed. The management of the N. P. H. S. is hoping to be able to arrange a practice game with the Alumni of the school for Hyde ere the game, if arranged, to start at 3 o'clock. Further announcements will be made later.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" Relieves Stomach Distress in Five Minutes

Wonder what upset your stomach —which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, sassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the Indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have dyspepsia. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach sweetened and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it stops fermentation and acidity and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.—Adv.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

If Little Stomach is Sour, Liver Torpid or Bowels Clogged

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish, and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated; then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

APRIL 21 IS "PLANTING DAY"

Governor Edge Writes Senator Frelinghuysen About State's Resources

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, April 4.—Governor Edge in a proclamation today, partaking of the nature of preparedness measure because of its usefulness in increasing the country's food resources in times of war, designated Saturday, April 21, as "Planting Day," and the week immediately following as "Planting Week." The Governor wants the proclamation read in every school room in the State. Should a war raise the cost of living higher, recites the preamble to the proclamation, the one solution is more farming, increasing the supply of foodstuffs. The work to be done by citizens of non-military age and those who for one reason or another are not called away to the colors. The "on-to-the-farm-movement" has merit as a task of war, as well as of peace, comments the Executive.

Governor Edge's proclamation gives specific data as to planting seeds in certain months of the year. He wants "Planting Day" to be participated in particularly by the younger folks, and "Planting Week" by the grown-ups. He urges the establishment of home gardens and similar agricultural activities at this time.

THE CHINA DOG AND CAT

Bobbie was on a visit to his grandmother and grandfather in the country, on a farm.

Bobbie liked to feed the animals and go over the farm with the men, but often he would steal into the big, dark parlor of the farmhouse and look at all the queer-looking furniture and pictures on the wall.

The blinds were kept closed on all days but Sunday, and the light came in the shutters in little streaks, giving everything a queer, spooky look. Sometimes, when everybody in the house was taking an afternoon nap, Bobbie would softly lift the latch of the parlor door and go in and close it again.

One very hot day he did this, and found the room so cool that he stayed longer than usual after looking at all the queer men and women in the pictures.

Bobbie climbed into a rocking chair and leaned back, thinking about the china dog on one end of the high mantel. There was a china cat on the other end, and Bobbie wondered if they were alive and how long the dog would let the cat stay there.

Suddenly he saw the dog turn his head and look at the cat, and the next thing Bobbie knew the china dog gave a little short bark.

"Don't you bark at me," said the china cat. "I have been here as many years as you have, and I am not afraid of you."

"I don't care if you have," answered the dog. "Cats cannot stay around where I am, and I am tired of seeing you sitting there. Now, I want you to jump off on the floor, where you belong."

"I do not belong on the floor any more than you do, Mr. Dog," said the cat. "I shall stay here as long as I please, and, besides that, I think you belong on the floor. You are the only dog I ever saw on a shelf."

"I am too handsome to sit on the floor," snapped back the little dog. "If I looked as you do, with that red and white coat you wear, I would get on the floor and stay there; you are a funny-looking creature; you are Mistress Puss; you are all shiny instead of furry."

"I guess you do not know how you look, then," said the cat. "You are shiny yourself, and all the dogs I ever saw had hair on them. You look so funny with the red and white coat you wear."

"You certainly are mistaken," said the dog. "My coat is black and white, just like the big dog that comes in here sometimes, when the door is left open."

"I expect you think you are as large as that dog, too," said the cat, "but you are not. Why, Mr. Dog, you are no larger than—then—well, I don't see anything as small as you are—you are very little."

"I know you are very much mistaken about my appearance," said the little china dog, "for I am a very big animal, but you, my dear Puss, I feel sorry for you. When the cat comes in here sometimes and curls upon the sofa, why, she would make a dozen of you, and such a soft, furry coat as she has, all black."

"You better rub your eyes, so you can see better, Mr. Dog," said the cat. "I am as big, if not bigger than that cat; she always gets a whipping when the mistress catches her, and she never drives me out. I know I am much handsomer than that black cat."

Bobby sat very still, listening all this time, but he wanted to tell them they could easily find out how they looked by looking in the mirror that hung over the shelf where they were sitting. Before he had quite made up his mind to tell them, the dog spoke again.

"Suppose we take a look at ourselves?" he said to Puss. "There is the mirror close by us."

"I guess you will be some surprised when you look in it," said Puss walking toward the center of the mantle.

"And so will you, Miss Puss," said the dog.

Bobbie watched them as they met and looked in the mirror. "Why!" they both exclaimed.

"We look very much alike," said the dog, after awhile. "It is funny. I was sure I had hair all over me, and looked like the dog that comes in here sometimes."

"Yes, we do look alike," said the cat, "and I thought I wore a fur coat and was larger than the cat mistress drives out of here. I shall never feel the same again, I am afraid. I am very unhappy!"

"Oh, what is the use of being unhappy," said the dog. "I am not going to be unhappy just because I have no hair. Let us be friends and not mind how we look. We are as handsome as any other china dog or cat, and I expect we are handsomer, if we only knew it."

"Do you really think so?" asked the cat, walking back to her end of the mantle.

"Of course we are," replied the dog. "Let us think so anyway, and not worry any more about it."

"Do you know, Mr. Dog, I think you are really very good looking," said the cat.

"You are the handsomest china cat I ever saw," said the dog.

"Thank you," replied the cat, and then both of them stood very still and looked straight ahead, and did not move.

"That is funny," said Bobby, rubbing his eyes and sitting up in the big hair cloth rocker. "I was sure I saw that china cat and dog move, and I know I heard them talking."

He went over to the mantle and looked at them, but they did not even wink. There they stood as still as china cats and dogs always stand.

"I guess I must have been asleep and dreamed it," said Bobbie, as he opened the door softly and went out, but he was never quite sure about it, and whenever he went in the parlor after that Bobbie always looked very earnestly at the little china dog and cat, but not once again did he ever see them move.

DR. BIEDERWOLF GIVEN OVATION

Evangelist Greeted by Large Audience at Meeting in High School

GAVE STIRRING SERMON

Speaker Says He is Glad There is a Man in Washington Who is for Peace at Any Price With Honor

Stirring scenes marked the gathering at the Plainfield high school last night, when an audience of nearly two thousand people assembled to greet Rev. Dr. W. E. Biederwolf, the evangelist, on his first return visit to this city since his successful campaign of one year ago. That Dr. Biederwolf endeared himself to the hearts of many Plainfielders was evidenced by the large attendance at the meeting. The evangelist was accompanied by his wife, and when the couple stepped on the platform both were visibly affected by the cordial reception.

Every member of the large chorus choir, practically the same as the one which sang during the six weeks' campaign, carried a small American flag and the appearance of Dr. Biederwolf and his wife was the signal for waving them, while the vast audience joined in prolonged, hearty applause. For a half hour prior to the arrival of the evangelist, the choir, under the direction of Clifford A. Braider, with Miss Alice Drake at the piano, sang many of the songs which became so popular during the revival a year ago and all joined heartily in the singing. There was one disappointment. Mr. McEwan, "Scotch Mac" who formerly had charge of the choir, was unable to be present owing to affection of the throat which necessitated medical treatment.

William D. Murray, who was in charge of the meeting, made a short introductory address in which he said that this was a most appropriate time for Dr. Biederwolf's visit, during Holy Week, and he recalled that next Sunday will be the first anniversary of the great campaign conducted here by the evangelist. "These are stirring times," said Mr. Murray, "and after reading the President's wonderful message, we are all the more impressed with the fact that democracy must be preserved and that America's entrance into the war is solely for the purpose of making men free. Mr. Murray then introduced the evangelist, after the Scripture reading by Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie and a prayer by Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong.

It was fully a half minute after Dr. Biederwolf arose before the applause subsided and he was able to speak. At the outset he said "I am all here but my voice. Mac is not here because

The Home Defense League still requires contributions to bring the amount up to $6,000, which is the estimated sum needed to equip and drill 150 men and to assist the High School Cadets.

Other cities such as East Orange and Montclair have quickly raised larger amounts by voluntary subscriptions. Contributions have been generous so far, and, if the general public will send in small amounts of $1 or $2, or even less, the full sum will be obtained without burden. There should be a much larger list of names of contributors.

If you have not already subscribed send in your contribution to the Plainfield Trust Company. Amounts are not published, but the names of the contributors will be daily given.

STATE FEDERATION TO VOTE ON SUFFRAGE

Mrs. Harold D. Corbusier and Mrs. C. G. Larsson will represent the Monday Afternoon Club as delegates to the State Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in Atlantic City in May, and according to a vote of the club last Monday they will support the resolution favoring woman suffrage. This resolution was introduced at the State federation meeting last year by the Woman's Political Club of Orange.

At the suggestion of several delegates it was laid on the table, with instructions to report back to the clubs represented, so that ample time would be given for its consideration. At next month's meeting the delegates from the different clubs will make known the decision reached. The suffragists appear to be quite hopeful that the federation *will approve of the plan to give wo*men the vote.

PADEREWSKI URGES POLES TO FORM AN ARMY

Ignace Paderewski, the famous Polish pianist, who played here in the high school March 26 under the auspices of the Plainfield Musical Society, spoke in Pittsburg last night in Polish Falcons' Hall and urged the delegates representing 50,000 Poles in this country to form a Kosciuszko army for service under the Stars and Stripes.

In an impassioned address he referred to the great Polish patriot, Count Kosciuszko, who fell in battle while fighting under Washington in the Revolution.

SOME GUARDSMEN FAIL TO MEET TESTS

Several Members of Company K Are Rejected Following Examination

The First Battalion, Second New Jersey Infantry, of which Company K of this city is a part, is still located at Elizabeth awaiting the word to move. There have been countless rumors as to the objective point to which the regiment will be sent, but the battalion officers themselves are frank to admit that they know nothing whatever of any plans, although they are expecting orders at any time. It seems to be the opinion that the troops will be held at Elizabeth until a decision is reached by Congress regarding war.

In accepting men for active service the medical men have exacted the most strict requirements, and in consequence a number of men have been rejected, some having been in the guard for several years. Among those who were sent home today are Corporal F. R. Fearsall and Privates Edgar Van Shoten and Charles Van Shoten, Herbert H. Reynolds, John Hanning and Clarence Smalley, all of Company K. The men failed to come up to the rigid test. It is expected that several more men from the local company will be sent home *soon. There are a number of re*cruits to take their places, however, and probably for this reason the surgeons are more particular than they would *otherwise be under the cir*cumstances.

The battalion goes through a drill every night and the armory is crowded with interested spectators who applaud the guardsmen as they go through the manoeuvres with clocklike precision. The effect of the work of the past week on the soldiers has been marked. The drills have worked wonders with the men. The officers and men report that everything tending to their comfort is provided, and altogether they are a contented lot of soldiers. With the receipt of orders as to where the battalion is going there will be a lessening of the tension which is now experienced by every man.

ELKS' SHOW PROMISES TO BE A GREAT SUCCESS

"The Land of Mystery," the new comic opera which Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Skilling will produce with local talent at the Plainfield Theatre, April 10, 11 and 12, under the auspices of Plainfield Lodge of Elks, promises to be one of the best amateur performances yet given in the city. All of the principals, as well as the large chorus, have thoroughly learned their parts and last night Mr. Skilling said that the production would equal those given by professionals.

For the past week the members of the cast have been rehearsing with the stage and mechanical effects, so as to become accustomed to them for the public performances next week. There has been a great demand for tickets for all three nights, but there will be plenty of good seats for those wishing to attend the opera.

RUSSELL RINEHART WEDS MISS OLIVER

Rev. J. Y. Brock Performs Ceremony at Home of the Bride's Parents

The marriage of Miss Edna May Oliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Oliver and W. Russell Rinehart, of West Orange, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rinehart, of Lebanon, took place at 6:30 o'clock last night at the home of the bride's parents, 230 East Fifth street. Rev. J. Y. Brock, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, performed the ceremony in the presence of about seventy-five guests, including relatives and friends from New York, Newark, West Orange, Easton, Pa., Lebanon, Somerville, Bound Brook and this city.

The bride was gowned in white satin trimmed with Chantilly lace. She wore a veil well caught up with a spray of lilies-of-the-valley and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mildred Oliver, as maid of honor, who wore a gown of tulle over pink taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas.

The best man was Myron Angel Oliver, of Monterey, California, a cousin of the bride, and the ushers were C. H. Lee, of New York; Howard Rinehart and Edgar Rinehart, brothers of the bridegroom. As the bridal party *descended the front stairway and en*tered the parlor, where the ceremony was performed, the wedding march was played by Miss Frances Mosher. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The home was attractively decorated with palms, smilax, sweet peas and carnations, the arrangement in the parlor, dining-room and hallway being much admired. Following the ceremony a reception was held during which the newly-wedded couple received the congratulations of the guests and supper was served. Later Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart left for a wedding trip and upon their return will reside at West Orange, where the bridegroom is principal of public school No. 4. He formerly resided at Lebanon and was graduated from the Trenton Normal School; class '13. He has been teaching in West Orange for two years.

The bride is a native of this city and attended the Plainfield High School. She is an active member of Trinity Reformed church, and interested in many of the departments of work there. She received a large collection of gifts, including a chest of solid silver, and many other useful articles.

JUDGE NEWCORN IS THANKFUL

Expresses Appreciation of All Who Aided in War Relief Work

Judge Newcorn in an interview with a Courier-News reporter this morning said: "As chairman of the local branch of the American Jewish Relief Committee, I am pleased with the successful meeting held at Columbus Hall on Tuesday night, when the opening gun of the campaign to raise the sum of $10,000 as Plainfield's share towards the $10,000,000 that is being raised throughout the United States to aid the Jewish war sufferers, was fired. The work will be continued until the required amount has been raised.

"The responses to the letters sent out by me as Chairman of the committee are gratifying, and I expect to receive further responses from every one to whom an appeal was made.

"The amounts that have thus far come through the mail have ranged from $1 to $50, and the many letters of sympathy for the cause that accompanied the contributions, especially those from Gentile sources, are encouraging the Committee in its work.

"The number of responses to the appeal made at the meeting, as the result of the work of the committee, and the voices of Drs. Zelie and Strong, Mayor Calkins' communication, and Rabbi Wise, raised in behalf of humanity, proved that the Jews of Plainfield are responding to their brethren by contributing as much as they are able to give.

"I am in hopes that the same spirit will continue until the pledge made to the National Relief Committee will be fulfilled.

"A list of all the contributors, will be published in the newspapers, and the names of those who may make contributions subsequent to that time will be furnished the papers from time to time.

"In behalf of the committee I desire to thank the Plainfield Courier-News for its liberality in placing its columns at our disposal, the ministers of this city who co-operated with our committee in making the announcement last Sunday at the mass meeting to Rev. John S. Zelie and Rev. Philip B. Strong, whose stirring words inspired enthusiasm in the meeting, and last but not least, to those who have already contributed and who will contribute.

HOUSE SOUNDS BATTLE CRY TO GERMANY

By United Press:

Washington, April 5.—The House today sounded the battle-cry and prepared to make war against Germany a reality within twenty-four hours or less. The House Speaker, fiery with patriotism, called on members to hasten passage of the war resolution. The body went into committee of the whole on the "state of the Union" soon after convening, bringing up the resolution for debate.

Chairman Flood opened the discussion. Some pacifism developed, but there was no question of a hearty support of President Wilson, and passage of the war resolution.

Representative Harrison, Democratic leader on the committee, delivered the first speech in favor of the resolution. "We are going to war in defense of our fundamental rights, and for the preservation of the rights of humanity," he said. "The charge that we are going to war for profit, in the interest of munition-makers is as despicable as it is un-American, and it is unworthy of any American who loves his country, better than he does the land of an insidious foe. If there be in this body or elsewhere citizens who object to the course on which we are embarking, I suggest they address themselves to Kaiser Wilhelm, Bethmann-Hollweg, the Reichstag, and the author of that remarkable sample of diplomatic 'kultur,' the Zimmermann note."

HOLY WEEK SERVICE AT CRESCENT AVE. CHURCH

The Rev. Dr. William Adams Brown of the Union Theological Seminary, New York, was the speaker at the Holy Week service in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. The minister of the church, the Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, presided.

Dr. Brown's subject was "The Meaning of the Cross." It stood for all men and women today, as in all times, for comfort, for assurance and for inspiration. It stands for comfort because, notwithstanding the trouble that seems incident to mortal life, there is always solace in the knowledge that Christ died for man and is on the side of man against all troubles. The triumph of Christ on the cross is the assurance that his followers will triumph also. Therefore, the cross is the Christian's inspiration for duty, for faith, for life, for eternity.

QUANTITY is what you WEIGH.

QUALITY is what you ARE.

Now, we don't want to commit the folly of telling you that Rothberg Clothes will make you weigh any more in public estimation than you do on a public scale, but they'll help!

STANLEY'S DISPLAY OF EASTER FLOWERS

Perhaps never before has the display of flowers in Charles L. Stanley's store on East Front street been so beautiful as at this Easter season. The flowers are in every variety and most attractively grouped. They are in baskets, in pots, and they are cut and in vases. The display in the store and in the annex, a few doors east of the main store, includes: Easter lilies, baby rambler roses, daffodils, begonias, jonquils, genists, hyacinths, hydrangeas, snapdragons, lupines as well as the larger potted plants.

The greenhouses, where these plants are grown, and which are situated at Netherwood, are always open to the public.

MOBILIZATION HASTENS WEDDING

The mobilization of the Second New Jersey Infantry caused Miss Lillian Isabelle Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Buchanan, of Colfax avenue, Roselle Park, and Ernest Hangarter, a member of Company I, First Battalion, whose home is in Elizabeth, to hasten their wedding, which was to take place in June. They were married Sunday night in St. Luke's Episcopal church, Roselle, by the rector, Rev. Clarence S. Wood. The bride was attended by Mrs. Marguerite Reuter, and the best man was Dennis Burke.

NO ACTION BY CIVIL SERVICE BOARD

Trenton, April 5.—The Civil Service Commission has not yet taken the step which would allow election board members throughout the State to be selected under the old political system which obtained before the advent of the Geran Election Law, providing examinations for all such officials before their appointment.

Two separate resolutions were offered at Monday's meeting of the Commission either of which, if adopted, would have sounded the death knell of civil service for election officers. One of these resolutions was submitted by Arthur L. Stillman, of Hoboken, one of the members of the board, and the second was proposed by Gardner H. Stephenson, of Camden. Both recited that in view of the Legislatures failure to appropriate specific funds for this work of the department, it should be discontinued.

At the present time the election examination work is being paid for out of the department's regular appropriation of $50,000. The work costs annually about $6,000.

The play was obtained at considerable expense from Samuel French & Co., of New York city, and promises to be a stellar attraction for those who attend. After the show dancing will be the program with music furnished by the Philharmonic six-piece orchestra of Newark.

Head usher R. Henry Pasch announced that the following young men will act as ushers that night: William Barry, Leslie Daley, Clifford Fearing, Jack Cannon, Ralph Gray, Roy Force, Victor Levitz, Norman Conover, John Kuldoshes, Arthur Townley, Sidney Dunning, Clifford Marsh, Raymond Kirch, Irving Roddy, Norman McGee, Irving Scarborough, Seymour Day.

DE MEZA RESTORES DOMESTIC PEACE

Mrs. Boleslaw Bielawsky, of 729 South Second street, had her husband arraigned before Judge De Meza in the City Court this morning, charged with disorderly conduct. Bielawsky's face bore evidences of a recent encounter with his wife, and his quiet manner indicated to the court that perhaps he was not entirely at fault.

Bielawsky listened to all his wife had to say against him, and made no denial until Judge DeMeza questioned him closely. He then stated that he had been a hard-working man, and he had given his wife a total of $900, which she had placed in the bank in her own name. She recently demanded the transfer of other sums which he carried to his own credit, and he didn't take kindly to the idea. Then the trouble began.

Judge DeMeza talked privately with the pair after he had dismissed the complaint against Bielawsky, and they left the court room the best of friends.

The annual congregational meeting of the chapel will be held this evening following the service of worship, which is to start promptly at 7.45 and will continue for about thirty minutes. The election of two members of the board of trustees and a church treasurer, together with a report on the committee appointed last fall on securing a new site, will be the special business before the congregation.

he has no voice." He then explained that just as he was closing his campaign at Lawrence, Mass., last Sunday his voice failed him and he was only because he did not want to disappoint his Plainfield friends that he felt constrained to come here at this time. Dr. Biederwolf was quite humorous during the early part of his talk, relating several amusing stories, one remark, that a sermon ought to be like a woman's dress, of proper length and should cover the subject, looking hearty laughter.

After emphasizing the fact that both he and his wife, as well as the other members of his party, have the finest memories of Plainfield and the good old days of the campaign, Dr. Biederwolf briefly told of his work since leaving Plainfield and also spoke of each member of his party, which is practically the same, except that Paul Roberts, a member of the quartet, resigned, his place being taken by another singer.

The evangelist delivered one of his characteristic sermons, taking as his text from St. Mathew 12-12: "How much then is a man better than a sheep." "We all know," said Dr. Biederwolf, "that Christ would not die for a sheep what he has and is willing to do for man."

The evangelist then went on to show that in the strict interpretation of the word, one man is worth as much as another, although not always as to character and usefulness. "You ought to be more concerned about your soul," said Dr. Biederwolf. "There are some farmers in Union county who think a great deal more about getting their hogs to market than about getting their children to Heaven, and there are some women who think more about the prize they hope to win at a bridge party than what will become of their children. So many people are only concerned about the material things in life, and unless they wake up and the church wakes up they will all die and become absolutely useless.

"The church is now about to face the greatest crisis in its history and it must be prepared to maintain its high standard. When the peace of nations comes it will be followed by a commercial prosperity, the thought of which almost staggers one. There will be many people, tired of the burdens of war, who will yearn for the shores of this land, and we must be prepared to receive them.

"I am glad that we have a man in Washington who is for peace at any price, with honor. It is no longer a question of being a Republican or Democrat; it is well enough to know that there are one hundred million people that stand today united behind our President. God hasten the day when we shall have peace.

"This is the time when the lost must be won for Christ and if every church member does his or her part this can be done. I am here tonight to call you to Christ, and let me impress upon you the fact that it is our business to win souls to Christ. It is one thing to preach the Gospel from the pulpit and another thing to go out and bring souls to Christ. You had better stop trifling with your life and soul or you may sink into the fathomless depths of the pit in which there is no hope."

At the conclusion of his discourse, Dr. Biederwolf made an urgent appeal in behalf of the Family Altar League and for the $100,000 endowment fund he is trying to raise. He said that $45,000 has thus far been secured for this fund. At his suggestion George E. Hall also spoke a few words urging a liberal contribution to the fund.

At the close of the meeting an opportunity was given all present to personally meet and shake hands with Dr. Biederwolf, and nearly every person in the auditorium accepted the invitation. Prior to the meeting Dr. and Mrs. Biederwolf were entertained at dinner by Former Senator and Mrs. Ernest R. Ackerman. They left last night for Syracuse, N. Y., and next Sunday the evangelist will open a campaign at Madison, Wisconsin. He came here last night under the auspices of the local Christian Endeavor Union.

The World War a Year Ago Today—April 5.

The German chancellor declared that Poland would not be restored to Russia, Belgium would be recreated, Germany seeks no territory in America and submarine and aerial warfare would continue.

Artillery duels raged in the Lagarina section of the Trentino zone where the Austrians were pressing the Italians.

Senator Chamberlain, head of the committee on military affairs, declared that the United States was not in a position to enforce with arms any demand it might make upon European belligerents which encroach upon American rights.

CLEARING THE ATMOSPHERE

Submerged by the wave of genuine patriotism in the United States Senate, last night, the "willful group" of filibusterers who thwarted the President in the closing hours of the last Congress, divided, and six joined the majority while the other six still held out in opposition to the President. The vote of the Senate favoring the President's message for war on Germany, was eighty-two for it, and six against. There were six absentees, on account of illness. The message has crystallized the American sentiment all over the country, and has stimulated citizens of foreign birth or extraction, to come forward, with pledges of loyalty to the country of their adoption. The effect of this attitude of the United States has been to arouse other countries in the Western Hemisphere to a similar sentiment, and it would not be surprising if all the countries of South America were in sympathy with the action of the United States. It seems the psychological moment for this action for the President's message made clear the reasons why the United States could no longer sit calmly by and submit to the atrocities committed on our own people. Other countries which have suffered in like manner feel the same way as we about it, but so long as none made a move in protest, the atrocities would go on. Once one country takes this stand, the others will follow, and a world-protest against such atrocities may have the effect of stopping submarine ruthlessness without any great exertion of war on our part. What our nation has protested was the unlimited submarine warfare against innocent victims, and not the unwarranted, superfluous assumption on the part of autocratic Berlin, in dictating to neutrals about the privileges of the seas, which can in no way be considered as private property. Since the whole world is in protest against allied Germany, it must be clear that a good reason exists for that attitude. This being true it is only natural and proper that definite action be taken by the protesting countries. The United States has led off and with the other countries in line the offending belligerent should be able to see the folly of longer resistance to the laws of humanity.

MARINES GARRISON VIRGIN ISLANDS

Washington, April 5.—Two hundred and fifteen United States Marines from Haiti and Santo Domingo were landed Saturday in the Virgin Islands, formerly the Danish West Indies, to form the first United States garrison in this newly-acquired island possession.

In peace or war these "soldiers of the sea" have always been first in the protection of American interests and property on land or sea, even before we had an army or navy. They have been stationed ashore guarding American legations abroad, and the naval stations in our many island possessions for years, so the garrisoning of the Virgin Islands is no new duty for the Marines.

TUNNEL PROJECT INVESTIGATED

President McCarter of P. S. C. Tells Newark Trade Board of Probable Cost

Plans and estimates of cost of construction, and operation of a vehicular tunnel to connect New Jersey and New York were outlined by president Thomas N. McCarter, of Public Service Corporation of New Jersey, at a meeting of the Newark Board of Trade last night. The session was held in the Hotel Robert Treat, and the facts laid before some 500 business men had been gathered at an expense of approximately $75,000. The work was financed by Public Service and was done by a committee consisting of Mr. McCarter, George J. Roberts, Percy Ebralls, Marlin Schreiber and Walton Clark, all Public Service officials, assisted by some of the most eminent engineers in the country. The foundation work of the committee included researching and investigations which the New York and New Jersey Interstate Bridge and Tunnel Commissions have been endeavoring for several years to secure funds to carry out. Public Service undertook the project as a private enterprise, but Mr. McCarter announced the corporation's willingness to either go on with the work itself, or to heartily co-operate with the two States if it is deemed more advisable to construct such a vehicular tunnel under public ownership.

The vehicular tunnel project has been discussed off and on for years. As far back as 1906 the legislatures of New York and New Jersey began appointing commissions to study this subject, and the various bodies named under legislative authority have gathered an immense amount of information. Lack of funds, however, prevented the more expensive part of the preliminary work being vigorously prosecuted, and in November, 1913, Mr. McCarter laid the proposition before his board. A survey of the situation was made, which resulted in a decision by Public Service in February, 1916, to thoroughly investigate the practicability of the construction and operation of such a tunnel by the corporation. The demand for better facilities and the benefit that would come from the development of North Bergen and Weehawken, which would follow the building of such a tunnel were the company's reasons for undertaking the work.

The location fixed by the Board for the New Jersey entrance to the proposed tunnel is the block bounded by Grove, Twelfth, Henderson and Thirteenth streets, Jersey City, with the New York entrance at either Canal street, Spring street or West street. The cost of land and easements on both sides of the river is estimated at something like $1,000,000 so that the total cost of the undertaking, including construction, land, easements, interest and taxes during the construction and the $75,000 expended by Public Service, will be the estimate, which will be $8,929,000 based on normal prices for labor and materials. At present abnormal prices the total cost is figured at $10,618,000.

Y. M. C. A. OLD RUBBER DAY

On Saturday, a number of Y. M. C. A. boys will visit many homes in this city and solicit old rubbers, papers and other articles that might be sold for the boys to secure $85 for use in the Boys' Division work.

The boys are taking a very deep interest in aiding the Y. M. C. A. work in the State, country and city, and by this means of an Old Rubber Day they hope to accomplish their aim. They hope that the people of the city will respond to the appeal of the boy and encourage him in his effort to extend the work among those who are less fortunate than they.

If a sufficient amount is raised a part of the money will be used in sending deserving boys to the State Camp this summer.

FANWOOD

The organization of a Parent-Teacher Association of Fanwood Township school No. 1, was completed yesterday afternoon in school No. 1. This organization is similar in purpose to all other Parent-Teacher Associations in neighboring towns. The opportunity of having the parents and teachers of this community get together at regular intervals to confer about the pupils' work, is now afforded, and it is hoped that every ounce of interest will be exhibited by boroughs parents, who have children attending school No. 1. Co-operation will make this organization a complete success and this co-operation will be needed in such a small community.

Fanwood borough is preparing to do its share of military training and preparedness. A meeting for the purpose of organizing a Home Guard Rifle Corps will be held in Fanwood Hall on Saturday evening of April 7, at 8 o'clock. The Social Welfare Committee of the Fanwood Civic Association is conducting this military movement, which will be the first of its nature in the borough.

The Home Guard Rifle corps, when fully organized, will be absolutely independent of any regular organized military unit constituting the National Guard or Regular Army. There is nothing compulsory about joining the corps, but members so doing must observe its rules and requirements with no less discipline than many of the numerous other similar organizations.

Those who desire to enroll as a member of this patriotic organization and cannot attend the meeting on Saturday evening, are requested to submit their names to Edward P. Meeker, chairman of the Social Welfare Committee, in order that all the names

Milady and the New York Shops

A June Wedding

"What do you think of this wording?" Alice Fellce asked, handing me a slip of paper. Unsuspiciously I read:

Mr. and Mrs. John Vandeveer request the pleasure of Miss Mary Carry's company at the marriage of their daughter Alice to Mr. Reginald MacAlister on Wednesday, the Sixth of June at Noon Hotel Savoy Fifth Avenue and Forty-ninth Street New York City

I let the card slip and I threw my arms around the excited girl's neck. "Oh! my dear," I exclaimed. "I am so glad. And this is your way of telling me."

"Yes," replied Alice Fellce, "it just happened. But you know Reegie and I are both very practical so the first thing we did was to decide on the date of the wedding. And now, Milady, come with me to pick out wedding invitations. It is not a bit too soon."

"You are right, Alice," I nodded, wisely. "Now tell me your details now and you won't be bothered the last minute the way lots of foolish brides are. Whereabout I don't have to ask. Of course, there is just one place we can go to have wedding invitations engraved—Altman & Co. I know Freddie MacAlister's bride had hers done there last year and everyone thought they were exquisite."

Alice's Packard made a very convenient means of taking us to Altman's wonderful establishment on Fifth Avenue and Thirty-fourth Street.

We had a great old time looking at the various styles in invitations, and we both decided unanimously on the shaded modified Roman type on Altman's large sized paper.

"I won't get the panel effect," Alice said, "though I know it is very stylish, because mother has that, and I want something different." We could have ordered the same style lettering in any size paper, with or without the panel effect, in square or oblong shapes. Instead of the modified Roman, we could also have chosen the solid black—but our choice looked more refined, more unusual.

Instead of the usual type, we might have also chosen the Old English, shaded and very pretty, but not quite as new as the other. Or a combination of types makes very attractive wedding invitations.

Along with the invitations, Alice ordered her reception cards and announcement cards with the "at home" cards which usually belong with announcements.

"Look at those golden wedding invitations, Alice," I exclaimed. "They are indeed beautiful, with golden lettering on the white cards. There we found could be ordered in any size or shape desired.

The next thing on the list was this practical bride-to-be, "is my monogram stationary. I want them to make up my die for me. Won't I feel big with the initials 'A.F.V.M.'?"

We saw a wealth of beautiful monograms—Japanese, diamond, script—in all kinds of artistic designs. These could be stamped in any colors, purple, gold, illuminated, square, round, oblong, diamond or circle shapes.

Alice also ordered her address stamp brown for her new Fifth Avenue mansion and green for her new summer cottage in Newport, which happened to possess the alluring name of "Dove's Nest." It would indeed be a "Dove's Nest" when she and Reegie were installed within! These monogrammed dies came in block letters, Old English or Roman in various sizes and styles. Or you might combine two styles, Roman and Old English or Roman and script. Alice liked her monogram in the block letters, although the round ones sometimes to put your telephone number there.

She also bought all kinds of stationery. I told her she must expect to correspond with the German aristocracy, as most of them did, H. Well, it was hard to choose from all the abundance of panel effects, tissue-lined envelopes, harmonizing colored striped tissue-lined and even plain ones adorned with Spring flowers. There were all sizes of correspondence cards.

We selected the cunningest little cards for the wedding dinner that read "Dancing, all hand-painted and hand-made, some with lillies-of-the-valley, some with bells, and some with bowpins. For the bridesmaids, we got figures for girls, carrying bouquets of flowers. While Alice wasn't looking I popped in two hugging kewpie in a wedding ring.

"You must let me give you your Bridge Book, Alice, dear," I said. "And I found a lovely white suede bound book in which the guests could write their names and the bride could write an account of her tenderness and wedding journey.

For her wedding list, Alice discovered a most convenient book. I saw, with an alphabetical index and place to write the names of guests, whether they are to be invited to the ceremony, reception or both, or present announcements and "at home" cards. And when the presents start coming, where they come from, when acknowledged and any other remarks one may happen to make.

"There! that's off my mind," said Alice, as she sank back into the soft cushions of her limousine. "That really's done, it isn't a bit of trouble to order things at Altman's. It is! I should say not!" I agreed emphatically.

"A Horseshoe with every Tire"

A. G. Weinberg

THIS "wish you well" stuff is all right for conversation, but I must deliver more than that or go out of business. Therefore, I investigated before I tied up with DIAMOND "Squeegee" Tires.

What I found in Diamond performance looked good to me.

So when we say that Diamond Tires are good enough for us to stake our reputation on, we mean that Diamonds are mighty good tires.

You don't need to pay a cent more than the price of a Diamond Tire for all the service and mileage you can ever hope to get from any tire.

Get the habit of coming into our store for free air, gasoline and accessories.

Let us look your present tires over occasionally. We may be able to tell you how to get more mileage out of them.

Every Diamond Tire must deliver full value in service. If ever a Diamond Tire fails, a cheerful, willing adjustment will be promptly made.

U. S. WILL SEIZE FOOD FOR ARMY

Chicago to Be Mobilization Point For Supplies.

SPECULATION IS FORBIDDEN.

Unprecedented Increase In Prices and Fear of Tremendous Shortage Forces Drastic Action by Quartermaster's Department — Interests of Public to Be Conserved With Those of Troops. Government to Fix Own Prices For What It Takes.

Chicago, April 5.—The United States government inaugurated plans here for making Chicago the great food supply depot of America. Provisions of all classes will be mobilized here from all sections of the country. The gathering and distribution of food for the contemplated great army of more than a million men and even for private consumption will be under the direction of experts, many of them already selected by the federal authorities.

These were the outstanding features in the campaign to solve the food problems confronting the nation:

Will Commandeer Supplies.

An unprecedented rise in all commodities and an apparent effort by the dealers to increase prices.

The United States government has laid plans to commandeer food supplies for the army and navy.

Chicago packers have been ordered to hold in reserve 5,000,000 pounds of meat subject to commandering in the case of war.

The government will fix its own prices on foods at the cost to the supply houses, plus only a profit to be fixed by the government.

Supply houses must give preference to government orders.

All purchases possible will be made direct from the producer.

The government will ask for no bids for supplies, but will issue requisitions for them and will itself fix the price to be paid.

Will Fight Speculation.

The government will not allow any speculation in food either for the army or private consumption.

Details of these plans are being worked out at the federal building by officers of the quartermaster department, H. B. Lyford of the Council of National Defense, produce dealers and transportation experts.

They do not expect to complete the details of the plan for several days and will advise all they have reason to believe will aid them in perfecting a comprehensive handling of food supplies.

It is intended to make Chicago the hub of the transportation system to be started as soon as war is declared. Many high railroad officials already here will be joined Monday by many others from all sections of the country. Plans that have been prepared will be gone over again at that time and improvements suggested. The railroads will place all their equipment at the disposal of the government and will take in charge the transportation of supplies and equipment.

AUTHOR'S HOME BURNED.

Wife Saves Books and Manuscripts, Ignoring Jewels.

Riverside, Conn., April 5.—The $100,000 mansion of Irving Bachelier, author, here was turned to the ground Mrs. Bachelier, who was in the house with the servants, made no effort to save valuable jewels and furniture, but worked frantically in getting out her husband's books and manuscripts.

Most of the volumes were removed in time, but thousands of dollars' worth of jewels were left in the ruins. Mr. Bachelier returned from golfing to find Thrushwood, for which he had recently refused $110,000, a mass of smoldering cinders. A cordon of guards was thrown about the ruins to keep prowlers from searching for the jewels.

WANT U. S. PROHIBITION.

President Asked to Indorse It as a War Measure.

Detroit, Mich., April 5.—V. C. Hinshaw of Chicago, chairman of the Prohibition national committee, has sent to President Wilson a message urging him to indorse the prohibition amendment.

"National prohibition should be made operative immediately as a war measure," says the message. "Being now engulfed in the titanic struggle of the ages, with the burden upon us of feeding and equipping half the world, what better thing could be done to add to America's strength than to immediately enforce national prohibition?"

A RAW, SORE THROAT
Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds on the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use.

MUSTEROLE

The MOTHER of these two children says: "Whenever my children need a body builder I give them Father John's Medicine and it prevents them from catching cold. This is the only kind of medicine I use and it has always helped." (Signed) Mrs. T. Jorgensen, 23 51st St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

The safe body building tonic for all the family to take is Father John's Medicine because the pure and wholesome food elements which it contains build new flesh and strength and by driving out the impurities restore normal health.

FRENCH TROOPS IN ST. QUENTIN

Fall of City Assured Is Now Claim of Allies.

London, April 5.—French troops have driven the Germans from the southern suburbs of St. Quentin and are only a mile from the city itself. Patrols already have pushed to its outskirts. The immediate fall of Hindenburg's stronghold was made almost certain by a victorious French advance.

Charging with irresistible dash on a front of six miles, the poilus scored their most brilliant success since the German retreat began. Advancing through squalls of snow and over ground deep in mud, they captured a position officially described as "very important," dominating St. Quentin itself. Three villages through which the German line ran were taken.

Preceded by a rain of chemical shells and thirteen waves of asphyxiating gas, German troops forced their way across the River Stuched northeast of Kivrel and dislodged the Russians from positions along the river. The Russians suffered a serious reverse.

Most of the Tobody bridgehead position on the west bank of the Stochod, which occupied high ground, is in the hands of the Germans. Northeast of Helebin the Germans succeeded in setting foot on the east bank of the river, occupying some of the last positions the Russians took before General Brusiloff's offensive in Volhynia was stopped last summer.

The attack began with a bombardment concentrated on Russian munition dumps west of the river. Then the German infantry charged trenches, part of which defenders were grasping on the ground capable of resistance. The Germans crossed the river imperiled the Russian troops still on the west bank, so they, too, had to retire. The Russian losses were heavy, Petrograd admits.

MRS. BELLIS ENTERTAINS MEMBERS OF OPERA CAST

Mrs. Millard Bellis, of East Fifth street, was the hostess for a company of friends at her home last night, when the guests, all members of the comic opera, "The Land of Mystery," to be given April 10, 11 and 12, under the auspices of Plainfield Lodge of Elks, spent the evening rehearsing their parts and singing other popular selections.

There were several piano solos by Mrs. Bellis, who also accompanied for the chorus numbers. Those present last night comprise the "Sight-Seers" in the opera, one of the attractive features. At a late hour refreshments were served.

HOUSE TO VOTE ON WAR TODAY

Will Adopt Resolution Perhaps by Tonight.

SIX STUBBORN SENATORS.

Headed by La Follette, They Fight the Adoption of Resolution While Colleagues Sit In Grim Silence, Broken Only When Norris Talks of Putting Dollar Mark on American Flag. Proclamation by President Final Step In Action.

THE SIX WHO VOTED AGAINST WAR RESOLVE.

The six senators who cast the votes against declaring a state of war existed between Germany and the United States were:
Gronna of North Dakota.
La Follette of Wisconsin.
Norris of Nebraska.
Lane of Oregon.
Stone of Missouri.
Vardaman of Mississippi.

Washington, April 5.—The senate has spoken. The house will act today.

After a day of debate, in which some of the willful twelve figured again conspicuously, the senate at 11:10 last night passed the resolution recognizing the existence of a state of war with Germany, authorizing the president to use the land and naval forces to carry it on and pledging all the country's resources to secure its successful termination.

The final vote was 82 for and 6 against, with eight absentees, all of whom are understood to have been in favor of the adoption of the resolution.

Six "Willful" Ones.

The six who held out against the declaration of the existence of a state of war were Gronna of North Dakota, La Follette of Wisconsin, Lane of Oregon, Norris of Nebraska, Vardaman of Mississippi and Stone of Missouri, all members of the group which opposed the armed neutrality bill.

The absentees were Bankhead of Alabama, Gore of West Virginia, Gore of Oklahoma, Newlands of Nevada, Smith of Maryland, Thomas of Colorado, Tillman of South Carolina and Hollis of New Hampshire.

The resolution comes up for debate in the house today, with no limit set for the debate, but with an agreement that a vote shall be taken before adjournment. Debate may continue far into tonight, but the passage of the resolution is certain, the likelihood being that there will be only a handful of votes against it.

The senate made its momentous decision amid a silence that was impressive. The galleries were packed and crowds stood outside the doors but the chamber was so quiet that every senator could be heard distinctly as he announced his vote.

Just before the long debate reached its conclusion Senator Hardins had stirred all those within by an impassioned plea for the regeneration of the republic, which, he said, he had begun to doubt was united.

Smoot Last to Vote.

"But," said he, "the action we are about to take will bring us together and will put new life into the republic."

The last senator to arise was Senator Smoot, who made what was in the nature of a prayer.

"God bless and approve the action taken by the senate this day," he said.

"God hasten the day when liberty will be enjoyed by all the people of the earth."

Except for the opening speeches, which emphasized the farreaching consequence of the action about to be taken, the war session was almost bare of dramatic effects.

There were outbursts of resentment against the ultra pacifist charge of Senator Norris, especially when he said congress was about to put the dollar mark on the American flag. There was an impressive air of solemnity in the utterances of the anti-war members who bowed to the inevitable. The long speech of Senator La Follette, assailing the policy of the administration and denouncing the British government, aroused bitter discussion.

The debate went about the grave business deliberately and for the most part dispassionately. There was no occasion for struggle such as has occurred over less important measures. Once the resolution had been laid before the senate and the justification for its adoption made there was little more for the majority of senators to do but await the close of the debate. Those who were convinced that the time for action was at hand said little. Speeches did not begin so solemn a proceeding.

La Follette Accuses Britain.

The high tide of opposition was reached in a speech delivered by Senator La Follette. Under the guise of an elaborate analysis of the international situation he made a vitriolic attack upon Great Britain, which he said had been as contemptuous of American rights as the German government.

He asserted that the people of the United States did not want war. He condemned the policy of Great Britain by the arguments of the German foreign office itself and arraigned the British government for its "piratical policy" on the sea. He said neutral nations would suspect the United States of seizing the moment to embark upon an imperialistic policy.

"We have wallowed," he said, "in the mire at the feet of Great Britain and submitted to her dictation."

The speech brought forth a spirited reply from Senator Williams, who bluntly resented disparaging allusions to the English and the implication that the United States was about to submit to the will of Great Britain.

"We are not about to enter upon a European war," he said. "We are about to enter upon an American war forced upon us by German military authorities. This man who cannot distinguish between the depredations committed by Great Britain and the depredations committed by Germany hasn't got sense enough to distinguish between a torpedo and a prize court."

Only once was the formal trend of the debate interrupted. When Senator Norris, who participated in the filibuster which brought about the defeat of the armed neutrality bill at the close of the last congress, charged that greed was the war motive and that congress "was about to put the dollar sign upon the American flag" Senator Reed of Missouri and several of his colleagues raised their voices in protest. The charge, they said, was an indictment of the president, of congress and of the American people and took on the guise of treason.

Senator Norris dispassionately denied any such motive and said that he criticised no one, but he stood by his assertions that financial gain had been the impelling desire behind the clamor for war and that the propaganda originating in Wall street had brought the country to the state of war hysteria. Because of the gravity of the issue his colleagues, obviously restraining their indignation, dropped the controversy.

DRINK WATER TO AVOID SICKNESS SAYS AUTHORITY

Glass of hot water before breakfast daily keeps the doctor away.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its alluring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, coated tongue, a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should drink a glass of hot water before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv.

NEW JERSEY HAS FINE CAMP SITES

Governor Edge Issues Proclamation to Encourage Intensive Agriculture

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, April 5.—Governor Edge Tuesday made public a letter sent by him to United States Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen calling attention to the advisability of New Jersey for camp sites in the event of the Federal Government's needing such ground in the East. At the same time the Executive encloses a list of proposed sites prepared by Adjutant General Barber.

The Governor tells Senator Frelinghuysen that the latter can serve New Jersey very materially at this time, and the nation as well, by keeping the accessibility of these sites before the Quartermaster General's Department at Washington should troops be moved from the West to the Atlantic seaboard.

"Naturally there is much home pride in owning New Jersey made a rendezvous for troops," says the letter. "We would feel pretty badly if Virginia, Connecticut and New York State were made the mobilization points and New Jersey was overlooked. It is not from any mercenary standpoint that the State is desirous of being recognized, as this works both ways. We simply wish to do our full part and to show our desire of every service possible."

If a large army is mobilized or volunteers are asked for, the Governor points out in the communication, it is assumed they would be moved to the points near the coast, and this is the reason for his activity in this direction.

The enclosure prepared by the Adjutant General reads as follows:

"1. In the vicinity of Winslow Junction, to accommodate 15,000 or 20,000 troops in camp; ample for maneuver grounds nearby; undeveloped land sufficient for maneuvers; three lines of railroads; good water obtainable.

"2. Between New Lisbon and Whitings,—has two lines of railways; equal facilities in every respect.

"Both included in area considered in study by Headquarters Eastern Department, the defense of city of Philadelphia, New Jersey and Atlantic Coast.

"3. Eighteen miles west of Somerville, Somerset county—tract of 500 acres; State owned land; water; six-inch pipe line crossing tract; good railroad facilities.

"4. Sea Girt encampment and range."

NOT A PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF OR A FALLING HAIR

Save your hair! Double its beauty in just a few moments.

25-cent "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first, —yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Any hair that is much thinner, lifeless, dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

BILL FOR U. S. ARMY OF 500,000 READY

Conscription Base of War Department Measure.

Washington, April 5.—The war department's bill by which half a million young men may be enrolled in the shortest possible time for war service will go to congress today if the war resolution is adopted. It is complete in all its details and is regarded as certain to be adopted despite opposition which army officers anticipate from certain quarters.

In effect it is conscription based on the principle that all American citizens are liable to military service, but it includes only young men between certain ages yet to be announced—probably eighteen to twenty-three—with exemption to married men, men with dependents, men needed in war industri's or in other special pursuits which the Council of National Defense may decide are of particular importance to the mobilization of the nation's resources. The physically unfit, of course, will be weeded out.

The war department estimates that by calling the men from nineteen to twenty-eight, inclusive, upward of 2,000,000 could be procured in about a year. They will come in increments of 500,000 each, a new increment following as soon as the other has been trained.

Included in the scheme must be the funds and equipment necessary to establish military training on a basis never before attempted in the United States. A perfect military weapon is to be fashioned, officers say if the army's plan is accepted by congress. It will take time and money, but will furnish such a force as will make its weight tell against any troops in the world.

Don't suffer longer from Catarrh, Clogged Nostrils, Droppings in Throat, Chronic Colds, Ruining of Mucus or any other catarrhal symptoms.

Stop it! Go to L. W. Randolph or to any local druggist and ask for a complete treatment of Hyomei—the famous medicated air treatment which ends catarrh by killing the Germs which cause it.

No more sprays, gargles, greasy ointments, or stomach medicines. Instead just breathe the pure wholesome air of Hyomei. It penetrates—reaches every portion of the sore, inflamed membranes. It heals—stops the inflammation and irritation and ends every symptom of catarrh. It guaranteed—it don't succeed or money back. Your own druggist says so.—Adv.

BLANCHE BATES COMES HERE APRIL 17

Blanche Bates, who will be seen in her new play, "Eleven P. M.," at the Plainfield Theatre Tuesday, matinee and night.

The announcement that Blanche Bates is to be seen here at Plainfield Theatre Tuesday, matinee and night, April 17, in a new play entitled "Eleven P. M.," written especially for this favorite American star, by Paul M. Potter, cannot fail to be of supreme interest to our theatregoers.

The play itself is said to be particularly adapted to the wonderful histrionic ability for which Miss Bates is noted, and the fact that she has surrounded herself with a company of favorite thespians adds not a little importance to the occasion.

Wilton Lackaye, the well-known American star, heads the list, which includes Charles Hammond, Thomas J. McGrane, Charles Butler, Louise Macklintosh, Janet Travers, Jeffreys Lewis, J. H. Barnes, Ferd Pendisere, Maria Ascarra, Sallie Bergman, George Shelton, Henri Virey and Albert Prisco. Her managers, T. H. Hunter, Inc., have provided an excellent scenic investiture for "Eleven P. M."

"SIGHT-SEERS" COMING MONDAY TO PLAINFIELD

Coming to the Plainfield Theatre next Monday, April 9, is an attraction that will rouse more than the usual interest among the many lovers of burlesque in this city. The attraction is one of "Blutch" Cooper's big companies which he is presenting under the title of "The Sightseers." The stars who head the cast of unusual strength that is with the organization this season are Will J. Kennedy, the well-known and equally liked comedian and the irresistible funny Jack Miller; the others who are members in the company include Harry P. Kelly, Bobby Van Horn, the Carnival Four, Kathrine Dickey, Kitty Forsythe, Flo Davis, Lottie Blackford and a chorus of beauties par excellence.

The performance is best described in the words of Mr. Wells, who says "its fundamental feature is fun."

"The play's the thing"—Shakespeare.

"VERA THE MEDIUM" AT PROCTOR'S TODAY

Kitty Gordon, the talented English stage and screen star, headlines a double feature bill at Proctor's today in a special five-part Selznick production entitled "Vera, the Medium." In addition today Thomas H. Ince presents Constance Talmadge (sister of Norma) in a five-part comedy dramatic Triangle play entitled "Betsy's Burglar."

Tomorrow Robert Warwick appears in "A Girl's Folly." The griefs of the motion picture director, the work of the cameraman and actors on and off stage are all shown. Combined with all this entertaining detail is a love story that has a charm that is all its own. In addition to "A Girl's Folly" tomorrow a special five-part Paramount adaptation of the famous play, "The Intrigue," also shown with Lenore Ulrich in the leading role.

On Saturday, Mme. Olga Petrova appears at Proctor's in "The Black Butterfly," a five-part Metro production, and Vivian Martin appears in Paramount's "Her Father's Son." In addition "Jerry on the Job," a cartoon comedy for the children, is shown.

On Tuesday and Wednesday of next week the big Vitagraph special

Constance Talmadge and Kenneth Harland in Triangle Play, "Betsy's Burglar."

At Proctor's today

production, "The Girl Philippa," will be shown with Anita Stewart in the leading role.

"JOAN THE WOMAN" HERE APRIL 16

Based on the life of the immortal Joan of Arc, a motion picture production in eleven parts, entitled "Joan the Woman," directed by Cecil De Mille, with Geraldine Farrar in the role of Joan, will begin an engagement at the Proctor Theatre, this city, on April 16.

All the scenes of the picture were made last summer in California. Miss Farrar having spent more than four months in the motion picture colony. In the historical accuracy of costumes, armor, heraldry, buildings and the personnel, that portion of the production was in the hands of Wilfred Buckland, formerly of the artistic staff of David Belasco. Mr. Buckland and Mr. de Mille for two years have worked side by side in the Lasky studios and the assembling of material for "Joan the Woman" consumed many months of that time.

ATTORNEY GENERAL IS ASKED FOR RULING

The Civil Service Commission yesterday decided to have the attorney-general rule on the legality of a resolution suggested by its secretary, Gardner Colby, calling for the abolishment of examinations for all election officers throughout the State on the ground that the Legislature failed to provide a specific appropriation for the continuance of the work.

A similar resolution was offered earlier in the meeting by Arthur Stillman, Republican, a new member of the commission, from Hudson county. Other members of the board, including President Prince, of Passaic, Republican, and Commissioners Wright and Deveraux, Democrats, thought that the board should be advised by the attorney-general before it officially abolishes civil service examinations of this character while the election law says they shall be held.

TIPS

Tipping is a habit, a necessity and a damnable outrage, engendered by a germ. The germ is employed by hotels mostly and is known by various names, such as bellboy, hat checker, waiter, etc. This germ is bred and reared in uniform. It attacks all ages and conditions of men alike. It feeds on small change, and its appetite is constantly improving. Tipping is an example of something for nothing. You give the tip germ something. He gives you nothing. And if you don't give him something next time you go there he gives you less than he gave you in the first place. The tip germ is everywhere and in everything, particularly in a hotel. There is only one thing around a hotel you mustn't tip—that's your soup plate. It isn't polite to do that.

LOCAL BIRDS LOST TO C. N. J. "CHAMPS"

Eagles Drop Odd Game, But Secure Several Individual Honors

The Plainfield Eagles, winners of the high team honors in the State bowling league of that order, last evening visited Bound Brook, where they were entertained by the Boos, winners of the championship of the Central New Jersey Bowling League. The local lads took the first tilt and lost all the rest. Although dropping two games the Eagles secured high team average and high total for one game.

Four double century scores were divided fifty-fifty between the two teams, while the Queen City boys managed to cop three of the four 190 or better scores. Mahoney also added to the local honors by copping high individual honors with a mark of 190.1, while Radin did his share by copping the high score of 215 in the first game.

IMPERIALS TAKE THE LEAGUE LEAD

Borough Bowlers Push Elks Out of Leadership in City Bowling Circuit

The North Plainfield Imperials are now heading the City League by the small margin of a game and a half, according to the official standing issued by Secretary George Howe this morning. And this is with the end of the season's schedule in sight. The Elks, holding down second place, are enjoying but one game and a half advantage over the Knights of Columbus, the latter in third place. The Elks, however, are still clinging to the high team average with a chalking of 874.15.

Taylor, Vail and Voorhees constitute the "big three" this week, the latter pinner having pushed his way past Gates, his team mate on the Imperials. Waldorf and Skinner of the Elks and Tabs, respectively, who for a time threatened to break into the "big three" class, fell back since the last official standing was issued, while O'Keeffe, Kiely and Causbrook have moved upward to some extent.

The official figures are given below, the figure to the left of the individual bowler indicating his position when the standing was last published:

Chicago, Ill., April 5.—Catcher James Archer, a hold-out, signed with the Chicago Nationals yesterday. He previously had declined to sign because of a reduction in salary.

HORSE SEASON IS ON THE APPROACH

Preliminary Work in Planning Activities at Weequahic Park, Newark

With stall allotments to be made next week and the opening date set members of the Road Horse Association of New Jersey are making ready for the matinee racing season at Weequahic Park. Indications at present are that the weekly Saturday afternoon race cards will be made up from a field of about 120 horses, in addition to the star performer of 1916, including Justabelle, Sprinting Blaize, Basil Duke, Reuben Hal and Bobby Moreland, there will be a number of new ribbon winners in action.

Next Tuesday has been officially set for the allotment of the stalls. Applications have reached the point where occupancy of all 120 stalls is assured. This is noteworthy in view of the fact that there were forty-eight stalls less at this time last year. The additional accommodations were provided later in the season for the Junior League horsemen who held their meet here in conjunction with the celebration. The quarters were made permanent, an opinion prevailing that added room would be necessary this year.

Three horsemen alone have made application for thirty-two stalls. They had sixteen last year. About seventy-five or eighty owners will race their horses.

Although the official opening of the season is set for the first Saturday before Memorial Day, May 26, some of the owners will start bringing in their charges from stock farm and private stable about the middle of this month. The first squad will be followed by a steady daily line, culminating with the presence of all the stars on the opening day. The track is in good shape now and improved prompt brushes may be expected from now on.

Dr. H. E. Winter, of this city, will secure accommodations for Owyn Humac, ch.g., and The Baron, ch.g., prominent winners, and Reuban Hal, A. C. Hensler's point winner, will be taken from winter quarters soon.

HIKERS' CLUB WAS ON REGULAR TRIP

Time: 6.30 a. m.; destination, Stirling, N. J., in time for breakfast. This schedule is not a war order or anything of the sort, but on the contrary, happens to be just what the members of the Hikers' Club of N. P. H. S. went through yesterday.

About twelve girls recently organized the club and appeared in front of the school yesterday morning as per schedule, and after a somewhat tiresome march reached their destination in time for bacon and eggs.

Later in the day a baseball game was played and the tired and wearisome maidens returned to the borough at 5.30 o'clock last evening well satisfied with their experience. Another hike is planned for the near future.

The hikers were the Misses Marion Blair, Nora McDonough, Grace Kelly, Sadie Mika, Charlotte Fowler, Elsie Wyckoff, Elizabeth Harper, Mary Clark, Helen and Lillian Spencer, Alice Willett, Lella Daley, Clara Pasch, Rosanna McDonough, Frieda Daley and May H. Barry. Miss Irene M. Dorlesene of the high school faculty chaperoned the party.

BOROUGH SCHEDULE IS TO BE TRIMMED

Board of Education Objects to Ball Team Traveling Too Much

Manager Kenneth Lowrie of the North Plainfield High School baseball team announced today that the schedule recently announced for the present season will be practically cut in two through the action taken by the North Plainfield Board of Education at its meeting Monday night. At that time the members of the board decided that the present schedule was entirely too long and to play all games would be detrimental to scholastic standing in the high school.

The number of games to be played by the borough school will be fifteen, and since the players will not be permitted to travel during the week a number of teams already booked on the original schedule of twenty-six games will not have the pleasure of opposing the N. P. H. S. players this season. The team will be allowed to travel Saturdays, but this, of course, would not be feasible, as the only financial support accorded the team is at the home games Saturday afternoons. All the home games scheduled for Saturday next will be played on Hyde Oval.

The opening attraction for the coming Saturday will be the Alumni, composed of former high school stars. The graduates have not announced their line-up as yet, but it will undoubtedly be stronger than any that have appeared on previous games between the school nine and grads. Ralph Smalley, who led the 1913-14 and 1914-15 teams, will most likely be on the receiving end and Oscar Dilts on the mound for the graduates. Harold Wood at first, Hal Kirch, Elmer French, Hub Stine, John Dawe, Cliff Causbrook, Wren and George Townley and a score of others are available for the other positions. How N. P. H. S. will line up has not yet been decided. Sid Hoffman will be on the second and Captain McDonough behind the bat, however.

"Marty" McDonough of the 1916 championship team assisted in the workout yesterday and showed his time showing the outfielders a few pointers.

The new suits are expected tomorrow and the boys expect to wear them in the game Saturday.

JERSEY GOLFERS ARE GIVEN HIGH RANKING

As in past years, golfers representing the New Jersey clubs have a corner on the honor positions in the 1917 handicap list of the Metropolitan Golf Association. Jerome D. Travers, of Upper Montclair, is placed again at scratch, and Oswald Kirkby, of Englewood, on 1.

Kirkby has been advanced from the 2 mark by virtue of his victories in both the New Jersey State title and metropolitan championship last year. In all, 624 names are listed, all above the ranking of 10 being disregarded.

Max R. Marston, of Baltusrol, and John G. Anderson, who were at 2 with Kirkby last year, have been moved back a point to 3, where they have Gardiner W. White, of Flushing, for company. White was advanced from the 4 bracket. Walter J. Travis, who was at 2 with Marston and Anderson last year, is automatically barred from amateur play this year because of his profession as a links architect.

Jerseymen in the 4 class are F. Mortimer Barnes, secretary of the Metropolitan Golf Association; Roy D. Webb, of Englewood; Edwin M. Wild, of Cranford, and H. Clarke Cockran and S. Davidson Herron, of Princeton.

There are fourteen Jerseyites with a 5 allowance, including Max H. Behr, of Baltusrol; L. H. Conklin, of Baltusrol; H. T. Cook, Trenton; H. M. Coxe, of Englewood; C. E. Eddy, Arcola; Archibald Graham, twice New Jersey State champion, of Arcola; C. T. Lansing, Knickerbocker; Percy G. Platt, of Monmouth County; Grantland Rice, of Englewood; E. P. Rogers, Morris County; H. J. Soggerman, Englewood; J. F. Shanley, Deal; Wallace M. Scheetz, Baltusrol. The six men included in the 6 class are Bayard, Jr., of Baltusrol; D. D. Cooke, Arcola; J. Gordon Douglas, Morris County; H. B. Fenn, Ridgewood; Carlos Fetteroff, Upper Montclair; James B. Garfield, Forest Hill; H. A. Hamilton, Englewood; Paul Harrison, Montclair; P. W. Kendall, Deal; G. F. Kohler, Ridgewood; A. S. Morrow, Baltusrol; Charles W. O'Connor, Essex County; Pierre A. Proal, Deal and Percy R. Pyne, 2d, Princeton.

DEVERE IS MAKING TROUBLE FOR HEAVIES

Several years ago a young electrician crawled through the roped of a ring in Kansas City, Mo., and went through the motions of a scrap with Gallor Grande. Previous to this battle the youthful electrician had been earning $25 a week at Excelsior Springs, Mo., by acting as punching bag for Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman. Flynn was spending his afternoons battering the electrician's face, and the most enjoyable part of the day—for Flynn—was the fact that he closed both his youthful opponent's eyes every afternoon.

Bob Devere, the youthful electrician, hung around Kansas City for a long time, fighting now and then and picking up a little money. One night an old-time fight fan saw him in action, and pointing his finger at the husky youth, declared that the latter stood a future heavyweight champion of the world.

"If he takes the right sort of care of himself and is given the right sort of management, he will be on top before many years have passed. Remember what I told you."

Maybe the old fight fan made it a little strong, but it is interesting to note the climb of the youth. He came to New York and had a few alleged fights around the small clubs in the metropolis, and then one day they matched him with Jim Flynn. Flynn grinned when he heard of the match. "That's the kid I used to spar with at Excelsior Springs," he said. "He's got a stout heart, but I'll beat him sure."

Devere was carefully conditioned for this bout. He went into it with instructions to use his left hand, every opportunity on the fireman. It was the first time he had ever attempted to do any damaging punching with that hand. He used his left with a jab and he hooked with it. Between times he rammed home his right with an uppercut that had Flynn's face split from his forehead to his chin. In all his battles it is probable the Pueblo iron man never took a more thorough beating—and Devere, the former pupil of the formidable Flynn, left the ring without a scratch.

GOETHALS BEGINS ROAD INSPECTION

General George W. Goethals, State highway engineer, left Elizabeth yesterday on an inspection of State highways over route No. 4, which led along the shore to Point Pleasant, and from there inland and return by way of Lakewood. Accompanying him are Robert A. Meeker, of this city; General Goethals' assistant; Division Engineer Edward E. Reed, and Division Engineer H. D. Robbins. It is expected that highways throughout the northern part of the State will be inspected today.

From Elizabeth the party went through Rahway, stopping first at Woodbridge to examine the Main street and Rahway road improvements. The next stop was at the county bridge over the Raritan river, between Perth Amboy. A most careful inspection of this bridge was made by the four men, with Mr. Meeker explaining its construction.

The route then went on through Keypert to Red Bank, to Long Branch, to Asbury Park and to Point Pleasant. Here the way led inland, and thence northward by way of Lakewood.

1. What is required to be qualified for the National Rifle Association as sharpshooter? Is it necessary to be a United States citizen? Can I qualify here in Plainfield?

Ans. It is necessary to be a citizen of the United States. You can qualify in Plainfield, provided you join the local club affiliated with the N. R. A. and shoot over the prescribed courses. A sharpshooter's qualification consists in making a score of not less than 150 out of a possible 200, shooting 40 shots, 20 of them slow fire at 200, 400 and 500 yards from the positions standing, kneeling, sitting and prone, rest, rapid and slow fire. The other 20 shots in the form of a skirmish run, 5 shots at each of the above ranges from 300 of the above positions in a time limit of 30 seconds for each 5 shots with one minute and 30 seconds allowed to run from one range to the next one.

2. Lately I bought a 32 automatic pistol, but in using it am consistently shooting to the left on 25 yards about 12 inches. Has the discharge of the shell anything to do with this and can I help it by knowing the rear sight to the right, will I by continuous use overcome this? I have tried another automatic pistol of the same make and shoot the same way with that, but get very good results with the police positive revolver.

The standard distance for indoor target shooting is 20 yards and for outdoors 50 yards. I would advise you to stick to the standard distances, as you will then be in a position to compare your scores with those of other shooters. It may be that your method of holding the pistol is responsible for its shooting to the left. I suggest that you keep on practicing for awhile and if you still find that your shots are grouping consistently to the left then move the rear sight to correct for it. Very few shooters take exactly the same adjustment of the sights on the same gun. In other words, if two shooters shoot the same gun the chances are that the sights will be adjusted slightly differently to hit the center of the bull's eye.

1? How do the manufacturers of rifles determine the proper depth of the rifling?

Ans. I really don't think that there is any formula. Some makers use shallow rifling and others use deep grooves, and the results are about the same in both cases.

2. What is the proper diameter for the bullet of a .22-long rifle cartridge?

Ans. The diameter that seems to give the best results is about .223 inches.

3. What is the lightest trigger pull allowed in the matches of the National Rifle Association?

Ans. The trigger pull must be heavy enough so that a weight of three pounds can be hung on it without causing it to release the hammer.'

R. J.

Is there any reason why I can't lighten my shotgun by boring a hole or two in the stock?

Ans. No reason at all, but you must remember that lightening the stock will throw the balance of the gun forward. If you make any change I suggest that you bore the hole slowly, trying the gun at intervals to see whether the balance is being changed too much to suit you.

M. W. A.

How can you use a rifle for shooting fish? I should think that the bullet would be stopped by the water.

Ans. Rifles are used for shooting fish. Usually a rifle of about 25 or .30 calibre is used with metal-cased bullets. Fish are shot when they pass by within two feet of the surface. Of course, it is necessary to shoot from a point some distance above the water and almost perpendicular to it.

J. K. S.

I am eleven years old and have a .22 repeating rifle. I have noticed that somebody has sent in some scores they have made. I can hit an English sparrow fifty feet away every shot. I have done this time and again. Is this pretty good shooting for a boy?

Ans. Yes. Why don't you try your skill under regulation target conditions? The school boy target for fifty feet has a centre bullseye counting ten, measuring ½ inch in diameter. The nine ring which is ½ inch wide, the eight ring, and the eight ring, which is also black, is 1½ inches in diameter. There are other outside rings counting down to one. You do not say whether your shooting was done offhand or with a rest, and I am assuming that you did it offhand.

CHANGES PLANNED IN UNION COUNTY OFFICES

Changes in the Courthouse at Elizabeth, affecting several offices are being considered by the buildings and grounds committee of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders. These have been necessitated by the passage of the new rules for the board, which require that the county collector have an office in the Courthouse. Use of the wooden buildings on Rahway avenue, which are owned by the county, is contemplated for the near future.

It has been proposed that the county collector have his office where the county probation office now is. In searching for a new home for the new ballot department, the present location of the basement of the Courthouse has been considered, with the coincident plan of moving that office to one of the wooden buildings on Rahway avenue.

A committee is now at work getting plans and estimates for fitting one of the Rahway avenue buildings for the county engineer. The tenants in that house have been ordered to vacate by May 1. Some report in the progress of this work will be made at Thursday's meeting of the board, and it is also likely that the other plans will be discussed at that time.

ROBERT GOLDSMITH'S NEW BOOK

The League to Enforce Peace was born in Old Independence Hall, Philadelphia. It was fathered by ex-President Taft. Co-operating with him were the best brains in our nation. It has been approved not only by President Wilson, but by eminent leaders in almost every nation.

Its purpose and favorable reception made inevitable a book to explain its significance to the masses. Robert Goldsmith, a man of varied experience and versatile talents, who, for the past dozen years, has been lecturing on international problems from public platforms the country over, has written a book worthy of the theme.

It is simple, clear, brief, complete. Its language is for common folk; the busy business man will read it in an evening; its three parts, "The Forces that Failed," "A Program to Prevent War," and "The Creed of Militarism," deal with all phases of the problem of peace. It is published by the McMillan Company, of New York City.

STATE NURSES DISCUSS PLAN OF DISTRICTING

Plans dealing with the districting of New Jersey for the more effective work of the New Jersey State Nurses' Association, co-operation with other bodies in aiding the work of individual nurses, the improvement of general health conditions and the promotion of social welfare, were considered yesterday by the State organization at its fifteenth annual session at the Y. W. C. A., Newark.

The recommendation that the State be divided into districts, to be acted upon this afternoon, is the result of the revised constitution and bylaws of the national organization, which will go into effect after 1918, requiring that State associations be represented by delegates, thus doing away with all other forms of membership and avoiding possibility of duplication.

The receipts for the year totaled $656.92 and the disbursements $404.09, leaving a balance of $282.83, according to the treasurer, Miss Mary J. Stone, of Hackensack. Registration this morning numbered about 100 persons. The total membership of the association is 300, representing twenty-four organizations.

Doctors Stand Amazed at Power of Bon-Opto to Make Weak Eyes Strong---According to Dr. Lewis

Guaranteed to Strengthen Eyesight 50% In One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Philadelphia, Pa.: Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses, and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing or they have had their eyes restored by the remarkable prescription and many who once wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says, after using it: "I was almost blind. Could not see to read at all. Now I can read anything without my glasses and my eyes do not hurt any more. Last night they would pain dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for 15 days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without any glasses. Best of all, my eyes don't pain me any more." Still another writes: "I was bothered with eye strain caused by overworked, tired eyes which induced severe headaches. I have worn glasses for several years both for distance and work, and without them I could not read my own writing on an envelope or the type-writing on the machine before me. I can lay book now and have regarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street. Can see to read the very tiniest words without glasses. The prescription I have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be able to read common print without ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by also using the prescription. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and let it dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes are clear and perceptibly right from the start and inflammation and redness will be discernible after a few days. If your eyes bother you even a little bit it is your duty to take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many believe they have been blinded by neglect, when in reality they have saved their sight if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent Physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "I believe the Bon-Opto prescription is truly a wonderful one. Two of the ingredients are well-known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. I have used it very successfully in my own practice on patients whose eyes were discouraging to work or insert glasses. I can highly recommend it in cases of weak, watery, aching, smarting, itching, burning eyes, and also for those who are frightened from exposure to smoke, sun, dust or wind. It is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Bon-Opto, referred to above, is not a patent medicine or a secret remedy but is one of the well-known prescriptions usually filled by druggists, and is said to be obtained from any good wholesale drug house. Ask for it in the original sealed package.

FASHION NOTES

Embroidery on everything wearable will be the mode this spring. Embroidery on dresses, hats, bags and even parasols will be in style.

There is something so likable and so generally becoming in the straight lines and cuirassike bodices of the Moyen Age period that it is likely we shall wear frocks of this style for many suns.

The rivalry of the one-piece frock and the coat and skirt still continues, so that it is an interesting conjecture whether by spring the frock will have conquered or the suit regained its original popularity.

In quite a few of the new models we find glorified aprons of silk and velvet—and what an admirable method they do provide for the most of us limited folk who have to make over our old clothes. Just button one of these slips around the neck, have it fall over the skirt of last year's frock, and we are in the calcium spotlight of fashion.

The new suits are so good looking that they will win their spurs this spring and attract as much attention as the gowns. To begin with they have borrowed the most likable features of the sports costumes, a certain informality that does not detract from their serious purpose in the wardrobe, but does give them a trig, business-like air that invariably appeals to the American woman.

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT
BY MRS. FAWALKER

(Copyright, 1912, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate, N. Y. City)

MR. WEASEL AND MR. FOX

Mr. Weasel had started out early one morning hoping to be able to get into the henhouse as soon as the hens left their nests, and get all the eggs he wanted before the farmer's boy was up to gather them.

But Mr. Weasel had not counted on meeting Mr. Fox, and he did just as he came into barnyard, for Mr. Fox had not been lucky at a farm farther up the road and had just dropped in to see what he could find at this place.

"Good morning, friend Weasel; good morning," said Mr. Fox, and Mr. Weasel thought he saw a very pleased look on the face of Mr. Fox, which made him feel far from easy, because he thought Mr. Fox might like a great fancy to him, and when Mr. Fox was hungry Mr. Weasel did not care for his close friendship.

Now Mr. Weasel was pretty wise when he found himself in a place where he had to think quickly, and this seemed to be the time for him to put on his thinking cap, so he clapped it on his head as quick as a wink.

"Good morning, Mr. Fox," said Mr. Weasel, showing his long teeth, which is the way a weasel smiles, and he wanted Mr. Fox to think he was pleased to see him. "You are just in time."

"For what?" asked Mr. Fox, interested in a minute. "What sir I in time for? Tell me, friend Weasel."

"For a good breakfast," replied Mr. Weasel, showing his teeth again. "Show it to me," said Mr. Fox, looking around him. "Where is the breakfast? Tell me, friend Weasel."

Mr. Weasel showed his teeth again, but he did not feel comfortable, for Mr. Fox kept coming closer to him every time he said breakfast.

"Well, I'll tell you, Mr. Fox," said Mr. Weasel, backing a little. "There is a very nice row of fat hens in the henhouse, and I thought we might have breakfast together, if you liked."

"A very happy thought, friend Weasel," said Mr. Fox. "I should like very much to have breakfast with you. Show me the way."

So Mr. Weasel scurried ahead and Mr. Fox followed, but when they reached the henhouse Mr. Fox looked sharply at Mr. Weasel and said: "Don't you fool me, friend Weasel. It won't be good for your health if you do."

The reason Mr. Fox spoke like this was because he saw only a very small opening in the earth at the side of the henhouse, and he knew that he could get in through that little place, and he wanted Mr. Weasel to understand he did not mean to go without his breakfast.

Mr. Weasel did not need to be told this, for he knew that his life was not worth an extra breath if Mr. Fox got angry.

"Oh, Mr. Fox, you do me a great injustice," said Mr. Weasel, in an injured tone. "I am going to make the hole large enough for you to enter, if you will allow me to go in first I will fix the way for you so you will have no bother at all."

Mr. Fox looked at the hole and he decided that Mr. Weasel could not get out unless he saw him so he said: "Very well, friend Weasel, go ahead, but don't you be long, for I am hungry, and I must eat something soon."

Mr. Weasel did not like the way Mr. Fox said "something," so he did not wait a tiny second, but slid into the hole as though he were oiled.

The hens were not off their nests yet and they began to cackle in a way that made Mr. Fox wish he had friend Weasel by the neck, for he expected every minute the farmer's boy would be out with a gun, and while he did not intend to be there to be shot he would have to go without his breakfast.

But pretty soon all was quiet again and Mr. Fox crept close to the hole and listened.

Not a sound could he hear, so he poked his nose in the hole, thinking it might be large enough by this time for him to enter, but no, he could only get the tip end of his nose in.

"Friend Weasel," he called, softly, "don't forget your promise."

But not a sound did he hear, and at last getting very angry as well as hungry, Mr. Fox poked his nose way into the hole, and something sharp came down on it like nails.

Mr. Fox pulled his nose out and cried out in a very loud voice, at the same time shaking the henhouse when he jumped up so that it nearly tumbled over.

The hens cackled and the ducks quacked and Mr. Fox howled so that the farmer and his boy, who were just coming downstairs in the house, grabbed their guns and ran out.

Mr. Fox was just running around the barn and "Bang!" went a gun, and Mr. Fox felt something sting in one leg, but he did not stop. He ran on, though he had to limp, and before he reached home he limped a good deal.

One pain in his nose was as great as in his leg, and poor Mr. Fox was busy first with one and then the other all day, and with an empty stomach he was a very unhappy Mr. Fox.

"If I only had friend Weasel here," he would say, grinding his teeth and looking very angry, "if I only had friend Weasel here!" And from the way he said it you would have known that he did not want Mr. Weasel to keep him company.

But Mr. Weasel was far away, chuckling to himself as he smoked his pipe, that he fooled Mr. Fox and got away unharmed.

"But I think I will cross that farm off my list," said Mr. Weasel, reaching for his notebook, "and after this I will go in another direction."

In connection with the tenth anniversary program of the Y. W. C. A., a library party will be given on April 14 under the direction of the educational committee. Each one attending is expected to present some book and also contribute a book to the library. Another party will be given on April 19 under the supervision of the religious committee, when Miss Nina Brientnall, an Australian by birth, will tell of association work in Calcutta, India.

MC ALL MISSION AT LILLE IS DOING GOOD WORK

The work of the McAll Mission (Mission Populaire Evangelique de France) still goes on at the stations at Lille notwithstanding the German occupation. The director of the work, Pastor Henri Nick, is a chaplain at the front and has been 3 times decorated for conspicuous bravery. Professor Vallee, of the Lille University, takes his place.

In order to preserve their properties, Professor Vallee arranged to have the buildings serve, the Foyer du Peuple as the Maison, where the people receive their allowance and the Foyer (the girls' home) as one of the centers where food is dispensed, under the protection of the Spanish-American Commission and the flags of the two countries. In this way the Germans are prohibited from entering and robbing the people of their food. There are in want of everything, except the rice and beans given them by the committee. Meat costs four dollars a pound. A well-to-do refugee said that she had eaten meat only twice in his two years in the invaded district. Had America not sent provisions to these people from whom the Germans he taken everything, even their hairpins and all the machinery by which they have hitherto gained their livelihood, they would long ago have died.

Contributions are greatly needed and may be sent to the Treasurer of the American McAll Association, Mrs. A. S. Perkins, 1710 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

ONE IN EVERY TEN BABIES DIE IN FIRST YEAR

By United Press:

Washington, April 5—Approximately one in ten of all the babies born in the United States dies before completing twelve months of life, the Federal Children's Bureau announced today in connection with National Baby Week, May 1 to 6. The statement adds:

"It was once thought that a high infant death rate indicated a greater degree of vigor in the survivors. Now it is agreed that the conditions which destroy so many of the young-est lives of the community must also result in crippling and maiming many others and must react unfavorably on the health of the entire community."

Two thousand, one hundred communities have reported to the Children's Bureau the details of a Baby Day or Baby Week at which they called attention to the need of protecting their babies. This bulletin may be had by addressing the bureau, which continues:

"The United States includes 14,186 incorporated cities, towns and villages and it is doubtful if among the thousands which have never had a Baby Day or Baby Week there is a single town or village which would not profit from such a campaign."

WERE INDIANS THE LOST TRIBE OF ISRAEL

By United Press:

Berkeley, Cal., April 5.—The theory that the American Indians are members of the lost tribe of Israel was given added proof here Saturday when Dr. E. W. Gifford, of California University's anthropology department, announced his discovery of similar rites and practices between the Kawaiisu Indians of the Kern River section and the ancient Hebrews.

The Hebrews, according to the Bible, held that if a man died without offspring his brother should marry the widow and the first born of that union should be known as the dead man's child. "The Kawiisu Indians observe the same custom."

CALIFORNIA AND FLORIDA FRUIT GROWERS AFFECTED

By United Press:

Rio De Janeiro, April 5.—California and Florida fruit growers will probably feel the effects of a Government decree published here which exempts Argentina fresh fruits from customs duties. This exemption was decreed in exchange for the reduction of duties on several Brazilian products in Argentina.

In compensation to the United States for the free importation of Brazilian coffee, was renewed the preferential tariff of American manufactured rubber goods, wheat, flour, condensed milk, dried fruits and other articles.

Home-Made Butter at One-Half the Price of Creamery Butter

With the cost of living aeroplaning almost beyond the reach of the limited income and so seriously affecting necessities as well as luxuries, the housemaker must look well to the ways of her household or suffer both a depleted table and pocketbook.

A few years ago when meat prices were soaring, and the cow literally jumped over the moon of high prices, domestic science called its attention to discovering meat-substitutes with protein value equal to that of meat. The result of that study has been so many delicious meatless dishes that the high cost of meat is not the bogey it promised to be.

And now again the cow scales the moon. This time it is the price of the very back-bone of our scheme of nutrition—our spread for the staff of life—the enriching medium for our bread, the one thing we can't do without—butter—that goes sky-high.

But once again science comes to the rescue. This time it is the discovery of how to make a table butter, richer and more delicious than any butter churned from old Bossie's cream at less than one-half the price the best creamery butter. And this new home-made butter is not only delicious in flavor, but is high in food value, and is particularly recommended to turn the growing boy or girl's scrawn into brawn.

The base of this most healthful of butters, wholly free from the bacteria found in even the best of creamery butter, is Sawtay, a one-hundred per cent pure butter substitute. This has for years been used for years by natives of the tropics, a people noted for their good digestions and strength and beauty of body. It is their principal food as well as medicine.

When Uncle Sam took under his protection certain islands of the tropics, he brought his country close enough with these people. And scientists were quick to grasp the possibilities of the "bread and meat" of the islanders when concentrated for the outside. By various refining processes the product has been adapted to the needs of the American housewife—first as a cooking medium, for frying, baking, shortening, etc., and now as the foundation for a truly delectable table butter. The surest proof of the goodness of Sawtay table butter is in the eating.

In the interest of the housewife who is not willing to sacrifice quality to price or to economy, the recipe for Sawtay butter as tried and proven by Domestic Science instructors, and in thousands of homes where pure food is the standard, is given below.

Place contents of a 1 lb. 2 oz. tin of Sawtay in a bowl with a pint of buttermilk. Mix well with spoon and allow to stand for a couple of hours. Work out the surplus buttermilk which has not been absorbed. Salt to taste and color with butter color which you can get from your druggist. This will make about one and a half pounds of delicious table butter.

Keep in a cool place. Save Sawtay tags and milk cool but not cold.

PRESIDENT SIGNS BILL FOR WAR WITH GERMANY

HOUSE VOTES FOR WAR AFTER A LONG DEBATE THIS MORNING

Special to the Courier-News:

Washington, April 6.—At 1.13 p. m. the President signed the declaration of war with Germany, two minutes before he received the engrossed copy from the Senate.

By United Press:

Washington, April 6—The war resolution was formally reported to the Senate, as having been passed by the House and signed by Speaker Clark, at 12.10 this afternoon. Vice President Marshall affixed his signature at 12.13 this afternoon.

Special to the Courier-News:

Washington, April 6.—The President issued a call for volunteers for the regular army and militia in a statement issued by the White House.

The vote was 373 to 50.

Not until 2:40 this morning was the debate, which began yesterday forenoon, ended and the taking of the vote began. The pacifists displayed unexpected strength and took advantage of the limited debate privilege to the full.

The president is expected to issue the war proclamation today, and the issue between the United States and the Imperial German government will then be settled by the sword.

In face of a small but determined opposition administration leaders in the house drove the resolution declaring the existence of a state of war between the United States and Germany on the second stage of its road to the statute books. When the pacifist element seemed inclined to use obstructive tactics the administration leaders, representing a big majority, threatened to invoke a special cloture rule and steam roller the resolution through. It was conceded that a vote could demonstrate that only a small majority of the house were opposed to the measure.

Meantime the executive departments prepared their war plans and transmitted to congress a budget of nearly $5,500,000,000 to finance the military operations of the first year of the war. Almost $3,000,000 of this is for the use of the army, and the remainder would bring the navy to a point of complete preparedness for a prolonged struggle.

The pacifist fight in the house began mildly, but it grew steadily as the long debate dragged through the day and into the evening. The pacifists gained during the day, however, and it became apparent that the vote would probably show between twenty-five and fifty against the measure. Majority Leader Kitchin lent strength to the pacifists in a dramatic speech.

"Prayerfully impressed with the gravities of this situation and appreciating the penalties that war will impose, my conscience and judgment have shown the path of duty, and I must tread it if I have to tread it alone," he said. "I have prayed for guidance. I have reached the conclusion that I must vote against the resolution."

Deserted His Party.

A sigh that was almost a sob swept the big chamber as members in the floor and crowded galleries realized that the leader of the administration party on the floor was deserting his party and his party's president. A rattle of applause from the pacifists broke the somber silence.

"I shall not only be criticised for this course," said the Democratic leader; "I shall be denounced from one end of the country to the other by a yelping pack of critics. I cannot leave my children land and riches. I cannot leave them fame, but I can leave them the name of an honest man who has tried to do his duty and who on this day did his duty as God gave him to see. I shall always believe that we could have and we ought to have kept this great Christian nation out of war. Every obligation of justice, every obligation of right, combines to forbid my consent."

Representative Miller, Republican, of Minnesota, changed the spirit of the house when he produced what he declared was a suppressed paragraph from the text of the intercepted Japanese-Mexican-German alliance note. It read:

"Agreeably to the Mexican government, submarine bases will be established at Mexican ports, from which will be supplied ammunition and supplies. All reservists in the United States are ordered into Mexico. Arrange to attack all along border."

Secretary of State Lansing denied flatly that the Miller paragraph was a part of the Zimmerman note.

The administration fight was led by Representative Flood of Virginia and Representative Harrison of Mississippi

CASE SHOULD BE TRIED IN COURT

Public Utility Commission Disposes of Hirsch Complaint—Continued

DIFFERENCE WILL BE INDEPENDENT

Water Company States that Excessive Charge Was Due to Leaking Pipes—Meters Found in Good Condition

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, April 6.—Filing a report today on the complaint of Simon Hirsch against the Plainfield-Union Water Company against the high water meter charges made by the company on three properties of the complainant, the Public Utility Commission held that the matter should be submitted to a court of law. Hirsch claims the company overcharged him and the latter says pipe leaks were the cause for the charges. In this situation of disputed facts, only a court of law can be the proper arbiter, says the Commission's report.

The premises involved were at 206 East Fourth street; 243 East Third street and 524 West Fourth street. All the properties are occupied by more than one family, the one at 524 West Fourth street having as tenants 12 families. At the first named place Hirsh formerly had 12 flats. When the meter was installed he received a charge of $67.71, covering a period from June 15, 1916, to September 23. At the second-named property the bill for metered service from June 6, 1916, to September 8, 1916, for these premises was $24.40. The bills for the three preceding quarters were $9.85, $11.35 and $13.00, respectively. At the twelve-family property, which has only one hydrant in the yard for use in common and one closet, there has been metered service for several years. For the quarter from June 6, 1916, to September 7, 1916, the charge levied was $51.43. The highest amount ever paid during the years 1915 and 1916 was $26.43 for a quarter.

The disputed bills were so large that Hirsh claimed he was overcharged. He says he found only a few small leaks. The report of the commission says its inspector, upon investigation, found the meter to be measuring within the percentage approved by it. Charges of tampering with the meter at the West Fourth street property, by employes of the company, were made by a tenant of that premises, but the secretary of the concern says the men were only making readings and observations. In view of the circumstances, the commission states, involving a dispute overcharges for a single quarter, the company should not discontinue service to the complainant and it should accept payment of the water charges levied at later dates. The dispute should be settled in a court of law, says the report.

HOPE CHAPEL PLANS TO MOVE

Will Purchase Site at Grant Avenue and West Sixth St. for New Church

INDEPENDENT

Action Taken At Annual Meeting of Congregation Last Evening—

$4,275 is Subscribed—Officers Elected

Hope Chapel last evening decided to change the location of its place of worship and to become an independent church organization very shortly after the change of location has become effective. This action was taken at the congregational meeting after the receiving of a report from the committee which has been holding conferences with the session of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, of which it is at present a branch.

During the concluding moments of the meeting amounts aggregating $4,200 were made by various members of the chapel, together with the various organizations. A building committee, which will care for the purchase of a new site and the erection of a new church building was appointed as follows: Donald McInnis, John B. Slorah, George T. Leighs, Frank Rimmer and Thomas G. Hendry.

The site selected for the new church buildings is at the southeast corner of Grant avenue and West Sixth street, measuring 100x225 feet. The property now belongs to Charles W. McCutchen, of Rockview avenue, the borough. The subscriptions of last evening will more than pay for the lot and leave $2,000 for the starting of the building fund. Rough estimates suggest that the cost of the buildings which will ultimately be erected will be $50,000.

The reports of the various chapel organizations were presented during the course of the meeting, all indicating the extensive work which has been carried on during the course of the past year. The present church organization of the institution has a present membership of 150.

The following officers and committees were selected for the coming year: Church treasurer, Walter I. Firstbrook; board of trustees, for three years, Frank Rimmer and Chester Roberts; for one year, Augustus W. Corbin; relief committee, Mrs. Thomas G. Hendry, Mrs. George T. Leighs, Mrs. James Heron, Walter I. Firstbrook; athletic board, James Cullinan, Edwin Howes, Frank Rimmer, David H. Martin, G. Herbert Conditt and Dr. D. W. Skellenger.

Dr. Skellenger, pastor of the chapel, acted as moderator and Frank Rimmer as clerk of the meeting.

Hope Chapel was organized on its present site January 1, 1888, the original buildings now being the centre of twelve frame extensions. The original Sunday School had a membership of thirty, but now has an enrollment of over 600. The original building was moved to the Fourth street resting place from East Fifth and Washington streets, where it was used as the edifice of Bethel Chapel. The chapel is one of the most widely known institutional churches of this section of New Jersey.

The startling of the erection of the proposed buildings will not be actually started for a time, definite steps in this direction awaiting the raising of a sufficient amount of funds to start the project.

ARMED U. S. FORCES SEIZE INTERNED SHIPS IN OUR PORTS

By United Press:

New York, April 6.—United States armed forces seized all German ships in all American ports today. It was America's first act of war. In ports of every coast of the United States proper, and in island possessions, marines or bluejackets went aboard the enemy ships early today, made members of the German crews prisoners, and took possession of the vessels in the name of the United States.

The total number of German ships in American waters which were seized was 91. They represent a total tonnage of 594,696.

VOTE FOR WAR AMID DRAMATIC SCENES

By United Press:

Washington, April 6.—America is at war. Amidst the most dramatic scenes ever witnessed in Congress the House early today passed the resolution which formally declared Germany an enemy, and launched the United States in a fight for the democracy of the world. The vote on the resolution was 373 to 50.

For the first time in history a woman voted on the question of war. With a sob and protest of her love of country, Miss Janet Rankin, the lady from Montana, voted "No." Upon doing so, it is said, she fainted, and had to be assisted out of the chamber.

The first blows will be struck at once against Germany. Secret orders covering precautionary steps within and without the nation will be flashed from Washington.

OTHER NATIONS MAY NOW ENTER THE WAR

By United Press:

Washington, April 6.—While war steps proceed prospects for other American nations being brought into the struggle loomed up. Brazil was reported in news dispatches to be on the brink of trouble with Germany. From Argentine came reports of British pressure to force lifting of the wheat embargo.

The President meets his cabinet today to consider further the subject of finances. The Government has under consideration calling the big financiers of the country to take up the floating of bond issues, in addition to increasing taxes generally, to meet the enormous army and navy estimates.

LIVES LOST AS STEAMER CRASHES INTO PIER

Special to Courier-News:

Parkersburg, April 6.—One person is known to have been killed, a boy was seriously hurt, and many passengers are believed to have perished today, when the Pittsburgh Charleston Packet Steamer crashed into a pier at Dam No. 19, at Little Hocking, Ohio, eight miles south of here, in a heavy windstorm at 6 o'clock this morning.

A great hole was torn in the vessel's side. The steamer sank quickly. Its passengers and crew fought wildly in the swollen Ohio river, in an effort to save their lives.

Many passengers asleep in their berths are believed to have been drowned before they had a chance to leave their cabins.

VOLUNTEER AUXILIARY IS READY TO SERVE

The Volunteers' Auxiliary Association of Plainfield and North Plainfield held an important session last evening at the offices of Mayor Leighton Calkins, in the City Building, at which plans for caring for the relief of the families whose bread winners may be called to the colors from this city, either through Company K or Troop D. The organization will accept money raised through subscription or any other means.

The members of the organization are of the opinion that the citizens of the city and borough do not want to see any families so situated in need of the necessities of life, and for this reason, are asking for contributions for their work at this time. All contributions may be sent to the treasurer of the organization, E. F. Feickert, at the State Trust Company.

No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Tier is the daughter of the late John H. Tier, Jr., and a former resident of this city.

UNITED STATES INFANTRY GUARDS HOBOKEN PIERS

Special to the Courier-News:

New York, April 6.—Two companies of United States army infantry from Governor's Island, fully equipped with rifles and side-arms, were sent early this morning to the Hoboken piers of the German steamship lines. A detachment was also sent with the steamboat General Putnam and Thomas G. Millard, to transfer the 3,000 interned sailors to Ellis Island.

The Putnam and the Millard took the sailors from the interned ships at the foot of 135th street also. The Putnam is now landing the first consignment of the interned sailors at Ellis Island, and the Millard is lying off the Hoboken piers, taking the sailors from the vessels there, adding them to the number she took from the ships off 135th street.

The coast guard cutters Hudson, Manhattan and Wissahickon were used to transfer the augmented neutrality squad to Hoboken, where Dudley Field Malone, Collector of the Port, is personally in charge of the piers.

SIX GERMAN PLOTTERS SENTENCED AND FINED

By United Press:

New York, April 6.—Six Germans convicted of having plotted to blow up allied food ships were sentenced by Judge Cushman in Federal District Court here today. Charles von Kleist and Carl Schmidt were given two years and to pay fines of $500 each. Ernest Becker, Wilhelm Karbade, Georges Prade and Frederick Parades were sentenced to six months and fined $500 each.

MISS RANKIN FAINTS VOTING ON WAR BILL

Miss Jeanette Rankin, of Montana, the first and only woman member of Congress, was the centre of a tragic scene during the roll call on the war resolution that set the House and its crowded galleries quivering with excitement. When her name was called there was tense silence. All eyes were turned toward the woman as she sat back in her chair a frightened, uncertain individual, answering neither "aye" nor "nay."

Miss Rankin arose and looked appealingly for help, and finally declared: "I want to support my country, but can't vote for war." She then fainted and was assisted to the ante-room, where she was soon revived. Her vote was recorded against the resolution.

27th Chapter on Early Settlers in This Vicinity From Date of Land Purchase

FROM 1684 TO 1784

This Article, Written by C. B. Leonard, of This City, Is of Christiana Laing Descendants

This is the twenty-seventh article on the early settlers in Plainfield, written by Oliver B. Leonard, of this city. The earlier chapters were published on the twenty-six preceding Fridays:

Laing and Manning

In former articles mention has been made of the descendants of the original John Laing, and wife Margaret, who settled near Plainfield in 1684. The present sketch will consist of his two daughters, Isabel Laing and Christiana Laing, who was born about the time of their landing at Perth Amboy. Her sister Isabel married, 1700, Joseph Fitz Randolph. A statement of her descendants may be expected in a following chapter.

Christiana Laing, daughter of the old Scotch pioneers, John and Margaret Laing of 1684, was married January 22, 1699, to James Manning, son of Jeffrey and Hengbah. He was born March 15, 1674, and became a thrifty and influential freeholder in both Essex and Middlesex counties. His brothers were John, Joseph and Robert. In Manning, John marrying Elizabeth Dennis; Josephine was [illegible]erance Fitz Randolph; Benjamin married Ann Blackford. His two sisters were Mary Manning, who married Samuel Hall, and Elizabeth Manning, who became the wife of Thomas Fitz Randolph.

CAMP MEETING ASS'N WILL DEFEND SUIT

Ocean Grove, April 6.—Trial of the suit of Mrs. M. Elizabeth Hardy of Asbury Park against the Ocean Grove Camp Meeting Association is set for April 27 before Judge Rulif S. Lawrence in the Monmouth County Court at Freehold. Mrs. Hardy asks $20,000, representing a loan which she declares she made the association May 1, 1914, through the late Edward N. Cole, then secretary of that body. Mr. Cole died in August of that year. The association's defense will be a general denial of the transaction.

Mrs. Hardy holds a receipt which she claims was given her for the money and which she alleges was signed by Mr. Cole.

SOUTH ORANGE MAN WILL EQUIP TROOP

Subject to approval by the War Department, Governor Edge has accepted the offer of Arthur B. Leach, a New York banker living in South Orange, to raise and equip a company of infantry or a troop of cavalry composed of 100 men representing the vicinity of South Orange.

In accepting the tender Governor Edge commented upon the unusually liberal character of the offer, which he said is evidence of the feeling of many successful Jerseymen. He thought the example a good one, even though it cannot be followed to the same extent by other citizens.

EDWARD E. HOLMES SUPPORTS WILSON

Well-Known Citizen Who Came Here 51 Years Ago Today Recalls Old Times

It was fifty-one years ago today, April 6, 1866, that Edward E. Holmes, one of Plainfield's most respected and best known citizens, came here to live. While in a reminiscent mood he recalled with a great deal of pleasure that he had never regretted coming here. He now rather modestly admits that he has reached the age of seventy-seven years, he still possesses the spirit of '61-'65 and is strong for President Wilson and his war policy.

"There is only one thing to do," says Mr. Holmes, "and that is to fight it out until the all-important question is settled. As some people are finding fault with the President today so they did with Lincoln in the Civil War days, but there is scarcely anyone today who will not admit that Lincoln was right when this war is over every true American will say the same thing about Wilson.

"I am sorry that it has become necessary for the United States to get into this war, but when a nation is called by a high power it must answer the call. There is no other alternative, and I believe that this country will give a good account of itself."

Mr. Holmes was born at Grafton, Mass., and after serving a year as a private in the 51st Massachusetts Infantry, he came to Plainfield in 1866. For more than forty years he was engaged in the coal business here, and is recognized as one of the pioneer merchants of the city. He now lives retired and to use his own words, "I feel just as young as when I was twenty years old." Mrs. Holmes is just as young in spirit and they are both enjoying excellent health. They are among the oldest members of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, and are regular attendants at the services. Just as soon as the crisis of the past few days developed, Mr. Holmes was one of the first citizens in Plainfield to display Old Glory at his home, and he says he is more proud than ever of the Stars and Stripes.

CONFEDERATE "VET" PATRIOTIC

The patriotic meeting in the Presbyterian Church, New Providence, was attended Wednesday night, when Rev. W. A. L. Jett, rector of St. Luke's Reformed Episcopal Church of Murray Hill, a veteran of the Confederacy, avowed it his desire, if need be, to fight in 1917 for the flag against which he fought in the 60s. Mr. Jett is seventy-five years old, but still rides to church and back. He was a cavalryman.

Other speakers were Captain Rogers Lytton of the Summit Infantry Company division of the National Defense Organization of that city, Dr. Willis Fletcher Johnson, professor of the history of American foreign relations in New York University, and Rev. N. S. Reeves, who was largely instrumental in arranging the meeting.

MORE PAY FOR THE GUARDSMEN

Senator Frelinghuysen Introduces Bill to Increase Compensation and Aid.

Members of the National Guard of New Jersey and any other States who enlist for the conflict that seems imminent, no matter in what capacity they may be employed, should be properly compensated for their time, is the view of Senator Frelinghuysen. Accordingly he has introduced a bill in the United States Senate to increase the pay of the guardsmen twenty-five per cent. This bill will go to the Committee on Military Affairs, of which he is a member.

Senator Frelinghuysen also has introduced a bill to take care of the dependents of the men who serve in the National Guard in time of war by making an appropriation of $5,000,000 to be paid over to the Governors of the several States from which the National Guard organizations are taken, and to be distributed pro rata among the families. The bill the Senator has introduced provides that twenty-five dollars shall be paid to the dependents of men serving in the National Guard, and that the money shall be paid to the Governor of the States for distribution under the direction of the War Department.

Various organizations in different cities of New Jersey have sent petitions to the Senators and Congressmen advocating some payment of this character, and in introducing the bill Senator Frelinghuysen has in a measure anticipated their wishes.

Senator Frelinghuysen also has a bill which provides for an appropriation of $200,000 for a rifle range at Great Piece Meadows, which is a tract of 4,000 acres, the greater part of which is in Essex county. This rifle range project has the support of rifle clubs in the northern part of the State and former Senator Martine made an effort to have an amendment to take care of it added to the army appropriation bill, but he was unsuccessful in doing so.

The site has been inspected by army officers, and it is regarded as one of the best in the Eastern States, being well adapted in every way for the purpose. It is supported by the National Rifle Association, of which Col. William Libbey, of Princeton, is the president, and the police department of New York city is interested in the measure.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that, while freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whittling at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.—Adv.

COUNTY CLERK WILL STOP NATURALIZATION

War with Germany will mean that residents of German birth will not be able to take out petitions for naturalization at the country clerk's office, Elizabeth, until the termination of hostilities. It will also mean that no Germans will be naturalized at any of the sessions of Naturalization Court held between now and peace negotiations.

This will lessen the number of applicants at the Courthouse in the belief of officials there, for the majority of the 921 who have applied for citizenship since relations with the Central Powers became strained have been Germans.

INSPECTION AT SEA GIRT

C. E. UNION TO HOLD PRESS CONFERENCE

The annual press conference of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union will be held Tuesday evening April 24, with the young people's society of the First Baptist Church, Elizabeth. One of the speakers will be Clarence E. Caulfield, of Newark, publicity expert. It is expected that William E. Freeman, of New York, will also speak.

Plans for the International C. E. convention to be held in New York city, July 4-9, at Madison Square Garden, are making rapid progress. Pre-convention rallies will be held at Plainfield and Elizabeth, the dates and speakers to be announced later. The program for the convention is being arranged by the United Society at Boston. It is expected that New Jersey will have a large delegation. Arrangements are being made for a hotel headquarters and further announcements will soon be made.

The annual meeting of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union will be held May 11 at the Roselle Presbyterian Church. It is expected that there will be two sessions, instead of one as formerly. Plans are being made by President Frederick L. Mintel for conferences in the afternoon and the business session in the evening. The Junior convention will be held in the afternoon. This will be in charge of Miss Mary C. Hoagland, of Elizabeth, the county superintendent.

Miss Alice Holland, of Roselle, has been appointed district secretary for Union county.

A TREATMENT FOR NERVES

Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headaches, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from choice roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

DR. FOAKES-JACKSON ON THE EUCHARIST

Spoke in Crescent Avenue Church at Yesterday Afternoon's Meeting

The Rev. Dr. F. J. Foakes-Jackson, of the Church of England, sometime canon of Peterboro Cathedral, now occupying the chair of Institutional Thsology in the Union Seminary, was the preacher in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. He took as his topic "The Lord's Supper."

Dr. Foakes-Jackson treated his subject first from the historic point of view, with the object of showing that from the earliest times there had been fundamental agreement on the eucharist and that all controversy had been over non-essentials. His quotations included those from the Armenian church, which is the oldest national church; the Russian church, the Coptic, the Roman, the English and the American. He declared that while he did not see much hope for a universal church and indeed doubted the wisdom of such an institution, yet if such a church did become established he would not be surprised if the one great point of agreement which would bring about such a church might be the Lord's Supper.

The sermon was deeply studious and any attempt to give an abstract of it would be altogether unfair.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon there was a special service for boys and girls in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, with a talk by the Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie.

CONGRESS VOTES FOR WAR

Determined to settle the question whether the United States should assert its rights as a nation, or temporize with the madness of Europe, which is a growing menace to us, and a daily source of destruction to the lives and property of American citizens, and while news came of the unwarned torpedoing of another American ship, the House of Representatives in Washington continued the preliminary debate upon the war resolution until near dawn this morning, and then by a vote of 373 to 80 passed the measure that was passed a short time before by the Senate. The eyes of the world have been upon the Congress of the United States, and all else world, except the Teutons, have waited breathlessly for this action by the representative body of the greatest republic in the world, and whose attitude toward the war is looked upon as necessary to the termination of the world's greatest crime.

The hour had struck when the declaration of that body of loyal men whose determination to throw off the yoke of tyranny led to the American Revolution of 1776, had to be repeated by the loyal men in the Congress of 1917 and recorded in no uncertain tones, as the determination of a free people whose rights have been trampled on, and who are looked to for an exemplification of the Scriptural passage which says the strong must protect the weak. The pacifist may still rant and do what he can to obstruct the sentiment of a free people in avenging its rights, but he is very much in the minority, and actuated by motives other than a vigorous aggressive patriotism. The die is cast, and April again is the month in which the United States has been obliged to declare war upon a foe.

BROOKLYN DIVINE TO LECTURE HERE

Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, will lecture at the Congregational church, this city, under the auspices of the Tuckahatchee Club on Thursday evening, April 19th. His subject is to be "The National Crisis."

Thousands of people have been stirred in the last few weeks by Dr. Hillis' patriotic appeal to men and women to stand for the principles on which our nation is founded.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank French, of Washington avenue, are home from a two months trip in Florida.

RID STOMACH OF GASES, SOURNESS AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Relieves Stomach Distress in Five Minutes

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain mixture of harmful drugs—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs. Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its quick relief in indigestion, dyspepsia and gastritis when caused by acidity has made it famous the world over.

Keep this wonderful stomach sweetener in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; conditions of acid and undigested food, remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach it helps to neutralize the excessive acidity. Then all the stomach distress caused by it disappears. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming such stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it. Adv.

HOUSE VOTES FOR WAR

Mr. Flood said the war was forced on the United States by the imperial government and asserted that every move that patience might dictate had been made by this country. Representative Harrison reiterated President Wilson's declaration that no war against the German people is proposed.

Accuses Great Britain.

Representative Cooper of Wisconsin, ranking Republican of the foreign affairs committee, said the pacifist fight. He asserted Great Britain had been permitted to change the rules of international law, but that we now proposed to fight to prevent Germany from changing them. Representative Britten of Illinois and other pacifists took the same view and argued that Great Britain and not Germany was the real cause of the difficulties surrounding American commerce.

Ex-Speaker Cannon upheld the resolution in a rousing speech.

"One-quarter of me is German," he said, "but the other three-quarters are respectively English, French and Irish, and I can wonder what my brothers, looking down upon my action now, are thinking. But the picture, I know and you know, has been welded, and the heart that prompts this utterance and dictates this vote is as war is American."

A brilliant argument against American entering the war was delivered by Representative Keating of Colorado. He said the election of 1916 was won for Woodrow Wilson on the grounds that he had kept us out of war.

"If the men who voted for him on that kind of a platform had known that he would permit the entry of this nation into this European hell," shouted Keating, "he could not have carried a state in this Union."

Representative Kahn of California warned the nation against the horrors of war to come, but insisted that the duty of the American nation lay in making the sacrifice and in undergoing the suffering which this war implied.

"If that be the case," said Kahn, "I am ready to say with my colleague from Alabama I would have made out my resignation as leader first, then made the speech and then resigned from congress."

Almost Come to Blows.

An exciting episode marked the speech of Mr. Burnett. Democrat, of Alabama, against the resolution. He declared he could not silently in conscience by voting to send the young manhood of America into the trenches of Europe. Representative Hollin interrupted the speaker.

Shaking his finger at Hollin, Burnett challenged him in the event of the passage of the resolution to resign and go home to enlist with the Alabama troops.

"My sister has a boy just back from the border," retorted Hollin. "My nephew will go into this war."

"Oh, it's easy enough to fight through somebody else," interrupted Burnett, while the two men, their faces aflame, started toward each other.

For a moment the house sat aghast waiting for an actual physical clash between the Alabamans. But the sergeant at arms interposed his mace and led Mr. Burnett to his seat.

Representative Chandler, Republican of New York, made a brilliant speech in support of the resolution. He said in part:

"The United States has borne for long the attacks of the German imperial government. Many people have come to believe that we have ceased to be a nation of spirit and bravery. But I tell here that once this declaration is enacted into law you will find that neither courage nor the martial spirit of Americans are dead. They have simply been dormant."

Representative Estle of Texas, Representatives Temple of Pennsylvania and Johnson of Kentucky made speeches supporting the resolution. Representatives Brown of Wisconsin, Hamleen of Minnesota and La Follette of Washington spoke against it.

Representative J. Fred Talbot of Maryland, the father of the house Democrats and the senior member in point of continuous service, made a rousing war speech that brought the floor and galleries to their feet.

"The accusation of the timid people that there has been a lack of preparation for this war is incorrect," said Representative Fitzgerald of New York in the chair and Leader Mann blocked the attempt.

"Upon so serious a matter as going into war," the Republican leader said, "we ought not in any way limit the deliberations of the house."

A new issue was added to the struggle when Representative Britten of Illinois announced that he would propose an amendment to the resolution to prevent the use of American troops in Europe. The amendment gathered a rather larger following than the pacifist force, which opposed the resolution, and Representative Britten said he would force a roll call on the proposal before the house took the final vote on the measure itself. The amendment read:

Provided, however, that no part of the military forces of the United States shall be ordered to do hand duty on any part of Europe, Asia or Africa until directed by act of congress expressly authorizing those forces to be specifically volunteered for such foreign service.

Tiring at Midnight.

Representative O'Shaughnessy of Rhode Island, a Democrat, urged the passage of the war resolution without further delay. He said:

"Throughout the world thrones are tottering, empires, czars and kings are being tumbled out of power. It is the hour of triumph for democracy. It is the time for the original democracy of the world, the United States of America, to enter into this war for the overthrow and the perpetuation of democracy."

Along midnight the spirit of unrest was apparent throughout the house, but the five minute speeches continued relentlessly.

Representative Cooper of Ohio, a Republican supporting the resolution, expressed his disgust at the plea offered by opponents of the resolution that it would drive young American manhood into the trenches.

"I have five sons," he said, "and I would be willing to send all five of them into the trenches if it will put a stop to the murder of American women and babies by the kaiser's government."

100 PRINCETON MEN ENLIST IN SERVICE

Princeton, April 6.—About 100 students have left Princeton University to enlist in Government service. The mosquito fleet, with headquarters at Newport, R. I., has attracted about fifty and most of the others have become members of the National Guard or have answered the call of the Aviation corps.

A few have joined the regular army and a sophomore has become a seaman in the navy. Seven students of the graduate college are members of the National Guard, and have been called out with the Second Regiment of New Jersey.

A large majority of the students remain at Princeton with a view of taking the reserve officers corps examinations. Practically all of them are drilling here under the supervision of Captain Stewart Heitzleman, U. S. A. They are now playing war games against each other, defending the University campus against imaginary Germans.

LEMONS BRING OUT THE HIDDEN BEAUTY

Make this lotion for very little cost and just see for yourself.

An attractive skin wins admiration. In social life and in business the girl or woman whose face and hands show evidence of constant care enjoys a tremendous advantage over those who do not realize the value of a healthy skin and a spotless complexion.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. This should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp can get into the mixture. Then add a pint of pure water and shake well for a few minutes. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin.—Adv.

PIONEERS OF PLAINFIELD

James, Isaac, Nathaniel, Margaret and Ebenezer.

Their marriages were with the largest and most influential families of Middlesex county.

James Manning (the son of Jeffrey and Hepsibah Manning) who was born about 1676, and married Christians Laing 1699, took out a patent in 1719 for a farm located on Ambrose Brook and designated lot No. 84, on the map prepared in 1747 for the great "Elizabeth Town bill in Chancery." In his will, made October, 1724, (Liber A, p. 210, Trenton) his children's names are mentioned. They were James, Margaret, Ebenezer, who died young, Isaac and Nathaniel.

1700—James Manning—1767

James Manning, born 1700 (son of James, the son of Jeffrey) lived a retired and industrious life on his plantation on Cedar Brook, adjoining lands of Nathaniel Drake, and Benjamin Laing. His marriage to Grace Fitz Randolph, of a large and distinguished family, took place in his mature years and their seven children grew up to be an honor to their parents and of usefulness to society. His lifetime was spent under a prosperous colonial government and while the colony was increasing in population and influence. The end of his days was in the midst of the first mutterings of misunderstanding between Great Britain and her American dependencies. The obnoxious stamp act of 1765 and other harassing laws destructive of the colonial liberties had been adopted by Parliament, and previous disputes arose. But the subject of this sketch died in the year 1767, just before any war clouds gathered. He left noble representatives of loyalty to state and fidelity to religion to transmit the family name to succeeding generations. His sons became valiant in the armies of the struggling republic and of great power and usefulness in framing a constitution that has stood more than a century.

James and Grace (Fitz Randolph) Manning had seven children. Two daughters, Christiana, born 1732, married Joseph Tingley, of Samptown, and another daughter, who married a Mr. Woodruff. His first sons were, John, born 1734, who married a Sarah Van Pelt and moved to a Dead River farm in Somerset county; Jeremiah, born 1736; James, born 1738 (President of Rhode Island College, now Brown University, Providence); Enoch, born 1740; and Joseph, born 1742. The immediate descendants of these last four sons are as follows:

Jeremiah Manning (of James and Grace) was born 1736 and lived to be sixty-seven years old. He was married three times. In September, 1758, he united in his first wife, Miss Ursula Drake, of Hopewell, N. J. Their children were Margaret, who died young, and Ursula. March 26, 1764, he married for his second wife Mrs. Rachel (Ford) Fitz Randolph (widow of Jeremiah F. Randolph, of Woodbridge) and their two children were James, born 1765, and William F., born 1767. For his last wife Mr. Manning married Mrs. Mary Ford (widow of Jeremiah Ford, of Woodbridge) July 31, 1790.

Jeremiah Manning was one of the most prominent and useful public citizens of the county and a trusted and influential member of the quiet locality in which he dwelt, near Bonham Town. He was a local magistrate for a quarter of a century, and most of this time was also one of the county judges. In 1758 he united with the Piscataway Baptist church and was always a prominent and valued representative of the denomination. When the war clouds began to gather and the coming of the storm was imminent he stood loyal to the interests of his native land. In 1775 he was chosen one of the committee of observation and inspection, and when the terrible struggle began he was among the first to enlist and became captain in the First Regiment of N. J. State militia. He served through the war with honor and distinction and died in 1803.

Ursula Manning

(Or Osy, as nicknamed) daughter of Jeremiah and Ursula, married a distant relative, Phineas Manning, born 1760, son of James and Sarah (Ford) Manning, of Metuchen, and grandson of Capt. Nathaniel Manning. Their children were, Margaret, who married Jonathan Thickstun; Cornelia, married James Striker; Eliza, married James Ford; Sarah, married Alexander Edgar; Jeremiah, married Miss Angus and had a son, Angus Manning; Jefferson, married Miss Jack, of Virginia; James Phineas and Mary. The last three died without descendants.

James Manning

(Son of Jeremiah and Rachel, his second wife) was born 1765. He took a course of classical education at the College of Rhode Island, now Brown University, then under the care of his uncle, James Manning. In a class of fifteen young men who graduated in 1786 James was the second honor man and the salutatorian of his class. He married Miss Seymus of New York city. Their children were, Charles, who married Miss Thomas; Thomas, married Miss Thomas; John, married Miss Hoffman; William and Eliza Ann, who both died young; and Catherine, who married M. Livingston, Esq., of New York city.

William F. Manning

(Son of Jeremiah and Rachel) was born 1767 and married Miss Mary Taylor, of Monmouth county, daughter of Dr. E. Taylor, of Freehold. Their children were Foreman; Hannah; Mary Ann Eliza, who never married; Rachel married John Martin; and William F., who married Ann C. Compton, and have three daughters, Mary Ann, Jenny and Adele. The Ladies' Seminary at Perth Amboy was a long while in their care.

PROTEIDS

The proteid is a benevolent bug that gets into your system and prowls around among your food, making it behave itself and do you good. It is a half brother to the vitamine and uncle to the calorie, which also do police duty along the alimentary canal. The calorie likes to live only in certain kinds of food. The bean is probably more densely populated with it than any other vegetable. But you want to be careful. Don't let too many proteids congregate in your system or they'll get mad. No proteid likes to be crowded. As long as you treat it right and give it elbow room it'll be decent, but once gain the ill will of a proteid and you might as well give yourself up to dyspepsia and be done with it.

YANKEES AND ROBINS HOME IN FINE SHAPE

Special to the Courier-News:

New York, April 6.—A drizzling rain today dampened the ardor of the New York fans who had planned to get a first glimpse of the Yankees and Dodgers. The teams arrived home this morning and were ready for the first game of their exhibition series at Ebbets field with slim prospects of playing.

CHIPS FROM THE CLAYS

It is always in season.

It is not a proxy sport.

Twelve cities have municipal traps.

There are thirty trapshooting leagues.

It is the fastest growing sport in the world.

It is featured with golf by the pleasure resorts.

Seven hundred and thirty-nine trapshooting leagues were formed last year.

More than 150 yacht, country, golf and motor clubs installed trapshooting equipment in 1916.

Twelve thousand men and women participated in the beginners' day tournaments last year.

It is approved by the railroads and industrial establishments as the best means of recreation.

There were less than 500 clubs six years ago—there are more than 4,500 today.

There were less than 100,000 trapshooters six years ago—there are nearly 500,000 today.

More than $40,000,000 has been invested in trapshooting; more money than in any other outdoor sport excepting golf.

It is the king of sports.

BEES AND BOROUGH IN POST-SEASON SERIES

A home-and-home series between pairs of pinners representing teams of the Central New Jersey League is to be staged next week, according to announcements made this morning by George Gates. Koechlein and Snyder, of Bound Brook, will line up against Vail and Gates, of this city, on the borough alleys next Tuesday evening.

The series will be for best out of twenty-one games, the first ten of which are to be rolled in North Plainfield and the balance to be rolled on Ettinger's Bound Brook alleys, the date of the latter to be announced later.

FEW FIGHTERS EVER REALLY COME BACK

Once again it has been demonstrated to the fight public that once a fighter is down he never starts up again. It is truth that has stood in spite of everything. In the long list of scrappers who have bruised themselves for the amusement of the public there is just one whose record stands to belie the statement.

Joe Rivers came to New York a short time ago and announced that a new Joe was going to show that he could come back and fight as of old. He was going to emulate Stanley Ketchel, who was dropped once and lived to see the day when he recovered his lost laurels in the same way.

Time was when Joe Rivers was the pair excellence of boxers. He was a marvel at placing his hands. And he could hit. His brown fists carried more weight perhaps than any lightweight ever possessed. One [illegible] Ad Wolgast cracked you. It will be a long time before Ad forgets the battle in which he, as well as Rivers, fell to the floor unconscious.

Rivers met Jimmy Duffy in New York, the boxed in the early rounds with all the old mastery that he once possessed, but it was noticed that when his blows landed they failed to carry the sting of former days. And as the bout progressed Rivers began to weaken.

It was the dissipation of former years telling. Rivers never will be the man of old. His chance to lead the lightweights has passed. The greatest fighter the country has seen in many years has lost his chance.

WILLARD OFFERS SERVICES

Washington, April 6.—Jess Willard, heavyweight pugilist, sent this telegram yesterday to President Wilson:

"I will fight. When do you want me?"

TENNIS COURTS WILL BE OPENED TOMORROW

Two tennis courts at the Plainfield Country Club will be ready for members of the organization tomorrow afternoon, according to announcements made by the tennis committee this morning. This will mark the informal opening of the outdoor season at the club. A number of special tennis features for later on in the season are to be announced soon by the tennis committee, of which S. W. Merrihew is chairman.

Y. M. C. A. SECONDS DEFEATED AT LAST

Inner Triangles Take First Tilt in Junior Championship Series

They came, they played, they were conquered and their string of six victories prevented from becoming longer. Such was the fate that befell the champion Y. M. C. A. second team last night when it stacked up against the fast Inner-Triangle Club of Netherwood on the Netherwood court. This is the first of the series of games to be played for the junior championship of the city.

Although the score stood 60 to 18 after the final whistle had been blown, the game was fast and rough, and excitement prevailed throughout. The score at the end of the first half was 24 to 8. Inner Triangles Take First Tilt in Junior Championship Series

They came, they played, they were conquered and their string of six victories prevented from becoming longer. Such was the fate that befell the champion Y. M. C. A. second team last night when it stacked up against the fast Inner-Triangle Club of Netherwood on the Netherwood court. This is the first of the series of games to be played for the junior championship of the city.

Although the score stood 60 to 18 after the final whistle had been blown, the game was fast and rough, and excitement prevailed throughout. The score at the end of the first half was 24 to 8. Patterson, captain of the Triangles, was the leading star of the game, rolling up a total of 24 points, but was closely followed by Porter and Davidson, new members of the team. Guilberg also put up a great game, constantly outpunting his man, while Carlwright played his best game of the year by holding Brandt down to two baskets.

Miss Elsa Palmer, manager of the team, Miss Mary Simons, Miss Dorothy Butler and Miss Florence Apgar, the Red and Blue school had forwards of practically equal ability, who ended the season as they began it—with a rush. In the first game a total of 17 points were scored, which was about the average per game for the season. In the opinion of most fans, *Miss Palmer's adeptability at shoot*ing was more noticeable than her team mates. The Red and Blue guards, Miss Priscilla Pennock, Miss Florence Ryder, Miss Viola Mullen and Miss Virginia Smiack, were never lacking in the ability to guard, and it was due directly to their defensive playing that Plainfield outplayed its opponents. The centres, Miss Clementine Bremble, captain of the team, Miss Mary Lansdale, and side-centres, Miss Natalie Goetter and Miss Helen Detweiler, played their positions without one failing. Their assistance aided the team very substantially.

The above named players took part in the majority of games, and besides there were numerous subs who did their bit well when called upon.

Never has a girls' basketball team representing a school or club in the city or borough attained as good a record in a single season as the Plainfield High School girls. Their merits speak for themselves, and a glance at the list of opponents below will prove that the opposing fives in every instance were of renowned ability in the high school girls' basketball line.

Plainfield met only two successful adversaries. After defeating Roselle High School early in the season 17 to 5 the same team handed the locals a defeat later, the score being 15 to 13. Then Roselle Park won from over the locals, the score being 26 to 13.

The following is the high school girls' record for the season:

P. H. S. GIRLS HAD VERY GOOD SEASON

Local Feminine Basketball Aggregation Has Established an Exceptional Record

*A most successful basketball sea*son was that of the Plainfield High School girls' team for the past season, as will be noted in the following resume of its work on the indoor court:

The Red and Blue team has played fourteen games since last December, when it scored its first victory over the Alumnae team by the score of 6 to 2. Since then it has compiled a total of 241 points against its opponents' 116.

The success of the team should be traced to its coach, Miss Ruth Wean, who organized the team and developed it to a high quality. The first game was not played with the team half prepared, but the strenuous practices before the opening date fitted the players to combat anything that came along.

It would be difficult and unfair to mention any individual star, as each member did her part well. The forward basketball team of the season, Miss Mary Simons, Miss Dorothy Butler and Miss Florence Apgar, the Red and Blue school had forwards of practically equal ability, who ended the season as they began it—with a rush. In the first game a total of 17 points were scored, which was about the average per game for the season. Bert Nichoff Signs

Philadelphia, April 6.—Second Baseman Bert Nichoff, the last of the Philadelphia National League baseball Club hold-outs, signed a contract yesterday. It is understood his salary demand was met.

CITY BOWLING LEAGUE ROLLS FINAL GAMES

The City Bowling League brought its season to a close last evening when the Non-Partisan Imperials took three straight from the Knights of Columbus on the Elks' alleys. The odd game of the series from the St. Mary's T. A. Society pinners.

On account of an error in the figures published in last evening's issue Secretary George Howe has requested that the scores of the last games of the season be not published until tomorrow. At that time the final averages and standing of the league will be set forth by the officials of the league.

ENTITLED TO PAY FOR SERVICES

Trenton, April 6.—The fact that the contract for the loaning of money may violate the law prohibiting usury, will not in itself militate against the choices of the one rendering the services of the loan receiving compensation for the services, according to a Supreme Court opinion just rendered in the case of Roth and Miller, a corporation, against Lyman Tomkin and Samuel Levy. The decision of the Second District Court of Jersey City is affirmed in so far as it holds that Tomkin should pay for services rendered by the corporation in negotiating the loan, but in so far as holding Levy responsible the District Court's ruling is reversed. The transaction was not one involving the partnership business of Tomkin & Levy, says Justice Garrison, in writing the Supreme Court decision, because Levy, apparently, did not know that Tomkin had employed a broker to obtain the loan and therefore he cannot be held responsible.

Roth and Miller obtained an $18,000 mortgage at the apparent request of Tomkin on the joint property of the latter and his partner on Ravine avenue, Jersey City. It was agreed that the loan was to be secured and the corporation paid $550 and the placing of the fire insurance business and its compensation for services rendered.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY LINCOLN "FRAT"

The third annual business meeting of Abraham Lincoln Fraternity was held last night in the "Frat" rooms in the Courier-News building and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: C. Ivan Hill, president; Harry W. Swivel, vice-president; Adrian Weed, secretary; George Gildersleeve, assistant secretary; Arthur L. Grisley, treasurer. Four members to the executive elected are: G. Lewis, R. W. Aldrich, C. H. Betzenberger, and Clarence B. Tilley. This committee comprises the above elected members and the officers.

All the newly elected officers responded with appropriate speeches and at a late hour a collation was served. Next Thursday night the "Frat" will meet in its rooms and then adjourn and go with their friends to the home of Mr. Lewis, 19 Fairview avenue, where a social will be held.

"A History of the Fraternity," an address that was to have been delivered by H. W. Swivel at last night's meeting, was postponed.

On April 27, the "Frat" will hold a dance at Debele's Hall on Chatham street. The music will be furnished by Prof. Scott's orchestra. C. E. Tilley is chairman of the arrangement committee.

And you will have done your best, whether it is for yourself or your boys. Give us a chance to compete for your clothes custom this spring, for we are bound to win it in fair competition. If you only knew how hard we tried for many months back to make this, our fifth season in Plainfield, the most successful one, how we wrestled with the problem of advancing prices that we might give the people of Plainfield a strictly all wool suit in up-to-the-minute style for $15.00, the results will astonish you. Of course, our margin of profit is much smaller, but we hope to double our sales and make many new customers and friends, and a new customer in this store means a permanent customer, and a "Booster" as well.

We have no cuts of Olympian giants of impossible stature to put in with our ads in the papers; they really do not add to but rather subtract from the value of clothes. But we have the clothes, the style, the fabrics. In a word, we "deliver the goods."

LUCKY STRIKE cigarette

IT'S toasted. The Burleytobacco in this delicious new Lucky Strike cigarette is toasted.

And you know how toasting does add flavor. Close your eyes and think of one crisp, brown slice of hot, buttered toast. Flavor is the word, isn't it?

This new application of an old idea has given you a new cigarette. You smokers have certainly been wanting a ready-made Burley cigarette. At first it couldn't be made; flavor didn't hold. But five years' study brought us to the toasting principle, by which we are able to hold the Burley flavor.

So now, try Lucky Strike, the real Burley cigarette; the tobacco — it's toasted. And the flavor — you'll certainly love it!

Union County Board Telegraphs President Its Confidence in His War Policy

Special to Courier-News:

Elizabeth, April 6.—The meeting of the Board of Freeholders yesterday afternoon took on a patriotic air when the resolution of Freeholder Peter H. Meisel, of Springfield, offering the board's support to the President in the present war crisis and urging that the resolution be forwarded immediately by telegraph, was adopted unanimously.

On motion of Freeholder John N. Cady, a committee of five was appointed by Director George C. Teller to work with the sheriff to protect county property if need be. This committee is comprised of Mr. Cady, who is from Summit; James F. Buckle, of Plainfield; Henry Krouse, of Linden; William P. Randolph, of Rahway, and Thomas F. Haviland, of Elizabeth.

Former Governor Foster M. Voorhees was appointed special counsel to defend the county in the suit brought by County Engineer Jacob L. Bauer to recover moneys held by the county since the recent investigation.

The county road committee's conditional award of the work of repaving Mountain avenue from Mountainside to Springfield to the C. H. Wilnans Company, of Linden, was protested by a representative of James McAvoy, a New York bidder, who figured lowest on the work but failed to include all the items of the work. Both bids were referred to the State Road Department, but in order to meet the requirements of the department the board found it necessary to take definite action on the bids. It was explained. The award was upheld by vote.

E. C. Holmes, of Summit, was renamed as a member of the board of managers of Bounie Burn Sanatorium on motion of Freeholder Cady. The salaries of Deputy County Clerk Seymour K. Norman and his assistants, Neil McLeod and Charles Runyon, were fixed on orders of Judge Connolly at $2,860 for the first named and $1,560 for the two latter. James Johnston, deputy jail warden, was raised from $85 to $95 monthly. Judge Connolly's order bars overtime for workers in the county clerk's office.

Mayor Mrasing, of Elizabeth, protested against any contemplated action by the county for the erection of a county almshouse, in view of Elizabeth's intention to build a $60,000 structure. The board received notice that it will get $28,000 as its share of the State Motor Vehicle Fund. The request of the Civil Service Commission to provide quarters at the court house for Commissioner William D. Nolan was referred to committee.

WILL ENFORCE NEW SURROGATE LAWS

Recently Enacted Legislation to be Made Effective in Union County

Surrogate George T. Parrot is prepared to put into force the three laws enacted by the last Legislature affecting the practice before New Jersey surrogates. All of these have for their object the simplification of the routine, by taking many powers from the courts and placing them in the hands of the surrogate.

By one of the new statutes the surrogate is empowered to change his own decrees by opening, modifying and vacating them if he finds that they were obtained through fraud. Formerly, if letters of administration were received from the surrogate through forgery or misrepresentation, the surrogate had no power to revoke his own decrees. Now, however, if time for appeal to the Orphans Court has passed, the surrogate may take the matter up.

A companion act provides that the surrogate of the county in which the deceased lived at the time of death shall appoint an administrator ad prosequendum, or one for the purpose of bringing suit. As a result, persons having claims against an estate must apply for the appointment of an administrator ad prosequendum instead of a general administrator.

Another of the new statutes provides that suits on behalf of a widow or husband or next of kin to recover damages for death by wrongful act shall be brought by an administrator ad prosequendum. The judgment must be collected or canceled, however, by a general administrator, who must first give a bond in double the amount of the judgment or the settlement in case the suit is settled.

This procedure is to prevent irregularities which have occurred in the past. For the appointment of an administrator to collect a claim stated to be $50 or $100, and the administrator would give a bond for twice this sum. Then suit would be brought, and perhaps, $4,000 or $5,000 collected, but with only the $100 or $200 bond protecting the estate in case the administrator absconded.

ALL CITIZENS URGED TO PLANT GARDENS

Information Furnished by Department of Agriculture and Public Schools

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, April 6.—Under the auspices of the allied departments of the State, the work of which touches agriculture, a bulletin on the food problem in New Jersey has just been issued, urging every patriotic citizen to give this matter serious consideration at this time.

The information is published jointly by the Departments of Agriculture, Public Instruction, Conservation and Development and the Agricultural Experiment Station. It states every man, woman, boy and girl should put aside play and for this growing season devote his or her spare time to saving the food that the farms produce and to the growing of more food.

"This appeal is made to townspeople, not to farmers," says the bulletin. And the situation demands earnest and immediate attention since the growing season in most of the State is already well advanced.

The bulletin states that large tracts of farm land ordinarily given over to the growing of food crops will be left untilled for lack of farm labor. "A portion of the crops to be planted this spring will be neglected because of the further shrinkage in the supply of farm labor which may arise if the boys from the farms are called to the colors," is the significant remark made in this connection.

Young people, particularly, are urged to help the farmers harvest the crops. Vacant lot gardens are advocated, and information is given as to the conditions required for successful vegetable culture. It is also urged that each community establish an active, capable garden committee and that all details of the campaign be worked out by it. The organizing should be done by the school board, mayor or any independent citizen, desiring to take the initiative, and this committee should organize into bands those who will help neighboring farmers and arrange other details.

MANY ENLIST AS SOLDIERS OF THE SEA

Special to Courier-News:

Washington, April 6.—Chance of immediate action in the ranks of the men who operate battleship guns in submarines defense is bringing many red blooded Americans to Marine Corps recruiting stations.

Seventeen hundred and fifty-eight men have applied for enlistment in the "Soldiers of the Sea" during the past week at their various recruiting stations from coast to coast, according to recruiting officials here.

The Marine Corps is still short about 4,000 men for war strength and is making a strong appeal to youths of spirit to "do their bit" in "The First Line of Defense."

GUARDS IN POSSESSION OF INTERNED SHIPS

Special to Courier-News:

Washington, April 6.—Secretary McAdoo announced today that for the purpose of protecting interned German vessels from further injury by their crews, and until a decision can be reached as to the proper disposition, guards have been placed on board all German merchant vessels anchored in the ports of the United States.

The Department of Labor has taken into custody the officers and crews of the interned vessels pending a determination of their status by the Department of Justice.

PATRIOTIC POEM

Miss Irene E. Angleman, of Prospect avenue, is the author of the following poem:

THE PLEDGE

America, we give to thee
Allegiance higher than the knee;
Our heart's red blood we pledge to thee,
America!

In this, thine hour of storm and stress,
We wait thy sign, thy hand to bless;
Thy sons fear not the wilderness,
America!

Till from our veins the blood is driven,
Till soul returns to God in Heaven,
To thee our pledge is wholly given,
America!

Till heaven and earth shall pass away,
Till night turns to eternal day,
Unswerving be our blood thy stay,
America!

FEAST OF PASSOVER
UNUSUALLY JOYFUL

Full of joy will be the Passover that begins this evening, for the Passover of the Jewish year 5677 comes immediately after the revolution in Russia, and brings with it the news of the abolition of the pale, the admission of Jews to Russian citizenship and the opening to them of the schools and universities.

In most, if not all, of the synagogues sermons during Passover *week will deal with comparisons be*tween the deliverance from bondage in Egypt and from harsh treatment in Russia under the old autocratic regime. With the removal of the Czar, the Czarina and their advisers a new era opens for the Jewish inhabitants of that country. It is even said that large numbers will leave the United States and return to Russia.

Passover was the spring festival held at the time of barley harvest. The first fruits of the earth and the firstlings of the flocks were presented as thank offerings at this season. The occasion is, however, now chiefly observed in commemoration of the exodus from Egypt—the great deliverance from the oppression of Pharaoh and from life within the pale in the land of Goshen.

It is a seven day festival and the opening and closing days are observed as holidays. Orthodox congregations observe two days at the opening and close of the festival, while reformed Jews keep the first days only. These days count as Sabbaths, work being forbidden and even attendance at school. All leavened bread or food is excluded from the dietary, and prior to Passover every family cleans house in preparation for the festival.

Passover is essentially a home observance, the Sedar meal in the evening being in the great festival with all manner of ancient observances. On this account the evening services tonight and Saturday will be short and without sermons in order to allow the congregation to observe the essential part of the service at home.

BIBLE HIS WEAPON, CAN USE A GUN

Ocean Grove, April 6.—"The Bible is my weapon and my mission is to preach the gospel, but if it comes to a question of fighting I believe I can use a gun or a club or my fists, if necessary." This declaration, with reference to the war situation, was made by Rev. James D. Bills, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, Tuesday evening, when he was elected chaplain of the Ocean Grove minute men's organization.

Announcement was made that General John C. Patterson, eighty-three years old, an invalid veteran of the Civil War, and Rev. Dr. A. E. Ballard, ninety-six, had both signed the muster roll.

Boys of the Neptune high school have formed a cadet corps, enrolling forty members.

NOTES OF THE WAR

England is spending $27,000,000 a day in the war, having spent a total of nearly nineteen billion dollars thus far. Her losses in battle are 38,000 men a day.

Germany has spent sixteen billion dollars thus far in the war.

England has five million men under arms. Germany has ten million under arms.

The losses since the war began have been 23,000,000 men: of these Germany lost 4,000,000; France 3,500,000 and England 2,000,000.

BAN TO BE PLACED ON WIRELESS STATIONS

Owners and users of wireless telegraph, whether amateurs or others, will have to dismantle their stations in the near future, according to a report that the Government will order the cutting off of all such communications throughout the country. It is reported that an official from the Brooklyn Navy Yard toured this section of the country yesterday, and he is credited with the statement given above.

Newark will be especially hard-hit by such an order, for many wireless stations are scattered throughout that city. In addition to that operated by the Public Service Corporation and the station of the Newark Wireless Association, there are perhaps fifty amateurs in the wireless line. Elizabeth and Union county also have their amateurs, who are awaiting such an order daily.

Although the majority of the wireless stations operated in this part of the country have comparatively small radii of message power, the Government intends to avoid the remotest possibility of the wireless being used by hostile agents in case of war.

SPECIAL AID REMINDS MEN OF SUBSCRIPTIONS

Owing to the fact that the members of the local branch of the National Special Aid Society are so busy preparing surgical dressings for Muhlenberg Hospital to be used in case of emergency, they have been unable to send out "follow-up" letters to the men of Plainfield who have been invited to join the organization.

The society is taking this means of reminding them that their subscriptions will be most acceptable at the present time to purchase materials.

HEALTH NOTES

A raw potato is a good remedy for burns. Scrape or grate the potato and apply it like a poultice to the injured surface.

When traveling one should always bear in mind that cinders are apt to find their way into the eyes. An eyecup, a lotion for bathing and a flaxseed should be included in your grip.

Wash for weak, tired or inflamed eyes: Fifteen drops of spirits of camphor, one teaspoonful of boric acid, two-thirds of a cup of boiling water. Cool and strain through muslin. Use twice a day with an eye dropper or apply with absorbent cotton.

Treatment for bony neck: Massage every night with a cream made of two ounces of lanolin and one-half ounce of cocoa butter. Every morning dash cold water, using a big sponge for the purpose. Just before retiring take a glassful of hot milk. Learn to breathe deeply, go in for vocal culture and drink plenty of water. Practice resistance exercises, with the weight at the back of the head.

AGED WOMAN'S PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Mary L. Marley, aged eighty-seven years, mother of Mrs. Stephen Kennett, of 433 West Fourth street, died yesterday at the home of her daughter in this city. The deceased many years ago was a resident of Scotch Plains, and was affiliated with the First M. E. Church, this city.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the daughter's residence, 433 West Fourth street, the Rev. W. C. M. Anderson of the First M. E. Church, officiating. Interment will take place in the Methodist cemetery.

An Ill Wind

By WALT MASON, The Poet-Philosopher

To pay the grocer for his butter I had to soak my lyre; my warlike breast was all a-flutter with forty kinds of ire. I quoted passages from Dante, in my profound despair, and said I'd wreck the grocer's shanty, and pull the grocer's hair. And then I heard that merchant mutter, "Cool down, cool down, my son! I wish that I could sell you butter at fifty cents the ton. For I get tired of hearing kickers who skirt around and swear; I'm weary of the man who bickers and howls and paws the air. The grocer, friend, is in no danger of salting wealth away; it is the horny-handed granger who's getting rich today." Then I cast down my martial armor, my shotgun and my sword, and said, "If this thing helps the farmer, I'm sorry that I roared. When I was young and full of yearning for manhood to begin, I used to do the weekly churning, and bring the henfruit in. And so I'll make no further splutter, no more I'll rant around; for I'm aware that country butter is worth two bones a pound."

Winter

We always tire of winter before it's had its fling, and yearningly begin for extol the charms of spring. We roast the wintry rigors in wild, impassioned terms, and long for spring and chiggers, and flies and bugs and germs. And yet the winter weather is good for mortal man, and we should get together and boost it while we can. The arctic blast's a hummer, but while it roars and rolls, the pests of spring and summer are dead or in their holes. Hail, storm that swats us critters, with many a lusty biff! You give the germs their bitters, and freeze the microbes stiff. Hail, blizzard that is snorting across the icy plain! You send old blood cavorting through every palsied vein. With zest I do my labors, when knee deep in the snows I go and whip my neighbors, and moult a peeler's nose. The springtime finds me slouchy, too indolent to smile, and I am gruff and grouchy, and full of prunes and bile. But the frosted breezes athwart my sideboards blow, I shake off all diseases, and every grouch and woe. I feel as spry and chipper as when I was sixteen, and from the old tin dipper I quaff my gasoline.

PLENTY OF ROOM AT THE BOTTOM

But Young Men of Today Object to Starting at Beginning in Business

The unwillingness of young men to start in at the bottom and learn a business nowadays is growing to be a serious problem in the mercantile field. The manager of a large retail establishment had occasion recently to address a meeting in New York of some three hundred boys just out of school. He described the opportunities for those who wished to enter the lines of business, and mentioned the fact that there were several openings for which he would be pleased to accept applications. Out of the three hundred present but did not receive a single name.

At present the Penny Savings organization, which bears a fine reputation in the city, has four or five positions for beginners that so far it has been unable to fill. The wages paid are not high, but they are fair for those who wish to start in such work.

The same thing is found by brokerage houses have been, according to this executive, the demoralizing element in the present labor problem that the mercantile interests have to face. Several of his employees have given up their position to take others paying more.

"If a young man is improving himself in the proper sense," he said, "I have not the slightest criticism to make. The trouble is at present that so many boys and young men are getting the wrong start. The salaries paid by most of the Wall Street houses are high, I believe, because, first of all, the business just now can afford them, and, secondly, there must be some inducement, some premium for the lack of opportunity, in other words, the boy is paid high wages to start because he can't get much higher from the position he fills.

"In the mercantile field today there are boundless opportunities for the young man who wants to make something out of himself. Once he learns the business he has training and experience that will always stand him in good stead.

"I have a case in mind of a friend of mine. We were graduated from school together and took up law. For over eight years he was in the profession for himself, and lately I was able to obtain a position in an industrial company for him. He is beginning over again. That's the predicament in many lines into which themselves in at a time in life when they find it hard or impossible to start in to learn something real and substantial.

"Every day we have somebody who has made the wrong start call in looking for a position. They know nothing about the business, and the place to start them would be at the bottom if we chose to do so. But we have to draw the line at taking in men of advanced years in the smaller positions. They would not fit in with the younger element.

"The vocational schools promise to fill a long felt need, but the boy in business obtains theory and practice in the most satisfactory way. He is also paid while he learns.

"Unless something is done to change the viewpoint of the young men starting in business, we are going to suffer from the lack of trained men. The two stumbling blocks in the way of recruits seem to be the question of pay and that of hours. As I have pointed out, it is more profitable to start in low and have your salary grow every year than stick around the same mark or lose ground as time goes on. As far as hours go, we have a long day but, if the work is congenial and the employe knows he is getting ahead, why the hours don't count. We generally turn down the applicant whose first question is 'What hours do I have to work?'

"It is certain that all our young men cannot enter professions, and yet that seems to be the dangerous trend of the times. The mercantile people must get together and describe the advantages of employment in the service of business. They must show why it is better for a boy or young man starting in to spend a couple of weeks delivering bundles so that he may work into a stock room than to have a job from 10 to 3 before board in a brokerage house putting in quotation blocks."

AMERICA'S ATTITUDE INSPIRES ITALY

Rome, April 6—Today's date will be written in golden letters in the history of the world war," says the Giornale d'Italia, "for it marks the entrance into the conflict of the noble and powerful American nation."

The Tribuna says: "The American democracy, which is democracy in the purest form, joins the Russian democracy, the youngest, and the British, French and Italian, which are the oldest, and all are now united in arms to overthrow the last bulwarks of dying autocracy."

Senator William Marconi, the inventor, said: "America, the greatest institute of free peoples which ever existed, the republic of the world, recognizes the justice of our cause by taking arms against Prussian militarism. This causes us to rejoice most sincerely. In addition to the moral effect of her participation, America will draw still closer the circle surrounding our enemies."

General Ricciotti Garibaldi, son of the Italian patriot, said:—"America will give us not only moral and financial assistance but a large contingent of indomitable fighters. American volunteers, if well organized and ably led, will prove in this war results as important as American volunteers in past wars."

ALIENS SAFE WHO RESPECT OUR LAWS

Washington, D. C., April 6.—By direction of the President, Secretary Tumulty yesterday issued repeated assurance that no alien in this country, whether of friendly or enemy nationality, need fear for his personal safety or for his property so long as he respects the laws of the land. The assurance was prompted by a telegram from Mayor Seger, of Passaic, N. J., who stated that many of the foreigners resident in Passaic, in fright, were withdrawing their savings from the banks and hoarding them in unsafe places.

Mr. Tumulty wired the assurances to Mayor Seger, after a talk today with Secretary of State Lansing. The latter declared: "There is no danger of any foreigner, who conducts himself properly suffering from any loss of property or of personal liberty by reason of a state of war, if such should be declared by Congress."

CIVIL SERVICE TEST WILL BE CONTINUED

Trenton, April 6.—At the suggestion of Governor Edge, the State House Commission has made provision to continue the civil service examination of candidates for election officers under the German Act, which had been crippled by the action of the Legislature in refusing to make the appropriation for the work.

Governor Edge stood out on his declaration that the election laws should be kept inviolate, and preceding under the authority of the Requisition Act, the State House Commission directed the Civil Service Commission to transfer from its regular appropriation the necessary funds to continue the examination of the election officers.

By taking this action, Governor Edge has interfered with the plans of the political bosses to throw back into their hands the selection fo the election officers.

RUTGERS WOULD BE FAIR TO ITS STUDENTS

New Brunswick, April 6.—The students of the college presented a request to the faculty Wednesday for information as to its attitude in regard to credits and diplomas in case of enlistment. President Demarest then made the following announcement:

"The faculty of the college takes this opportunity of announcing that in case of enlistments it will pursue as fair and generous a policy as is consistent for the good of all."

Although the statement lacked definiteness, the students expressed satisfaction with it.

The college adjourned for the Easter recess Wednesday night and will open Wednesday, April 11.

The students were told that if, during the recess, the Congress should make an imperative call, all should confer with Registrar Martin before responding.

FREE ASPARAGUS SEED

During the last 11 years the United States Department of Agriculture has been developing a strain of asparagus which is of superior quality for disease resistance and heavy production. A small amount of this seed is now ready for distribution through the extension division of the New Jersey State Agricultural College. Commercial growers who are planning to grow enough asparagus plants for an acre or more, may procure a sample of this newly developed seed by writing at once to R. W. DeBaun, State Agricultural College, New Brunswick, N. J.

Plainfield men and women have responded nobly to the many calls which have been made for money to help those who need our help now.

We have a generous community about us here.

But we also have comforts and luxuries absolutely out of the reach of nearly every nation on earth.

Earnest women of Plainfield who sympathize with the stricken children of Belgium are doing their utmost to show the terrible need of these helpless little ones.

A contribution of a dollar a month can scarcely be missed from your pocketbook.

That sum, which you would not miss, will keep alive a Belgian child.

Will you be one of the many who are signing the following coupon, agreeing to give $1.00 each month for 12 months?

Such a generous gift from you will make a child happy for a whole year.

Can you buy a larger amount of happiness anywhere else for so small a sum?

WEEKLY NOTES OF W. C. T. U.

Can a New York hotel, one of the real hotels that are a part of the life of the city, of the spirit of the thousands who come here for a holiday, be operated successfully without a bar? Frank Case, proprietor of the Algonquin for the last fourteen years, says "Yes," and feels sufficiently sure of it to apply the only real test. He has closed his bar and it will stay closed.

He announced his intention to a group of friends at the hotel the other day.

"Why?" asked one of them after they had recovered from their astonishment.

"Well, there's one reason right there, replied Case, pointing to a small boy crossing the hotel lobby with a bunch of school books under his arm, on his way to the elevator to go to the family apartment upstairs. "That youngster is my own son, just coming home from school. I have decided that I don't want to pay his school bills and the other costs of bringing him up on the profits from booze. I guess that's my chief reason, but there are others.

"The bar got too profitable last year or probably I would not have thought of this thing. It never had amounted to much previously. It was not a real business asset as a bar for standup drinking by the people who run it from the street for the sake of drink and nothing else, but only a source of supply for the people who live in the house and want wine or cock-tails or highballs at luncheon or dinner. That was all I wanted it or intended it to be. I did not give the personal attention to the profits from it that I would to the profit on a poached egg.

"But something happened to the bar in 1916. I had a new man in charge of it and he went in for business. He got it. At the end of the year the figures showed that my net profits on the bar alone had been $10,560. Now I like to make money as well as the next man. That is what I am in the hotel business for. I am not a prohibitionist nor a temperance missionary and I have no right or desire to interfere with the personal liberty of a patron of my hotel. Nevertheless those figures made me sick. I had to admit to myself that I was a salesseller and that is something I don't want to be. I am a hotel keeper and believe that a distinction can and should be made between the two jobs. I am going to make it.

DO YOU CROCHET?

Is the tip of the second finger of your left hand cut and aching from the sharp point of your steel crochet needle. Is there a callous spot on the second finger of your right hand?

The crochet needle may be small, but when it goes astray, and the point plunges into the tip of one's finger, judging by the pain, it seems like a sword thrust.

A strip of adhesive tape placed around each finger-tip will protect them without interfering with the work. Fingers from kid gloves are nice, but if they extend beyond the first joint of the finger they are clumsy to work with.

THESE WERE OLD IDEAS

Liquid fire now used in the war in Europe is a new means of fighting, but the idea is not new. It was first tried as an experiment by Uriah Brown in Baltimore in 1847.

The submarine is not a new idea, but was never used effectively until the present war. The idea was advanced by Samuel Colt in 1844. The first submarine that could submerge and rise successfully was made in Elizabeth, N. J., by John P. Holland some years ago.

BOROUGH LEAGUE HELD INITIAL DRILL

Inclement Weather Fails to Dampen Ardor of the Members

The Home Defense League of North Plainfield held an enthusiastic meeting in Debele's Hall last night. A large number of League members were present. Mayor W. L. Smalley spoke to the members and explained the object of the meeting and turned the meeting over to Andrew E. Kenny, chairman of the Home Defense League Commission who addressed it and spoke of the details of the organization and the duties of the members and what would be expected of them. He said it was the purpose of the commission to raise a fund of $1,500 with which to equip the members of the league. He appointed a finance committee consisting of A. A. Cannon, Julius J. Stahl and Francis Sills, who are authorized to gather funds for the purpose.

Chairs were then pushed aside and the members were formed in squads and under the direction of former Councilman Allan Cowperthwait, who has had border experience with Troop D, the preliminary marching tactics were given.

Each squad was in charge of a corporal and in this manner they marched and counter-marched the auditorium. Toward the close of the two hours, drilling they had all become quite proficient in the military marching orders.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday evening next, at which all members who have signed are expected to be present.

A DOGGEREL

My neighbor's dogs, they yelp and bark from early dawn until the dark, and then they start again at night and sing some more till broad daylight. I heard a person once declare she "loved each dirty little hair" upon their shaggy bodies plump (where myriad fleas are all a-jump). Nor are these fleas content at home—they dearly love abroad to roam. If I go out of my back door, they get on me and bite me sore. The people oft have made complaint, but, be it sinner, be it saint, who dares to bring the subject up about each darling yeroery pup,—"I pay my license, I repeat, and keep the dogs from off the street," is what the owner's sure to reply, and City Fathers let it by.

But, if I kept a useful cow how quickly others would be a-row, if we ventured with a "moo" as did a friendly "how-de-do." And sure there's always lots of kickin' if anybody keeps a chicken. The yearly sum we pay the town, but if a crows we get the frown. Methinks the time we soon will see when we'll be afraid to keep a bee.

Meanwhile we listen to the din. To kill a dog would be a sin, altho's cat may disappear quite suddenly—that's nothing queer.

Dear Editor, I've had my say, for "every dog must have its day." I do not like to name the street where in these purps have their retreat; but if you just should sally by and hear, you'd know this is no lie. So won't you give these lines some space? With many thanks I am concluded and sign myself just 40-2-D.

NEEDLEWORK NOTES

You can make your own book ends by joining two pieces of metal or wood and then covering it with a cover made of green linen, linenly interpolated in a conventional design.

A pillow sham that is unusual is made of fine white linen, ornamented with three filet crochet insets. The sham measures about fifteen inches long and twenty-two inches wide and is finished with a deep hemstitched hem.

A pretty crib cover and pillow is made of flesh colored poplin. Of course the cover is padded to make it sufficiently warm; but the most interesting part of the cover is the design embroidered on it. Little Bo Peep and her sheep have been used as the motif for both the pillow and the cover. The design is outlined in old rose, and the animals' eyes are designated by beads. If you wish to make such a cover for a youngster's birthday gift you can get your design from any nursery book. If you wish you can add to the set and make side pads for the crib, using the same design to decorate them. Pads of this sort are very practical, for they stop the scurrying of a screen by keeping drafts from the occupant of the crib.

A Decalogue of Conduct.

Always be master of yourself. Never betray any irritation or disappointment or any other weakness. Never stop over, never give yourself away; never make yourself ridiculous—what American would not admit that these are foremost among the rules by which he would like to regulate his conduct? It can be hardly denied that this habitual self mastery, this habitual control over one's emotions, is one of the chief reasons why so much of American life is so uninteresting and monotonous. It reduces the number of opportunities for intellectual friction; it suppresses the manifestation of strong individuality; often it impoverishes the inner life itself. But, on the other hand, it has given to the American that sureness of native, that healthiness of appetite, that boyish frolicsomeness, that purity of sex instinct, the quickness and litheness of manners, which distinguish him from most Europeans. It has given to him all those qualities which insure success and make their possessor a welcome member of any kind of society.—Atlantic.

Don't Make Your Home an Ice Box

You know the way the old style, inefficient heater and boiler acts. One minute your house is too hot and the next too cold. Mostly the latter. That's because the heater is run on the wrong principle.

With the Boynton Square Pot Boiler you can keep your house "cozy warm" all the time. The patented square firepot is round at the top and square at the bottom. This feature allows increased radiating surface and more heat on a less amount of coal.

Study the illustration closely. Note the square firepot and the nearness of the interior water-holding sections to the fire. This arrangement gives free and greater steam on little fuel.

Call on our dealer and he'll explain how the Boynton Square Pot Boilers will save you money and worry. Or write us.

SCHOOL HEADS HONOR SAMUEL L. WALKER

Ira W. Travell, former principal of the Plainfield high school, now superintendent of schools at Ridgewood, was the toastmaster at a recent dinner given by school superintendent and principals of New Jersey to Samuel L. Walker, of Ginn & Company, in recognition of his sixty-fifth birthday anniversary.

The affair was at the Hotel Breslin, New York. During the evening Dr. Henry M. Maxson, superintendent of the Plainfield schools, presented Mr. Walker with a handsome library chair as a testimonial of the regard in which he was held by those present.

COMPANY K LEAVES ELIZABETH ARMORY

Local Militiamen Sent West Over the Penna. R. R. to Some Un-named Point

The members of Company K, Second Regiment, soon after receiving orders left Elizabeth at 1:06 o'clock this afternoon, going west over the Pennsylvania Railroad. The guardsmen were all prepared to move at a moment's notice and there was no confusion. Where the company is going no one knows. It is said the battalion officers will leave Elizabeth later in the afternoon.

Other companies in the Second Regiment, it is said, will leave Elizabeth this afternoon over the New Jersey Central, their destination also being unknown. Thomas Harvey, of this city, is in charge of Company K's truck.

The daily drills are maintained with regularity, the "rookies" being put through the paces from 8 to 12 o'clock in the morning and from 2 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, while of course the regular troops are obliged to put in a certain amount of time at drills.

All the men were sorry to learn yesterday that Corporal F. R. Pearsall had severed his connection with the militia after a service of ten years. He has a record of which he can feel proud and his unselfish devotion to Company K will always be remembered.

"TEMPLE GUARDS" HIT OF THE OPERA

Everything in Readiness for Initial Performance of Elks' Annual Show

The third act of "The Land of Mystery" to be given at the Plainfield Theatre April 10, 11 and 12 under the auspices of the Plainfield Lodge of Elks opens with the singing by the "Temple Guards," twelve Hindus, appearing in the fancy garb of their picturesque country. Their number is entitled "My Monkey Millionaire," and the harmony of the boys' voices is striking. Those composing the "Temple Guards" are: D. C. Patterson, Horace J. Martin, Jr., Pasquale Caruso, Peter Benson, N. Neuman, Fred Van Orden, P. H. Fahn, Clifford Feiring, William G. Smith, Walter Webber and C. G. Hunt.

All adults taking part in the opera will meet tomorrow night at 8 o'clock for the final short working rehearsal. The dress rehearsal will be Monday night at 8 o'clock with the orchestra. Both rehearsals will be in the hall at 119 West Front street.

The production will be ready for the initial performance Tuesday night with a blaze of glory under the direction of Robert P. Skilling, the composer. He predicts that this year's opera will be even better than last year's production, "The Mystic Rose." He particularly compliments the chorus. The entire cast is strong and working enthusiastically. Nearly 400 people will take part and it is believed that there will be capacity audiences each night.

CONTRIBUTORS TO DEFENSE LEAGUE

Subscriptions Still Needed to Bring Amount Up to Requirements

The Home Defense League still requires contributions to bring the amount up to $6,000, which is the estimated sum needed to equip and drill 150 men and to assist the High School Cadets.

Other cities such as East Orange and Montclair have quickly raised larger amounts by voluntary subscriptions. Contributions have been generous so far, and, if the general public will send in small amounts of $1 or $2, or even less, the full sum will be obtained without burden. There should be a much larger list of names of contributors.

If you have not already subscribed send in your contribution to the Plainfield Trust Company. Amounts are not published, but the names of the contributors will be daily given.

RUBEL TRIO WILL ASSIST WELSH TENOR

The work of the Rubel Trio at the concert to be given by the Welsh tenor, Evan Williams, Monday evening in the high school for the benefit of the dental patients in Muhlenberg Hospital, will be an interesting feature.

During the past season several distinguished artists have followed the Rubel Trio in its work of bringing to light many musical gems heretofore never heard on concert platforms and the interest aroused has been widespread. In thus combining on one program works from the literature of classic and modern trio music, arrangements of short pieces of two or three centuries ago and a group of folk songs of many lands there is a variety and interest to the trio's offerings that has until now remained unknown in chamber music concerts.

FIERCE FIGHTING NEAR RHEIMS

Special to Courier-News:

London, April 6.—Fighting, rivaling in fierceness the combats around Cambrai, St. Quentin and Laon, has been in progress during the past 24 hours northwest of Rheims. Heavy masses of German troops attacked in mass formation along the left bank of the Aisne canal, assaulting the French trench sections over a front of a mile and a half. At some points the French positions were penetrated, but during the night powerful counter thrusts were launched. There were violent bombardments along the Somme.

PUBLIC SERVICE ISSUES $2,000,000

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, April 6.—The Public Utility Commission today gave the Public Service Railway Company permission to issue $2,000,000 in capital stock. At the same time the commission acted upon the application of the Standard Gas Company for permission to issue its first mortgage five per cent. bonds of $17,949 at not less than eighty-eight and one-half per cent. by granting the Monmouth County concern permission to issue $12,000 of the bonds.

GERMANY'S $51,000,000 MERCANTILE FLEET SEIZED

Special to Courier-News:

New York, April 6.—Germany's $51,300,000 mercantile fleet which had been interned here since the outbreak of the war was seized by the United States today. There were twenty-seven passenger liners, freighters and sailing ships in the fleet, among them the Vaterland, one of the largest and finest passenger liners in the world.

The German officers and crews numbering more than 2,000 men were taken to Ellis Island for internment.

COMPANY K SHOWS ITS APPRECIATION

Through Capt. Peterson Plainfielders Are Thanked for Remembrances

The following letter of appreciation was received here today from Captain Charles A. Peterson, of Company K, in which he thanks the people of Plainfield for all their kindness to the company:

"As Captain of Company K, it affords me one of the most sincere pleasures of my career to be their spokesman in expressing to the citizens of Plainfield, through your columns, the grateful appreciation of the members of the Company for the auto supply truck so thoughtfully bestowed by the good people of our home town.

"The prompt organization of the Citizens' Committee under the able direction of Albert F. La Rock, the spontaneous response of the community at large, the thoughtfulness and consideration shown in the selection of the gift, all appeal powerful to the hearts of men who, owing to the suddeness of the call for departure, did not have time to take formal or ceremonious leave of their fellow townsmen. It may well serve as an example of practical patriotism to the people of the entire State.

"When all have done so well, it is hard to single out any one person for particular praise; yet I feel it would be ungenerous in extending our thanks to the citizens of Plainfield not to bring to their attention the heavy obligation owing to Senator Ackerman, to Albert F. La Rock, proprietor of The Plainfield Record, to James J. McNamee, to the Veterans' Association of Company K, to Norman Loughlin of the M. & L. Garage, also a veteran of Company K, and last but not least the local branch of the National Special Aid Society, all of whom contributed so materially to the successful termination of this exceedingly worthy project.

"At the time of the presentation, so complete and overwhelming was the surprise, I was utterly unable to adequately express the intense gratitude felt by every man in the organization down to the latest recruit.

"The daily service rendered by the splendid gift of the folks at home will be a constant incentive to perform the duties which may fall to our lot, whether they are merely the guarding of property within our own borders or more serious duties the nature of which as yet lies in the unknown future.

"With grateful remembrance, I am,
"Charles A. Peterson,
"Captain."

HELPS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

VIRGINIA CARTER LEE

In connection with this department Miss Lee will gladly answer any inquiry relative to domestic affairs, a stamped envelope being necessary for a personal reply. Address care of Courier-News.

Planning and marketing for the Easter dinner is always one of the pleasant duties for Easter Saturday, and even in these days of high prices, a most appetizing and delicious dinner may be procured, if the housekeeper knows what to buy and where.

One of the first considerations is to give to the dinner menu a touch of spring cheer. If the home caterer is not able to supply spring lamb, fresh peas and strawberries, the introduction of a few fresh vegetables, a dainty meat course and a delicious frozen delicacy will give quite a festive menu, that will prove very attractive.

A few spring flowers, or even a pot of primroses, should be included when doing the marketing, as Easter without some spring posies is almost like Christmas without holly.

In the following menu, very simple edibles are included and tested recipes will be found for preparing the various dishes mentioned:

Easter Sunday Dinner

Halved Grape Fruit with Creme de Menthe Cherries
Celery Olives Radishes
Clear Soup with Sago Crackers
Fried Chicken Potato Puffs
String Beans
Fresh Tomato Salad Cheese Straws
Tutti-Frutti Parfait Angel Cake
Coffee

Halved Grape Fruit with Cherries

Cut the fruit in halves, remove the hard, pithy centers, and loosen the edible pulp from the skin. Sweeten to taste with powdered sugar, flavor with a little creme de menthe cordial and stand on the ice to chill. Just previous to serving, sprinkle the tops with the chopped, creme de menthe cherries.

Fried Chicken

Young frying or broiling chickens, at this season of the year, are decided luxuries, but a very excellent substitute will be found in a small, plump fowl. Have it cut in suitable pieces for serving and carefully steam it until tender. The exact time is hard to give, as the age of the bird, as well as its tenderness, must be taken into consideration. Remove from the steamer, cool and dry thoroughly. Roll each piece in seasoned flour. Then, by means of a frying basket, cook in deep, hot fat to a rich brown. Drain for a few minutes on brown paper and serve garnished with cress or parsley.

Potato Puffs

These are delicious to serve with either fried or broiled chicken. Have in readiness one pint of creamy, mashed potatoes, delicately seasoned, and beat into them one egg. Beat steadily until the mixture is very light. Then, with the aid of two buttered tablespoons, form into small oblongs. Lay on a buttered baking sheet, brush over with melted butter and brown in a quick oven.

Fresh Tomato Salad

Fresh tomatoes are also expensive during early April, but as one will only be required for each portion of salad, the slight extravagance may be pardoned. Peel the tomatoes, sprinkle lightly with salt and chill thoroughly. When ready to make the salad, cut each into quarters, allowing the under part of the vegetable to hold the quarters together. Lay each in a bed of crisp lettuce leaves, pour over two tablespoonfuls of thick mayonnaise and sprinkle with chopped cucumber pickle and minced green peppers. Serve the salad as cold as possible.

Tutti Frutti Parfait

Boil three-quarters of a cupful of granulated sugar with one-third of a cupful of boiling water (without stirring) to 238 degrees F. Then pour the syrup in a fine stream on the stiffly whipped whites of two eggs and beat steadily until cold. Fold in one pint of chilled double cream, that has been beaten solid, one scant tablespoonful of vanilla extract and three-quarters of a cupful of candied fruit that has been soaked over night in Maraschino cordial and drained. Turn into a melon mold with a water-tight cover and bury in ice and rock salt for four hours before using. If desired, chopped preserved ginger may be substituted for the fruits.

ROY AND THE WOLVES

Roy was a beautiful young collie dog. He had been carefully raised and given to a shepherd to guard his sheep. At first he had been delighted with his life. He felt very important, protecting the great flock as it grazed over the hills, and his heart swelled with pride when his master patted him and told him he was a fine clever dog. But at length he grew restless, especially when at night in his warm kennel he heard the wolves howling as they ran through the great forest.

"My, what fun they are having," thought Roy. "I'm just tired to death of driving a lot of silly sheep to pasture and watching them and then driving them home at evening, day after day, with nothing different ever happening. Of course my master is good to me, and it's lots of fun romping with the children at night before the big, warm fire. But it's a dull, tame life for a live young dog like me. I'm going to join those wolves as they run so free through the wide forest. They know how to enjoy life."

And so next evening, after he had driven the sheep to the fold, Roy slunk away, and, unseen by his master, made for the forest to join the wolves. "Roy, Roy!" he heard his master call. He started to turn back, for he had had no supper.

"The bold, free wolves will give me supper, however," he thought, and went swiftly through the forest. It was very lonely there, but Roy ran on, and at length heard the wolf pack howling. Guided by the sound, he found them gathered together in earnest talk. As he approached each wolf snarled and showed his fangs, but Roy wagged his tail in sign of friendliness.

"I've come to join you," he said. "I want to be free and independent like you."

"We will see about that," answered the leader of the pack, who was suspicious of some trap to catch the pack. "Sit down until we have finished talking, for we have a hard fight before us, I fear."

"I want something to eat first," exclaimed Roy, innocently. "I came away without my supper and I'm awfully hungry."

The wolf pack gave a snarling laugh. "We are almost starved to death ourselves," replied the old leader. "We've had nothing to eat for three days and are going to hunt for food tonight."

"Doesn't somebody give you your food?" asked Roy, innocently. He had been well provided for all his life and knew nothing of hardships and hunger.

"What do you suppose we go prowling through the dark forest for instead of being comfortably asleep if we are not hunting for food?" asked the leader, with a sneer at Roy's ignorance. "Nobody ever feeds us. All we get we steal."

"I thought you ran through the forest just for play," replied Roy. "Well, if you will show me your kennels I will sleep until you are ready to go." And the wolves all laughed snarlingly.

"What nonsense you talk!" answered the leader. "Our kennel is the bare ground."

"My! my!" thought Roy, sadly, "this isn't a bit as I thought it was going to be! But I'll enjoy running free through the forest."

At length the pack started off. Through the dark forest they ran howling for miles and miles, always looking for food, until poor Roy, who had had no supper and was not used to such a life, was so tired he could hardly stand.

"And all the time I thought they did this for fun," he thought, dismally.

After a long time the old leader sniffed the air.

"I smell food!" he cried. "Come, brothers!"

Guided by the scent they came upon a fat piece of fresh beef.

"Oh! what a fine supper!" exclaimed Roy, and made for it.

"Stop!" cried the leaders. "There may be a trap!" He approached cautiously and looked over the ground. "See, there it is!" he cried, and Roy, looking down, saw a vicious iron jaw half hidden by leaves.

"Come away," commanded the leader. "If you had put your foot in that it would have been the last of you. That is a trap set for us wolves."

"Oh, what a terrible, hard life these wolves lead," thought Roy. "I wish I was home." But he had to follow the pack, because there was no other way to get anything to eat. Just as the day broke they came out upon the edge of a pasture and, to his delight, Roy saw in the distance his old home.

"Come away, quickly!" commanded the old leader. "That is a dangerous place for us."

The pack went sulking back into the dark forest, but Roy crept away from them and ran straight towards home. There he found his master feeding the dogs and chickens.

"Why, Roy, old fellow, where have you been?" he exclaimed, patting Roy on the head. "I thought you were lost." And he gave him a bountiful breakfast. Roy was very glad he couldn't talk to his master; for he was very much ashamed of his adventure.

That night, as he was dozing off to sleep in his warm kennel, he heard the howl of wolves.

"Oh, but I'm glad I've got a good comfortable home, instead of having to prowl through the dark forest," he said to himself. And with a sigh of content, he sank to sleep.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

If Cross, Feverish or Bilious Give "California Syrup of Figs"

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomachache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

LENTEN MUSICAL MUCH APPRECIATED

"The Seven Last Words" and Other Selections by Choir of First Baptist Church

An appreciative audience, although not very large owing to the stormy weather, enjoyed the annual Lenten musical service at the First Baptist Church last night, when the chorus choir under the direction of Howard M. Case, organist, sang "The Seven Last Words," by Dubois, and other selections appropriate to Holy Week.

The soloists for the evening were Miss Dicie Howell, soprano; Miss Leontine de Ahna, contralto; Gwilym Myles, baritone and George H. Smith, tenor, and the assisting artists were Miss Mildred Dilling, harpist; Mrs. Hollis Cubberley, violinist, and W. Paulding De Nike, 'cellist.

The high standard set by the choir in the rendition of sacred music was maintained and the solo numbers, as well as the parts assigned to the chorus, were given in a finished manner, made more impressive by the accompaniment of the stringed instruments. The program opened with the selection, "Adagio Pathetique," Godard, by violin, 'cello, harp and organ, and this was followed with the singing of "By Babylon's Wave," Gounod, by the chorus.

One of the delightful numbers was a duo, "La Cygne," Saint-Saens, given by 'cello and harp, Miss de Ahna, contralto soloist, singing "Before the Crucifix," by LaForge, in good voice, and this number preceded a pleasing harp solo, "Priere," by Hasselmanns. These selections comprised the first part of the program. The second part was given up entirely to the rendition of "The Seven Last Words." Owing to illness, Henry Rowley, the baritone soloist, was unable to be present and his part in the service was taken by Gwilym Myles, whose delightful voice added greatly to the enjoyment of the musical. The attendance on such a night was considered a compliment to the artistic work of the choir.

The solos by Miss Howell, soprano; Miss de Ahna, contralto, and George Smith, the tenor, was pleasing throughout. In the duo numbers the voices blended in perfect harmony, while the solo parts showed most careful training and study of the cantata.

Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, the pastor, recited the Scripture lesson and offered prayer during the service which closed with the singing of "In the Cross of Christ I Glory" by the congregation, and the number, "Meditation," by Mietzke, for violin, 'cello, harp and organ.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

AMERICAN WOMEN MUST BE THRIFTY

One of the first patriotic duties of every American citizen in the present distressing situation is to practice habits of thrift. The longer the war progresses the greater need there will be for economy in all personal affairs. The people of Europe have learned to practice frugality and self denial to a point that hitherto was regarded as beyond the power of human endurance.

The women of America can wield a powerful influence in the cause of patriotism. The greater part of household expenses are in their hands and they can, if they will, materially reduce the wastage that is now taking place in this country.

Statistics recently compiled at Washington show that we are wasting $700,000,000 worth of food in our kitchens every year. This is just one item of the waste that is taking place all about us in America today. Another prodigious example of profligacy lies in the vast amount of waste land that should be producing its quota of food. It is still early enough in the season for much of this waste ground to be put under cultivation. Persons who have recently returned from Germany say that not a single foot of land is allowed to go to waste there, and substantially the same condition exists in England, France, Austria and Italy.

College girls at Oberlin are shining shoes to pay expenses. No difficulty is reported in persuading the boys to keep their boots blacked.

The Fashionable One-Piece Dress

By May Manton

ASSUREDLY, the one-piece dress is the most fashionable garment that the season has to show. It takes numberless forms. In some instances it is elaborate and adapted to formal occasions, in others it is absolutely simple, but it always is smart and becoming. There are good examples shown in this group. It illustrates both the designs for the costumes and fashionable materials and trimmings. Braiding and embroidery make notable features of the season and the gowns that are trimmed in that way are eminently new and attractive. The braiding finish is an easy one of accomplishment. It comes within every woman's scope, it costs very little money and the designs are so simple that it does not mean any considerable expenditure of time. The embroidery is done in heavy threads, wool for the most part or silk or mercerized threads or chinnele, and it fills up rapidly; nothing is fine nor exacting in the fashionable needlework.

What we know as the redingote effects are much liked. They are very handsome and they deserve all their popularity. The example given here, on the figure at the extreme left, combines broadcloth with satin or velvet and is trimmed with fur. There is a tight bodice with a full skirt. For the effect illustrated, the front edges of this skirt are turned under and a plain two-piece skirt of satin is worn beneath. If the entire gown of one material were wanted, the entire skirt would be joined to the bodice and lapped one side over the other. Various materials can be utilized in this way, but there is nothing handsomer or nothing more fashionable than the combination shown here.

The braid trimmed gown also is made of broadcloth for light weight broadcloth is a pronounced favorite for dresses of this sort, and the braiding appears to great advantage on that background. Any preferred color can be used but this gown is on a shade known as mulberry which is much liked this season while the braid is black for black on mulberry makes one of the smartest as well as one of the most fashionable combinations that can be thought of. The long box plaits give becoming lines to the figure and the gown is a very simple one to make as well as a very smart one when it is made.

The gown in the right hand corner is made of the serge that is such a pronounced favorite with trimming of broadcloth and that combination is well liked. In this case, there is embroidery and that embroidery is executed with heavy worsted threads that mean almost no labor. They really are a pleasure to handle, they provide excellent effects and the work progresses with such rapidity that it simply is a delight. The same model could be used for [illegible] other materials. Charmeuse could be pretty braided with [illegible] silk threads or with a design of beads embroidered in place of this one in the worsted. Broadcloth makes up beautifully after the model, also poplin.

The two dresses for the young girls, one shows a chemisette and one the raised waist line with a deep collar and deep cuffs and there is just a hint of the Napoleonic period without being exaggeratedly Directoire. They are both charming. As shown here, one is made of a heavy silk crepe that is rage this season and the other is made of velveteen with trimming of broadcloth, and a great many velveteen frocks are being worn. The material is made in light or chiffon weight and is very beautiful while it seems especially well adapted to the younger contingent. The little blouse or chemisette worn beneath is of Georgette crepe. Any one of the materials suggested for the other dresses in the group could be used for this one. It is perfectly simple, plain and loose but the belt and pockets make it essentially smart and distinctive. The little frock of soft crepe with its white trimmings is very dainty and girl-like and altogether charming. The combination of grey with white is one of the prettiest ever devised and the demure colors are greatly in vogue just now, but, as a matter of course, the dress could be made from any one of the fashionable colors and from a variety of materials. Chestnut brown suitsa great many girls for it is always becoming to the brown haired, brown eyed sisterhood and there are many of them. It would be charming for this model with the collar, cuffs and trimming bands of champagne color, for champagne on brown always is beautiful and just now it is eminently fashionable. If liked, a little embroidery could be added.

Plaid materials always suit the school girls. The dress that is shown here (9200) is made of plaid cotton [illegible] with trimming of heavy linen.

We Stand for All Wool

There are 19,000,000 sheep less in the world today than ten years ago. And 120,000,000 pounds less of raw wool. On the other hand, the consumption of wool, due to the European war, has enormously increased. Decreased supply! Increased demand! It means more part-cotton and less all-wool.

Yet the makers of Kirschbaum Clothes in the face of this tremendous pressure, are adhering absolutely to their all-wool policy. No retreat. No equivocation. All-wool—100 per cent. and no compromise.

New York, April 6.—A telegram from the War Department has been received at Governors Island authorizing the department commander to discharge from those regiments and other units of the National Guard mustered into Federal service enlisted men with dependent relatives. It was estimated yesterday this order would deprive the National Guard of at least 10 per cent. of its 18,000 members.

There are large numbers of men who have passed examinations for the officers' reserve corps in units like the Seventh Regiment and Squadron A who are also anxious to be released from the ranks. The State authorities have determined to hold these men until the expiration of their terms. Candidates from the New York Guard will still be examined for the officers' reserve corps. Their commissions, however, will be withheld until the expiration of their enlistments.

HOW TO HANG THE AMERICAN FLAG

An Answer to a Question Frequently Asked by Citizens When Displaying Flag

The American flag was adopted by act of Congress just 99 years ago yesterday.

Every day the Courier-News is asked how to hang the American flag. There are so many places about a building, inside and out, to which the flag is used, that there are few rules for hanging it, except the general one, with the stars always at the top, and generally at the left. In hanging a large flag across a street, a sort of rule has been adopted to hang the stars to the north on an east and west street, and to the east on a north and south street. Here again is a puzzle, for many streets do not run on the cardinal points of the compass.

The flag originally was floated from a staff, as indeed, was the banner, the emblem, insignia, or other mark of nationality, among the earliest tribes of human beings, and particularly in war, so that they could recognize their own people.

Now imagine the flag on a staff. It always is supposed to stand near the entrance to the camp or garrison. Now suppose it stands in front of your house or store, it would float which ever way the breeze carried it. Sometimes the blue field and stars will be in the upper left corner, and sometimes in the upper right, according to the direction of the wind.

Now, with the front door of your building, as the point where the flag staff would stand, imagine the staff tilted, it may be to the right, or to the left, or forward. Note the positions in which it would hang thus from the staff, and hang it accordingly if you use it on a rope or against the house. If hung horizontally directly in front of your door let the stars appear at the upper left hand corner.

It is very difficult to make arbitrary rules of technical nature for hanging the flag. No flag society or military rules go into technical details, further than to require that the stars shall be at the top, and that the flag should not be floated before sunrise or left out after sunset, and that the flag should not be used for decorative purposes, as around posts or columns, or on a table where something else sits on it. The flag is supposed to reflect the respect a people individually and collectively feel for their country and its emblem should be used accordingly.

MAKING VIGOROUS SEARCH FOR ALLEGED SPIES

Special to Courier-News:

Washington, April 6.—Vigorous, though quiet search, is being made in the departments of the Government for alleged spies, whose presence are strongly suspected. The hunt has been under way for several days and secret service agents are said already to have under surveillance a number of Government clerks and minor officials some of whom have been in the employ of the Government for several years.

DISBARMENT PROCEEDINGS AGAINST GEO. E. CUTLEY

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, April 6.—Additional testimony will be heard in Jersey City tomorrow on the application now before the Supreme Court for the disbarment of George E. Cutley, one time law partner of Joseph P. Tumulty, who has been arraigned on several complaints of unprofessional conduct.

FRIDAY, THE 13TH, IS ARBOR DAY

Exercises Will be Held in Public Schools Throughout the State

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, April 6—Arbor Day this year falls upon April 13 under the law designating the second Friday in April for its observance. State Forester C. P. Wilbur is directing the attention of county and municipal superintendents of schools to the statute requiring the introduction of special Arbor Day exercises into all the schools of the State, and the preparation by the superintendents of plans for these exercises. Sample programs may be obtained from H. N. Morse, Department of Public Instruction, Trenton.

The traditional idea of Arbor Day, as a day devoted to the planting of trees, has been expanded by the State Forester to include the general improvement of school grounds by decorative planting of trees and shrubs, as well as their care, and, particularly the natural districts, appreciation and the preservation of the forests from fire. The recent severe forest fires in Ocean and Atlantic counties will undoubtedly furnish object lessons with which to impress the pupils, as well as their elders, with the menace from fire in the woods.

While Arbor Day is celebrated chiefly by the school children, the State Forester recommends that it be observed by village improvement societies, shade tree commissions, and similar bodies, as well as by private individuals. He is always ready to give advice on the subject.

CITIZENS ASKED TO SAVE FOOD

Danger of Coming Shortage Pointed Out.

STATE BULLETINS WARNING.

Residents Told That Patriotic Duty Now Is to Grow as Much Food as Possible Not Only on Farms, but in Gardens and Vacant Lots and Save It.

Trenton, April 6.—In a joint bulletin issued by the departments of agriculture, public instruction and conservation and the agricultural experiment station appeal is made to every patriotic citizen to devote spare time to growing and saving food.

The appeal is made to townspeople rather than to farmers and is in line with the general plan of the National Emergency Food Garden Commission, which is endeavoring to increase the food production of the country through the cultivation of home gardens and the like. The bulletin points out that the food situation demands earnest and immediate attention, since the growing season in most of the states is already well advanced.

The bulletin, in whose preparation four departments of the state have collaborated, is designed to bring home to every citizen of the community the need for concerted action in husbanding the food resources of the country. In addition to various general suggestions for such conservation it is planned to give practical assistance to those who may join in the patriotic duty of preserving or augmenting the food supply.

Arrangements have been made for the distribution of 100,000 copies of the bulletin throughout the state, and in addition attention is called to a circular on the home vegetable garden, obtainable upon request from the department of agriculture at Trenton, and a leaflet on the vegetable garden, obtainable from the department of public instruction at Trenton.

BIG HOTELS BURN AT ASBURY PARK

Buildings Dynamited as Fire Rages at Resort.

Asbury Park, N. J., April 6.—Fire which began in the heart of the hotel district at 9:30 last night had destroyed the big Beach natatorium, five large hotels, several smaller ones, a dairage estimated at $400,000, and is raging undiminished early today.

The fire department dynamited several small houses in Ocean avenue in hope of checking the flames, which were under the whip of a forty mile gale.

The entire block bounded by First and Second streets and Ocean and Kingsley avenues was in ruins, and the fire jumped across Second street and started to ruthlessly to eat away the next block.

The police said a report had been made that an electric light on the front of the Beach natatorium had exploded and sparks had quickly grown into flames, starting the disaster.

The natatorium cost $100,000. It was at Ocean avenue and First street. The wind slashed the flames across Ocean avenue, and the Davenport inn went next, then Daly's theater and then a merry-go-round valued at $25,000.

The next structure to fall was the Grand Central hotel, then a small cottage and after that the Ormond hotel and the Surf House. The fire had become a mountain of flames that spread across Second street and caught the Winthrop.

There was no loss of life, but several firemen were slightly injured.

FIRES IN FOUR TOWNSHIPS.

Wardens Mystified by Blazes and Explosion in Plumsted District.

New Egypt, April 6.—One bad fire has followed another every day for the last week, and Fire Warden Robert Bell said that nearly 3,000 acres of valuable timber and woodland in Plumsted township alone and 7,000 in three other townships had been destroyed in less than three days. Origin of these fires cannot be determined.

Just before dawn Monday a heavy explosion occurred in the southern wooded section of Plumsted township, and immediately thereafter fire was raging which swept all of the country between Larchertown, near New Egypt, and Lakewood. Many say that a large hole was found in the ground near where the fire started.

SOMERVILLE NOTES

MILITARY UNITS ARE ORGANIZED

Patriotism ran rife in Somerville last evening upon the occasion of the organization of two new military organizations, one the Somerset Rifle Club, the other a volunteer company of infantry. In spite of inclement weather, fully 200 residents of Somerville and vicinity met at the armory at 7.30 to commence the work of safeguarding the home interests of the town.

Former Colonel Nelson Y. Dungan retired a few years ago as Brigadier General, called the meeting to order. In the absence of Mayor William V. Steele, President of the Borough Council, Walter Durling was elected chairman and William S. Woodruff, temporary secretary. Colonel Dungan explained the object of the meeting and read a proposed set of by-laws, recommending their adoption. The recommendation was accepted.

A nominating committee consisting of former Judge Louis H. Scheuck, Arthur C. Swinton and Rev. C. C. Silvester was appointed by Chairman Durling. The committee adjourned and returned a few minutes later nominating the following: For President, George M. La Monte, of Bound Brook; for vice president, William P. Bowman, of South Branch; for secretary, William S. Woodruff, of Somerville; for treasurer, Frederic G. Thomas, of Somerville, and for executive officer, Judge Nelson Y. Dungan. The nominees were unanimously elected by the meeting.

Immediately following the adjournment of the meeting, Colonel Dungan offered to initiate "rookies" into the rudiments of military training. Nearly a hundred lined up at the first call and, while at first they displayed more enthusiasm than skill in their maneuvers, after a few minutes of drilling, the green recruits proved to be apt pupils. Many of the bystanders expressed their intention of participating in future training.

During the evening it was announced that over 75 business men of Somerville had signed an agreement to allow employes off for at least a half day a week for drilling, if required by the rifle organization. It was also announced by Arthur C. Swinton, for the Cornell estate, that the old Company M outdoor rifle range, on the meadows south of the town, might be used by the new organization as an outdoor range.

Dr. F. S. McConnell, former Sergeant Second Regiment N. G. N. J., John Hardgrove, Jr., former Sergeant United States Marines, and William S. Woodruff were designated as a committee to secure recruits for Company M, now at Trenton.

While the rifle organization was getting used to the rudiments of drilling, a volunteer company was being formed in another part of the building. Over 75 former members of Company M or other military units, have already signified their intention of joining the new company. A telegram was sent to Governor Edge, last evening, offering the services of the new company and assuring the State Executive that "Somerset county is with you until the end."

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs Kidneys, then the Back hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then get fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

AGITATION FOR A PRISON FARM

Freeholders Will Give a Public Hearing in Elizabeth Next Tuesday

In a communication to the Common Council Monday night the County Board of Freeholders advised the local governing body that an agitation has been started for the establishment of a county prison farm and that, because of the expensiveness of an undertaking of this character, it is thought desirable by the Freeholders to have a public hearing at Elizabeth on Tuesday next for the purpose of getting the sentiment of the people respecting the project.

The Public Affairs Committee of the Council will represent this city. Councilman Sminck of the First ward will attend the hearing and will probably have something to say on the subject of establishing a county alms house, the same as has been established in Morris county.

Mr. Sminck states that such an institution could be made self-supporting and that if it was thought desirable, prisoners could be brought from the county jail and made to work on the farm. The prison farm idea seems to have sprung up recently, and has the backing of social reformers who would have short term prisoners put to work on the county farm. Just what kind of work would be given these prisoners in the winter time is not disclosed, but great stress is laid upon the fact that they could work in the open air in summer time.

It would undoubtedly mean an expenditure of half a million dollars if the county undertakes the prison farm project, because the farm must be of large acreage and there would have to be constructed many buildings to house the prisoners.

There would then be appointed a superintendent of the farm, various guards, etc. Mr. Sminck says that in Morris county they have one alms house supported by the county, and that it is run successfully.

He was not prepared to say last night that he disapproved the county farm idea, but said that it is a matter which should be very carefully considered before public moneys are spent.

A POEM COMPOSED BY A SYRIAN

The following poem was written by Dimitree Fabrat, a Syrian from Tyre, now residing at West Fourth street and Madison avenue. He comes from the oldest lands of scriptural history, and which are recorded by Latin poets.

Wake Up, America!

Although I am a lover of peace
The wars in this world will never cease.
Since the world began
Envy and hatred have cursed the Man.
Prepare for war in time of peace.
Although your riches might not increase;
Nations who practised the peace so well,
Have been wiped out by fire and and shell.
A nation armed needs not to fight,
But if attacked will use her might;
Moses, the prophet, has led his band
When Allah, the King, gave him the command.
The house on sand the wind will blow;
But if on a rock will make a show.
Prepare, prepare, with an iron wall,
Then, if attacked, your enemies will fall;
Prepare! Prepare!
America, get ready, your enemies are at the door—
Have been really a nuisance and disturbing you before.
Villa, the bandit, did cross the line
Pillaging, destroying while the sun did shine.
Uncle Sam got aroused to a high degree,
As his land was disturbed—the home of the free.
Cheer the spangle banner and embrace her, too;
Woe to her enemies for the harm that they do.
America, the land in which we sojourn,
They love thee and cheer thee
At night and at the dawn.
Her shores gladly welcomed you,
Her laws are just and true.
Hurrah for the dear protecting flag,
The Red, the White and Blue.

BLANCHE BATES COMES HERE APRIL 17

Wilton Lackaye, who appears with Blanche Bates in "Eleven P. M." at the Plainfield Theatre Tuesday, matinee and night

Undoubtedly one of the most important bits of theatrical gossip is the announcement that the favorite American artist, Blanche Bates, will return to the stage, and what is more pleasing to our own theatre-goers is the fact that she will be seen here at the Plainfield Theatre Tuesday, matinee and night, April 17, in a play from the pen of the veteran author, Paul M. Potter, entitled "Eleven P. M.," supported by a cast par excellence, including the popular star, Wilton Lackaye, whose achievements in the past are too well-known to need further comment.

Other players in the well-balanced tout ensemble are: Charles Hammond, Thomas J. McCrane, Charles Butler, Louise Macklintosh, Janet Travers, Jeffreys Lewis, J. H. Barnes, Ford Fenimore, Maria Ascaraga, Sallie Bergman, George Shelton, Henri Virey and Albert Prisco. Her managers, T. H. Hunter, Inc., have overlooked nothing in the way of providing an adequate setting for "Eleven P. M."

GERALDINE FARRAR IN "JOAN THE WOMAN"

Based on the life of the immortal Joan of Arc, a motion picture production in eleven parts entitled "Joan the Woman," directed by Cecil De Mille with Geraldine Farrar in the role of Joan, will begin an engagement at the Proctor Theatre, this city, on April 16.

Although Miss Farrar a year ago acted in three short photoplays under Mr. De Mille's direction at the Lasky studios, "Joan the Woman" will mark her first appearance as the star in a cinema drama of length sufficient to comprise an entire evening's entertainment.

All the scenes of the picture were made last summer in California, Miss Farrar having spent more than four months in the motion picture colony. As to the historical accuracy of costumes, armor, heraldry, buildings and the personnel, that portion of the production was in the hands of Wilfred Buckland, formerly of the artistic staff of David Belasco. Mr. Buckland and Mr. de Mille for two years have worked side by side in the Lasky studios and the assembling of material for "Joan the Woman" consumed many months of that time.

An effort has been made by the management to add to its fame by giving to the public a musical extravaganza of the highest class, the scenic effects have been arranged under the personal direction of Mr. Cooper and the music and lyrics by the witty writer Billy K. OLGA PETROVA AND VIVIAN MARTIN AT PROCTOR'S

Robert Warwick, one of the most popular of the male contingent of screen stars, is seen today at Proctor's in a unique photoplay entitled "A Girl's Folly." This is a romantic story woven around the film studios showing how motion picture productions are made. In addition today the beautiful Paramount star, Ledore Ulrich, is seen in "The Intrigue," an adaptation of the famous stage success.

Tomorrow Olga Petrova, famous stage and film favorite, appears in "The Black Butterfly," in a double role. In addition tomorrow Vivian Martin, the talented Paramount ingenue is starred in "Her Father's Son," a picture wholesome, of striking beauty of settings and remarkable lighting and photography. "Jerry on the Job," a cartoon comedy creation, will amuse the children immensely.

Easter Week is started off by a huge triple feature show consisting of Joan Sawyer, the noted dancer, in "Love's Lay"; Enid Bennett, the talented stage beauty, in "The Little Brother," and Mrs. Vernon Castle in "Patria."

On Tuesday and Wednesday the

At Proctor's today

extraordinary Vitagraph production, "The Girl Philippa," will appear at Proctor's with Anita Stewart in the leading role. This eight-part picture is the one that succeeded in breaking all records for attendance at the Rialto Theatre, New York.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

At the Columbia

The Million Dollar Dolls, one of burlesque's foremost organizations, will come to the Columbia Theatre the week beginning Monday afternoon, April 9, and present a two-act burlesque called "The Hotel De Gink." The story relates the experiences of two humorous characters who mistakenly enter a female seminary believing it to be a hotel. As there is no other place available for obtaining food and shelter, these characters resort to feminine attire, a ruse that leads them into all sorts of difficulties and that are said to form a series of highly amusing scenes and situations. Between the two acts of the burlesque a program of vaudeville specialties will be given which includes Bob Ferns, in a negro monologue; Savo, a sensational juggler, and Grace Seymour, who will render a repertoire of popular and classical songs. In the cast are Lew Hilton, Siem Kellan, Alice Lazar, Harry Mandel and Patrick Baker. Also, there is announced an unusually large chorus of both male and female voices and the scenery and costumes are described as more than ordinarily extensive and beautiful.

At the Strand

The Strand Theatre will celebrate its third anniversary and an elaborate program has been arranged for the occasion. The initial presentation of "The Third Ingredient," the first picture of the famous O'Henry stories series, will take place. The characters in the film adaptation are portrayed by Mildred Manning, Alice Mann and Frank Glendon. The titles are all by O. Henry, taken from the actual text of the story. Kathlyn Williams and Theodore Roberts will be seen in the latest Lasky production entitled "The Cost of Hatred," in which play the co-stars are said to have created unusual characterizations. Miss Williams is seen as both a mother and daughter, and has been given exceptional opportunities to show her dramatic abilities as the young daughter presiding over her father's Mexican estates. The scenes were photographed in old Mexico and California. The last part of the "Pendleton Round Up" pictures in which cowboys and cowgirls are seen performing unusual and thrilling Wild West feats will also be shown. The management promises the finest musical program ever presented at the Strand. In commemoration of the anniversary, William Lowlz, the Strand pianist, has composed a new overture and dedicated it to the Strand.

ALLIES GAINING ON TWO FRONTS

British and Russians In Mesopotamia.

GERMANS IN A NEW DRIVE.

Crown Prince Strikes Heavy Blow at Rheims and For a French Back—In Volhynia Russia Troops Lose Heavily in Teuton Attack on the Stokhod, Two Regiments Virtually Being Annihilated.

London, April 6.—The French and British made further progress in France, the British capturing two important villages in the direction of Cambrai.

The situation in the west was overshadowed in importance, however, by the news that Russian and British forces fighting the Turks have effected a junction on the Persia-Mesopotamian border some hundred miles northeast of Bagdad.

This was only briefly announced by General F. B. Maurice, in charge of military operations. Shortly afterward came an official statement from Petrograd to the effect that the Russians have occupied the Mesopotamian frontier towns of Khanikin and Kasrichirin. The report added:

"With the purpose of joining the British a Cossack detachment has been dispatched from Bendinkhan to Kizil Robat."

Menace to Turks.

The Russo-British junction holds a serious menace to the whole Turkish forces in Asia. The combined Russian and British forces are now expected to advance on Mosul, while another Russian force is attacking the Ottoman troops from the north.

News from the Russian front in Volhynia was less reassuring to the entente. Heavy losses on the Stokhod were admitted by Petrograd.

In France the British occupied the villages of Ronssoy and Basse-Boulogne. Their advance is a continuance of the effort to drive a wedge between Cambrai and St. Quentin. The latter city, heretofore believed to be a keypoint in the "Hindenburg line," is not a part of that line, General Maurice stated.

The French made considerable advances north of Gauchy and north of Moy. They found the Teuton lines, with which their scouts came into contact, strongly held. Moy and Gauchy are within less than two miles of St. Quentin.

Crown Prince Strikes Again.

Northwest of Rheims the crown prince's army struck a powerful blow, which Berlin asserts was successful, while Paris admits only that the Teutons gained a temporary foothold in the French lines, whereupon the attackers were driven out again. The German war office describes this action as follows:

"We inflicted a sanguinary defeat on French forces near Rheims, capturing 800 prisoners."

Virtual annihilation of two Russian regiments by the Germans yesterday in the capture of the Toboly bridgehead, west of the Stokhod, in Volhynia, is admitted by Petrograd. A third regiment managed to escape without losses, while other units suffered less heavily.

TO GUARD BRIDGEPORT

Munitions City Will Go Under Martial Law Soon.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 6.—Bridgeport will be placed under martial law within two weeks. This was announced by United States army officers today.

As one of the main centers of munitions manufacture in the United States, the department of the east has elaborate plans for the protection of the city.

Strong infantry guards are to be thrown about every factory and municipal building. Cavalry and machine gun patrols will protect every point of defense on the outskirts of the city, and powerful searchlights will sweep the harbor.

The civil government is to be displaced entirely by military rule. These precautions are being planned in the light of the fact that a few cranks might easily do damage that would mean a serious check on the nation's output of munitions.

Capstick Is Improving.

Morristown, April 6.—The condition of Congressman John H. Capstick of the Fifth district, who is in the Memorial hospital here with bronchial pneumonia, was reported as somewhat improved. The congressman, however, is still seriously ill and not able to see any of his friends.

ASKS 150,000 MEN FOR THE U. S. NAVY

Daniels Also to Raise Marine Corps to 30,000.

Washington, April 6.—The United States navy is to be increased by 100,000 men, practically doubling its peace strength, Secretary of the Navy Daniels announced in explaining the navy bigger appropriation bill which was approved by President Wilson.

To recruit the additional 100,000 men an item of $175,855,761.87 was included in the budget. When this increased force is raised the nation's naval strength will be 297,000 men, including both the navy and the marine corps. The present authorized strength of the two branches is about 97,000 men.

"The peace strength of the navy as fixed by the naval act of Aug. 29, 1916, is 86,700 men and of the marine corps 15,740 men," said Secretary Daniels. "The new estimates call for a total force of 150,000 men for the navy and 30,000 for the marine corps and other branches."

Secretary Daniels was assured by administration leaders and both houses of congress that the way will be cleared for prompt passage of the bill and that such additional steps will be speedily taken to place the naval branches in the best possible fighting trim.

With the prospects that the funds asked for will become quickly available, Secretary Daniels and his aids in all bureaus rushed preparations to greatly increase enlistments. More complements were added to the scores of naval recruiting districts to bring naval enlistments up to maximum. Although the exact figures were not announced, reports for the first five days of the month showed an improvement. Crush of applicants at recruiting offices in all parts of the country.

ASKS ALIMONY AND ESTATE.

Mrs. Daniel H. Wright Seeks Divorce at Hartford, Conn.

Hartford, Conn., April 6.—Through the filing of a sensational suit with the clerk of the Hartford county superior court here astonished acquaintances learned of domestic difficulties between Daniel M. Wright and his wife, who was Miss Eleanor D. Hunt. Wright, who is an officer of the Henry & Wright Manufacturing company, is very wealthy, and his wife asks for alimony and her portion of an estate valued at about $400,000. About a month ago, according to Mrs. Wright's counsel, Wright brought suit for divorce, naming certain statutory offenses.

Wright, who was formerly president of the Hartford board of trade, is well known in New York and New England and was one of the pioneer and most energetic Connecticut leaders in the bull moose movement.

Jersey Auto Receipts Increase.

Trenton, April 6.—Receipts of the state motor vehicle department for three months ending March 31, 1917, show an increase of $871,588.48 over the receipts for the corresponding period of time for the year 1916.

HOME DEFENSE PLANS DISTRIBUTED

Special to Courier-News:

Trenton, April 6.—Plans for the local defense and military training, as formulated by the Home Guard Committee of the New Jersey Committee on Public Safety, have just been distributed to the different communities of the State, after receiving approval by Adjutant General C. W. Barber and the Executive Committee of the Public Safety Committee.

The Mayor of each community is urged to name six committees as follows: Home Defense and Military Training; Women's Service; Census, Finance, Secret service; publicity. The first body's name implies its work. Red cross functions and using women for men's work will be the aim of the second. Gathering information about the men available for war service is the task of the third. The finance committee's name speaks for itself. The secret service men are not to be announced, but the sixth committee will disseminate all information.

PUPILS FORM GARDEN CLUB

Long Branch, April 6.—Five hundred Chattle High School pupils have pledged their support to President Wilson in a telegram and yesterday began organizing an agriculture club to cut the high cost of living.

At the suggestion of Abner A. Badger, principal of the grammar school, steps were taken toward organizing the club after he had addressed the school on "What Every Boy and Girl Could Do in War Times." The school also has organized a class of 100 cadets.

Old Folks Saved From Suffering

Mrs. Mary A. Dean, Taunton, Mass., in her 87th year, says: "I thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proven most beneficial in my case."

Mr. Sam A. Hoover, High Point, N. C., writes: "My kidney trouble was worse at night and I had to get up from five to seven times. Now I do not have to get up at night, and consider myself in a truly normal condition, which I attribute to Foley Kidney Pills, as I have taken nothing else."

Mrs. M. A. Bridges, Robinson, Mass., says: "I suffered from kidney ailments for two years. I commenced taking Foley Kidney Pills ten months ago, and though I am 61 years of age, I feel like a 16-year-old girl."

Foley Kidney Pills are tonic, strengthening and up-building, and restore normal action to the kidneys and to a disordered and painful bladder. They act quickly and contain no dangerous or harmful drugs.

ELIZABETH MAN ON TORPEDOED STEAMER

Word was received in Elizabeth yesterday afternoon that the Universal Transportation Company's steamer, Zealandia, on which William T. McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. McBride, 1027 Laura street, Elizabeth, is second assistant engineer, was sunk off the coast of England in a storm Wednesday night. All hands were saved. The boat was bound for Liverpool, carrying a cargo of freight.

GOOD WORK OF CADET CORPS

Young Soldiers of High School Put Through Stiff Drill by Plattsburg Officer

FINE MILITARY SPIRIT

Boys Are Fast Developing and New Uniforms Will Give Them Soldierly Appearance

The Plainfield High School Cadet Corps had its weekly drill yesterday afternoon under cloudy skies and threatening rain. As the cadets' regular leader, Capt. John Brandeth, of the United States Reserve Corps, has been called for national service, M. E. Tomlinson, of Elizabeth, a Plattsburg officer, took command.

The student soldiers went through a stiffer drill than the previous ones and accepted it with a true spirit of obedience and discipline. The boys are fast developing a military aspect in their drilling, and all that is needed to give them a soldiery appearance is their uniforms, which are expected soon.

Members of the corps were first ordered to City Park, where they were drilled in squads, each corporal of a squad giving his own commands. The corporals showed considerable improvement in commanding, which at first was rather a difficult task. After this branch of training Acting Captain Tomlinson led the corps to Crescent Oval, where close order drilling was practiced for about an hour and a half.

First Lieutenants Clinton Berrien and Alan Stevenson expressed themselves as being pleased with the progress of the student military unit.

Following President Wilson's desire for volunteers of men between the ages of 19 and 23 it is possible that several members of the high school corps will answer his summons.

Next Monday afternoon two squads of volunteers will report for "fatigue" duty. This will probably consist of preparing the 150 rifles which are stored in the school for use at the future drills.

PLAN MASS MEETING IN AID OF BELGIANS

"One million, two hundred and fifty thousand children in Belgium must have an extra meal a day if we are to avert a great tragedy." That was the parting message of Herbert C. Hoover upon returning to his work in Europe. That will be the test of the great mass meeting being planned by the local relief committee for Wednesday night, May 2, at the Plainfield high school, which should be the means of every true citizen, is the opinion of those in charge of the arrangements.

"If the Belgian children were a responsibility before now it is a solemn duty for every patriotic American to see what aid he can for the children of our allies," said a member of the committee. "Their needs will be presented at the meeting by Mrs. Kellogg, wife of Prof. Vernon Kellogg, formerly of Leland Stanford, but now receiving and distributing agent of the Commission for Relief in Belgium at Rotterdam. Mrs. Kellogg herself is the only woman who has been inside the 'Iron Ring,' that far from imaginary line drawn by the Germans about Belgium. Her reports of that country are the most stirring and graphic of any which Plainfield has heard. Other speakers will be announced later. Reserve the date now, May 2. It is Your duty and your opportunity."

ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM WILL BE PRESENTED

An attractive program has been arranged for the concert to be given at the Plainfield high school Easter Monday night under the auspices of the Plainfield Dental Society, at which time an opportunity will be afforded to hear Evan Williams, the well-known Welsh singer, and the Edith Rubel Trio. To hear Mr. Williams sing Cadman's "Moonlight," "A Perfect Day" or "Little Boy Blue," is a real pleasure, it is said. The Edith Rubel Trio will play as one of their numbers, "Folk Melodies" for which they are famous.

SEVEN WORDS FROM THE CROSS

Union Good Friday Service Held in Crescent Ave. Presbyterian Church

DR. ZELIE PRESIDING

Brief Addresses Were Delivered by Ministers Representing Practically All Denominations

The union Good Friday service was held last evening in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, when "The Seven Words from the Cross" formed the subject of short meditation by the ministers present. The Rev. Dr. John S. Zelie presided and the scriptures were read and the prayer offered by the Rev. E. C. Conover, of the Temple Baptist Church.

The Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, of the First Baptist church, spoke on the First Word, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." This word comes with peculiar force at this great crisis in the world's history. President Wilson said of the war "it must be conducted without hate." The word "forgive" has one meaning that runs through all its variations—"give for." The idea is "get before. In front of "So the Saviour would have the Father step between the sinner and his sin."

The Rev. Samuel T. Carter spoke on the Second Word: "Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise." The great end of all intelligent creatures is to know God. This work is the great revelation; God bearing the sins and sorrows of His children. We must cherish this central conception or never know God.

The Rev. Edward S. Ralston, of the Netherwood Reformed church, spoke on the third and fourth words. The way of human liberty is by Calvary. It has been true in history; there is no deliverance of mankind without the shedding of blood. Sonship on the Cross and Motherhood in tears is the story of human life. The highest thing for man is not his life, nor of motherhood that the son should live. The highest thing for both is to give life for the breaking of shackles and the freeing of humanity.

The Rev. Henry Mosier, of Netherwood, spoke on the Fifth Word, "I thirst." From a loftier height than Patmos the Lord looked down upon the wide world and, understanding perfectly the pain, the sorrow, the unrest, the longing of mankind, thirsted for the souls of men.

Dr. Zelie spoke on the Sixth Word, "It is Finished." When we stand by one who is slipping away we feel we might have done something more for him. And this thought comes to all of us as we look upon our lives, unfinished. But with Christ there was no such regret. Things in that tragic hour seemed to be in hopeless array, but not to him. He looked back and declared "Finished."

The Rev. C. S. Gillespie, of Grace Methodist Church, spoke on the Seventh Word, "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit." The three words that stand out in this are: Father. Thy Hands, My Spirit. He had been in the hands of men and they had nailed him to the cross. Now into the hands of the Father, not God, not the Almighty, but the Father, with all the infinite meaning of that word, he would commend his spirit.

REFUSES TO PAY FOR WIFE'S BURIAL

Albert Snedecker was arrested this morning at the plant of the Standard Aeroplane Company in North avenue on a warrant sworn out by Overseer of the Poor Garret Dunham, charging him with refusing to pay the funeral expenses of his wife, who recently died at Bonnie Burn Sanatorium.

It is said that Snedecker has not lived with his wife for many years, and that he now says she was not his wife.

There are many persons in this city who can and probably will be called upon to testify in the case, and there are three children who will also confront the father when he comes before Judge De Meza on Monday morning.

BURNED BY ALCOHOL LAMP

Mrs. William Searing of the Babcock Building was using an alcohol lamp in her apartment yesterday afternoon and was quite badly burned when the lamp was accidentally overturned, setting fire to the table.

The fire department was called to extinguish the flames. Chemicals were used. The damage was slight.

Yesterday evening the firemen were called to the residence of T. St. John Pitch, 315 Park avenue, where the house was filled with smoke. There was no fire.

CITY OF PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY
MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The Congress has declared that a state of war has been thrust upon the Government and people of the United States by the Imperial German Government, and has authorized and directed the President to employ the resources of the Government to carry on the war and bring the conflict to a successful termination;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Leighton Calkins, Mayor of the City of Plainfield, New Jersey, do call upon all citizens resident in the city to display the flag at their homes and places of business, and show by act and word their unswerving loyalty to the Government of the United States, and their determination to support it by all means within their power for the defense of country and for the maintenance of the rights and liberties of mankind; and

WHEREAS, The President in his message to the Congress has reminded us that, notwithstanding our present conflict with the Imperial German Government, we are still the friends of the German people and have, even in war, the opportunity to prove that friendship by our attitude toward those of German origin who live among us;

NOW, THEREFORE, I do further urge upon the people of this community that they make allowance for natural feelings of sympathy which Americans of German descent will have for the unfortunate plight of the country of their origin, and show them and those also of German birth who, notwithstanding such feelings, are in fact unconditionally and outspokenly loyal to the country of their voluntary adoption, a neighborly consideration.

As for aliens among us, they will be protected in their personal and property rights so long as they conduct themselves inoffensively, obedient to their obligations as residents in this country, which imposes upon them an honorable compliance with the laws of the land and will be violated by the slightest hostile act, in abuse of the friendship and hospitality which we offer them in no spirit of mere tolerance but rather with the sincerest feelings of sympathy and regard.

Given under my hand this 6th day of April, 1917.

LEIGHTON CALKINS,
Mayor.

FINAL REHEARSALS FOR ELKS' SHOW

Finishing Touches Will be Put on "The Land of Mystery" Tonight

The only remaining rehearsals for the adults in "The Land of Mystery," the American-Hindu comic opera to open at The Plainfield Theatre next Tuesday evening under the auspices of Plainfield Lodge of Elks, will be held tonight and Monday night. Tonight's rehearsal will begin at 7.30 o'clock sharp and will be held to put the finishing touches to the stage action. Monday night there will be a dress rehearsal with the orchestra. The children will rehearse once more, Monday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. All rehearsals are in the hall at 119 West Front street.

None but members of the cast and necessary chaperones for the younger girls will be admitted to rehearsals. Stage door tickets will be given to all adults to use on the nights of the show. The children will be directed where and when to meet on these evenings with appointed chaperones.

The director, Robert P. Skilling predicts that the opera will be another surprise for Plainfield's, as "The Mystic Rose" proved to be last year. The entire company of nearly 100 is to be costumed gorgeously and a great deal of special scenery has been provided for the show. In addition there will be mystifying mechanical stage effects. "The Land of Mystery" will be fully justified with fairies and gnomes, who appear out of nothing and disappear in an inconsiderable manner. In one scene a lot of "cheesy-cats" appear in semi-darkness and their part is essentially humorous, although they sing in the weirdest harmony.

Those impersonating the little creatures are: Roy Gunn, Bobby Blair, Howard Hoffman, Thomas MacConnell, Bruce Force, Elizabeth Angerbauer, Muriel Phelps, Myrtle Davis, Winifred Davis, Eleanor Whitlock and Mabel Boos. The musical finale of the second act of the opera, where principals and chorus join forces, produces an effect which has even at rehearsals created a sensation.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO MEET IN CRESCENT AVE. CHURCH

The forty-sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Elizabeth will be held in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church Tuesday, April 10. Morning session, 9.30; young people's hour, 1 to 2 p. m.; afternoon session, 2 o'clock.

Reports of the year's work will be presented and addresses made by the Rev. William P. Schell, of New York City, assistant secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, and the Rev. James H. Nichol, of Tripoli, Syria. Delegates from the auxiliaries, mission bands, Christian Endeavor societies and Westminster guilds are urged to be present.

RECORD TIME IN CONSTRUCTING BUILDING

Alexander Milne has just completed a frame building, 100x100, for the Standard Aeroplane Company, in North avenue. Mr. Milne completed the building in ten days, with sixty men employed.

The time consumed in construction is perhaps the shortest in the history of local building.

HOME FENCIBLES CALLED TO DUTY

Detail of Guardsmen Patrol Grounds Surrounding Water Company's Plant

At 8 o'clock last night Mayor Calkins called the Home Defense League into active service, requesting Commander A. W. Ransome to detail eight men for special police patrol at the Water Works, the men to report to Chief Kiely at Police headquarters immediately. The commander issued the orders at once through the squad officer, and the men were at headquarters within a half hour, and on patrol at nine o'clock. No intimation had been given that the order would issue.

The selection of the men for last night was strictly according to military system, in routine order according to group placing. Messrs. M. S. Ackerman and R. F. R. Huntsman, two members of the Mayor's Commission, which happened to be in session all last evening with Mayor Calkins, were found to be in the draft, and went on patrol at 1 a. m. this morning, after a Commission meeting lasting till midnight. They refused to be excused.

Mayor Calkins states that the call was issued solely as a precautionary measure. The protection of property, serving the entire community in a very vital direction, is of the utmost importance. While not expecting trouble, the city will co-operate with the company in thoroughly safeguarding the situation against any malicious or lawless interference. This is in line with what is being done in other communities.

The Mayor is gratified at the promptness and splendid efficiency shown by Commander Ransome's organization last night. Orders issued with military precision. All the men called out showed enthusiasm, and treated the weather conditions with good humor. Additional patrols will be directed at other points in the city from time to time, as needed, but probably without public announcement.

There will shortly be one hundred and fifty men enrolled in the organization, so that regular night patrol will not likely be required of anyone oftener than once in ten days. Commander Ransome expressed gratification that the call last night came, without warning or notice, as it gave the organization the opportunity to show that it is prepared for any emergency.

SPECIAL AID ANSWERS AN EMERGENCY CALL

In response to an emergency call from Muhlenberg Hospital, the local branch of the National Special Aid Society will send seventy-five hospital shifts to the institution tonight as part of the equipment for the fifty beds which are held in reserve in case of necessity. The women will meet on Tuesday at headquarters on East Front street and hem 3,000 yards of toweling to be sent to the hospital.

The members of the special aid stand ready to offer their services in any way as a part of the general "preparedness plan" and earnestly invite suggestions from any citizen as to ways and means of increasing their usefulness during the present crisis. The headquarters of the society resembles a beehive these days, every member being busily engaged in doing her bit in carrying out the plans of preparation for any emergency that may arise.

PAPER COLLECTION FOR BELGIAN FUND

A Second Campaign Inaugurated by Local Society, to Close May 12

The Plainfield Belgium Relief Society announces that on Saturday, May 12, a second collection of paper will be made.

The sum realized from the sale of the paper collected will go to the milk fund. This fund is devoted to regions in which the direst suffering exists and which are not covered by the Hoover Commission, depending on our local society and others of a similar nature.

The need is especially great in those portions of northern France from which the German armies have just retreated.

There are great needs in our home conditions at this time, but we must not forget the gallant nation which was the first to oppose itself to the forces which we are now facing together with Belgium and the other allies.

Universal co-operation is earnestly asked in this second collection of paper, as only by hearty co-operation can the campaign succeed.

Remember May 12.

J.; Julia Rowley, '15, now attending Syracuse University, Madeline and Marion Blair, Mabel Douglas, Lillian Spencer and Mrs. William E. Day, Jr.

STRANGE CRAFT, POSSIBLY RAIDER, OFF THE MASSACHUSETTS COAST

By United Press:

Newport, R. I., April 7.—A message from Siasconset, on the island of Nantucket, today, reported a strange craft inside the three-mile-limit. It is believed the vessel may be a German commerce raider.

GERMAN CRUISER BLOWN UP AT GUAM

By United Press:

Washington, March 7.—The German interned cruiser "Cormorant" has been blown up by its crew, in the harbor at Guam, the Navy Department announced today. The ship was destroyed by the German officers as the United States marines were going to seize it.

Two German warrant officers and five German enlisted men were killed. Twenty German officers, twelve warrant officers and 321 enlisted men of the vessel were taken prisoners. The news reached the Navy Department this morning, in a radio dispatch from the United States Governor of Guam.

The "Cormorant" was a converted collier which operated in the south Pacific.

Officers here were unable to account for the Germans being in possession of enough explosives to accomplish the destruction of the ship. At the time of her internment, in accordance with standing orders, all ammunition and explosives of every character, and even the gun breech blocks were removed by Federal authorities. Officers believe the explosion was premature, and that it was intended to wait until the ship was boarded by American marines before setting it off.

OMINOUS SILENCE ABOUT MEXICO CITY

By United Press:

Washington, March 7—What may be happening behind the scenes in Mexico was the cause of some concern here today. The Mexican capital has been out of communication with Washington for some time. Both the State Department and Mexican officials admitted that they did not know what is going on there.

Coupled with unofficial report of fighting in Mexico City, and the "rumor" that Carranza had been overthrown by Gen. Obregon, the lack of communication was at least disturbing. In Mexican quarters the rumor about Carranza was branded as "impossible," but in the same breath the Mexicans confessed they did not know what the status in Mexico City was.

The real danger in the situation is that German money may have created the situation in Mexico City and really have caused Obregon to act against Carranza. In view of the Zimmerman plot note there may be significance in the silence in Mexico City.

COSTA RICA MAY BE A SOURCE OF TROUBLE SOON

By United Press:

Washington, April 7—The attitude of Costa Rica toward the U. S. is still a further cause for concern. President Tinco, who usurped the government recently, is known to be sounding out the United States on a feeling toward recognising him. Only the hint is that if the United States does not alter its previous position of opposition to him he may make friendly overtures to Germany, and permit that nation to establish submarine bases along his coast.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR PRESIDENT WILSON

By United Press:

Washington, March 7—President Wilson today received personal messages of congratulation from King George of England, and King Victor Emanuel of Italy, on his stand in accepting the German challenge to war.

WATCHING PRUSSIA'S INSIDIOUS MOVES

By United Press:

Washington, March 7—That Germany may stage something spectacular against America within a few days, such as a repetition of the U-53 raid, was the confident belief of some officials today. The navy, however, can be said to be on the watch for just such moves.

Everything is being done to check up on Prussian moves. Lighthouses and lightships have been mobilized by the navy and ordered to report any suspicious incidents along the coast.

QUEENA TILLOTSON'S CONCERT APRIL 18

Miss Queena Tillotson, a former resident of Plainfield, who is a pupil of Madame Sembrich, the famous prima donna, and who has developed a remarkable coloratura voice, will give a concert in the Plainfield High school on the evening of Wednesday, April 18, under the auspices of the Cup Bearers' Circle of The King's Daughters. The program has been carefully prepared by Madame Sembrich herself. The date was originally made for April 11, but was changed to April 18.

Miss Tillotson resided in Plainfield and graduated from the Plainfield High school and the Plainfield Seminary. When the family went to New York she took up the study of singing, and revealed unusual talent.

Madame Sembrich plans to bring her out in Italy after the war is over, and thereafter she is to sing in the Metropolitan Opera House.

Miss Tillotson gave a recital in the Plainfield High school some weeks ago, which aroused great enthusiasm.

ELIZABETH COUNCILMAN WILL NOT SIGN PLEDGE

There was considerable talk in Elizabeth yesterday about Councilman Otto Froebel, Republican from the Fifth ward, for opposing a resolution of loyalty to President Wilson which was adopted at a meeting of the City Council. The resolution was offered by Councilman Sidney W. Eldridge, Republican, from the Tenth Ward, president of the Elizabethtown chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution. The vote was 11 to 1.

Froebel explained that he voted against the resolution because he was opposed to war and that most of his constituents were against war. If war was declared, he said, he and his constituents would remain loyal to this country.

Mr. Froebel also voted against a resolution appropriating $10,000 to equip the home guard. Councilman John Dravis and Walter Teuber voted with him. They were in favor of protecting property, but thought that this money would be used for the protection of factories and believed that the manufacturers should stand this burden themselves.

PLINY FISK HAD A NARROW ESCAPE

Faced with the alternative of crashing through the lowered gate at the Pennsylvania Railroad crossing at Peddie street and Frelinghuysen avenue, Newark, or striking an electric light pole late Thursday night, Pliny Fisk, senior partner of Harvey Fisk & Sons, the New York banking house, which financed the construction of the Hudson-Manhattan tubes, chose the latter. His machine was damaged, but he and the other occupants of the car escaped injury.

Mr. Fisk was driving. No gates were on the gates and he did not see them, he said, until he was scarcely a foot away, owing to the darkness caused by the storm. He swerved to one side, running into the pole.

Gustav Ruhe, of 122 Fourth street, Union Hill, had the same experience shortly after 10 o'clock. He broke through the gates with his car, narrowly missing the end of a passing freight train. He and a friend, George Schmidt, of 543 North avenue, Jersey City, received cuts over their left eyes.

The MATHUSHEK IDEAL

Our ideal has ever been to make the best Pianos our skill and musicianship could produce.
To the creation of such an instrument we have dedicated all the knowledge and artisanship we have acquired during our sixty years of experience in actual Piano building.
Artistic achievement has been our guide and inspiration; price with us has always been a secondary consideration.

WE MEASURE OUR SUCCESS BY THE DEGREE OF QUALITY PERFECTION ATTAINED

"The first scientific attempt to perfect the pinblock problem and provide a thoroughly mechanical means for holding the tuning pins up to their work was made about a third of a century ago, by the Mathushek Company. They realized that the only satisfactory way to take the combined pull of all the strings was to transmit it as quickly as possible to a metal frame or plate of specially stiff construction."
No heavy vertical posts are required under our improved system; and this method of construction makes a solid and permanent support for the tuning pins at the point where the strings draw, resulting in about one-fourth the leverage found in other makes, while there is three times the hold, thereby greatly increasing the standing-in-tune quality.

Only Piano Salesrooms in Plainfield that sell direct from Factory to Purchaser. No Middlemen's Prices.

The Player Piano With the Human Touch

Mathushek Player Pianos have no superior, they require no musical or mechanical knowledge to enable the performer to render all music in the most artistic manner. All that is required is explained in the simple directions for operating the expression devices.

CONTRIBUTORS TO DEFENSE LEAGUE

Subscriptions Still Needed to Bring Amount Up to Requirements

The Home Defense League still requires contributions to bring the amount up to $6,000, which is the estimated sum needed to equip and drill 150 men and to assist the High School Cadets.

Other cities such as East Orange and Montclair have quickly raised larger amounts by voluntary subscriptions. Contributions have been generous so far, and, if the general public will send in small amounts of $1 or $2, or even less, the full sum will be obtained without burden. There should be a much larger list of names of contributors.

If you have not already subscribed send in your contribution to the Plainfield Trust Company. Amounts are not published, but the names of the contributors will be daily given.

Here's a Good Night-Cap For Croupy Children

Foley's Honey and Tar Masters Croup Quickly and Clears the Throat of Choking Phlegm.

More dreaded than an alarm of fire by night is the hoarse brassy cough of croup to the nervous mother who fears this terror of childhood.

"Oh, but that Foley's Honey and Tar is a wonderful thing for croup. Thank Heaven I had it on hand."
Weiss' Boro Drug Store.

Why worry, why dread the approach of nightfall, when a few timely doses of Foley's Honey and Tar will ward off the approach of croup and clear the throat of choking phlegm.

It stops the gasping strangling fight for breath and allows peaceful breathing and quiet sleep. Do not think this too good to be true, but get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it will give you confidence to face nightfall without the fear of croup. Mrs. Ben Meyerink, Clymer, N. Y. says: "Our little girl would surely have had croup but Foley's Honey and Tar stopped it at once." 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes. Every user is a friend.

WILL ALLOW FULL USE OF HIS LAND

D. T. Kenney Urges Intensive Gardening Program as Solution of Food Problem

For the purpose of encouraging intensive gardening during the coming summer, David T. Kenney, president of the Chamber of Commerce, announced this morning that he is willing to allow the use of a large portion of land owned by him on Mountain avenue, near Scotch Plains, for gardening purposes.

Mr. Kennedy has already given permission to citizens of North Plainfield to cultivate a large plot of ground belonging to him in Grove street. He wants none of the produce raised by those who accept his offer, and will gladly allot such space as may be required to any individual who will cultivate it.

Mr. Kenney stated this morning that the owners of vacant property everywhere should allow it to be used by persons who will plant vegetables.

"The food problem is one that will require the activity of every citizen in its solution, and the only way to solve it is to raise more food and be a little more careful in avoiding waste," he said.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

The State Constabulary

Editor Courier-News:

In answer to Mr. Brokholst Miller's statement that my premises and conclusions are improper in regard to the value to the people of New Jersey of a State constabulary, I would say that my premises are not based upon a comparison of an industriously peaceful State with one noted for disorder, nor upon the wide unsettled spaces of Texas or Canada or even Australia or Africa, the last two of which Mr. Brokholst Miller failed to cite, but upon a pretty general knowledge of conditions existing in our State, gained through the opportunity which is given to those who have been in State service.

My conclusions are based upon a thorough familiarity through personal service with an organization and direction of a local volunteer police, which has proven equally efficient in dealing with drunk or gunman or with organized disorder.

I do not draw them from two exceptional incidents, one of which was fairly well handled, which stand out of generations, I may say, of general quietude.

I call Mr. Miller's attention to the fact that every organization is more or less political.

I still am firmly of the opinion that there is no economic or political need for such an organization in which opinion the Legislature of the State seems to have concurred.

WM. DELAROCHE ANDERSON.

Appreciates Mr. Tracy's Letter

The Editor Plainfield Courier-News:

This, in appreciation and thanks for the courtesy of, and information contained, in Howard C. Tracy's reply.

It was [illegible] to believe that the women of our country were today, mothers of sons, whose only claim to the title of men, lay in the mere fact that they were "the mate of the species."

No distinctive title or patent of nobility, conferred on, or inherited by, any male member of the human family, living or dead, reaches in height of honor or pride, the tribute paid, when to a name is added the words, "He is, or was, a man." And to a mother's eyes and heart there comes a when, to son of hers, that rare title is given—that joy, light and happiness, which is God's benediction and compensation for the pain endured, and heart-long hours of unwearied watchfulness and loving care.

A mother's heart is a mansion of refuge, and its doors of forgiveness are always open to her man-child, for, every crime he may have committed, no matter how grave, with but one exception, the crime of "cowardice in the face of danger." That is the one supreme insult to her love and pride, that a mother's heart cannot condone or forgive.

Mr. Tracy's answer is proof conclusive that the mothers of the men of Plainfield can, with heads erect, and faces unashamed take their place in the spirit-ranks of the mothers of a long past yesterday, and watch, with brimming eyes, their sons who are proudly

Marching away down the path of years
In the silent ranks of the volunteers.

CAN HELP PRODUCE FOOD SUPPLY

Those Unfit for Military Service May Aid by Working Farms

Believing that those who cannot enlist in the military service should help to supply the food which the army will consume, former Assemblyman William Dellaroche Anderson has written a letter to Governor Edge, asking him to give men and women of the State not available for military service an opportunity to serve somewhat and that the farm be designated as the place where they can do the most good.

Mr. Anderson's letter follows:

"Our country's immediate part in the war will be to supply the man behind the gun. Men in the commissariat will share in the victory for peace and liberty equally with the men in the trenches; they will be in the service of their country whether in the factory or on the farm. The efficiency of the soldier is only equal to the efficiency of the farmer.

"We have taken steps to mobilize our industrial forces, our transportation facilities, our military forces and the many other various branches, but we have not as yet undertaken a most important step—the mobilization of the efficiency of the farm.

"Thousands of men and women in the State who are not fitted to serve on the front line seek to serve somewhere. The supply of farm labor has been for the past two years entirely insufficient and the present outlook is for a still greater shortage. This condition militates against the military interests of our country and its general welfare. As we are approaching the season of the year in which efficient work upon the farm is a national military necessity, and also the season of the year which those engaged in sedentary occupations devote to physical activity, may I respectfully suggest that a call to the colors be issued for voluntary service in the department of the commissary, which service would fulfill the three-fold purpose of needed change and outing, increased food supply and the service of the country in its military organization.

"I feel that men and women are available and willing if such a call is made under some well-conceived plan."

MRS. A. E. DAYTON DIED THIS MORNING

Mrs. A. E. Dayton, of Glen Cove, L. I., who had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. O. Duncan, of West Third street, was taken seriously ill yesterday and removed to Muhlenberg Hospital, where she died this morning. Besides her daughter, she leaves three sons.

Mrs. Dayton was about 52 years of age.

THEIR COUNTRY NEEDS THEM

Numerous young collegians, among them twenty from Cornell, are contemplating sailing for France as ambulance drivers in the Red Cross. Doubtless many of them long since entered into engagements for this service to which they feel themselves morally bound. But the day of universal service is at hand, and their first duty is to their country, now at war. Any further expedition should be halted until these youths may put themselves into touch with the constituted authorities to determine whether they are more needed for military purposes in their own land. Most, if not all of them, are men who would come under the provisions of the administration's compulsory service bill; that measure is not yet law, but they should not now think of leaving the United States without express Governmental sanction. They may serve humanity better in the armed forces of their native land.—Newark Evening News.

NEED MORE FOR JEWISH RELIEF

The $10,000 Expected to be Raised Here Has Not Been Provided

Although there have been many generous contributions to the Jewish war sufferers' relief fund Judge Newcorn stated this morning that the $10,000 which it was expected could be raised here has not been raised and that there are many Jews who must loosen their purse strings or stand accused of being unwilling to aid their co-religionists in the war zone.

"One of the contributions I received yesterday," said Judge Newcorn, "was sent anonymously and was signed 'Soldier's Widow.' The donor enclosed $1 with a fine expression of sympathy and the further statement that she could give no more. I value that contribution more than any we have received from men who have a liberal supply of the world's goods, for the charitable impulse that prompted the giver displays traits of character which indicate a sense of the responsibility that those who have must assume and give to those who are in want.

"The circumstances confronting the Jewish war sufferers are more harrowing than we can fully realize. I know that Plainfield has been obliged to give to many causes and has done so willingly, but $10,000 for Jewish relief must be raised here, and it is up to the Jews themselves to display a more generous spirit. I do not mean this statement to apply to all Jews, but only to those who apparently have concealed their money while the sufferers cry out for assistance.

WHEN PONCE DE LEON DISCOVERED FLORIDA

Tomorrow is the 404th anniversary of the discovery of Florida.

Sunday, April 8, 1513, Ponce de Leon discovered Florida, landing near what is now the site of St. Augustine. His name is still perpetuated in the names of some of the hotels. It was Easter Sunday, the same as this date in this year, and de Leon finding a land of flowers, combined the name of Easter, in Spanish, with "Florida" the word for "flowers," and called the land, Pascua de Florida or "Easter Flowers."

A CHECK ON MARRIAGES

Married in haste to repent at leisure is an old saying that is to become obsolete under the Moore bill just signed by Governor Edge. It requires not only a marriage license, but couples coming from out of the State to be married in New Jersey must wait twenty-four hours after the license is issued. This cuts off a thriving business conducted by "marriage runners" who have for years advertised to perform marriages secretly. It checks marriages that are the results of sudden impulses, misguided judgment and the recklessness of youth. It also holds up the minister who thinks more of the appeal of a sentimental couple to marry them than of the consequences of tying two together for weal or woe without knowing whether he is to be accounted responsible for more weal or more woe in the match. If there is no objection to a marriage there is no need for secrecy or haste, and if there is a valid objection there certainly should be no secrecy nor haste in performing the ceremony. Some runaway matches turn out to be happy in spite of all objections raised to them, but many divorces soon after marriage are of parties who married in haste to repent at leisure. The best that we have in life sometimes comes slowly and the ideal marriage may be considered no exception to this.

AMERICAN EFFICIENCY

Since the day when the German military machine started on its march through Belgium, the world has resounded with praise for Teutonic efficiency. The thoroughness of the preparation for war in the German Empire under Prussia's leadership was held up as a model for other peoples. This efficiency, covering all branches of economic endeavor was the result of years of intense and systematic preparation. Its one aim was war and the wonderful economic development which made Hamburg and Bremen, the great free ports, hives of industry was, while apparently peaceful in its motive, ultimately designed for expansion by arms. Yet, without a blare of trumpets, machinery which eventually will be fully as efficient has been moving in America. Beginning with the farms east and west of the Alleghenies, where food for millions, not only for Americans, but those in other lands has been produced, and in the cotton fields of the South and in the factories everywhere from the Atlantic to the Pacific, a vast industrial host working for peaceful ends is now entering upon a period of activity. Talk of war has shown demonstration of American efficiency.

UTILIZATION OF LAND

With our vast spaces of tillable soil, the American people have looked at small tracts of land as negligible. Now they are seeing the results in the high price of farms and shortage of food supply. Berea college of Kentucky has a good idea, in its proposition to develop farming on mountain lands in that vicinity. Not more than a fourth of the land can be tilled, but even that is important. Over in Europe, on steep hillsides, every foot is made available by use of terraces. Consequently populations are supported over there that would starve here on ten times the area. In many sections of our country, where land has been regarded as nearly worthless, there are plenty of tracts that could be made available. In hilly regions the trouble is usually the lack of energy of the inhabitants. In arid and marshy districts, it is usually lack of capital for irrigation and drainage. Millions of money that go into wildcat projects should be spent in improving lands. The food producing resources of the United States are scarcely more than scratched.

THE AMERICAN SPIRIT

After all has been said, there is no more imposing demonstration of the unity of a people anywhere than can be seen in this country. Whether it be for defense or offense, American farmers, machinists, engineers and chemists can produce more useful things than those of any other nation. Great factories engaged in peace-time occupations can be soon adjusted to the manufacturing of war supplies of every description at a moment's notice. Pessimists who have deplored the decadence of the old American spirit have no place in the economy of things at this time. History has shown the wonderful adaptability of the American people and there is no reason to believe that when the emergency comes it will be lacking.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Under the Senatorial courtesy rules a Senator can go to sleep when his colleagues are speaking about the good of the country, but not when they come around and want an appointment made.

It is considered that people who live extravagantly should pay high taxes, as they show that they have plenty of money, and that people who live frugally should pay high taxes, as their economy must have allowed them to save a lot with which to pay.

It is not true that people go to the swell health resorts merely to show their new clothes, as they spend part of the time seeing what other people wear.

The modern Congressman returns to his constituents proudly boasting that by filibustering he has been able to prevent some one else from doing anything.

If the foreign plotters were as successful in their machinations as they are in shedding money from their home Governments the United States would be in very serious peril.

It is claimed that potatoes are not necessary for diet, as they are 78 per cent. water, but that line of argument never diminished the demand for railroad stock.

The list of unclaimed baggage for the week includes the Czar of Russia. Several more European kings should be also included.

The principal interest of many women in gardening nowadays is in getting the artificial flowers for their spring hats.

Spelling contests are being held in many places, but it is not reported that any college students took prizes.

The man and the job can be brought together without any loss of time or money, except the trifle for a classified ad in the newspaper.

There is nothing new about the barrel skirt. Most of the boys have worn them when they came out from the swimming holes to find that their clothes were stolen.

Filibustering is, of course, very bad, but it is perfectly legitimate for the pitcher to delay the game so darkness can be called while the home team is still ahead.

It looks as if hunting submarines would be as popular a sport before the season is over as shooting quails during the deer season.

The face covering you see almost any time now is not one of the asphyxiating gas masks, merely the new motor veils.

After considering the course of the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee the country says it asked for bread, but was given a Stone.

The barrel skirt is the greatest triumph yet achieved in the persistent effort of women to "uglify" themselves.

The popular theory of saving money on battleships is bursting over a 5 per cent. balance in favor and paying 25 per cent. more the next year.

As eggs come down in price, there is a growing feeling that one gets awfully tired of them anyway.

The farmer who is now driving down the road 30 miles an hour in his new car, is the same one who used to shout "Whoa," whenever the old horse did a mile in 10 minutes.

LAWYERS IN PARKER CASE CONTEST FEES

Application for counsel fees in the Mary Van Orden Parker estate of Oak Tree, was made in the Orphans' Court at New Brunswick on Thursday before Judge Daly, but as the counsel on opposing sides were so far apart in their estimates, the Court continued the matter for 10 days, directing that unless a compromise is agreed upon by the lawyers, they shall file briefs.

Edward F. Clark, chief counsel for Howard Van Orden and Florence Cochrane, the caveators, asked for $1,000 for himself, Roger Hinds and Thomas H. Hagerty, associate counsel, while Senator Thomas McCran, chief counsel for the will, asked $8,000 for the work of himself and associates, including Francis J. Blatz, of this city.

Mr. Clark held that counsel for the will, which was upset by a recent decision given by Judge Daly, should not be allowed any counsel fees from the estate of Mrs. Parker. An appeal from Judge Daly's decision on the will contest is considered likely, this depending upon Victor J. Merrill, the proponent of the will.

GERMAN COMMITTEE VISITS EDGE

Carl Lentz, of Newark, with Dr. M. P. E. Grossmann, of this city, headed a delegation of Newark Germans, who called upon Governor Edge at Trenton on Thursday, and requested him to appoint a State Committee of German blood as a part of the Home Guard in the present crisis with Germany. In this manner the Newark German-Americans testified to their desire to serve the United States and their State.

"You know how the Germans of Newark supported you for Governor," Major Lentz concluded.

"That shows they had good judgment," replied Governor Edge, smiling.

It was decided that the committee should send the names of Germans who would serve to Governor Edge, who will refer them to the Home Guard headquarters of their respective towns. In replying to Major Lentz, Governor Edge said he had never questioned the loyalty of the citizens of German birth.

"To me they were not German-Americans, but American-Germans," he declared. Then to the Major, with his one arm, he said: "Your armless sleeve testifies eloquently to your loyalty."

"SIGHT-SEERS" MONDAY AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Will J. Kennedy with Sightseers Company at the Plainfield Theatre Monday, matinee and night

"Hutch" Cooper announces "The Sightseers" coming to the Plainfield Theatre, Monday, April 9, and it is said to be one of the distinct successes of the season, and concerning which enough has been said and written to carry conviction of genuine worth in every feature of the performance.

Among the personnel of the presenting company are Will J. Kennedy, Jack Miller, Harry P. Kelly, Bobby Van Horn, The Carnival Four, Katherine Dickey, Flo Davis, Kitty Forsythe, and Lottie Blackford, whose work is supplemented by a lavish sartorial equipment which is said to be without a parallel in recent productions of this character.

"The Sightseers" is the work of Raymond B. Perez, a humorous writer of distinction, with music by Billy K. Wells, who is responsible for many lyrics. These two names carry conviction of merit of an unusually high order.

John W. Bate's Car—No. 19

Two Sizes—Many New Attractions. Hundreds of Extra Values

The Mitchell we now show—in two sizes—is the 19th model built by John W. Bate. With all his extras—all his 700 improvements

We invite you here to see the new Mitchell—John W. Bate's latest car.

It now comes in two sizes, at two prices—120 and 127-inch wheelbase.

It embodies the cumulative results of his 14 years on Mitchells.

It shows the amazing extra values which factory efficiency can give.

It has all of his extras—100 per cent over-strength, 31 unique features, 24 per cent added luxury.

These cars will surprise you by their completeness, and the value they give for the money.

No Similar Cars

No other car, in many respects, even resembles the Mitchell.

This mammoth factory was designed and equipped for building this single type. Every machine and method aims to build it economically.

All this work has been done under John W. Bate, the famous efficiency expert. It has cut our factory cost in two. It has enabled us to build an extra-grade car for less than anyone else in the world.

The savings show in extra strength, in extra features, in extra luxury and beauty. We ask you to see the result.

31 Unique Features

The latest Mitchell has 31 extras, which nearly all cars omit. Things like a power tire pump, dashboard engine primer, reversible headlights, new-type control.

Come see them. No car then will seem complete without them.

It has many added luxuries and beauties. We have this year added 24 per cent to the cost of finish, upholstery and trimming. That is all paid for by savings in our new body plant.

See these new-style bodies—all Mitchell-designed. See how we finish and equip them. There are no others like them.

100% Over-Strength

In these new Mitchells, every vital part is twice as strong as need be. Our margin of safety—once 50 per cent—has been doubled lately, to give you a lifetime car.

TWO SIZES

Mitchell—a roomy, 7-passenger Six, with 127-inch wheelbase and a highly-developed 48-horsepower motor.
Price $1460, f. o. b. Racine

Mitchell Junior—a 5-passenger Six on similar lines, with 120-inch wheelbase and a 40-horsepower motor—¼-inch smaller bore.
Price $1150, f. o. b. Racine

Also six styles of enclosed and convertible bodies. Also new Club Roadster

Over 440 parts are built of toughened steel. All important parts are oversize. Parts which get a major strain are built of Chrome-Vanadium. Gears are tested for 50,000 pounds per tooth. The springs—Bate cantilevers—have never yet been broken. Not a single one. Yet they make the Mitchell ride like an aeroplane.

These Bate-built Mitchells—numbers of them—have run over 200,000 miles. About 40 years of ordinary service.

Costs Us $4,000,000

The Mitchell extras, on this year's output, will cost us $4,000,000. They would be impossible in cars at these prices without our factory efficiency.

They are things which others do not offer. Things they cannot offer at our prices until they use Bate methods. See what they mean to you.

Also Mitchell Junior

Men content with a 5-passenger car will this year find Mitchell Junior. A roomy car—120-inch wheelbase. A powerful car—40 horsepower. And the price is $1150, f. o. b. Racine.

So you can now get the size you want, and the price you want, in Mitchells. Come and see both sizes.

She is supported by a cast of well-known players, the featured member of which is Wilton Lackaye, who is also a stellar artist, well and favorably known to all lovers of the drama. The other members of the notable company supporting Miss Bates are Charles Hammond, Thomas J. McGrath, Charles Butler, Louis Mackinton, Janet Travers, Jeffreys Lewis, J. H. Barney, Ford Fenimore, Maria Ascaraga, Sallie Bergman, George Shelton, Henri Virey and Albert Prisco. Miss Bates' manager, T. H. Hunter, Inc., have provided an elaborate production for "Eleven P. "JOAN THE WOMAN" AT PROCTOR'S APRIL 16-17-18

"Joan the Woman," the most discussed cinema production of the day, will have its initial showing at Proctor's Theatre on April 16-17-18 with Geraldine Farrar, the opera star in the role of the immortal maid of Orleans.

The music is so perfectly timed to the action of the play, so unobtrusive and in such fine accord with the theme the screen is unfolding before the eye that one can only view it as an integral part of the great production.

It takes a real orchestra to play this music and a real orchestra will play it during the engagement of "Joan the Woman" in this city.

NEWARK AMUSEMENTS

Broad Street Theatre

"The Blue Paradise" With Cecil Lean at the Broad Street Theatre, Newark

"The Blue Paradise," with Cecil Lean and the original company which occupied the stage of the Casino, New York, for one solid year and which is the most phenomenally successful musical piece of the time, will play a week's engagement at the Broad Street Theatre, Newark, week beginning Monday, April 9th. "The Blue Paradise" after its year's run at the Casino moved to Chicago, and occupied the stage of the Chicago Theatre for four months, and is now completing a long run at the Shubert Theatre, Boston. It also played a record engagement in Philadelphia. Mr. Lean will be supported by the same company that was seen with him at the Casino.

Much of the success of "The Blue Paradise" is due, doubtless, to its fresh and appealing story and the effective manner in which mirth and melody, fun and pathos have been harmoniously combined. The tuneful songs with which its brilliant score abounds are now popular in every nook and corner of the land which boasts of a cafe orchestra, a piano and a phonograph. "Auf Wiedersehn," one of the vocal gems of "The Blue Paradise" swept the country like wildfire.

WHOLE NATION ON WAR FOOTING

Wilson Strikes First Blows at Germany.

SHIPS AND SPIES SEIZED.

Navy Mobilized and Reserves and Naval Militia Called to Colors—Call For Volunteers to Fill Regular Army and National Guard to War Strength Issued, With Conscription For 1,500,000 More Men Planned.

Washington, April 7.—With the United States formally at war with the imperial German government, President Wilson, commander in chief of the armies and navies of the United States, has ordered the full power of the nation launched against the enemy.

Immediately after the president signed the joint resolution of congress formally recognizing the existence of a state of war orders for the beginning of the conflict went forth. The naval, military and civil forces of the government were placed on a war footing, and the nation began the fateful conflict which may last for years.

Defense against the enemy without and within was organized at once. The president and his cabinet at their last war meeting went over plans of a magnitude such as the United States in all its history has never known. Within a few brief hours after the president had affixed his name to the law which sends the United States hurtling into the maelstrom of strife which for three years has swirled about Europe the following steps had been taken:

The nations of the world, including Germany, were formally notified of the formal recognition by the United States of a state of war with the imperial German government.

Navy Is Mobilized.

The grand fleet of the navy, with all its auxiliaries, was informed of the existence of a state of war, and its full war ships and nearly 100,000 men were ordered mobilized at once for war service.

The president called for volunteers to bring the regular army and the national guard up to full war strength and indorsed the war department bill now before congress prescribing a selective draft to secure 500,000 men at once and additional increments of the same size, as they are needed. All enlistments will be for the "period of the emergency."

By proclamation the president notified the nation of the existence of a state of war and issued drastic regulations to govern the conduct of enemy aliens who continue to reside in the United States during the war.

The arrest of sixty-five enemy aliens under the regulations was ordered at once by Attorney General Gregory, and a number of justice agents through out the country immediately began to gather them in.

The senate passed an appropriation of $3,000,000 to be placed at the disposal of the president for immediate war purposes and congress committees began the whirlwind consideration of a mass of war legislation.

The president and his cabinet reviewed the plans worked out by the navy department for getting co-operation between the navy of the United States and the entente navies.

The cabinet meeting likewise went over in detail the problem of supplying the civil population and keeping the nation's industries intact during the period of the war.

The executive departments completed the seizure of all German ships now tossed in American ports, which was begun at once after the senate and representatives passed the war resolution.

Co-operating With Allied Fleets.

The navy department and the navy heads of the entente powers have already worked out a definite scheme of co-operation for naval operations which will undoubtedly be put into effect soon.

The problem of extending financial assistance to the allies will not be decided until the federal reserve board and Secretary McAdoo of the treasury have worked out the complete plan of war finance which will take care of the enormous war budget of more than $3,500,000,000, already submitted to congress, as well as provide means for extending monetary support to the entente.

Mobilization orders to every unit in the naval service were dispatched by Secretary of the Navy Daniels at the president's direction a few moments after the memorable first war cabinet meeting at the White House. The orders brought out every ship in the reserve fleet, all the naval reserves and the naval militia of the states. The naval reserves and naval militia within a few hours will be mustered into the federal service. The big fleet and other active units of the navy have for some time been mobilized at strategic points which are already in service, ready to strike at the president's word.

Cuts Munitions Profits.

The naval strength was further augmented by the addition of forty modern vessels of the United States revenue cutter service, which will immediately become a part of the naval arm the moment war is actually begun. Twenty of the coast guard cutters are built for speed and armed with six-inch guns. They are in up to date fighting condition and will be used to hunt down and destroy German submarines. Twenty other vessels of this service will be pressed into service for harbor defense and patrol purposes.

President Wilson also signed more than $2,000,000 for the government today when, acting under power granted by congress to fix a reasonable price for war supplies, he exercised that power under the navy's guidance for the first time. The president reduced the quotation of E. W. Bliss & Co. of Brooklyn for a large quantity of No. 8 torpedoes from $9,194 each to $7,922 each. On No. 10 torpedoes the price quoted was $7,846, but this was cut down to $6,140. The saving amounted to exactly $2,193,656. The Bliss company promptly assured the navy department it would gladly comply with the president's wishes and give the contracts priority over all others.

Congress Takes Vacation.

Both houses of congress have adjourned over until Monday, so that their committees may be free for preliminary work on war legislation.

Word that King George and President Poincare had dispatched messages of congratulation to the president was received unofficially.

It was announced that the government will close all wireless stations except those required for its own official use.

The principal steel manufacturers of the country, led by the United States Steel corporation, agreed to furnish steel to the government at the prices of 1916, which means a saving of $250 a section on naval contracts already in hand.

By a special proclamation German corporations doing business in the United States were required, to continue doing business and prohibited from attempting to transfer away their assets.

WALTER R. DARBY GETS STATE JOB

Trenton, April 7.—State Treasurer Read yesterday announced the appointment of Walter R. Darby, treasurer of Westfield, Union county, as State Commissioner of Municipal Accounts, under one of the Pierson municipal finance laws, just enacted by the legislature. The term is three years, and the salary $3,500.

Mr. Darby was associated with Assemblyman Pierson, of Union, in the preparation of the municipal finance bills, and is familiar with the duties that will be required in the new office.

He will supervise municipal sinking fund requirements, receive and consider the annual financial statements required from all municipalities under another act of the Pierson series; record bond issues and in general oversee municipal finances in order that they may comply with the new laws.

SIX MONTHS IN JAIL FOR INSULTING FLAG

Trenton, April 7.—Accused of spitting on the American flag, Phillip Madino, one of the Madeira employes, and boss for the Pennsylvania Railroad, was sentenced today to serve six months in the Mercer county workhouses by Judge Gerashty in the First Precinct police court. A technical charge of disorderly conduct was preferred against Madino by Captain Cullifen. While in a saloon in the eastern section of the city yesterday Madino aroused the ire of some of the occupants by spitting on the flag. It was alleged. Later he picked him up on the sidewalk, having been thrown through one of the windows by several present.

MUST STAMP WINES BY MAY 1

Notification to all wholesale liquor and wine dealers in this vicinity to have revenue stamps affixed to all wines not in bonded warehouses by May 1 has been sent out by Charles W. Duffy, collector of the revenue office in Newark. Wines in unbonded establishments without the tax stamps will be confiscated after that date.

The order is based on a law passed September 8 of last year which authorized the establishment of bonded warehouses for wines on which taxes had not been paid and which provided that such tax be paid when the wines were removed from bond.

WILSON WARNS ENEMY ALIENS

Announces Penalties for Plotters Against U. S.

HINTS AT INTERNMENT SOON.

All Must Register Themselves if So Ordered and Can Be Detained Within Specified Zones—Forbidden to Have Weapons, Use Wireless or Go Within Certain Distances of Forts, Armories or Military Stations, Federal or State.

Washington, April 7.—Drastic provisions against spies and regulations for the conduct of all enemy aliens in this country are contained in the president's proclamation of a state of war. It reads as follows:

Whereas, the congress of the United States in the exercise of the constitutional authority vested in them have resolved by joint resolution of the senate and house of representatives bearing date this day "that a state of war between the United States and the imperial German government, which has been thrust upon the United States, is hereby formally declared."

Whereas, it is provided by section 4067 of the revised statutes as follows:

"Whenever there is declared a war between the United States and any foreign nation or government or any invasion or predatory incursion is perpetrated, attempted or threatened against the territory of the United States by any foreign nation or government and the president shall make public proclamation of the event all natives, citizens, denizens or subjects of a hostile nation or government being male of the age of fourteen years and upward who shall be within the United States and not actually naturalized shall be liable to be apprehended, restrained, secured and removed as alien enemies."

State of War Exists.

The president is authorized in any such event by his proclamation thereof or other public notice to direct the conduct to be observed on the part of the United States toward the aliens who become so liable, the manner and degree of the restraint in which they shall be subject and in what case and upon what security their restrictions shall be permitted and to provide for the removal of those who not being permitted to reside within the United States refuse or neglect to depart therefrom and to establish any such regulations which are found necessary in the premises and for the public safety.

Whereas, by sections 4068, 4069 and 4070 of the revised statutes further provision is made relative to alien enemies.

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim to all whom it may concern that a state of war exists between the United States and the imperial German government, and I do specially direct all officers, civil or military, of the United States that they exercise vigilance and zeal in the discharge of the duties incident to such a state of war, and I do moreover, earnestly appeal to all American citizens that they in loyal devotion to their country, dedicated from its foundation to the principles of liberty and justice, uphold the laws of the land and give undivided and willing support to those measures which may be adopted by the constitutional authorities in prosecuting the war to a successful issue and in obtaining a secure and just peace.

What Aliens Must Do.

And, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the constitution of the United States and the said sections of the revised statutes—

I do hereby further proclaim and direct that the conduct to be observed on the part of the United States toward all natives, citizens, denizens or subjects of any nation or government being male of the age of fourteen years and upward who shall be within the United States and not actually naturalized, who for the purpose of this proclamation and under such sections of the revised statutes are termed alien enemies, shall be as follows:

All alien enemies are enjoined to preserve the peace toward the United States and to refrain from crime against the public safety and from violating the laws of the United States and of the states and territories thereof and to refrain from actual hostility or giving information, aid or comfort to the enemies of the United States and will comply strictly with the regulations which are hereby promulgated or which may be from time to time promulgated by the president, and failing so they shall conduct themselves in accordance with law they shall be undisturbed in the peaceful pursuit of their lives and occupations and be accorded the consideration due to all peaceful and law abiding persons, except so far as restrictions may be necessary for their own protection and for the safety of the United States, and toward such alien enemies as conduct themselves in accordance with law all citizens of the United States are enjoined to preserve the peace and to treat them with such friendliness as may be compatible with loyalty and allegiance to the United States.

And all alien enemies who fail to conduct themselves as we enjoined in addition to all other penalties prescribed by law, shall be liable to restraint or to give security or to remove and depart from the United States in the manner prescribed by sections 4069 and 4070 of the revised statutes and as prescribed in the regulations duly promulgated by the president.

And pursuant to the authority vested in me I hereby declare and establish the following regulations, which I find necessary in the premises and for the public safety:

First—An alien enemy shall not have in his possession at any time or place any explosives, weapons or implements of war or weapons or component parts thereof, ammunition, firearm or other silencer, arms or explosives or material used in the manufacture of explosives.

Warned From Fortifications.

Second—No alien enemy shall not have in his possession at any time or place or use or operate any aircraft or wireless apparatus or any form of signaling device or any form of fisher code or any paper, document or book written or printed in cipher or in which there may be invisible writing.

Third—All property found in the possession of an alien enemy in violation of the foregoing regulations shall be subject to seizure by any officer of the army, marshal, aircraft station, government or naval vessel, navy yard, factory or workshop for the use of the United States in the war or of any products for the use of the army and navy.

Fourth—An alien enemy shall not write, print or publish any attack or threat against the government or congress of the United States or either branch thereof or against the measures or policy of the United States or against the persons or property of any person in the military, naval or civil service of the United States or of the states or territories or of the District of Columbia or of the municipal governments therein.

Sixth—An alien enemy shall not commit or abet any hostile act against the United States or give information, aid or comfort to its enemies.

Seventh—No alien enemy shall not reside in or continue to reside in, to remain in or enter any locality which the president may from time to time designate by an executive order as a prohibitive area in which residence by an alien enemy shall be found by him to constitute a danger to the public peace and safety of the United States except by permit from the president and except under such limitations or restrictions as the president may prescribe.

May Be Interned.

Eighth—An alien enemy whom the president shall have reasonable cause to believe to be aiding or about to aid the enemy or to be at large to the danger of the public peace or safety of the United States or to have violated or to be about to violate any of these regulations shall be removed to any location designated by the president by executive order and shall not remove therefrom without permit or shall depart from the United States if so required by the president.

Ninth—No alien enemy shall depart from the United States until he shall have received such permit as the president shall prescribe or except under order of a court, judge or justice under sections 4083 and 4076 of the revised statutes.

Tenth—No alien enemy shall land in or enter the United States except under such restrictions and at such places as the president may prescribe.

Eleventh—If necessary to prevent violation of the regulations all alien enemies will be obliged to register.

Twelfth—An alien enemy whom there may be reasonable cause to believe to be aiding or about to aid the enemy or who be at large to the danger of the public peace or safety or who violates or who attempts to violate or of whom there is reasonable ground to believe that he is about to violate any regulation to be promulgated by the president or any criminal law of the United States or of the several or territories thereof will be subject to summary arrest by the United States, by the United States marshal or his deputy or such other officers as the president shall designate and to confinement in such penitentiary, prison jail, military camp or other place of detention as may be directed by the president.

The proclamation and the regulations herein contained shall extend and apply to all insular, continental or territorial, or in any way within the jurisdiction of the United States. WOODROW WILSON.

FOR WAR BAN ON LIQUOR.

Vermont House Passes Bill—Suffrage Measure Sent Back.

Montpelier, Vt., April 7.—The lower branch of the legislature has passed a bill prohibiting the sale of liquor in bottles while the country is at war or threatened with war. The vote was 83 to 79.

Women are given the right to vote for presidential electors under a bill passed by the senate. The measure already has been approved by the house, with a provision for a referendum. The referendum clause was stricken out by the senate, and the bill returned to the house.

BRYAN WOULD BE PRIVATE.

Volunteers War Services to President in Any Capacity.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 7.—Former Secretary of State Bryan has sent this message to President Wilson:

Believing it to be the duty of each citizen to share the burden of the war and his share of its perils, I hereby tender my services to the government. Please enroll me as a private whenever I am needed. Assign to me any work that I can do until called to the colors.

I shall, through the Red Cross, contribute to the comfort of soldiers in the hospital and through the Young Men's Christian association aid in guarding the morals of the men in camp.

ATTORNEY GEN. GREGORY.

He Advises Enemy Aliens Here How to Be Good.

Attorney General Gregory's seven word warning to enemy aliens in this country is the first epigram of the war since the United States entered it. It is in these seven words: "Obey the law, keep your mouth shut."

FRENCH REGAIN LOST POSITIONS

Fierce Battle Raging Near Rheims; New German Drive.

London, April 7.—Violent fighting on eastern and western fronts marks the progress of the war in Europe.

In the west the French made further progress against the lower sector of the Hindenburg line. The British blew up a German mine thrower depot behind the Teuton lines near Arras.

A violent all day battle raged northwest of Rheims, the French in violent counter attacks regaining, they claim, further positions of trenches lost to the Germans. Berlin asserts these counter attacks were repulsed and states the number of prisoners taken in the initial onrush was 843, the booty including four machine guns, ten mine throwers and much ammunition.

In the east the Germans started an offensive movement south of Riga, penetrating the Russian lines near Plantanen, thirteen miles below the big battle front.

In Tuesday's success in Volhynia, when they captured the Toloby bridgehead, on the west bank of the middle Stokhod, the Germans took 9,500 men and 150 officers and captured fifteen field guns and 350 machine guns and mine throwers, Berlin announced. Petrograd had previously admitted serious losses on that front.

The Russians undertook extensive air raids near the Bikowina lines. French aeroplanes raided the Teuton and Bulgarian positions in the Dobrudja. Russian seaplanes, braving a violent anti-aircraft gunfire, attacked the Bosporus, bombarding Turkish fortifications. The Turks sent up fliers to drive the French machines away. One Russian aeroplane emerged victorious from six battles. Although riddled by twenty-eight bullet holes and its motor partly disabled, the aviator defeated all his assailants, three times driving away Turkish machines which tried to approach the Russian squadron.

$5 RELIEVES CONSCIENCE,

Chicago Man Repays Pennsylvania For Stolen Fruit.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 7.—A five dollar bill, and a letter sent by a resident of Chicago were forwarded to the state treasury by the officials of the Norristown State Insane asylum, and the money was put into the conscience fund, while the letter will go into the records.

The Chicago man wrote to the president of the hospital that he wished to return $5, as in his youth he had stolen fruit from the commonwealth. Lately, he said, he had felt the error of his ways and is now glad to make restitution.

The letter closed with a request for forgiveness and an admonition to read some inclosed tracts, "as they may do you people good in some way."

U. S. PROBES STRIKE.

May Arrest Leaders of Union at Memphis, Tenn.

Memphis, Tenn., April 7.—Federal agents have started an investigation of a strike of machinists at the Continental Piston Ring plant here. The strike was called by Theodore Hoeffner, E. A. Shafer, Fred Streiker and Fred Ebert, members of the Machinists' union. The plant has been manufacturing piston rings for aeroplanes used at the government aviation school recently established here and for motorboats being built for submarine chasers.

Arrests may follow if it can be shown that the strike was called with a view to embarrassing the company in filling war orders.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, eat, instead, feet as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous days indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make an effective pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv.

The local fire department was called out last night about half-past ten. The call came by 'phone that the Seeley Paper Mill was burning. Care of the Teeth cannot be too strongly impressed upon the children. This done there need be no fear lest the teeth be neglected in later life.

The Government recognizes the importance of one's having good teeth, and pays particular attention to the teeth of those who would enlist in the army or navy. A would-be recruit is not accepted unless he has at least twenty good teeth in his mouth. The importance of visiting a dentist at least twice a year should not be neglected.

President Menocal, having just put down a revolt in the island republic, now wants to get into the war of the nations. He has called a special session of congress to declare Cuba in a state of war with Germany.

LATIN AMERICA NEXT IN WORLD WAR

Brazil and Cuba Aligned Against Germany.

New York, April 7.—It is among the probabilities that within a month the majority, if not all, the Latin American countries will have entered the war, the majority on the side of the entente allies and on the same grounds as the United States.

Brazil, probably from the opening of the war, has been aroused to intense indignation by the torpedoing of the Brazilian steamer Parana, killing three citizens.

"The situation is most grave; a declaration of war against Germany may be necessary," said Foreign Secretary Mueller.

It was generally expected that Brazil would seize all German ships interned in her harbors and immediately proclaim hostilities against Germany.

There was intense anxiety as to how the situation would be affected by the presence of 500,000 Germans in the Brazilian state of Rio Grande.

Information also indicated that Bolivia would probably follow Brazil in declaring war on Germany.

President Menocal of Cuba has called an extraordinary session of congress and has asked permission to declare war, declaring that the debt Cuba owes to the United States, as well as the principles of justice and humanity, demanded that such action be taken.

SEISMOGRAPHS

The seismograph is an instrument devised to register the nervous shocks suffered by Mother Earth. It is so sensitive that it can sit in Washington and quiver from the impact of an earthquake in Honolulu. Lead pencils are attached to its arms and legs so that their agitation is registered in permanent form, which may be used as evidence against the earthquake if it denies it happened. Whenever a seismograph begins to shiver and shake you can depend on it Mother Earth is having a spasm somewhere in her anatomy. Babies have spasms, too, but they don't need a seismograph to tell you know it—not even at midnight or 3 a. m.

MAHONEY'S PETS TAKE A TUMBLE

Rambler Bowlers Demonstrate What They Can Do In a Pinch

WANTED—Three bowlers to replace a like number on Eagle Second team. Excellent opportunity to become manager. See Jim Mahoney, East Second street and White alley.

While all news of victories, skirmishes, movements of the army and navy, etc., is suppressed in the public prints, last night's struggle between the Ramblers and Eagle Second "somewhere on East Second street" must be published, irrespective of the prevailing edict. This step is taken chiefly because the Ramblers won the series and incidentally knocked over the wood for the highest score of their career. To prevent these facts from reaching the people would be doing the Ramblers an injustice. And, by the way, last night's walloping was not the first handed the Eagles by the Rams.

The Ramblers hit anywhere from 120 to 230, the Eagles scores ranging from 109 to 192. Lead-off Miller did not get going until after the first game, but when he did let out made a good impression on the tally sheet. While his last score was the highest for the Ramblers Taylor beat him out in the averages, with Worrall next. The latter's big score in the final session made up for his modest count in the second. Betzenberger was due for a double century score in the wind-up game, but when the scorer apprised him that he needed four off for 200 he became excited and fell only 2 pins. Hook and Anchor Morris did the best pinning for the defeated crew.

The teams began the series rather poorly and finished in the same manner, the Ramblers, however, winning by a total of 9 pins below 800. The Eagles fared better in the second game and won out by a margin of 49 pins. The result put new life and an over-abundance of confidence in the junior Eagles, and just prior to beginning the deciding game someone, whose voice sounded much like that of Eagle Hook, said: "Let's give 'em 100 pins this time." The remark had the same effect on the Ramblers as a lighted match to the fuse of a bomb. After that the way the Ramblers assaulted the pins was a crime, and the look that Manager Mahoney gave his charges reminded one of the breaking up of a hard winter. Even the little Eagles were startled when the Ramblers finished near the 1,000 mark.

The scores:

HOW THE DOPSTERS LOOK AT IT NOW

Prospects Bright for Giants and White Sox to Win Respective Pennants

Unless the dope fails, unless fate kicks a hole in arithmetic, unless something just as bad happens, the world's series next fall should be a lurid, internecine struggle between the Chicago White Sox and the New York Giants. The fight will be on next Wednesday.

Bringing it down to a final gnat's fur calculation it must be admitted that in spite of the record of the Boston Braves, the Yale football team, Dave Fultz and that other David, the grand dope usually sticks out all over the result in the long run. It is the arithmetical solution of a problem that stands up for all time. The young man who attempts to pick 'em backward usually falls down on the job. Hence it is the intention to record the reasons why the New York Giants and the Chicago White Sox should fight it out for the lang and short ends of a baseball series next fall.

Some one said not long ago that temperament is due to break or make the Giants. It was pointed out that with Benny Kauff, Heinie Zimmerman, Davey Robertson, Charley Herzog and one or two others, a first-class opera troupe in thinklings could be conscripted out of the Giants' ranks. It was declared that if Manager Mathews has been subduing dispositions for a long time and his success with Benny Kauff in ironing the kinks out of that young man will bear more than passing scrutiny.

The Giants will line up with Holke on first base, Herzog on second, Fletcher at shortstop and Zimmerman at third. In the outfield will be George Burns, Benny Kauff and Robertson. Behind the plate McGraw has arrayed Rariden, McCarthy and Gibson. Pitchers will be Schupp, Tesreau, Salled, Anderson, Perritt, Smith and others with reputations. Honus Lobert and a recruit or so will take care of utility duty, while Groh, Thorpe and Red Murray both probably will be retained for outer garden extra work.

There's a line-up that presents one of the most startling rows of swatters ever gathered together under one management in the National League. McCarthy, Kauff, Holke, Robertson, Zimmerman, Fletcher and Herzog are powerful swatters and of the consistent kind. To back this up, the National League's premier southpaws will inhabit the rubber pitching slab. Temperament, viewed from this angle will have little to do with it. It is difficult to see how much such an array of talent could run into a slump depressing enough to take away the punch.

As for the White Sox—It's a longer road. Clarence Rowland has had his chance with virtually the same line-up that he started with this year and no world's series has graced the Comiskey table since Rowland took charge.

Rowland has a great pitching staff provided he can get going. Red Faber should be ready for another fine season; Jim Scott is doing an effective come-back; Eddy Cicotte is due for lots of good days; Joe Benn hasn't been sick this winter and Reb Russell is having luck with his left wing. Mel Wolfgang is a hearty hoaver and Williams will help him out. Rowland can line up Happy Felsch, Joe Jackson and John Collins, a slugging trio, as proof of outfield strength, with Jacques Fournier for pinch duty. Eddie Collins will have a good season. Buck Weaver will be at third base. The weak points are first and shortstop. Much dependence will be placed in Ray Schalk, premier catcher.

BOUND BROOK Y. M. A. TO HAVE BALL TEAM

The South Bound Brook Y. M. A. is to be represented on the field of action again during the 1917 baseball season. Reports coming through O. S. Mathews, manager of the team, give out the information today that the prospects for as fast a team this year as ever will represent the organization on the diamond.

A large number of candidates reported for practice last Saturday afternoon, and another work-out for the men is expected for this afternoon.

Manager Mathews would be pleased to hear from Plainfield managers for dates.

WILL NOT CANCEL SPORTS

New Brunswick, April 7.—It is mistaken patriotism to call off all athletics in the colleges, according to the view of the Rutgers athletic authorities, and as a result it will not interfere with intercollegiate sports there unless teams scheduled to play Rutgers cancel their games.

ELKS TAKE FIRST HONORS FOR THE CITY BOWLING LEAGUE SEASON

Official Final Standing of Circuit Issued This Morning—Imperials Hold Down Second Place—Thursday Night's Scores

The Elks are the winners of the 1916-17 bowling season honors of the City League, according to the final official standing of the circuit's teams made public this morning by Secretary George Howe. Both teams wound up their seasons Thursday evening under the impression that there was a tie for first place honors, and the managers had already started arrangements for the rolling off a series of three games. This, however, is not now necessary, in view of the official figures given out today.

The official standing follows:

	W.	L.	PC
B. P. O. E.	35	19	.648
Imperials	34	20	.630
K. of C.	28	26	.519
T. A. B. S.	11	43	.204

In the concluding series of the season the Elks took two of three from the Tabs—the sandwich and the nightcap tilts. Double century scores were the order of the evening, each of the maple smashers participating, with but a single exception, getting above the 200 mark in at least one contest.

Causbrook touched the highest mark of the evening in his second game when he rolled 211. He remained for O'Keefe of the Tabs, however, to total up the high average, chalking up 193.1. Causbrook was not far behind in this respect, having an average of 190.2. The Elks maintained an average of 916.1.

The scores:

The Imperials took the full measure of the Knights of Columbus in the Thursday evening games, winning the entire set of three games. Some tall bowling was accomplished during the evening in the race for first individual honors in the last spurt. Gates of the Imperials topped off in the honors in this respect, with an average of 197, his team mate coming just one point behind with an average of 196. Taylor of the Knights averaged 194.

The last named pinner, who has been leading the individual pinners practically all season, touched the high mark of 231 and secured two of the five double century scores. The borough pinners had a team average of 901.1.

The scores:

JOE WOOD REINSTATED

Cincinnati, O., April 7.—The National Baseball Commission yesterday granted the request of Pitcher Joe Wood of the Cleveland American League club and restored him to good standing without the inflicting of a penalty.

ORIENT WINS AND LOSES

Orient Lodge of Elizabeth carried off a pair of games in a Masonic League match with Anchor Lodge of this city on the German Lutheran alleys last night, then lost the score sheets. It has been suggested that application be made on T. Roosevelt for the addition of a modesty trophy to the F. and A. M. list of awards. Orient would win hands down. About the only time Orient scores ever come to light is when the latter team has been beaten.

MISS MAUDE KLOTZ TO SING IN WESTFIELD

MISS MAUDE KLOTZ
Who Sings in Westfield April 12

Miss Maude Klotz, the famous American soprano, will give a song recital in the high school, at Westfield, on the evening of Thursday, April 12. She will be assisted by Maximilian Pilzer, concertmeister of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

The concert is given for the benefit of the Grant High Parent-Teacher Association who are much in need of funds to use in increasing the educational facilities of the school.

Though one of the youngest of prominent artists, the charming personality, remarkable musicianship and beautiful voice of Miss Klotz have firmly established her as one of the greatest of all American concert sopranos in the opinion of noted critics, musicians and musical authorities who have heard her.

Maximilian Pilzer, who assists Miss Klotz, is recognized as one of the most brilliant concert violinists of the day in addition to holding one of the greatest orchestral positions in the music world. Through his Victor records he also enjoys a nationwide popularity.

Nearly two hundred prominent women of Union county are patronesses for the recital which promises to be one of the most brilliant social and musical events ever held in Westfield, besides earning a large sum of money for its worthy cause.

Spring Arrived

I know that spring is here, for at my door appear some seven times a day, fair maids who won't go 'way until I've had a look at some immortal book, some great and gorgeous tome to ornament my home. "Give whiz, fair dames," I cry, "no volumes will I buy. Just look around, yourselves, upon my loaded shelves, and you will see gadzooks, how little I need books." "You need not to invest," exclaim these females blest; "but you can not refuse the titles to peruse, the pictures to admire—those pictures which inspire! We ask you not to buy, but just to cast your eye adown the shining page prepared by hard and sage." In winter I don't fall for this old graft at all; in summer I can shoo the agents from my view, and bid them seek no more my one-remembered door. In autumn I can chase the agents round my place. But when the winter's flown my heart has mellow grown and I'm an easy mark for every smiling shark. I look around my rot upon the junk I've bought, the books I'll never read, by authors gone to seed, and say (and shed a tear), "I know that spring is here."

OH! MY BACK!

The Expression of Many a Kidney Sufferer in Plainfield.

A stubborn backache is cause to suspect kidney trouble. When the kidneys are inflamed and swollen, stooping brings a sharp twinge in the small of the back, that almost takes the breath away. Doan's Kidney Pills revive sluggish kidneys—relieve aching backs. Here's Plainfield proof:

C. F. Rothenhausen, 674 W. Third St., Plainfield, says: "For a long time, I was afflicted with lumbago. My back was as sore as a boil and it was often impossible for me to stoop over because of the pains across my kidneys. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and annoyed me terribly. I bought Doan's Kidney Pills at R. J. Shaw's Drug Store, and they soon gave me so much relief that I felt like a different person. Any time I feel such attacks coming on now, I merely take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and they stop them in a short time."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Rothenhausen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

ST. MARY'S TEAM TO DEBATE IN NEWARK

It has been announced that the members of the St. Mary's Literary Society of this city, will debate the St. Michael team in Newark on Friday evening, April 20. The locals will uphold the negative side of the question, "Resolved, That a Federal minimum wage law should be enacted applying to all industrial and commercial workers."

Paul H. Burns, of this city, will be the chairman, and the judges will be picked from Hudson county by Justice McAdon.

The debaters of the St. Mary's Literary Society were instrumental in bringing the championship to Union county and are entitled to call themselves the State Holy Name champions. However, the St. Michael team has one victory over the locals and until that defeat is wiped out, the Plainfielders cannot lay claim to the unrestricted State title. Should the local debaters defeat the St. Michael's team, a third debate between the two contenders will probably be staged in a neutral city. The Phi Gamma Delta girls' club of North Plainfield, is the only other conqueror of the St. Mary's team. Neither contender is representative of the Holy Name Federation.

By virtue of their position as State Holy Name champions, the St. Mary's young men will have to entertain all reasonable challenges. A challenge has already been received from Englewood, and a debate with the team of that place is scheduled for May. Edwin L. Sullivan, Frederick W. Greene and "Joe" Gallagher will represent the local society in Newark. "Joe" Gallagher and Mr. Greene successfully upheld the affirmative side of the "Minimum Wage" questio nat Passaic in January.

HEBREW SCHOOL AWAITS QUARTERS

Local Institution to be Well Equipped for Jewish Children

The Plainfield Hebrew school awaits eagerly its entrance into its new quarters, the Y. M. H. A. building. Everything is being done to make the school in equipment and its curriculum of instruction one of the best in the State. The Board of Education feel that the Jewish children of Plainfield need and deserve an up-to-date Hebrew school, which they did not enjoy in the past, so that the interest and enthusiasm of the child for its work shall be fully enlisted.

The school has been dedicated to the study of the Hebrew language, its literature, history and religion, and for this purpose welcome every Jewish boy and girl in Plainfield, from the ages of 6 to 16, be they of orthodox or reform parentage. We are not aiming to teach the children to be members of this sect or of that, but to make them feel a just pride in their race, to imbue them with the proper spirit towards their history and literature so that by becoming good Jews they will not fail to be good Americans," is sentiment of the board. The school therefore will not be a fad in the best equipment. The instructions will be under the proper guidance of proficient teachers, with a clear, well planned system of study, so that the maximum benefit should be given each child during its hourly stay in the school. Report cards being issued monthly, the parents will be asked to take a deep interest in the welfare of their children at this period of their life which is the most important in their development. Even after school will the authorities endeavor to give a guiding hand to those in its charge, by directing its outside reading. A library will be established, which will include all books dealing with Jewish themes in English, many Jewish story books, books of the Jewish Publication Society, the Jewish encyclopaedia, the children's book of knowledge and others. A reading room will be fixed up in the building for the use of the children and a librarian put in charge for the proper distribution of books. To make the children feel that they are a part of the great house of Hebrew school children all over our country, the "Jewish Child" and "Young Judean," very entertaining magazines in English, will be issued weekly to the children. The proper physical development of the children will be maintained by an outdoor recreation place as well as a roomy gymnasium. The Jewish child will be made to feel that the Hebrew school is its second home. During Passover week no sessions will be held, the new term commencing Sunday, April 15th, at 10 a. m., in its new quarters.

All of those who are interested are requested to enroll their children.

FRIDAY, APRIL AND 13 MARKS IN AMERICAN HISTORY

Catherine Schaefer, of East Sixth street, notices that April figures in the American wars. The Revolutionary War started April 19, 1775; the Civil War, April 12, 1861; the Spanish-American, April 25, 1898; the German-American, April 6, 1917.

Thirteen has been an important number in the history of the administration of President Wilson. He was born on the thirteenth of the month, he was notified of his nomination on the thirteenth, he was the thirteenth occupant of Shadow Lawn at Long Branch; he is often the thirteenth at table, he usually takes room 13 in hotels and regards 13 as his lucky number. He signed the war resolution at thirteen minutes past one o'clock yesterday. He became President in 1913.

WHY Y. M. C. A. SITE WAS CHOSEN

Reasons Leading to Unanimity of Action by Directors Are Here Given

Several inquiries having been made as to why the directors of the Young Men's Christian Association chose the location on East Fifth street as the site for the new building for that association, a representative of the Courier-News yesterday afternoon interviewed John H. Doane, one of the committee on selection of site, asking him as to the reasons why that site was chosen, and Mr. Doane made the following explanation:

The people of Plainfield by their recent acts have rendered the verdict that this city needs a new Young Men's Christian Association building.

That they gave their money free of restriction as to type or location of building evidences their confidence in the directors of the association as being well qualified to determine such questions.

Long before the recent building campaign was undertaken the directors gave more time and thought to the subject of location than they did to the building itself.

Naturally there were different views, but the question of location ultimately narrowed down to one of two or three sites, and finally unanimously centered on the one at the southerly corner of East Fifth and Sycamore streets, as being the very best place in the whole city of Plainfield to locate the building when funds should be available for its construction.

The reasons leading to such unanimity of action on their part were as follows:

The corner chosen is almost in the exact centre of the city and borough.

It is one mile from Coddington avenue to the northwest; one and a half miles to the city line to the southeast; two miles to the city line to the northeast and two and a half miles to the city line to the southwest.

It is but one block from the North avenue station of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, the principal city railroad station.

It is but one block from all the city trolley lines.

It is half way between Watchung and Park avenues, two of the city's principal thoroughfares, which is a decided advantage, as those in the building will escape both noise and dust, a very important consideration as the new building will be equipped with dormitories.

It is but a short distance from the Public Library and high school, important factors always to be taken into account.

It is so near the business heart of the city, that the dormitories are bound to prove attractive to the very ones whose use they are principally designed to serve.

It is on the border line of the city's best residential section.

As applying to the membership and those who make largest use of the building, the proposed location is most convenient to at least nine-tenths.

Fifth street is now the principal thoroughfare for East and West automobile traffic passing through Plainfield, therefore the building and location is apt to be noticed by strangers to a greater extent than would be the case if situated on any other street.

The building, when constructed, will be in plain view from all passing trains on the railroad.

Throughout the United States, in all recent association building construction it has become the practice to erect the buildings off, but closely adjacent to the principal business streets. The location selected meets that practice.

Shattuck & Hussey, architects, of Chicago, whose designs and plans for association buildings have been more largely used than those of any other architects in this country, through a member of that firm, when visiting Plainfield, made a personal examination of suggested sites and thereafter with the aid of maps and data, submitted the same to different experts connected with their own office, who decided on the Fifth and Sycamore streets location as being the very best one referred to them for consideration, and their judgment was rendered without previous knowledge of its being the choice of the directors.

An unprejudiced survey was likewise made of all proposed locations by Mr. Jellards, of New York, the architect selected to make plans for the new building, and he also gave Fifth and Sycamore streets as his first choice.

For all of which stated reasons, as well as others, the then directors of the Young Men's Christian Association of Plainfield, were satisfied that the location would meet the approval of the great majority, if not all of those who would subscribe to the building fund.

HELPS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

VIRGINIA CARTER LEE

In connection with this department Miss Lee will gladly answer any inquiry relative to domestic science, a stamped envelope being necessary for a personal reply. Address care of Courier-News.

Every child is a little locomotive, steam up, full of energy and ready to race the tracks on the road that leads from childhood to efficient manhood and womanhood, with no attention to speed regulations or switch signals.

This is normal and natural.

From childhood to adolescence, a human body housing a human brain develops faster than it ever will again. The child locomotive must run at express rate during this period, until frequently, with no shriek of warning, it suddenly breaks down, jumps the tracks and lies a shattered wreck on the side of the road.

What caused this wreck?

The mother-engineer failed to coal up the engine sufficiently at its starting each day with the proper kind of fuel, for the human body engine demands daily fuel to keep it running smoothly and this fuel is food.

In order to feed your children for health and life efficiency, you must select those foods that have the biggest percentage of heat-producing elements. The bones, blood, nerve tissues and brain contain certain elements and nitrogen, carbon, hydrogen and oxygen occur in the largest quantities.

As a child plays, studies and moves about, these elements reduce themselves by being transformed into energy.

How shall you make up this waste?

Easily, by supplying a renewed amount of nitrogen, carbon, hydrogen, oxygen, iron, phosphorus, calcium, magnesium, potassium, sodium, sulphur, chlorin and iodin—that is, by means of foods that approximate these chemical, tissue-building body elements.

How shall you discover these qualities?

Can the mother engineer, who has not studied chemistry and food-analysis, plan menus for health-making in her children?

This is not as difficult a matter as one would suppose. Reduced to terms of every-day use, iron for body building means eggs, oatmeal, beans and peas, raisins, meat, spinach and prunes.

Phosphorus also means eggs, oatmeal, beans and meat, with the addition of milk and cream. Calcium is supplied through the medium of milk, oranges and other fresh fruits, and in the same way all the other necessary heat, energy and waste-reducing elements can be supplied, if we find the animal, vegetable and mineral foods that contain these elements.

In this connection it is well to remember that the child of three or four does not need as many heat units in its food as the child four years of age or older.

If a child refuses to eat, there is usually some reason. Do not force him or coax him to eat—perhaps the stomach needs a rest—but try to bring about a simple change in the diet, that will provide the same amount of nutriment in a different form.

Breads and cereals (properly cooked) give the greatest amount of fuel for the child engine, at a minimum cost. One loaf of gluten bread, with sufficient butter to spread the slices, yields nearly three thousand heat-producing elements (sometimes called calories).

Slow cooking and tireless cooking is best for children's food that makes for health. The object of cooking that aids digestion and furnishes the good "heat energy" is only to soften the food, while preserving the juices and flavor of the raw food, and to completely destroy any bacteria that may be present.

Sundries, sometimes over-looked in the home pantry, will do much toward fostering health in children. Sweetened chocolate, dates, whole wheat crackers and nuts are full of nutrition for the growing child. We have also begun to realize that eating between meals is sometimes necessary for children. The healthy, active child uses up the nutritive qualities of the food taken into his body more rapidly than an adult does, because the waste of his muscle, brain and nerve energy is greater.

Thus, the child of three or four, who has breakfasted a little after seven, will need a glass of milk and a few crackers, or possibly a cup of hot soup, around ten o'clock. The child of primary age should have a brown bread sandwich, with a few nuts or dates, when he comes home from school in the afternoon.

RECIPES

SALTED ALMONDS—Cover one-fourth pound almonds with boiling water and let stand three or four minutes. Drain, cover with cold water and let stand two minutes. Again drain, rub off skins, and dry between towels. Put one-third cupful olive oil in a very small saucepan. When hot put in one-fourth of the almonds and fry until delicately browned, stirring constantly to keep almonds in motion. Remove with a spoon or small skimmer, taking up as little oil as possible. Drain on brown paper and sprinkle with salt. Repeat until all are fried. It may be necessary to remove some of the salt, which may be accomplished by wiping with a piece of cheesecloth. Half lard and half clarified butter may be used in place of olive oil.

RAISIN ROLL—One cupful of raisins, one-half cupful of orange juice, one-half teaspoonful salt, one-half cupful sugar, one cupful English walnuts, two tablespoonfuls crisco, one teaspoonful cinnamon. Cream crisco and sugar, add orange juice, raisins and nuts. Roll sufficient pastry for one pie in thin sheet, spread with the raisin mixture, roll up like jelly roll and bake in hot oven. Serve with rich sauce.

RETIREMENT NOTICE FOR U. OF P. PROFESSOR

Philadelphia, April 7.—Dr. Simon N. Patten, professor of political economy in the University of Pennsylvania and a contributor to the literature of economics, has announced receipt of a notification that his relations with the university are to cease at the end of the fiscal year.

Dr. Patten declares he was served with the notice after he had presided at a pacifist meeting last Friday and had permitted his name to be printed as one of a number of speakers at a similar meeting scheduled for last Sunday and which was forbidden by the police authorities.

The reason advanced in the notice of enforced retirement is that Dr. Patten "has attained the age of sixty-five years," although the professor points out that his original contract with the university, dated April 7, 1891, declares that "he is now confirmed in the said professorship without limitation of time."

Dr. Patten, in a statement, said the notification given him "raises anew the question of free speech and is akin to the case of Dr. Scott Nearing, who virtually was forced out of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania."

DOWER CHESTS

Nowadays the bride-to-be realizes the necessity of a dignified receptacle in which to lay her dowery of linen and lingerie. Of late she has turned somewhat to the conveniences of a wardrobe with half its interior fitted with drawers, but on the whole she leans to the custom of her grandmothers and great-great-grandmothers for centuries back and selects a chest which, according to its design, may afterward be converted to sitting room uses or put into the hall or bedroom, or even as a useful as well as an ornamental piece of furniture.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

To remove machine oil from materials in which the colors might run use cold water to which has been added a teaspoonful of ammonia. Then wash with soap.

Moth balls and camphor are said to draw the gloss from the fur and also tend to deprive the pelts of their natural oil, so that the use of these time-honored preservatives should be regarded with some suspicion.

Some people object to fried foods on account of the fat used. Fat need not be used; most foods can be fried simply by rubbing the pan with common table salt, then shaking it out and putting in the food to be fried.

In going over one's pictures eliminate all but the choicest and best beloved, and try to group together the pictures whose subjects are somewhat related, or which have a similarity in frame. Indeed, even when subjects are closely related, it is not possible always to hang pictures together, owing to a too great difference in the kind of frames. As a rule, any room looks better, especially small rooms where only one color frame is used on all the pictures.

No matter how efficient a housekeeper may be, the Spring housecleaning takes all her courage; the family has been shut in all those past winter months and as she goes from room to room astonishing evidences of the general wear of the winter are discovered. In each room, there is some thing to be renovated or replaced; every closet looks emptier than what the last supplies had been put in. The list grows longer and longer. She begins to feel discouraged, when a frown appears on her pretty face, when suddenly her eye catches sight of an evening paper announcing Linens' Housekeepers' Week—Sale prices—on just the very things she needs.

"Linens"—she reads the prices, notes the marvelous values offered (and who can tell how high these things may go) and "Linens" is checked on her list. Damasks, Table cloths, Napkins, full size and medium, Towels are marked.

Next in the Trousseau—and her frown has disappeared. These prices make it possible for her to make the best of towels she likes best to use.

Muslins, Sheetings, Sheets and Pillow Cases, Blankets, Comfortables, Pillows—these are the things that have been really worn, the stocks of which must be replenished, and soon. They're higher now than before—no one can say what their market value will be in another week, but surely the policy that made Linens' buy these months and months ago and enables them to sell them now at modest prices, based on their original cost, is well worth imitating. For now are these goods are at hand, offered at economical prices.

Bath?—that means the bathroom and the baby's little white bed and dresser can be made to look fresh. "Brushes"—she thinks of those hard-worked bowl and bathroom brushes quickly, and "Oil Mop"—so easy to keep those recently-polished floors bright, and a dozen others remarked lower.

Silver-ware—plated or solid—a smile appears as she thinks of the gaps in her table service now to be filled. Factory, too—well all housekeepers like new, sharp knives. Her mattress deeper as she reads Rugs, Upholstery, Curtains—this is a department at Hearn's she has always known that here prices are lower than elsewhere, but even then, these Housekeepers' Week specials are startling and instantly she computes the cost of new crestone hangings for the living rooms, new slip coverings to protect the furniture for another year; new curtains, real summer filmy draperies for every room. When you buy at Hearn's new curtains for every room are often possible. Fresh, new shades, too.

But it takes the Babies' Department to really bring out her rhapsodies—everything in it almost as dear as the babies, themselves—except the prices, those are low. And on the side of the ad, she writes: "Ask trained nurse in Baby Dept. for Baby Health Rules"—also when it's safe to put summer underwear on baby.

She wouldn't be the pretty, successful housekeeper if she didn't let all her house worries—and that she has found how to remedy them—still from her mind and just delight in reading about Hearn's Spring and Summer Apparel. A dress like the one illustrated will be added to the bundles delivered at her door Housekeepers' Week after she has spent a day shopping at Hearn's, Fourteenth Street, New York.

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

BY MRS. P. A. WALKER

(Copyright, 1913, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate, N. Y. City)

DANNY'S DARING DEED

"Dan."

"Yes, sir," replied a boyish voice from behind big piles of coffee sacks. "I'm here."

"Well, Dan, I and the rest of the merchants on this part of the river are going to a meeting in Harford this afternoon, so you will be all alone. Close up about 5 o'clock and come home. I don't think the British will come up the river today, though a scout says they were seen yesterday about 50 miles from here."

"All right, uncle," replied Dan, "I am not afraid and guess I can attend matters by myself for once."

Mr. Wallace set out at once and left Dan all by himself in the big wharf store, where the boy worked all the week. Dan was an orphan and lived with his uncle, Mr. Wallace, who was a merchant and owned a large wharf down by the river.

This was in Revolutionary days and there were not so many people in the country as there are now. But back of the wharf, about a mile farther from the river, was the little settlement of Harford, the home of most of the trading people in this part of New York.

By sunset it was very cold and the river began to freeze. Dan was just about to lock up the store and go home when he heard the sound of horses' feet and saw a troop of soldiers in British uniforms coming at a gallop. Knowing he could do nothing against such a party the boy ran up in the garret and lay still. The men dismounted, came tramping into the store, and, finding no one there, they took down everything to eat they could find and put it on the table which stood in a small room at one side.

Now, in the floor of the garret was a hole where a knot had fallen out of the wood. Dan laid himself flat on the floor and peeped down below. He saw the soldiers gathered about the table, feasting on cider, cheese, crackers and pickles.

"Lieutenant Brown," said an officer, "I think the men had best land about two miles below here, then march on these buildings by 9 in the morning. No one will be expecting us here at that time. The ships ought to get up far enough by 3 tomorrow morning to have all forces on shore and here by 9 easily. I will send you full details of this movement. Leave at once and report to the captain of the King George, if possible, by 9 tonight."

The lieutenant slipped the order into the pocket of his coat, which lay across a chair, and went out to feed his horse. The rest of the soldiers trampled out into the big storeroom to inspect the goods. Dan saw a chance now. Opening the door which led down from the garret he slipped into the room in which the men had been sitting, seized the order which stuck out of the soldier's pocket and then darted through a dark passage out into the shadow of the woodshed.

It was dark now. He could see the soldiers lighting candles and building a fire in the big rooms. They were preparing to boil hams and make themselves comfortable.

But Dan did not wait to see more. He took down his sharp skates from the shed shelf and, creeping down to the bank of a small stream which ran from Harford down to the wharf on the river, he strapped them to his feet and was soon spinning up the narrow ribbon of ice which covered the creek.

The moon rose and threw strange shadows across the ice. Dan spun forward like the wind, his skates ringing against the frozen stream. Behind him he heard the galloping of a horse, as if someone were in pursuit on the road which ran along the bank. A shot whistled over his head and another rang out. He felt a sting in his left arm. But he did not stop. As he raced the soldier galloped along the road, but a turn in the bank and they were both in the village.

In a moment a dozen armed men had surrounded the British soldier and taken him prisoner. Dan stumbled up the bank, placed the order in the hands of his uncle, then fainted. Both he and the prisoner were taken into Mr. Wallace's home.

"That is the lieutenant who was to carry this order to the captain of the ships anchored down the river," said Dan, when he opened his eyes five minutes later. "I am sure his colonel thinks he is away delivering the message and does not know he was chasing me."

"That is so," replied Mr. Wallace. "The thing for us to do is to march every man in town at once to my wharf, take the British prisoners who are there and wait for those who are to come at 9. There are two regiments over in Warrenton that I will send for at once to reinforce us."

Dan was kept in bed and the lieutenant was held a prisoner, while the men of the town went to work. Quietly they gathered a large force, slipped down to the wharf store, took the sleeping English prisoners, then when the men from the ships came boisterously on at 9 o'clock in the morning, they, too, were surrounded and marched off under guard.

No wonder Dan got a big black horse and a gold medal from the men of the town. The horse is long since dead, but the medal has come down to Dan's great-great-grandchildren and is shining on their wall today.

Will You Be a Foster Father or a Foster Mother?

A little Belgian child awaits your answer.

That child is hungry.

Will you agree to pay one dollar each month for one year, and thus become a Foster Parent?

Each dollar will lift the misery from the heart of a little child for a whole month. It will provide an extra biscuit and a cup of cocoa once a day.

You would not refuse such aid to a child if it were at your door. Your heart would forbid. To subscribe to this "Child Relief" is not Charity merely—it is just plain humanity to do so.

Plainfield children would not consider this cocoa and biscuit to be a meal. But how eagerly these little Belgians regard it you never can know. Here in our city of plenty, the intensity and the urgency of need can hardly be conceived.

There can be no worthier occasion for the rich to give abundantly from their abundance, or for the humble to spare something of their smaller portion.

What have you done to help? What more will you do?

No donation, no matter how small, will fail to bring joy to a helpless child, a little being too young to understand anything about war except the horror of it all.

Committees are working in nearly every city, town and village to assume the care of all the children in a stated Belgian town. To Plainfield will be assigned a town. Let us make it a big town, and a happy town.

Every cent contributed goes for food.

Cut out this coupon. Fill in the sum your heart dictates, and send to Mr. C. B. Tyler, Treasurer, 525 West Seventh St., Plainfield, N. J.

The French Salon on the Second floor has an extraordinary collection of the best French models for Spring, 1917.

From some we have as many as a dozen models, so that our clients who wish to study the full expression of any one couturiere may be able to do so satisfactorily.

There are gowns of the new straight silhouette, as straight as Callot can devise. Narrow and Oriental and most artistic.

There are gowns with all the charming youthfulness of Lanvin, some with the pretty peg tops, which are such a feature of the Spring fashions.

Gowns with the interesting tonneau silhouette varied in many ways.

Gowns for the evening, for the afternoon, for the Spring theatre party, for sports, for luncheons, for every occasion in every place.

Among the tailored suits is a model by Callot with Persian palm leaf embroidered in gold.

Talcum Powder

During April, Wahna Talcum Powder Usually 15c, is 10c a box.

Wahna talcum powder is made of imported talc, and foreign talc is the finest talc the world knows.

The talc is thoroughly washed of all impurities, an important point about an article for the skin, especially for a baby's skin.

It is sifted through fine silk bolting cloth. Important again that this be done, or the powder will be gritty and irritating.

The perfumes are superior to those used in most 15c talcum powders, and include crushed rose, Parma violet, Directoire, Double Pink, Sandalwood, Corylopsis.

In spite of the fact that talc, perfume and tin for the boxes have all advanced in cost, a third reduction is made during April because all materials were purchased more than a year ago.

The saving is yours now. But when it may be again is problematical. Better buy the summer supply of this necessity at once.

STATE RESPONDS TO WAR CALL

Governor Whitman Is Pleased at Spirit Shown.

HOME DEFENSE ORGANIZING.

Mobilization of Automobiles and Trucks For Army Purposes Assured if Necessity Arises—New York State Has 170,000 Cars, With 40,000 Trucks Available For War Purposes—Independent Organizations For Field Service Forming.

Albany, N. Y., April 7.—New York is responding promptly and efficiently to the war call, and Governor Whitman is highly gratified over the splendid showing the state will make in aiding the nation.

With the tremendous value of the automobile, especially the motortruck, in modern warfare, the governor is especially pleased at what New York will be able to do in this respect.

Secretary of State Hugo has informed him that the state's automobile passenger and truck service was practically at the command of the state government.

There are about 170,000 machines in operation in the state. Mr. Hugo informed the Governor that 40,000 motortrucks are available in the state for war purposes. In all there are 318,000 cars with 365,000 professional drivers to guide them.

All Show Patriotism.

New York city alone could contribute almost 15,000 trucks, and the counties of Nassau and Westchester could offer 2,400 more.

Governor Whitman said the authorities of the state were delighted by the evidences of co-operation by men and women and innumerable organizations in every section of the state. Home defense leagues are organizing at many points. The state organization of these bodies will be completed within ten days.

The governor has been informed that in some localities steps have already been taken to organize independent regiments.

Governor Whitman is busy working on his plans for a home defense guard. The bill introduced by Assemblyman Schuyler M. Meyer, providing for the enlistment of men over forty-five years of age in the national guard, has been signed.

Under its provisions the governor has wide power in accepting volunteers for the guard, which, he says, he wishes to use to organize a fully equipped and disciplined force for the defense of New York. Governor Whitman hopes these older men will take over the duty of guarding strategic points in the state and release the younger members of the militia for more active service further afield.

Would Train Boys.

A bill was introduced by Assemblyman Mackell, chairman of the ways and means committee, appropriating $40,000 to enable the superintendent of public works to arrange for the protection of the buildings and other property of the state.

In the senate Senator Cotillo introduced a measure providing for the military training of boys between the ages of twelve and eighteen. The training is to be directed by a commissioner appointed by the governor, to serve without compensation. The organization is to be made up of volunteers and will be known as the New York state juvenile guards.

The State Civil Service Commission will meet in Albany Wednesday and Thursday and will discuss an addition to the present rules to provide that persons holding posts in the state or county service, subject to civil service rules, who enlist for active service in the military or naval forces of the United States or the state of New York may be reinstated without reference to the present limitation of one year's absence.

MAY WITHDRAW BLACKLIST.

Great Britain Considers Action Following U. S. War Declaration.

Washington, April 7.—Great Britain is understood to have under consideration the withdrawal of its commercial blacklist, in so far as it refers to firms and individuals in this country.

It will now be the duty of the American government to see that nobody in the United States gives aid or comfort to Germany.

JEWS IN RUSSIA GIVEN EQUAL STANDING

Special to Courier-News:

New York, April 7.—The Jews in Russia are to have the same standing before the new government as any other people, according to a cable message made public yesterday by Jacob Schiff, the New York banker. HIGH BRIDGE MAN IN HOSPITAL

Phillipsburg, April 7.—"Mike" Notch, a Hungarian, residing at High Bridge, was taken to the Easton (Pa.) Hospital late Wednesday night with a gunshot wound in the breast and his condition is regarded as serious. He was accompanied to the hospital by a friend, who left immediately after the wounded man reached the institution. The only thing the hospital authorities have been able to find out about the case is that while he was sitting with a group of countrymen some one shot him.

TABLE BOARD
ARLINGTON AVENUE CAR

"I Might Have Had A Hudson Super-Six"

Last spring many thousands of car buyers delayed their choice too long. They found our output two or three months oversold.

Don't wait as they did. It means long regret to say, "I might have had a Hudson Super-Six."

No Car Like It

The Super-Six motor is patented. No other car offers anything like it.

The difference is enormous. This one invention added 80 per cent. to motor efficiency. It almost doubled endurance.

The Super-Six holds all the worthwhile records. In speed, in hill-climbing, in long distance performance, nothing has ever matched it.

But it excels above all in endurance. It broke the 24-hour record by 52 per cent. It twice broke the ocean-to-ocean record in one continuous 7000-mile round trip.

Why It Endures

The thing we fight is friction. That wastes the power, and it causes wear. It is friction that destroys machinery.

In the Super-Six motor friction is almost ended. After thousands of miles under top-speed strain, this motor has shown no evidence of wear.

Again and again it has performed feats which would break other motors to pieces. Yet not a part or bearing was affected.

That's its supreme advantage. The Hudson Super-Six will outlive, probably, any man who drives it.

New Economies

This year we add a new gasoline saver in the form of radiator shutters that control in part the heat of the motor. We add a motormeter. We put a primer at the driver's hand. We use a patent pneumatic carburetor which adjusts itself to every engine speed.

We are using bodies which, in beauty and luxury, excel anything you've seen. We use plaited upholstery made of rare-grade leather. We have a finish which is wonderfully enduring.

But the Super-Six motor means more than all. It means performance such as no other car can match. It means endurance such as other cars can't hope for. It means pride in your car.

Last year, because of this motor, Hudson outsold any car in the world with a price above $1100.

You want it for capacity, for service. Find this out, for your own sake, before we get oversold.

EVERY MAN'S PART IN THE WAR

Theme of Patriotic Sermon by Rev. Dr. Zelie at Crescent Avenue Church

URGES ALL TO BE LOYAL

Preacher Says He Rejoices Because America Has Taken Her Place Among Nations on the Right Side

Emphasizing the significant fact that this country's entrance into the European war was made during Holy Week, when people like to think of other things, and recalling the great sacrifice made by God in giving His Son that the world might be saved and the sacrifice that thousands of people will now make to preserve the nation and restore peace to the world, the Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie delivered a strong and impressive discourse on the subject of "Every Man's Part in the War" at the Crescent Avenue church yesterday afternoon.

"We are all glad today that the entrance of our nation into this war has brought so much encouragement to our Allies and that we can now speak frankly on this subject," said Dr. Zelie. "We are grateful to President Wilson for summing up the sentiment of the people in his message of this past week, which, I am sure, will become one of the great State papers.

"But who cares about the language so long as it puts us where we belong on the side of right? This first step is bound to come close to us all and we should welcome the results and be ready cheerfully to stand the exactions. It will bring to us many unpleasant situations. There will be the burdens of cost, taxes, etc., all of which must be followed up with an attitude to be borne patiently, although we can hardly expect to be called upon to bear the burdens of our Allies.

"Every appeal, utterance and publication, such as the proclamation of our Mayor, will be a part of the great campaign. Everybody must do something. We will be put out of our usual routine, which will upset us no doubt, but we must adjust ourselves to these new conditions. We were inclined to think that we were especially favored by God and entitled to an endless exemption from duty because we had done our bit years ago.

"Today we take our belated place among the nations and we rejoice that it heartens the Allies. In many ways we are ill-prepared, but no doubt we will be found not wanting. Our own city has had good training; in fact, *there is no community bet*ter trained to do its duty. There has never been a need but that out of the nowhere there has come aid, and an appeal has never been turned back. Now we are organizing for relief at the threshold of the great awakening.

"We now welcome the end of the freedom of speech. Never in the history of the world has there been such consideration shown for others. They should not expect it any further. We are dealing with an enemy which has no parallel in history. There is nothing in their hearts to restrain them as the perpetrators of the worst deeds. They have sown sedition and unrest in every land, and what holds that enemy back is the great British Empire and her allies who stand for justice.

"Germany has stopped at nothing; she has even tried to persuade our own neighbor to turn against us. We should not be ready-minded henceforth, hearing in mind her atrocities. Only last week relief ships were sent to the bottom, and it makes us wonder what form of tradeal with a desperate enemy and there is an occasion for loyalty on the part of every true American.

"There is an army to be raised and I hope that it will be a Christian army. We have our hearts prepared to meet the needs. I trust that we will escape the shallowness of 'it won't last long.' While I hope not, we must be ready and prepared for whatever may happen."

During the course of his sermon Dr. Zelie took occasion to refer to the pacifists, one of whom he said called on him last week and urged his support, but there was no mistaking his sentiments or position regarding these people, declaring that this was the time for everyone to stand shoulder to shoulder in defense of the country. The offering at the service will be used for the fund to supply the needs of families of those who have been and will be called to the colors from this city.

DEATH SUMMONS H. P. REYNOLDS

Dean of Local Druggists Succumbs to Paralysis at His Home on First Place

BORN AT GLOUCESTER

Was Early Associated With Organization of Muhlenberg Hospital and Identified With Many Civic Movements

Howard Prescott Reynolds, one of the best known residents of the city, and for many years the dean of Plainfield druggists, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 819 First place, in the 75th year of his age. He had been a sufferer for a long time with paralysis, which, with other complications, caused his death.

Mr. Reynolds was born at Gloucester, Mass., and following his graduation from the New York College of Pharmacy, removed to Plainfield, where for a number of years he was engaged in the drug business. He was a public spirited citizen and during his active business career was identified with *many civic move*ments. He was a member of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, and as long as his health would permit a regular attendant at the services.

Mr. Reynolds was early associated with the organization of Muhlenberg Hospital. It was through his suggestion at a meeting May 16, 1877, that the hospital was incorporated, under the act of Legislature of March 9, 1877, providing for the incorporation of hospitals, etc.

Mr. Reynolds and William R. Cock were elected members of the board July 24, 1877, at what was practically the first meeting of the Board as an organized body. The latter was the first secretary-treasurer of the institution and held those offices for many years.

Mr. Reynolds was in the drug business several years with the late Randolph M. Stelle, where the City National Bank now is. On dissolution of partnership Mr. Stelle retired, and Mr. Reynolds went to the corner of North and Park avenues, where the State Trust Company's new building now stands. After a number of years he sold to his chief clerk, Thomas S. Armstrong, and retired. His store was the training school for drug clerks of Plainfield most of whom either served in Mr. Reynolds' store, or in stores which were later established by them.

The living members of the original Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital are Charles W. McCutchen, John W. Murray, Sr., J. J. H. Pollien, William R. Cock and E. A. Finch. The other members of that board who have passed away were Bishop John Scarborough, Rev. Erskine M. Rodman, Thomas H. Edsall, Captain James Parker, H. H. Rossi, William Parker, Frederick Chamberlain, Gilford Mayer, E. N. Erickson, Elias R. Pope, J. S. Harberger, Nathan Harper, Robert H. Cook, J. J. Perrine, Peter Balen, Howard P. Reynolds, Henry Smith and Loyal Farragut.

Mr. Reynolds leaves a sister, Miss E. L. Reynolds, of this city, and a niece, Mrs. F. M. Waterhouse, of Panama. The funeral will be held at the late home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, will officiate and the burial will be in Hillside cemetery.

BIG MEETING AT COLUMBUS CLUB

Industrial Preparedness Will be Discussed—Interests All Citizens

Industrial preparedness, both for peace and for war, will be the topic of discussion at the patriotic indus*trial rally to be held in Columbus* Hall tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Plainfield Business Men's Association and Board of Trade.

The speakers, Michael J. Hickey, head of the National Industrial Con*servation Movement, and Ellis L.* Howland, journalist, lecturer and special representative of the conservation movement, will be introduced by Judge William Newcorn, president of the Board of Trade.

Mr. Hickey will tell of the work that is being done by manufacturers in conjunction with labor interests to render the industries of the country fit for war purposes. At the same time, he will tell of the conservation movement's efforts to meet the ever graver perils of the reconstruction period after the close of the war, when foreign manufacturers with renewed vigor shall invade the trade markets of the country.

If the industries of the country are to meet that foreign competition, Mr. Hickey will show, all economic waste must be eliminated, especially that resulting from friction between labor and capital. The speaker will describe the efforts being made by the National Industrial Conservation Movement to restore harmony between employers and employes, and to convince them that their best interests lie in a sensible program of co-operation.

Part of Mr. Hickey's address will also be devoted to a discussion of the good that can be accomplished through co-operation between the citizens of a town and its trade and civic bodies. He will also appeal for more constructive legislation designed to encourage rather than to discourage business enterprises.

The other speaker, Mr. Howland, will emphasize more strongly the economic aspects of the industrial Conservation Movement. Mr. Howland is one of the editors of the business newspapers of the country, and secretary of the Motor Truck Club of America. He is a writer and lecturer of note on business matters. *Using for his theme "Pro*moting Permanent Prosperity," he will appeal for a more enlightened attitude on the part of the public regarding the needs and problems of business. It is essential, he will show, that the public shall be rid of the fallacious idea that all business is predatory and unscrupulous.

MISS QUEENA TILLOTSON SINGS HERE APRIL 18

Miss Queena Tillotson, a former Plainfield girl, will sing here on Wednesday evening, April 18, in the High School Auditorium. The concert will be given under the auspices of the Cup Bearers' Circle of King's Daughters.

Miss Tillotson is a remarkable coloratura lyric soprano, a pupil of Mme. Sembrich. She lived in Plainfield as a young girl and Plainfield is proud to acknowledge her as a former resident, for her talent and charm are undeniable. She has sung here twice before, once over a year ago in Columbus Hall, and again this autumn in the Plainfield High school. Her voice is wonderfully fresh, full of sympathy and feeling as well as strength and depth and her interpretations are delightful. Last fall, at her concert, the audience was wildly enthusiastic. No one who has once heard her will miss a second opportunity.

The Cup Bearers' Circle is confident that the high school will be filled. Miss Tillotson's career promises to be a great one. She cannot fail to have a remarkable future, and to go far in her chosen profession, for she has a wonderful gift splendidly developed. To hear her now while her youth and freshness at their height is a great privilege as well as a great pleasure and one all music lovers should grasp.

Tickets are on sale at Dudley Miller's, corner Park avenue and Fourth street, and should be secured at once as they are selling rapidly.

PASTOR TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION

Rev. Dr. Birney S. Hudson Leaves Park Ave. Baptist Church June 1

The Rev. Dr. Birney S. Hudson, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, informed the congregation, at the close of the morning service yesterday, that he had received a call to an important church with large opportunities and he desired to be released from his present charge on June 1. Dr. Hudson said that he had concluded to accept the call and he asked the local church to release him. The pastor made it clear that he had quite decided to make the change and his resignation was accepted according to his request. The church voted to grant Dr. Hudson the month of May as a vacation in order that he might enjoy a complete rest and thus be prepared to enter upon his new charge with vigor.

REV. DR. BIRNEY S. HUDSON
Resigns as Pastor of Park Avenue Baptist Church

Dr. Hudson came to the Park Avenue church on December 6, 1914, succeeding the Rev. Dr. Gabriel Reid Maguire. He was graduated with two degrees from Hillsdale College, Michigan, and took theological courses at Newton Theological Institute and at Chicago University and his degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred by two colleges. He is the sixth pastor of the Park avenue church and the membership has grown during his ministry; thirty-four members were added last year. The membership is now 453 and there is a Sunday school of 300 pupils, 30 officers and 26 teachers. At the annual meeting, held March 7, all departments presented most encouraging reports.

RESTITUTION FOR EARLY EMPLOYES

Benjamin Fawcett, of This City, Pays Balance Due Help After 40 Years

Thomas Fawcett and his son, Benjamin Fawcett, the latter now of Plainfield, in 1876 took control of the linen mills at Moodna, near Cornwall, N. Y., giving employment to a large number of men. The business prospered until 1886, when the mill failed and the Fawcetts assigned in favor of their creditors, and twenty cents on the dollar were paid. All to whom the firm owed money signed a release. The Fawcetts dropped out of sight and almost out of memory.

Two weeks ago today, Benjamin Fawcett, who has since been prosperous in the yarn business in New York, returned to Cornwall and after securing the names of former living employes of the old mill, settled with them in full. Payments were made in sums ranging from $10 to $77, the total distribution being about $600. Mr. Fawcett was unable to obtain all the names on his first visit and he will return to Cornwall soon and try and complete payment of money due although he is not legally bound to do so as the workingmen signed a release.

EASTER LILIES FROM CALIFORNIA

One of the pleasant surprises for Easter day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Grannatt, of West Fourth street, was a box of Easter lilies from Los Angeles, sent by their son, William B. Grannatt, Jr., who lives there. The lilies were in excellent condition, and arrived yesterday morning. Mrs. Grannatt has been a patient sufferer in a long illness, but is very much improved, and the doctor now hopes so far as safe to make a cheering message for Easter.

DEFENSE LEAGUE NEEDS MORE FUNDS

Mayor Will Appoint Only 20 Additional Men at Tonight's Council Meeting

Mayor Calkins has decided to send in only about twenty nominations to the Common Council tonight for the Home Defense League. He would like to send in fifty names in order to bring the membership up to the full number of one hundred and fifty men. But the $6,000 needed for the expenses of the League has not yet been contributed in full and the Mayor and the Commission are unwilling to incur expense until the money is in hand.

Property owners and patriotic citizens *should appreciate what the mem*bers of the League are doing. They are patrolling nights, the important points, and unless the League has at least one hundred and fifty members the night work will fall on each member of the League oftener than it should. The men all have their regular business occupations and should not be called out nights at too frequent intervals.

Those who have contributed have done so generously, but there are many in Plainfield who are unable to do anything for the public defense as active members of the League, and if each would contribute even a very small amount, there would be no lack of funds.

This League is in the nature of an extra precaution, to face contingencies rather than certainties. The recruiting of a miniature army is something which the city itself has no authority to do and levy the cost on the tax payers. The city has made additional provision by a reasonable increase in the equipment, etc., of the regular police force, but would not have been justified in incurring all the expense necessary to create the present Home Defense League. Its value is not only positive but also negative in being discouraging of the maliciously inclined. All the people have an interest in this very proper measure of precaution at the present time.

The Commission is gratified over the highly commendable spirit shown by men in offering their services. A large number of applications has been received, many more than can be accepted. The selection must be made with regard to districts, availability to reach next day, and also so as to have a certain number of men from important factories and plants. Men locally in business in Plainfield are being preferred, and a certain proportion are chosen on account of previous military experience.

The League members are to meet at the High school gymnasium on Wednesday night.

MISS RICHARDS' EXTRA SERIES OF TALKS

The solemn events of the past week in the nation's history will be treated by Miss Richards who has been in Washington and in close touch with the great debates in Congress.

VATERLANDSHILFE CHANGES ITS NAME

Because of the declaration of war against Germany, the State Board of Trustees of the Vaterlandshilfe, that has a branch in this city, has decided to cease the activities of the association in behalf of the widows and orphans in the countries of the Central Powers. In place of the former activity the association has chosen a new field for its charitable endeavors.

All moneys collected are to be em*ployed from now on*—i. e., during the present state of war—to aid in alleviating any possible distress in this country. In conformity with the above changes the society will hereafter be known as Patriotic Aid Society. For the present the head*quarters will remain at the Niagara* Building, Room 501, 185 Market street, Newark.

FINDS COCOONS AND EGGS OF INSECTS

Mrs. C. M. C. Wurmser, of South Stirling, brought to the Courier-News office this morning some curiosities in the shape of cocoons and eggs which she found on the leaves of peach, apple, plum and quince trees, and which are beginning to hatch, to be a destructive menace to the fruit in the summer.

She gathered these specimens some time ago, when snow was on the ground, but has noticed that the weather has no effect upon them.

She made an experiment with a large worm which she put in a pepper box last fall, with a geranium leaf. She covered the box tightly leaving only small perforations in the cover, and now she finds in the box a large cocoon, with the geranium leaf tightly wrapped around it, and also half a dozen caterpillars, in the chrysalis state. How these could have developed in the box with no access to air or food, except through the pepper-box holes in the cover, is a mystery to the layman.

"SIGHTSEERS" TONIGHT AT PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Kathryn Dickey with Sightseers Company at the Theatre tonight

At the Plainfield Theatre tonight comedian, who also supplied the "Blutch" Cooper's big burlesque organization, "The Sightseers," will present the two-act "Folly," and an all-star vaudeville bill blended together, making three hours of continuous laughter and merriment. Will J. Kennedy and Jack Miller, the well-known comedians, who have been favorites in both musical comedy and vaudeville, are the twin comedy stars of the organization this year.

"The Sightseers" was written by Billy K. Wells, the noted vaudeville lyrics for the special musical numbers which were set to tuneful melodies. The staging of the production was under the personal direction of Mr. Cooper, and Raymond B. Perez is responsible for the ensemble arrangements.

In the company, in addition to the stars, are Harry P. Kelly, Bobby Van Horn, The Carnival Four, Katherine Dickey, Lottie Blackford, Kitty Forsythe, Flo Davis, and a large chorus of dancing beauties, recruited from Broadway attractions.

BLANCHE BATES COMES HERE APRIL 17

One of the most interesting events of the present dramatic season is the appearance at the Plainfield Theatre, Tuesday, matinee and night, April 17, of Miss Blanche Bates in "Eleven P. M.," a new play by Paul M. Potter.

In creating the new role of Miss Bates, the author of the famous "Trilby," is said to have provided an admirable vehicle for the expression of the star's eclectic personality and her wonderful power of conviction. As an artist, Miss Bates is second to no one on our stage, and as a woman whose high ideals have always sponsored the best in the American theatre she is beloved by the public and by the members of her own profession. The assurance that her short retirement due to the lack of any suitable play, is now definitely at an end is welcome news.

Featured in support of Miss Bates is that finished actor Wilton Lackaye, who needs no introduction to local theatregoers. Other distinguished members of the remarkable cast include Charles Hammond, Thomas J. McGrane, Charles Butler, Louise Mackintosh, Janet Travers, Jeffreys Lewis, J. H. Barnes, Ford Fenimore, Maria Ascarraga, Pallo Berman, George Gaston, Henri Verey and Albert Prisco.

"THE GIRL PHILIPPA" AT PROCTOR'S TOMORROW

ANITA STEWART

At Proctor's Theatre tomorrow, and Wednesday

Enid Bennett, in Triangle Play, "The Little Brother," At Proctor's Today

Easter Week is introduced at Proctor's local theatre today with Jean Sawyer in "Love's Law"; Enid Bennett in "The Little Brother," and Mrs. Vernon Castle in "Patria."

Tomorrow and Wednesday the big Rialto Theatre, N. Y., eight-part success "The Girl Philippa," will be presented at Proctor's with Anita Stewart in the leading role. Anita Stewart is more delightful than ever as Philippa, and she has created one of the most wonderful roles ever seen on the screen.

In addition tomorrow only, Mrs. Vernon Castle will be seen in "Patria," and the latest Isserad Pathe News will also be shown. On Wednesday supporting "The Girl Philippa," a famous two-reel L-Ko comedy and a Pathe educational film will be exhibited. The prices for this extraordinary production have been scaled exceedingly low.

On Thursday the first episode of the new serial creation, "The Mystery of the Double Cross" will be shown at Proctor's with Mollie King and Leon Bary in the leading roles.

GERALDINE FARRAR IN "JOAN THE WOMAN"

Pronounced by press and public as the greatest motion picture of the century, "Joan the Woman," featuring Geraldine Farrar will come to Proctor's Theatre for a three-day engagement, beginning Monday, April 16.

At present it is in its third month of continued capacity crowds at the 44th Street Theatre, New York, and according to box office reports it has broken all records and will continue to do so for many months to come. Miss Farrar is not only known in pictures but is considered also by press and public to be standard's most artistic beauty of the Metropolitan Opera Company's famous opera star.

The glory and wonder of Joan of Arc live to the present day. The wonderful battle scenes in this picture is as spectacular as anything that has ever been attempted in filmdom; in fact, it's a whole lot more real than most picture scenes.

"Joan the Woman" is Cecil B. DeMille's triumphal cinema spectacle. It is bound to please both young and old and will be seen at popular prices. In a word, "Joan the Woman" is the highest development of the new dramatic art.—You'll appreciate this wonderful masterpiece of Miss Farrar's when you see it.

There are sixty clowns, a greatly increased menagerie of wild animals, four great herds of elephants, several caravans of camels and many recently born animals.

Headquarters of First Battalion, 2d N. J. Infantry, Located in New Brunswick

"Somewhere in New Jersey" is given as the location of Company K, Second Regiment, of this city. When the company left Elizabeth Friday in charge of Captain Charles A. Peterson the point of destination was not made public. It is known, however, that the headquarters of the battalion will be at the armory in New Brunswick, and from that point all orders will be given to the companies regarding future movements.

Company K was the first organization to leave Elizabeth Friday afternoon following the receipt of orders from the Adjutant-General's office and all its equipment was packed on special cars before noon.

As the company's new motor truck, heavily loaded with cots, tentage and other field equipment passed through Broad street, Elizabeth, on its way to the freight yards it attracted much interest. Company I, the second organization to leave Elizabeth, went out over the New Jersey Central.

Col. W. B. Martin, Major Conrad Hall, commander of the battalion; First Lieutenant Albert I. Littell, the battalion adjutant, and other officials departed for New Brunswick later in the day and established battalion headquarters in that city.

A number of promotions were announced in Companies K, C and F, before leaving Elizabeth. It is also expected that there will be some in Company I in a short time. Those in Company K are as follows: From corporal to sergeant, Ellis J. Carman, Myrton E. Glover and Adam A. Miller; private to sergeant, Walter R. Ellis and Robert McGoldrick; mess sergeant, Sergeant Carman; quartermaster-sergeant, Sergeant Glover; private of the first class to lance corporal, Ernest Bird, Albert Trotter; private to lance corporal, Charles H. Baumann, Raymond Lahr, Harry L. Vogel, Harold Willard and Oliver Pearson, Jr., in Company C, Private Sorge, Private Dudash, Private Knapp, Private H. Boyleand, Private Klubenspief were promoted to the rank of corporal, as were Private Felix Best and Private Raymond Tice in Company F.

For over 60 years, Father John's Medicine has been successfully treating colds and coughs and building new flesh and strength, without using alcohol or dangerous drugs in any form.

WELL EARNED VACATION

Governor Walter E. Edge will leave on April 21 for a ten days' rest at Virginia Hot Springs, and none who know how lavishly he has expended his physical and mental powers in the last year will doubt that he needs it.

From the time that he opened his primary campaign the Governor has had few days or nights that he could call his own. He has traveled thousands of miles and made hundreds of speeches.

During the legislative session he was constantly at his desk during the day, and there were few nights when he did not have an engagement to speak at some public function. Only a man exceptionally robust in mind and body could have stood the strain. He is entitled to a little play time.—Newark Sunday Call.

FEW DROPS AND CORN LIFTS OUT

Says there is no excuse for cutting corns and inviting lockjaw

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can harmlessly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quarter of an ounce of freezone at any drug store, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection.

This simple drug, while sticky, dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue.

This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heel footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.—Adv.

PLAINFIELDER NOW SECOND LIEUTENANT

Edward Jenkins, of Bayonne, a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus G. Jenkins, of First place, has passed his examinations for second lieutenancy in the regular army, and may receive his commission any time soon.

The young man is a graduate of the Plainfield H. S. and formerly lived here. He comes naturally by his patriotic spirit, because his grandfather was a second lieutenant in the 159th Regiment, New York Volunteers in the Civil War.

The young man served at Plattsburg last summer, and then took up the drills on Governor's Island, New York, to train for an officer in the regular army. He also attended the military school in New York.

PLAINFIELD BOYS TO REPORT AT ANNAPOLIS

Gerald Linke, of West Second street, has received orders to report for service at Annapolis June 6, as a result of the examination he took in February. He and Frederick Clay, of this city, both passed the February examinations for Annapolis, and were two of the one hundred and one who passed out of a total of 356.

PLAN FOR HEARING ON MILITARY TRAINING

The State Board of Education of which Ernest R. Ackerman, of this *city, is a member, will grant a hear*ing on Saturday morning, April 21, at 10 o'clock at the State House on that part of the Pierson bill which provides for military training in the public schools of the State. It is earnestly hoped that as many people as possible who are interested in this matter arrange to be present at the hearing and express their views on this important matter.

It is believed that there are a number of people in this part of the State who favor military training in the public schools as a part of the general plan for preparedness which has been adopted.

"TYPOS" WILL ASSIST NATION IN CRISIS

The International Typographical Union is one of the best labor organizations of the day, and under the leadership of its president, Marsden G. Scott, it is going to be helpful to the nation in the critical period now opening.

Mr. Scott leads off with an appeal to each newspaper, fraternal lodge, benevolent society, woman's club and trade union to plant an acre this year. He believes owners of land will grant the use of it.

He suggests that soldiers in the training camps give an hour or two a day to garden work; also Boy Scouts. "And if through the mercy of our all-wise Providence," he adds, "these crops are not needed in our own country we can help to appease the hunger of millions of old men, women and children in Europe."

WAR WITH GERMANY MEANS WAR

On the day set aside for commemoration of Christ's supreme sacrifice for humanity this Republic completed the formalities which mark its entrance into war for humanity. The American people are content with the written record of their country's inspiration and purpose. Now comes the record to be made by deeds.

To go to war for liberty and humanity is a crystallization of the idealism of a people of highest ideals. To fight that war with all their might is the intent of a people who have no thought of permitting idealism to hamper the practical business ahead.

The United States is at war with a government which not only represents the antithesis of all its ideals but also is the strongest military power on earth. War with Germans means war.

However callous the "man in the street" may be to ideals, he cannot be callous to the actualities that would flow from a victory for Germany over the United States. Victory for Germany would mean the destruction of our fleets, the demolition of our armies the devastation of at least a large portion of this land. It would mean extortion by Germany of a huge indemnity, for who can doubt that Germany would welcome an opportunity to wring from the American people the indemnity she could not hope to obtain from her other less favored enemies? That would make the now free people of this land a vassal people compelled to render tribute to the limit of their capacity. It would mean for the American taxpayer—pay, pay, pay.

That is the business side of this war with Germany. The "man in the street" is confronted with a problem vital to him and to every one of his fellow Americans. The United States or Germany, one or the other, must win in this war. A patriotism of words is not going to make the United States the victor; victory can come only through the patriotism that reveals itself in its deeds. This means that every American must do his full part for his country—and, for himself. At bottom his interest is selfish for should Germany win this land no longer will be the home of free men.—New York Herald.

MERCHANT MARINE

The Bureau of Navigation reports progress for the upbuilding of an American merchant marine. Since July, 1914, the tonnage under the Stars and Stripes has increased 351,114, although 201 vessels have been lost during that time through their transferral to a foreign register. Two hundred and four ships in this period were transferred to foreign flags, but the tonnage on the 204 that were gained was 664,925, while on the 405 ships lost it was only 315,811. American ship owners are selling their smaller boats and buying larger ones. The revival of wooden ship building is also predicted. It is pointed out that wooden ships can be built in much less time than iron ones. In building a wooden ship no great yards are necessary, and in fact there is hardly a place along the coast where it is possible to put up ways and turn out a big sailing vessel, or one propelled by steam, for that matter, in a short time. If this movement is really started on a large scale it will be to the advantage of American lumbermen and laborers. A standard plan of construction may be adopted and the knees and timbers sawed out in great numbers and shipped east or west to the coast and there assembled. As illustrating the quickness with which a wooden ship can be constructed it is recalled that during the gold excitement in California good-sized ships were turned out in ninety days. These vessels were sent around Cape Horn and paid for their building in one or two voyages. When Commodore Macdonough was ready for battle with the English on Lake Champlain in 1812 the brig Eagle of 500 tons had been built in nineteen days and most of the ships which defeated the British at that time had been thrown together with timbers sawed from the forests on the borders of the lake.

EDITORIAL NOTES

When Congress is in session, everyone wants it to adjourn and step up setting the country, and when it isn't in session there is a clamorous demand for it to meet and do business.

The Indian question in the public mind just now is not so much the condition of the Red Man as the prospects for the Cleveland ball team.

There is a feeling among many horse-owners that they can feed a good many scanty meals to their beasts before Kindness to Animals Sunday, comes, April 29.

The people who run the vegetable garden will always be postponing work until evening when it will be cool, and when evening comes they will postpone it until morning when they will be fresh and ready for work.

The United States could probably learn how to organize the resources of this country if it could seize the memorandas of the foreign plotters.

A great many people who are unable to save money on a liberal salary are convinced that they could run a billion-dollar government a great deal more efficiently than it is being done.

It was strange that the Germans neglected their usual plan in the case of this country, of marrying one of their princesses to a son of one of our presidents so as to control our home politics.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

Contribution for the Flag

To the Editor of the Courier-News:

Dear Sir: As a loyal member of the Betsy Ross Association, I wish to contribute toward the raising of a flag on the Crescent avenue site as has been proposed by writers in your paper. It has given me great pleasure to see the many flags displayed in our town. I am sure that all members of the association will be glad to do all they can for our glorious emblem of these United States.

"Long may it wave, or the land of the free and home of the brave."

Sincerely
MRS. IRVING WEAVER.

STIRRING MESSAGE ISSUED TO POLES

The following stirring message has been addressed to the Poles in America, by their own newspapers, and it is said among local men of that nationality that 150,000 will join the colors the moment the call comes.

"The die is cast. The chief of our grand republic, President Wilson, has declared war on the German nation, in the belief that peace cannot reign with the present German government; that the democracy of the world is threatened.

"In the history of the United States a memorable day shall be written. The men of the nation prepare for war in defense of their rights, in defense of their liberty, in the hope of a speedy realization of their objects and peace throughout the world.

"You Poles! In this vital moment stand united behind the President of the United States, gather under the star-spangled banner, the flag of our adoption—the flag that represents liberty, so dear to our hearts.

"Kosciuszko fought, and Pulaski fell for this grand cause, hundreds of our men fought in the civil war—today we will find thousands of sons of Poland in the various arms of service. All are eager to forfeit the last drop of blood for the flag—the flag of freedom—the flag of our adoption—for these United States.

"We should respect the flag of this republic till more in this hour of strife and call upon all our fellow countrymen to be loyal, to fulfill all duties which they may be called upon to perform for this country's sake.

"With the slogan for 'Your and our liberty' we will gather under the Star-Spangled Banner singing the song of our adoption:

"And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

ELECT DR. SAVITZ STATE NORMAL HEAD

Trenton, April 9.—(Special.)—Dr. J. J. Savitz, principal of the schools in Westfield, Union county, was elected principal of the State Normal school in this city by the State Board of Education to succeed Dr. James M. Green resigned. The change takes effect July 1, next. The salary is $5,500 besides a house near the school. Dr. Green resigned owing to ill health.

There was considerable opposition to the election of a new principal and the board split four to three on the question. The members voting to proceed with the election were John F. Murray, of Jersey City; Colonel D. Stewart Craven, of Salem; Edgar H. Sturtevant, of Edgewater, and ex-Senator Ernest R. Ackerman, of Plainfield.

The opposition was led by the new member, R. L. Cox, of Montclair, who succeeds Senator Edmund B. Osborne on the board. He tried to have the election postponed for a month and those voting with him were Thomas W. Symnot, of Wenonah, and Marvin A. Yates, of Red Bank. Dr. John C. Van Dyke, of New Brunswick, was acting chairman and did not vote.

RESCUE MISSION NOTE

Hughes Fawcett will be the speaker at the Rescue Mission service to be held this evening in the hall on Madison avenue. Everyone will receive a cordial welcome.

GIGANTIC BATTLE RAGING IN FRANCE

Both Sides Preparing for a Titantic Struggle.

London, April 9.—The most terrific battle ever waged in the world is continuing over the German lines in France.

On the ground there were sharp battles—mere skirmishes perhaps—feelers for the titanic struggle which military experts believe must begin, within a few days along the Hindenburg line. The German artillery fire continued very heavy at many points, indicating continued and thorough preparation by the victor of the Mazurin swamps to attempt to strike a fatal blow at the allied troops before they have opportunity to dig themselves in on the open ground which they took as the Germans fell back.

The British war office reported that the aerial squadrons had made several successful raids, dropping large quantities of bombs on airdromes, transports and ammunition stations. One battery in action was hit by bombs from aeroplanes. Three hangars were destroyed by one party of aviators.

The British troops advanced along the Bapaume-Cambrai road over a front 3,000 yards wide, says the official statement. The battle raged north of the village of Louveral.

The French penetrated the German lines in Belgium at two points near Lombartzyde, says the Paris report. Many German dead were found in a trench blown up by French fire.

Grenades were used to repel an attack by Germans on the Paschendaele canal.

The French also repulsed a surprise attack by the Germans in the Vosges.

An attempt by the French to gain ground near Laffaux was broken down by German fire "with heavy losses," says the official report from Berlin.

British aeroplanes sank a German destroyer and crippled a second boat of the same class off Zeebrugge, the British admiralty announced. Seaplanes also dropped many bombs on ammunition depots at Ghent and Bruges.

SOLDIER KILLS BANKER.

Bullet Fired at Skulker Enters House at Callicoon.

Monticello, N. Y., April 9.—A stray bullet from a national guardsman's rifle killed John Dering, prominent banker and business man of Sullivan county, in his home at Callicoon. Dering was at the dining table when a bullet crashed through a four inch door jam, pierced his abdomen and then penetrated the wall of the house.

John T. Kell of a national guard regiment on duty in this section fired the shot. There are several versions of the slaying, but the authorities are convinced it was accidental.

According to one report, Kell fired at a tramp who ran away from a railroad bridge after being ordered to halt. The shot was fired over the tramp's head to frighten him, and the steel nosed bullet carried to the home of Dering.

MAINE LOG OUTPUT FALLS.

Lack of Men and Bad Weather Hamper Operations.

Bangor, Me., April 9.—Maine's logging output has fallen from 10 to 25 per cent below what has been planned for the season just closed, lumber men stated. In an effort to take advantage of the stated high prices the season had been lengthened and every effort made to get out a big cut, but operations were upset by bad weather and lack of men.

Formerly Maine's log cut was roughly estimated at 800,000,000 feet, but with the advent of the pulp industry the state has entered the "thousand million class." The largest cut of the present season is credited to the Kennebec river district, with a total of 237,905,000 feet.

FIVE BILLION WAR LOAN NEXT

Bond Issue for Huge Amount Administration Plan.

U. S. FLEET OUT FOR ACTION

Congress Takes Up Work Today of Financing Stupendous War Expenses and Pushing Army and Navy Legislation—Conscription Feature of Army Bill Faces Opposition, but Leaders Are Certain It Will Be Enacted.

Washington, April 9.—"Watch the fleet" is the war slogan here today while President Wilson, his executive lieutenants and congress prepare to carry out the stupendous war plans agreed upon.

The first "real war news," Washington believes, will come from "some where in the Atlantic, where the American grand fleet is under war orders shrouded in mystery. No word as to the disposition of a single unit of the fleet will be given out at the navy department. Secretary Daniels said, until there is definite news of actual occurrences.

The censorship will be rigidly maintained until an actual engagement has taken place, and even then the announcement may be delayed. Meantime America's naval force is at sea and ready for action, whether it be against the submarine menace or German raiders.

As the navy prepared for action the drive for superpreparedness went on with redoubled energy. Officials are working on detailed plans of co-operation between the American navy and the fleets of the entente powers, and complete arrangements for putting the plans into effect were made.

The plans for financial co-operation with the allies were considered by the president's advisers, and it was decided to press congress at once for the necessary legislation to pay for the great $2,500,000,000 military plans of the administration and to extend a loan of two or three billions to the entente powers. The ways and means committee of the house and the finance committee of the senate got down to work today under pressure from the executive departments and the White House to push legislation to authorize the contemplated war bond issue of $5,000,000,000 and to increase the revenues of the government from taxes to meet the stupendous war expenditures.

Rush Big Army Bill.

Congress also has been pressed to rush at once the army bill framed by the war department, which contemplates the increase of the regular army and the militia to war strength, and the addition to the present forces of an immediate enlistment of 500,000 men to be raised by a selective draft. Despite indications of opposition to the conscription features of the army bill, the administration believes that it will be enacted into law promptly and be in operation within a short time.

Precautions taken to meet the enemy within the gates brought abundant results, according to reports from all over the country reaching the department of justice. In the neighborhood of 300 arrests of German aliens for various anti-American activities were reported to the department as a result of the dragnet which began sweeping the country as soon as the president issued his proclamation regulating the conduct of enemy aliens.

Agents of the department of justice and secret service men are showing great activity on the Mexican border, and a general cleanup of suspicious persons is that part of the country has been ordered. It was estimated that a total of 100 arrests in the Texas district on the border either have already been made or are contemplated. It was stated that if the circumstances surrounding these arrests were made public they would show a sensational state of affairs along the nation's border.

Congress Acts Today.

The serious work of congress in the upbuilding of the military and naval forces of the United States for the coming struggle against the imperial German government began with the resumption of the sessions of the two houses today. Since the passage of the resolution declaring a state of war to exist the house itself has rested, while its committees having in conjunction the bills for the increase of the national treasury balance, the creation of a modern army on a war footing, the increase of the navy, the doubling of the marine corps and for the fortification of the judiciary with designs for drastic legislation against treasonable conspiracies and the activities of spies have worked hard. Today will find the ways and means committee of the house ready for an open discussion of a number of the necessary measures.

Something in the nature of a new procedure in the matter of handling the new and stupendous necessary war appropriations will be taken up in the house. The appropriations committee will assume a new function as the committee for the whole war appropriation. The administrative features of the army and navy legislation will be undertaken as usual by the committees of military and naval affairs, but the appropriations committee will participate in the work of allotting the funds for the two branches of the fighting forces.

This relieves the military affairs committee of a vast amount of the detail of preparation and review of the war expenditures and leaves it free to the drafting of the two bills establishing a modern army—namely, the compulsory military training measures, which is to be a matter of permanent practice in national affairs, and the immediate conscription bill proposed by the administration to replace the volunteer system.

As an emergency measure the conscription bill will receive first consideration in the house as well as in the senate. While the military affairs committee supports its bill on the floor the appropriations committee will summon to its hearings cabinet officials and bureau chiefs with a view to rushing through the war supply bills.

Upon the shoulders of the ways and means committee of the house will devolve the task of putting the treasury on a war footing. The issuance of the three and more billion dollars of credit must be taken care of at once.

Thus far not a word has escaped from the ways and means committee as to the means which it proposes to employ in practically doubling the revenues of the government. It is assumed, however, by those associated with Chairman Kitchin and his colleagues that the splendid increase in the present taxation will come in the income tax, the excess of profit tax, the inheritance tax, with here and there an advance in customs duties and certain special taxes in the internal revenue section of the existing statutes.

Plans For New Army.

Complete plans for the organization of the new land force with the regular army and militia at war strength and an immediate increment of 500,000 men for the national army have been prepared by the war department.

The regular army and the militia will serve as a training force for the first 500,000 men, and as additional increments are called for in similar numbers the training force will be recruited from the first half million. The training will be given at camps throughout the country on a scale never even contemplated by the United States.

Meantime the war department has worked out estimates for the equipment of the land forces up to any number that may be called out for both open and trench warfare.

Steel helmets, gas masks, bombs, hand grenades, trench mortars and all the new war paraphernalia which has come into being within the last three years of intensive battle will be provided for the new American forces under the war department plans.

In many cases the supply of these articles will have to come from newly established factories because at present they are not manufactured in this country.

ASBURY PARK WILL REBUILD

Work of Reconstruction to Be Rushed.

BURNED AREA BEING CLEARED

Bids For New Natatorium Will Be Opened Next Monday, and City May Do Work Itself if Contractors Say Time Is Too Short to Make Tenders. First Methodist to Replace Burned Home by Imposing Structure.

Asbury Park, April 9.—Undismayed by the destruction by fire of four blocks in the heart of its hotel colony, Asbury Park is already planning to rebuild the burned area. The city commission met and decided to begin today the work of clearing away the ruins of the beach front Natatorium, where the fire started Thursday night, preparatory to beginning at once the work of reconstruction.

Bids for a building of semi-fireproof construction of steel and brick will be opened April 16. It is feared that there will be no bids, the time being so short. In this event the city itself will engage a contractor to do the work at a profit of 10 per cent. If the feat is possible a fine new structure, better in every way than the former building, will be completed by July 1 at the latest.

The congregation of the First Methodist Episcopal church, the brick walls of which held the blaze at Grand avenue, is also actuated by the same spirit. Plans are being formed to erect before conference time next year a church that will surpass the old one in every way. The congregation met yesterday in the Lyric theater and later will take up temporary quarters in Educational hall.

Murphy & Krug, proprietors of an amusement place that stood opposite the Natatorium, will begin work soon upon a fireproof structure that will house many more amusement features than the one destroyed, and Morris May, proprietor of the Winthrop, the finest of the hotels destroyed, is making an effort to rebuild before summer. Those plots which are not built upon before the season opens will be cleared and converted into parks.

DR. SAVITZ ELECTED.

Westfield Principal Chosen State Normal School Head.

Trenton, April 9.—Dr. J. J. Savitz, principal of the schools in Westfield, Union county, has been elected principal of the State Normal school in this city by the state board of education to succeed Dr. James M. Green, resigned. The change takes effect July 1 next. The salary is $3,500, besides a house near the school.

There was considerable opposition to the election of a new principal at this time, and the board split 4 to 3 on this question. The members voting to proceed with the election were John P. Stevens of Jersey City, Colonel D. Stewart Craven of Salem, Edgar H. Sturtevant of Edgewater and former Senator Ernest R. Ackerman of Plainfield.

The opposition was led by the new member, R. L. Cox of Montclair, who succeeds Senator Edmund B. Osborne on the board. He tried to have the election postponed for a month.

Mrs. Matilda O'Brien, wife of the late William S. O'Brien, and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Martine, of New York, died last night at her home, "Cedar Brook," on Watchung avenue, following a long illness from complications. She was born in New York where she spent her early life and for a number of years made her home in this city from time to time after the death of her husband.

Mrs. O'Brien was a sister of the late Judge Randolph B. Martine, a well-known jurist of New York, and a cousin of former United States Senator James E. Martine. She was a member of Grace Episcopal church, this city, and a regular communicant up to the time of her last illness.

She leaves one sister, Mrs. Stephen D. Day, of Orange, and four cousins, Mrs. W. W. Myers, Miss Ella Martine, James E. Martine and D. W. Martine, of this city. The funeral will be held Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at "Cedar Brook." Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson officiating and the burial will be in the family plot in Sleepy Hollow cemetery, Tarrytown, N. Y.

SEVENTH DAY BAPTIST CHURCH OBSERVED EASTER

Very appropriate services were held Saturday forenoon at the Seventh Day Baptist church when a program of Easter anthems and responsive readings were held. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Edwin Shaw. Dr. Shaw took for his theme "The Easter Assurance," selecting his text from Luke, 24:34. His talk was in keeping with the occasion and most interesting to the congregation. There was special music by the choir, which was much enjoyed by all present.

Mr. William Hill made a brief address at the session of the Sunday school in the afternoon. He expects to remove from Bernardsville either on Wednesday or Thursday, after which he will be prepared to take the active work of the church. Dr. Randolph, his predecessor here, preached in his new charge at Hasbrouck Heights yesterday. He will remove his household goods from this city during the early part of the week.

JONATHAN B. QUIPP DIES IN 85TH YEAR

Jonathan B. Quipp, aged eighty-five years, died Saturday night at his home 311 Clinton avenue, of paralysis, with which he was stricken about a year ago. Since that time he had practically been helpless and was unable to leave his home.

Mr. Quipp was a native of Lincolnshire, England, coming to this country sixty years ago, and locating in New York. For many years he was engaged in business there as a wood-worker.

Mr. Quipp had been a resident of Plainfield for seventeen years and had lived retired the greater part of that time. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. William Dignam, of Newark, and Mrs. Jennie L. Ray, of Brooklyn, also three sons, Harry L. Quipp, of Parkersburg, Va.; Frank W. Quipp, of Westfield and Fred E. Quipp, of this city, and a granddaughter, Miss Ethel Quipp, a trained nurse.

The funeral will be held at the late home at 8 o'clock tomorrow night, and will be private. Rev. C. H. Mabery will officiate, and the burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery, New York, on Wednesday.

Rev. J. W. Flynn, the new pastor of the Monroe Avenue Methodist church, succeeding Rev. Dr. D. F. Randolph, occupied the pulpit of that church yesterday for the first time. There was special music by the choir, which was much enjoyed by all present.

Mr. Flynn also made a brief address at the session of the Sunday school in the afternoon. He expects to remove from Bernardsville either on Wednesday or Thursday, after which he will be prepared to take the active work of the church. Dr. Randolph, his predecessor here, preached in his new charge at Hasbrouck Heights yesterday. He will remove his household goods from this city during the early part of the week.

BURGLARS WERE BUSY AT WESTFIELD

Special to the Courier-News:

Westfield, April 9.—Burglars yesterday entered the house of William R. Riker, of Tremont avenue, this place, taking away about $1,000 worth of jewelry as their loot. Entrance to the house was made about 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon through a window from a porch, while members of the household were out for the afternoon. It is supposed by the local police that the men who did the job are the same as those who made hauls in both Roselle and Elizabeth over the week-end.

DR. FRIEDLANDER CALLED BY DEATH

Rabbi of Temple Sholem Passes Away at Muhlenberg After Short Illness

Rev. Dr. Joseph Friedlander, aged 58 years, for the past year rabbi of Temple Sholem, died at Muhlenberg Hospital, last night, following a week's illness with a complication of diseases. His death was unexpected, however, for earlier in the day plans were being made to have the rabbi go to Lakewood in the hope that the change might prove beneficial.

Dr. Friedlander was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, and was graduated from the Jewish College in London, England. He came to this country about twenty years ago, following a pastorate in Melbourne, Australia. For 10 years he was pastor of a temple at Beaumont, Texas, and served another congregation in Waco, the same State for a time. Prior to coming here he was pastor of a temple at Hamilton, Canada. He was also active in the Zionist movement in England and this country.

The rabbi was widely-known as a contributor to Jewish periodicals, and had just completed all but the preface to an anthology of Hebrew poetry on which he had been working for the past ten years. It was only yesterday morning that he remarked that he hoped to write the preface to his book within a short time. During his stay in this city Temple Sholem prospered and the congregation had increased. His death is a source of deep regret.

Dr. Friedlander leaves one brother, John Friedlander, head of the religious department of the Hebrew Sheltering Guardian Society, with headquarters at Plensanville, N. Y.

The funeral will be held at Temple Sholem at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and will be incharge of Rev. Jacob Goldstein, of Bensonhurst, L. I. assisted by Rev. Solomon Foseter, of Newark.

LOCAL HORSESHOERS

The high cost of materials has hit the local blacksmiths as well as other business in this locality. The horseshoers have announced that hereafter the prevailing price of putting on shoes of the favorite steed will be $2.50 instead of $2.00. This was agreed upon the first of the month. A blacksmith said today that the cost of material had jumped over fifty per cent. in the past six months and it is continually advancing.

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH EASTER SERVICE

Smith; recitation, "Mary Magdalene," Miss Edna Smith; exercise, "The First Violets," Olive Hook, Josie Young, Amy Loughlin, Muriel Olmsted, Marie Glaentzer; exercise, "The Penny Brigade," Irene Meerman, Jack McKay, George Rittenhouse, Elizabeth Trembath, Richard Meeker, Grace Rockfellow, William Young, Wilma Van Horn, Stanley Higgins, Ruth Zepp, John Hedrick, Lonnie Tallamy, Stanley Neighbour, Eleanor Sheppard; song, "Pretty Little Blossoms," Catherine Wirth, Dorothy Heege, Myrtle De Nise, Louise Tallamy, Eleanor Sheppard, Kathey Rose; recitation, Margaret MacIntyre; recitation, Hazel Youngborn; address by the pastor, Doxology; Benediction.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If Feverish, Bilious, Constipated, Give Fruit Laxative at Once

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, sour, undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy. Mother! A little given now saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

SCHOOL TEACHER

Anaemic, Run-down, Nervous—How She Recovered.

There are so many cases like this right here in Plainfield that we are publishing this interesting letter with the hope that some of our customers will try Vinol and get the same happy result that Miss Baez did.

Key West, Fla.—"I am a teacher and became anaemic, nervous, run-down, no energy or desire to do anything. I could not sleep and had that languid, nervous feeling that made me a burden to myself. I had taken various tonics without benefit. I heard of Vinol and tried it. Soon I had a good appetite, could sleep all night and it built me up so I have the ambition to do any kind of work." Mary L. Baez, Key West, Fla.

The reason Vinol was so successful in this case is because it is a constitutional remedy that goes to the seat of trouble. The peptonate of iron manganese and glycerophosphates contained in Vinol enriches and revitalizes the blood, while the strengthening, tissue-building properties of beef and cod liver peptone aid in building up the tired, overworked, run-down system.

PROHIBITION AS WAR MEASURE NOT NEEDED

By United Press:

Washington, April 9.—Prohibition as a war measure is not regarded necessary now, army officials declare. Present laws suffice to keep liquor from training camps and other military stations, they say.

While there is a move in Congress among the "drys" to seek prohibition under the plea of war necessity, this idea found no general sympathetic response among military men today.

MRS. FARLEY'S FUNERAL YESTERDAY

The funeral of Mrs. Emily Farley was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Stephen Kennett, West Fourth street. There were beautiful floral tributes to the memory of the deceased. Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, of the First M. E. church, conducted the service. Interment took place in the local Methodist Cemetery.

The Substitution.

It is a well known fact that both Sir Arthur Sullivan and Sir W. S. Gilbert had a horror of the titles of their operas becoming known until the very night of their performance. This fear that they might be forestalled created considerable confusion at the initial production of "Iolanthe; or, The Peer and the Peri." The opera was rehearsed for weeks under the title of "Perola," and only at the dress rehearsal that the company was instructed to substitute the name Iolanthe for that of Perola wherever it occurred in the text or lyrics. It was no easy task to replace vocally and in the dialogue a name of three syllables for one of four. Sullivan, however, said (maybe aside) to one or two of the actors who were nervous: "Go ahead and sing the music. Gilbert won't be in front" (Gilbert never attended the first night), "so use any name that you think of first if you are rattled. No one in the audience will be any wiser."

Death Dealing Kisses.

The most famous example of kisses that have caused death is furnished by the story of the sprightly young Duchess of Gordon, who raised so many recruits for the famous Gordon highlanders. In the early days of the regiment recruiting was very slow, but the duchess attired herself in the regimental colors and made a tour of the various markets and fairs, offering to each recruit a guinea and a kiss.

Most of the recipients paid for the kiss with their lives. No sooner was the regiment raised than it was sent to fight the French, and in the first engagement in which the duchess' recruits participated there was a loss of 300 killed and wounded. All the light flanking company was hit save one, and he, curiously enough, did not happen to be a recipient of the young duchess' kiss. He was a canny Aberdeenshire man, and for an extra guinea he sold his right to another person to a kiss from the duchess' ruby lips. —London Graphic.

The Fire Worshipers.

Azerbaijan, a province in northwestern Persia, is the home of the descendants of the Ghebers, the ancient fire worshipers of Persia. The whole countryside is admirably adapted to the propagation of a fire worshiping creed, for earthquakes and caverns vomiting flames from subterranean conflagrations abound in the neighborhood of Tabriz. One of the most remarkable caverns in the world is that of Secundereh, whose character resembles the Grotto del Cane of Naples. It gives off noxious fumes, which at certain times are certain death to man and beast. But the most astonishing place in Azerbaijan is the ruined city of Takht-i-Suleimani, or Solomon's temple. The city stands on a hill 150 feet high, with a wall of thirty feet embracing the crumbling remains of temple and shrine. In the midst is a "lake of deepest azure." Although most of the buildings are of the Mohammedan period, there is one striking mass which has been identified as the temple of the fire worshipers.

SUDDEN DEATH OF GEORGE W. MONFORT

Had Been Photographer With Studio on E. Front St. for Thirty-three Years

George W. Monfort, the well-known Plainfield photographer, died last night at ten o'clock, following a seizure of heart failure that struck him two hours previously. He had, however, been suffering intermittently since the early part of February. He was sixty years of age. The funeral will be held at his late residence on Arlington avenue, on Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating. The interment will be made in Hillside avenue.

Mr. Monfort was born in Maspeth, L. I. As a young man he was engineer on a passenger boat plying on Lake Tupper, the Adirondacks. In 1870 he removed to Mt. Bethel. A year later he came to this city and shortly afterward became partner in the photographic firm of Fisher & Monfort, doing business on East Front street, over what is now the Griffen hardware store. On the death of Mr. Fisher, he took over the entire control of the business, and retained it up to the time of his death, having completed thirty-three years in that business.

He always showed a particular fondness for animals and birds, and often brought home stray cats and dogs. He fed the wild birds every day, and literally hundreds of them still come around the house every morning to be fed.

Mr. Monfort leaves his wife, Mrs. Ida G. Johnson Monfort, and one brother, C. J. Monfort.

RAISINS

The raisin is a worn-out grape. Its evolution is peculiar. First a bunch of young, full-blooded, ambitious grapes grows itself on a vine. Then it waits for somebody to come along and pick it. Nobody comes. And it waits and waits. Pretty soon it gets tired of waiting. So it shrivels up and becomes a bunch of raisins. By this time it's pretty sorry on the world, and it goes around with its head full of seeds, making itself as unpopular as possible. It gets into fruit cake, mince pie, rice pudding and other places where it can cause trouble. Fortunately, however, most raisins are caught early in their disgruntled career nowadays and denatured.

SECRETARY'S FIGURES UPHELD BY LEAGUE

After more or less discussion during the latter part of last week as to whether the City Bowling League race had been won by the Elks by a fraction of a game or ended in a tie between that team and the Imperials of North Plainfield was brought to a close Saturday evening when the figures of Secretary George Howe were upheld by a meeting of representatives of all teams of the circuit. Secretary Howe on Saturday made public the final standing of the league, showing that the Elks had won first place honors, with the Imperials a close second, producing his records at the Saturday evening session to prove his contention.

The difference of opinion on the final standing of the league was brought about through the failure of captains to supply promptly the scores of various games rolled and other managers losing track of the records in consequence. The individual averages of the league will be made public within the course of a day or two.

BRIT MARTIN RESIGNS AS LEAGUE LEADER

Through reliable sources it was learned this morning that D. B. Martin, president of the Central New Jersey League, recently revived after a sleep of several years, had resigned his position as head of the circuit. An effort to secure information as to what action had been taken on the resignation has failed up to the time of going to press.

It is expected in some quarters that a meeting of the league will be called during the next few days, at which efforts will be made to secure the latest leader for the circuit.

SOME FIGHT PROMISES OF THIS MAN FULTON

If Fred Fulton becomes the world's heavyweight champion he's going to be a heavyweight champion for the benefit of the fighting public. Stated in the words of his manager, Frank E. Force, Fulton intends to fight once every three months if he comes into possession of the Jess Willard title.

"Jess Willard and a great many other champions are dead wrong, the way I look at it," said Force. "They sit around and wait for somebody to get good enough to fight. Lots of times there's a husky youngster clamoring for a match who would be a big drawing card if the bout was arranged. Instead they wait around until he gets so good that they are taking big chances in going into a ring with him. You can believe me when I say that just as fast as these hard youngsters begin showing signs of class Fulton's going after them and he's going to lay them away while the laying's good. It's mighty easy to get beat by a strong youngster with lots of speed, pep and endurance.

"Why, Willard made the greatest mistake of his life when he didn't take on Fulton a year ago. He could have beaten Fred then, the chances are. Now when he gets ready to meet this big fellow he's going to have a whale of a fight on his hands, with the chances mighty strong he'll be beaten. Willard's policy has been to sit around, get fat and wait for someone to get good enough to beat him. And, believe me, Fulton has grown that good."

There's more than idle speculation in what Force said. In case one of these tough youngsters should come along and get going good he might be ready for a real claim to a bout for the championship in a short time. If the champion can point back to a knock-out when the youth was a comer he can postpone the meeting with that youngster almost indefinitely.

Fulton, so far, has lived up to what Force says. He has met all the tough youngsters and knocked them off. He has gone carefully back over his record and finished off the scrappers who had once held him short of victory. He has made a careful campaign and improved fast. Jess Willard's crown rests mighty feebly on his ponderous brow as a bout with Fulton looms nearer and nearer.

SAMPTOWN NAVY YARD SCENE OF A BATTLE

Every young man needs exercise, and General Leonard Wood has advised the athletic authorities throughout the country not to discontinue athletic activities. Baseball, despite today's surprise package of snow, is the sport of the hour, and a particularly exciting game was played in the vicinity of Samptown yesterday afternoon. The "home guard" repelled the invaders advance, coming out on top of an 18 to 6 "heap."

For two reasons the home team was called "Murphy's musicians" and the invaders "Gaffney's Goats." Victory was music to the ears of the villagers. It must be remembered that "noise" is often incorrectly associated with "music." Heavy hitting and excellent sprinting featured the game, which efforts will be made to secure the latest, and it wasn't the heavy hitters who did the sprinting, either.

ROD AND GUN

Anglers returning from Somerset county say that trout fishing is good in the streams that were stocked. One of these is the Neshanic. This brook follows the Raritan river in several places, and anglers can try both of them.

* * * *

Flounders are running quite plentifully, and one of the best places to fish for them is in the Shrewsbury river. There is a bulkhead at Water Witch, the station this side of the Highlands, where flounders can be caught without going into a boat. The bridge that crosses the river at the Highlands and the pier at the Sandlass pavilion can also be fished from.

* * * *

Such large streams as the Pequest, Musconetcong and Raritan rivers are now considered among the foremost streams in the country. Catching the limit of trout from them happens every day, and as the stream gets lower they will be even better. Cold weather in the northern part of the State holds the water back in the ground, and a warm spell of a week's duration will raise the streams a foot or more.

The Government on May 15 will open to the fishermen of the United States the greatest paradise of its kind in America. It is the 85,000-acre Pisgah National Forest, near Asheville, N. C., to protect the waters of which the Government purchased the estate of the late George W. Vanderbilt, consisting of 125 square miles. With that addition to the forest preserve the headwaters of its navigable streams are fully protected.

LIVELY GAME IN WEST END

(Contributed.)

The real opening of the baseball season in the West End took place on Saturday afternoon on the new Stillman diamond on Grant avenue, when Pete Steren and Morris Attlee met Jack Steven and Gibson Buttfield and defeated them by a score of 11 to 12.

The sides were short of men, but the going was fast. Attlee made three three-baggers and Pete made two three-baggers. Pete caught Jack on a home run or there might have been a different tale, for Jack's fast ball was going strong.

Buttfield pitched a fine game and got in some original curves.

CARRIERS WIN

The Courier-News carriers defeated the Netherwood Juniors Saturday morning by the score of 6 to 2. The Juniors got but one hit off Lynch, who pitched for the carriers. Gerlach made three of the seven hits made by the carriers.

CHIPS FROM THE CLAYS

Through the article recently published about left-handed trapshooters attention has been called to a squad of left-handed trapshooters that seldom missed a trapshooting tournament in the Missouri Valley ten or a dozen years ago. This squad remained intact for two years, and in that time did not suffer a defeat.

The slogan at all shoots was, "Let's get up a squad to trim the southpaws." Many tried; none succeeded. The southpaws were willing to engage any squad in competition.

This squad was composed of Frank C. Methl, George L. Carter, Billy Heer, Martin Diefenderfer, as regulars, and the pick of one of the number of southpaws that usually attended the shoots. Methl and Heer were professionals in those days, and still are. Carter, an amateur then, is a professional now. Methl is the secretary of the Pacific Coast Indians. Heer compiled the greatest average of any trapshooter until Homer Clark put up new figures in 1916. Diefenderfer won the Grand American Handicap in Kansas City in 1903—making three southpaws who won the G. A. H. Because of ear trouble Diefenderfer stopped shooting several years ago.

Trapshooters Are Now Preparing

Preparedness is the watchword of the trapshooter these days. He is preparing for the great spring drive. The list of registered tournaments has been announced by the Interstate Association, some 500, and the trusty gun is getting its annual overhauling.

The Miwikims, the Middle Western organization of professional trapshooters, will conduct its first shooting tournament September 4, 5, 6 and 7.

Forty-two thousand targets were trapped at the Elkhart (Ind.) Gun Club in 1916. During the same year the Central Ohio League trapped 61,000. It had an average attendance of 96 at the shoots, and threw 12,256 targets for each shoot.

The championship of the West Jersey Trapshooters' League was decided in the last match and by the last shooters when Moorestown won by defeating Farragut 326 to 318.

Spokane, Wallace, Kellog, Palouse, Garfield, Kalespell, Sunnyside, Pitlatch, Pendleton, Lewiston, Wenatchee, Pomeroy—all enterprising Northwest cities—are represented in the Inland Empire League.

In a record shoot of the Hot Air Club, of Philadelphia, Chief Bender broke 139 out of 150 targets; Grover Cleveland Alexander, 130; Joe Bush, 127; Billy Killifer, 125, and Izzy Hoffman, 115. It was a ball players' squad.

James W. Stuber, editor of an Upper Sandusky newspaper, has been elected president of the Ohio Fish and Game Inspectors' Association.

Charles E. Hummer, of Marietta, Pa., is the new Pennsylvania State champion at live birds. He killed 19 out of 20 in the State shoot.

Iowa has set aside 400,000 acres for game reservations, and North Dakota has three game refuges and farms comprising 3,48[illegible] acres.

BOROUGH ALUMNI BOWS TO N. P. H. S.

Old Timers Go Down to Diamond Defeat by a Single Run

History repeated itself on Hyde Oval Saturday afternoon in the N. P. H. S.-Alumni fracas when the high school players nosed out their older opponents to the tune of 7 to 6. Coming to bat with the score even at 6 runs each in their half of the eighth stanza, the borough schoolboys on a pass, an out and sacrifice hit scored the deciding run with two down and although the grads managed to get two men on the sacks in the ninth with two out, Sid Dunning made the next batter pop up, squelching the rally.

N. P. H. S. showed a very formidable attack at the very start of the game and in its last half of the first inning managed to find Moran for two hits, but was unable to cross the pan until the second, when McDonough came through with a double between centre and left field. Dunning larruped out a twin decker, putting his team in front 5 to 0. With this score to work on the high school slabman eased up a bit in the fifth when the grads came through with two on Bailey's Texas leaguer. Two errors, a hit and another error accounted for the Alumni scores in the seventh frame.

In its half of the seventh N. P. H. S. spoiled a chance to new up the game and thereby due in some poor base running. A long single to right, a pass and two-bagger by Townley paved the way for a few more counters for the Alumni in the eighth.

North Plainfield smothered any and possibility of an extra innins game in its half. Mair and McDonough led the borough swatters with two each, with Bailey, '11, Martin McDonough, '16, and George Townley, '12, holding up the grads' end in the batting line.

JEALOUSY STIRS TWO CRACKER BOX-WHITTLERS

By United Press:

Chanute, Kan., April 9.—Professional jealousy has stirred the risibilities of the two acknowledged cracker box whittlers of Kansas. It came about thus:

A. B. Baker, an old soldier of this city, has been a famous whittler all his life, but until the past year had never had occasion to prove his right to the State championship. It was his by default, according to his enemies; by consent, according to his friends.

But last year another old soldier whittler, John Barker, came to Chanute. He believed he was more adept at the art than Baker and did not hesitate to say so. Furthermore, he whittled out several snigger articles to prove his contention. Old Man Baker snorted in disdain and set about to show the outsider a few wrinkles in what could be done with a pocket knife and a piece of wood. He secured such soft wood as pine and used oak or walnut when he could get it. The contest now is nearing the close of its first year.

Baker's friends now claim the championship for him from the fact that through a thick walnut board he has whittled out a picture frame made of 104 small pieces and joined together so adeptly that no one can tell where the joints are made. Baker and his friends, as you might say, pause for reply.

SPORTS AS FIREMEN

A dance at the Essex County Club, West Orange, was interrupted by cries that the big residence of William D. Sargent, opposite the clubhouse, in Hutton Park, was on fire. A score of men in evening clothes hurried from the dancing floor and reached the Sargent home before the firemen arrived. They formed a "salvage squad," and by quick work saved many art treasures.

LOCAL BASEBALL PLANS COMING OUT

City and Borough on Verge of Another National Pastime Season

Baseball will from now on be the order of the day and fans will have something to talk about to break in on many a war argument. The borough season was opened Saturday afternoon when the N. P. H. S. lads won over the Alumni aggregation. The junior season for the city side of *Greenbrook will see its opening to-*morrow afternoon.

The latter movement will have its feature in the Public School League, the schedule of which for the week is as follows: Tuesday, Irving vs. Evergreen; Wednesday, Grammar vs. Jefferson; Saturday, Washington vs. Whittier. The circuit is being cared for under the auspices of the Public Recreation Committee.

Next Saturday the borough school will inaugurate the regular schedule of games at Morristown, stacking bats against the high school of that place. It is expected that the dates for the P. H. S. team will be announced during the course of the next few days.

Westfield High School will open up at the suburban diamond next Saturday afternoon with the faculty men. The Somerville High School will not get into action until Wednesday of next week, when it will entertain the Bound Brook aggregation.

Nothing has been heard from the Central New Jersey League of late and it is a little uncertain as to just when this newly organized circuit will get into action. The City League, however, has already set Saturday, April 28, as its opening date and a schedule of games is now being drawn up by Secretary Dan Randolph. This schedule will also be made public in the course of the next week or ten days.

CHAMPIONSHIP SHOOT

Special Correspondence:

Westfield, April 9.—At the traps of the Westfield Golf Club Saturday was a shoot for the championship of the club at 100 birds. Spencer Gales was the winner, hitting 89 out of the 100 and defeating Fred S. Slater by one bird, the latter hitting 88. The prize was a gold watch fob valued at $20.

Gales and Slater tied at 25, 50 and 75 birds. There was a high wind at the traps and they pulled slow. The others who took part in the shoot and their scores follow: R. I. Nichols, 85; F. W. Smith, 84; E. B. Woodruff, 84.

APPOINTED ON CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

Albert L. Stillman, who has just been appointed by Governor Edge as one of the five members of the new State Civil Service Commission, is a son of the late Dr. Thomas B. Stillman, of Hoboken, and nephew of William M. Stillman, of this city. He is a grandson of the late Dr. Charles H. Stillman, builder of Music Hall, now the Proctor Theatre, and founder of the Plainfield public school system.

Mr. Stillman's father was head of the Chemistry Department of Stevens Institute of Technology, and was known throughout the country as a consulting chemist. Like his father the young man has much scientific achievement to his credit. He is in charge of the industrial department of the New York Banking House of Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co. He was born in Hoboken in 1883, was graduated from Rutgers, and from the Michigan Military Academy and the Columbia School of Mines.

BUILDING A BETTER MERCANTILE CREDIT

Practical Way Telephone Solves Real Difficulty.

New ways are being discovered daily to harness the telephone more and more firmly to business, and checking credit by telephone is one of these.

The method, as practiced by the Credit Clearing House, in the heart of the wholesale district and suit section of New York City, is described in The Telephone Review, N. Y., as an eminently practical and effective way of making the telephone solve a real difficulty.

Cutting down the big risk of doing business is the object of much effort on the part of merchants in all lines of business. Wholesale merchants are constantly confronted with the problem of determining whether or not to extend credit to retailers and, if credit is extended, the amount. How to determine all this while the buyer is in the wholesale establishment is also a vital problem, for the representative of the house might endeavor to sell a large bill of goods, if the buyer's credit were good, instead of merely taking a small order. Often, too, a retail merchant's credit may be good to-day and bad a month from to-day.

The problem of solving all these difficulties for wholesalers in women's wear lines has been largely met by the telephone service rendered by the Credit Clearing House. The method followed by members of this house in securing "up-to-the-minute" information about the credit of buyers and their ability to pay for goods they desire to purchase is most interesting. For example, John Jones from Blankville, who is in New York for the purpose of purchasing some waists, drops in to see the stock that Smith & Company is handling. While the salesman is showing him their stock a client in the office telephones to the Credit Clearing House obtains the rating of John Jones and gives this information to the salesman, who then knows to what extent credit should be allowed.

Thus the wholesale merchant is enabled to sell only to those retail merchants whose credit is good, largely eliminating the chances of financial loss from the sale of goods to merchants whose credit is poor, or dishonest buyers who buy unduly large quantities of certain goods that they cannot sell.

It may readily be seen, therefore, that the benefits of conducting a centralized credit control are many. Such an arrangement delivers to one center the buying intelligence of the entire methods of the buyer, and establishes a central point at which the current transactions of the buyer are viewed and impartially judged.

That this service by telephone is held to be important by manufacturers of women's wear is shown by the fact that more than 10,000 credit inquiries are received by telephone each month, and as the average account approximates $900 it is thus apparent that there passed on monthly amount to $3,000,000 and annually $36,000,000.

Poor Spelling of Public Makes Work For "Information."

The difficulty of the man to whom the dictionary was recommended as a cure for bad spelling and who complained that he couldn't find a word unless he knew how to spell it is encountered every day by telephone users. The Telephone Review, N. Y., calls attention to the fact that many "information" calls are received for names already printed in the directory, simply because people do not know the correct spelling of the name and consequently are unable to find it in the directory.

One subscriber confessed to having searched the entire list of "A's" for "Estes." Another failed to find his friend "Doerkin" pronounced Durfee. Difficulty was encountered with such names as the following:

Burns	Byrnes
White	Whyte
Spear	Spier
Riley	Reilly
Stevenson	Stephenson
Meyer	Myer	Meier
Cramer	Kramer	Kreamer
Kaiser	Keiser	Keyser

Considerable difficulty was also met in locating "Sceery" and "Vescellies."

A GOOD WINTER HABIT

Many people dread winter because the sudden climatic changes bring colds, grippe, rheumatism, tonsilitis or bronchitis. But thousands of well-informed men and women today avoid much sickness for themselves and their children by taking a few bottles of Scott's Emulsion to make richer blood, fortify the membranes of the throat and chest and create body-warmth to resist sickness. VIRGINIA CARTER LEE

... with this department Miss Lee will kindly answer any inquiry relative to domestic science, a stamped envelope being necessary for a personal reply. Address care of Courier-News.

During the early spring season, it is well to remember that a great number of appetizing and delicious soups can be prepared in ten minutes, and if one works quickly, has everything in readiness and does the actual cooking on a gas stove, in even less time.

The careful caterer will find, by preparing menus ahead and studying what can be used to advantage from day to day, a housekeeper's task of knowing "what to have" is simplified to an extent not to be realized by one who has not tried this method.

Vegetables left from the day before, a little boiled rice taken from the previous day's dessert, or the breakfast cereal before adding any sugar, cold gravy of almost any kind, pieces of broken bread (cut into tiny squares and toasted, when the oven happens to be hot), all these can be used in making quick soups and should be carefully put away for use the next day.

In a well-reculated kitchen, beef extract is always to be found. Stock cannot always be kept on hand, especially in a very small family, but with the extract, or the ever-ready bouillion cubes on hand, the basis of a good soup is always in readiness.

There are many condiments to be found at the grocery store that are of untold value in seasoning and flavoring soups. Purchase paprika in preference to plain pepper, as it is a mild, sweet sort of red pepper, and onion salt, like celery salt, can be bought in the small shaker bottles, doing away with the necessity of boiling the onion and straining the soup afterwards.

Kitchen bouquet, Worcestershire sauce, walnut and mushroom catsup, as well as the plain tomato variety, are all recommended as giving delicious seasonings, while a tiny pinch of curry powder, or sweet herbs, is not to be despised when a highly flavored soup is desired.

If a cream soup is to be made, always rinse out the saucepan and leave a gill or two of water in the bottom, so that the milk will not scorch or stick to the bottom of the pan, making its cleansing a difficult matter. When doubtful as to the addition of milk to any vegetable soup, like tomato, add a generous pinch of baking soda to the vegetable to prevent it from curdling when blended with the milk.

The thick soups should be served for luncheon, since they are almost a "ration" in themselves, and must never be followed by a hearty meat dish. Potato soup is easily made, inexpensive and nutritious. Place some milk over the fire in a covered saucepan, adding a little vermicelli and onion juice, or grated onion. Heat in boiling water some cold, cooked potatoes. When they are very soft, pass them through a sieve or potato ricer and add to the milk when it boils. Let the soup boil for three minutes, then strain again, pressing as much of the vegetable through as possible, and reheat with a generous piece of butter. After seasoning with salt, paprika and celery salt, serve very hot with saltines or croutons. If this soup is properly made it will not require thickening, but if too thin, blend in a little flour, mixed to a paste with cold water. Be sure that the soup boils after the thickening is added. Cold, mashed potatoes may be utilized in the same way.

When the vegetable that forms the foundation of a soup must be cooked, chop finely and it will cook very quickly. Brown gravy and browned flour help to give a rich color to the soup, as does the kitchen bouquet and beef extract, while cream soups can be colored in various ways, using a little minced spinach or beet juice for either green or red soups.

The usual amount of soup for a family of five persons is one quart, but when it forms the principal course, say for luncheon, a little more than this amount should be provided.

Of the thinner varieties of soup, celery and tomato bouillon, julienne and clear beef broth, with the addition of cooked sago, rice or macaroni, are all excellent and with the ever-ready supplies already mentioned, they may be made almost as soon as the "kettle boils."

SQUANK AND THE MOURNFUL MONOBOOBOO

One day as little Squank, the favorite goblin of the Fairy Queen Esmeralda, was in the Court garden gathering honey-dew for supper he came upon the Queen sitting alone in sadness.

"Oh, Queen!" cried little Squank, "why art thou so sorrowful?"

"I am grieving about the Mournful Monobooboo, my neighbor, who rules the country beyond Purple Forest. She spends her whole time the livelong day in weeping and wailing. She sheds so many tears that she uses up forty-seven handkerchiefs a day and everything about her mansion is damp."

"But why does she weep and wail?" asked Squank.

"Nobody knows, and I don't believe she knows herself. She has everything on earth that her heart can wish. She has only to express a desire for her multitude of faithful servants and her host of loving subjects to gratify it. Yet she mourns day and night."

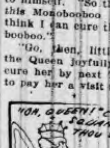
"And what does she do with herself for occupation?" asked Squank.

"She doesn't do a single thing. She doesn't have to. Everything is done for her."

"Oh, ho!" chuckled little Squank to himself. "So that's the way with this Monobooboo person, is it? I think I can cure this weeping Monobooboo."

"Go, then, little Squank," cried the Queen joyfully, "and do try to cure her by next Thursday. I have to pay her a visit then, and it's simply awful to have to sleep and try to make yourself agreeable to one who insists on being miserable."

Away flew little Squank, mounted on the swiftest dragon-fly in his stable, and soon came to the mansion of the Mournful Monobooboo. He found her sitting on the back steps weeping bitterly. A long line of maids stood holding fresh pocket handkerchiefs for her and crying themselves, for it wasn't considered courteous to be cheerful in the presence of the Mournful Monobooboo.



"Why do you weep, Mournful Monobooboo?" asked little Squank.

"Because I'm so unhappy?" wailed the Mournful Monobooboo.

"But why are you unhappy?" Squank then asked. "You have nineteen lovely children with three nurses apiece for them, and you've fifteen cooks and seventeen housemaids and a Prime Minister to look after the government and countless subjects who love you dearly, and you have——"

"Ye—yes, yes, I know!" interrupted the Mournful Monobooboo. "But the children might get sick, and then, with three nurses apiece, there would be three times the chance for a nurse to give one of them the wrong medicine, and there are fifteen chances that one of the cooks will burn the dinner, and—and—oh! I'm so miserable—boohoo-boohoo!" and she burst into fresh floods of tears, while the maids rushed up with dry handkerchiefs.

Chuckling to himself, little Squank slipped away, and, putting spurs to his dragon-fly, hastened to the King of the Goblins.

"Ho!" he cried, "send a host of goblins to the mansion of the Mournful Monobooboo tonight and have them carry away the seventeen housemaids and the fifteen cooks and all the nursemaids except one little girl and the Prime Minister, and all the butlers and other servants."

"It shall be done," cried the King, and, blowing his horn, he summoned a host of goblins. And that night while the Mournful Monobooboo lay moaning in her sleep the goblins came and did as Squank had asked, leaving no one but the little nurse girl.

Now, when the Mournful Monobooboo arose next morning she started to weeping right away, but soon missing the breakfast that was always brought to her, she began to grow hungry and called for her maids to bring it. But no maid came. Much puzzled, she went to the kitchen, but not a cook was there. Just then she heard the nineteen children clamoring for breakfast.

"My, my," exclaimed the Mournful Monobooboo, "I'll have to put off my regular 9 o'clock weeping spell and get breakfast for myself and the babies." She hung aside her handkerchiefs and tied on an apron and soon was busy as a bee getting breakfast. Little Squank, who was watching from behind the door, chuckled gleefully and hurried away to Esmeralda.

"Oh, Queen!" he cried in delight, "I'm no doctor, but I've cured the Mournful Monobooboo. You can pay your visit next Thursday in comfort."

When next Thursday the Queen went to see the Mournful Monobooboo she heard her upstairs singing merrily.

"Come right up, Esmeralda," she called to the Queen as she leaned over the bannisters. "I haven't time to come down."

The Queen ran up the stairs and found her with a towel tied around her head busily sweeping and making up the children's beds, while she sang joyfully. "How are you, Mournful Monobooboo?" asked the Queen.

"I'm not the Mournful Monobooboo any more," was the laughing answer. "I haven't got time to be. I'm the Merry Minnehaha now. All my servants disappeared last week, and now I have so much to do, looking after the children and taking care of the house and all, that it keeps me on the go all day long. I haven't shed a tear for ever so long, and the children have taken all my handkerchiefs to make doll clothes. Now come down and see what a nice luncheon I can fix up."

As the Queen flew homeward after a delightful visit to the Merry Minnehaha she met little Squank.

"Oh, little Squank," she exclaimed, "How did you cure her?"

"Well, I'm no doctor," answered Squank. And he told the Queen how he had taken away all the servants and completed the Mournful Monobooboo to get busy.

"For," remember, Oh, Queen!" he said, "that no one who is idle can be happy and no one who is kept busy can be miserable."

Will You Be a Foster Father or a Foster Mother?

A little Belgian child awaits your answer.

That child is hungry.

Will you agree to pay one dollar each month for one year, and thus become a Foster Parent?

Each dollar will lift the misery from the heart of a little child for a whole month. It will provide an extra biscuit and a cup of cocoa once a day.

You would not refuse such aid to a child if it were at your door. Your heart would forbid. To subscribe to this "Child Relief" is not Charity merely—it is just plain humanity to do so.

Plainfield children would not consider this cocoa and biscuit to be a meal. But how eagerly these little Belgians regard it you never can know. Here in our city of plenty, the intensity and the urgency of need can hardly be conceived.

There can be no worthier occasion for the rich to give abundantly from their abundance, or for the humble to spare something of their smaller portion.

What have you done to help? What more will you do?

No donation, no matter how small, will fail to bring joy to a helpless child, a little being too young to understand anything about war except the horror of it all.

Committees are working in nearly every city, town and village to assume the care of all the children in a stated Belgian town. To Plainfield will be assigned a town. Let us make it a big town, and a happy town.

Every cent contributed goes for food.

Cut out this coupon. Fill in the sum your heart dictates, and send to Mr. C. B. Tyler, Treasurer, 525 West Seventh St., Plainfield, N. J.

JR. O. U. A. M. OFFERS SERVICES TO COUNTRY

The New Jersey Uniformed Rank of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, 1,400 strong, which includes Company H, of Plainfield, is at the disposal of the United States. Tender of the services of the organization for war was made Saturday night in a telegram sent President Wilson by representatives of the five regiments in the State. In addition to these there are two provisional regiments, which will be mustered in at once.

The First Regiment of New Jersey has its headquarters at 434 Plane street, Newark. Colonel C. J. Clark is commanding officer. The commander-in-chief of the State is Samuel Harker. Scenes of wild enthusiasm attended the adoption of a resolution providing that the uniformed rank offer to enlist. A vote on the resolution was taken shortly before 10 o'clock Saturday night, and every man voted favorably on the proposal. Deafening cheers greeted the announcement that the vote was unanimously in favor of war service. The meeting was the most remarkable in the history of the order.

In the event the reply received from the President calls the men to volunteer for service, the regiments will be mobilized in Newark.

The regiments of the order and their headquarters are as follows: First, Newark; Second, Dover; Third, Jersey City; Fourth, Elizabeth; Fifth, Paterson; Sixth, Trenton; Seventh, Camden.

Hoover Commission Receives $100,000 and Reassuring Letter from Foundation

LOCAL CONTRIBUTORS

Plainfield Branch of Relief Society Receives Many Additional Contributions for Support of 10,000,000 Sufferers

So much anxiety has been felt regarding the work of the Hoover Commission that the following note sent the Commission by George Vincent, president of the Rockefeller Foundation, with the $100,000 gift for the Belgians, is very reassuring:

"New York, April 4, 1917.

"W. L. Honnold, director commission for relief in Belgium.

"Dear Mr. Honnold:—The Executive Committee of the Rockefeller Foundation appropriated yesterday the sum of $100,000 to be made immediately available for the work of the Commission for Relief in Belgium. The Foundation has complete confidence in the efficiency of the work which you are doing, and is impressed with its vital importance. To provide an extra ration for Belgian children is so important a work that it cannot fail to appeal to the American public.

"At a time when so few agencies can guarantee the distribution of aid to war sufferers, the American public will undoubtedly appreciate the opportunity which your organization offers for the expression of sympathy and the giving of assistance.

"Yours sincerely,

"George E. Vincent,

"President."

Moreover, the Commission itself has issued during the past month some statements designed to correct any false impressions.

Each boat that sails is fully covered by marine insurance so that the monetary loss is fully protected.

The actual supervision of relief in Belgium and Northern France will pass into the kindly and competent hands of Hollanders trained to the task. The work, growing every day more vital, of collecting the money, buying and transporting the supplies, will continue to be done by the Commission.

What is most to be feared is a failure to supply the money to buy and ship the food.

MUSICAL CLUB ENJOYS CHARMING PROGRAM

Mrs. Henry L. DeForest, of 955 Hillside avenue, entertained the Musical Club at her home yesterday afternoon when more than one hundred members and friends enjoyed a delightful program of varied numbers by talented artists.

Those who presented the program were Mrs. John Miles, of Philadelphia, violinist; Miss Laura Tappan, of New York, and Mrs. Henry L. De Forest, 'cellists. There were six regular numbers chosen from the works of well-known composers in addition to a number of encores to which the artists responded.

Yesterday's affair was one of a series which has been arranged by the club for the early spring months.

JOINT CONCERT WAS DELIGHTFUL

Given by Evan Williams and Edith Rubel Trio, in High School Last Night

A LARGE AUDIENCE

It Was Given Under the Auspices of the Plainfield Dental Society for the Benefit of the Hospital Clinic

With a program combining the various features from the dainty to the dramatic and all delightfully musical, the joint concert by Evan Williams, tenor, and the Edith Rubel Trio, was presented last night, in the Plainfield high school, to a large audience, under the auspices of the Plainfield Dental Society. The long list of patronesses gave assurance beforehand that the concert would be of special merit, and so it proved, gaining in favor as it proceeded.

With one exception the titles were all in English, but the music was selected from some of the composers of classic fame. The selections mostly were short and thus the program was given variety. Groups of selections by the Trio were specially pleasing, rendered by Miss Edith Rubel, violin; Miss Marie Romeaet, 'cello, and Miss Brenda Putnam, pianist. Their longest selection was the theme and variations from the Trio in A-minor, by Tschaikowski, which was very much enjoyed. The number "All Through the Night" in which the 'cello was prominent, "Farewell," "The Little Shepherdess," and "An Old Irish Tune" were very popular with the audience, and brought out an encore. They had been there to see about getting a position where he could familiarize himself with the mechanism of aeroplanes, with a view to joining that branch of the army service.

Mr. Williams' first number was a group from Handel, and the selection "Sound an Alarm," with a touch of the dramatic, brought him an encore, to which he responded with "All the World Loves a Lover." In his second group of four, comprising "The Monotone," "Songs My Mother Taught Me," by Dvorak"; "A Swan," by Grieg, and "The Message," by Brahms, he felt the enthusiasm of the audience, and entered more heartily into the program. Persistent applause brought him out again, and he responded with "Sweet Miss Mary." The audience would not let him go, and he responded with "A Perfect Day," which has made his name popular on the Victor records. In his concluding group of four selections "Murmuring Zephyrs" was a pleasing one, but perhaps "The Spirit Song" by Haydn was his best. After the selection "Wind and Lyre" he was recalled twice and responded with "Open the Gates of the Temple" and "The Four Leaf Clover."

The accompanist for Mr. Williams was Harry L. Gilbert.

The program throughout was thoroughly enjoyed, but had to rely upon its merits, since this was the first appearance of Mr. Williams or the Trio in this city, and the enthusiasm they aroused was genuine, since they had no previous experience here to depend on. Mr. Williams has a most pleasing voice, of excellent quality, which has been sought and been very much occupied in making records.

EMPLOYES PRESENT FLAG TO WALTER SCOTT & CO.

Walter Scott & Co. were agreeably surprised today when their employes presented them with a large American flag. The company had just decided to order a flag to be raised on their factory, so that coming at this time, this generous gift and show of patriotism on the part of the employes is especially appreciated. The presentation was made by Fred W. Fleming, representing the shop employes and as a demonstration of their patriotism.

The Scott Company is selecting a suitable location for the new flag and will at once make arrangements to have it properly displayed. A formal flag-raising exercise will be held at noon within the next few days.

The speakers, Michael J. Hickey, head of the National Industrial Conservation Movement, and Ellis L. Howland, journalist, lecturer and special representative of the Conservation Movement, will be introduced by Judge William T. Newcorn, president of the Board of Trade. CHILD AT PLAY INJURED BY AUTO

Jennie Kogh Stumbled and Fell, Striking Car in East Second Street

While playing in East Second street near Church street at 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Jennie Kogh, eight years old, of 304 East Front street, rushed across the street from behind a wagon going east, stumbled and fell, and her head struck the rear wheel of an automobile owned and driven by Elmer E. Childs, of Lyons Station, which was going west. Her skull was fractured.

The accident was witnessed by several men working in Bartle's stone yard, and they say that Mr. Childs was not to blame. Mr. Childs placed the little girl in his automobile and took her to the office of Dr. Albert Plitz, in East Front street. Dr. Plitz ordered her sent to the hospital.

At noon today it was said that although her condition is serious there is a possibility that she may recover.

Mr. Childs is a son of Luther Childs, and a nephew of former Senator Samuel S. Childs, of Somerset County. After taking the injured girl to the hospital he went to police headquarters where he was arraigned before Judge DeMeza on a technical charge of assault.

Upon motion of Counselor Charles A. Reed, an old friend, furnished bail in the sum of $300.

Mr. Childs went to Europe when the war broke out and was a driver in the American Ambulance Corps in Serbia. He was captured by the Germans and after a period in a detention camp was allowed to return to America.

He was returning from the Standard Aeroplane Company's plant yesterday afternoon when the accident occurred. He had been there

COUNCIL LOYAL TO PRESIDENT

Adopts Resolution Offered by Councilman Sminck of the First Ward

The patriotism and loyalty of the Plainfield Common Council were expressed in a resolution adopted last night, a copy of which will be forwarded to the President today. The resolution, which was offered by Councilman Smnuck of the First ward, is as follows:

"Whereas, After a long period of defiant affronts and a denial and an invasion of the time-honored sovereignty of the United States, together with a threat to divide our territory on the part, not of the people of Germany, but by the Imperial Government of Germany, it has become absolutely necessary, as a matter of self-preservation and defense, for the Congress of the United States to declare and acknowledge the state of war unfortunately thrust upon us by the Imperial Government of Germany; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, By the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Plainfield that we pledge our unstinted support and devotion to the President and Congress of the United States; and be it further

"Resolved, That we declare that Government by the people, as given and dedicated to the people by the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, has been an inspiration for individual opportunity and liberty throughout the world and that the flag of the United States represents the hope, the faith and the aspirations of the people and is the direct opposite of the standard of any monarchy; and be it further

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Common Council and a copy forwarded to the President of the United States."

SNEDEKER PAYS WIFE'S FUNERAL EXPENSES

In the City Court this morning, Alfred Snedecker was arraigned on a charge of the Overseer of the Poor that he refused to pay the expense of burying his wife who died in the Burn Sanitorium last week.

Judge De Meza directed that Snedecker be committed to the county jail until the burial expenses are paid. Snedecker communicated with friends and the amount of the expenses were paid. He was then released.

ROGER D. MELLICK WEDS MISS GINNA

Rev. Dr. Zelie Performs Ceremony at Home of Bride's Mother This Afternoon

The marriage of Miss Catherine Ginna, daughter of Mrs. Daniel F. Ginna, to Roger Drew Mellick, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Mellick, took place this afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, on Watchung avenue. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony in the presence of about 150 guests, including relatives and intimate friends.

The bride was gowned in white satin, trimmed with old lace, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and white lilacs. She was attended by Miss Katherine Drayton, of this city, as maid of honor, whose gown was of cream lace over pink. She carried an arm shower bouquet of spring flowers.

The best man was J. Hartley Mellick, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were: Arthur C. Crandon, of St. Louis; Stanley W. Burke, Thomas M. Day, 3d, and John C. Martin, all of this city. The bride was given in marriage by her mother.

Following the ceremony there was a reception. Those who received with the newly-wedded couple were Mrs. Daniel F. Ginna, Mrs. Erickson Perkins, of Rochester, N. Y., Miss Ginna's aunt; Mr. and Mrs. George P. Mellick, Miss Drayton. During the reception a bridal supper was served in the flower room.

Miss Ginna and Mr. Mellick originally planned to be married in October, but the fact that the latter is a member of Troop D, First Squadron, N. J. Cavalry, holding the office of sergeant, and owing to the present international crisis, the date was changed to today. Miss Ginna is prominent in the younger society set as is also Mr. Mellick. The latter represents the New York brokerage firm of Carlisle, Mellick & Co., New York, on the Stock Exchange, his father being a member of that firm.

Miss Ginna has received a large collection of both valuable and useful gifts from relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Mellick will leave early this evening on a wedding trip and their future plans will be dependent to a large extent on whether Mr. Mellick is called into active service.

FIRE WHISTLE ON POND TOOL WORKS

To Be Used as Signal for Defense League—Mayor is Grateful

Mayor Calkins announces that through the courtesy and public spirit of the officials of the Niles-Bement-Pond company, he has obtained for the Home Defense League a signal system which will be of the greatest value in aiding quick mobilization.

The Pond Company has, at the Mayor's request, installed in the old fire whistle at its plant and is privately connected by direct wire with police headquarters.

In case of emergency or disorder of any kind, signal will be given which will bring the police and Defense League out at any time of day or night. A separate signal will bring out the old call men of the Fire Department if the Fire Chief requires their assistance.

The Mayor announces further that the whistle will be tested every morning at 7:30 o'clock, and the public will take notice that the blowing of the whistle at that hour is not a signal.

The Mayor feels that the public is under great obligation to the Pond Company, which has installed the whistle without expense to the city, and will operate it as long as may be necessary without charge for the service. The Pond Company in addition has made a very generous contribution to the treasury of the Defense League.
